A report from the ad interim Committee on the Hymn Book was read, and the Assembly ordered that said report and all papers on the same subject be referred to a special committee.

A report from the ad interim committee to correspond with the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System was read and adopted, and is as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session in Atlanta, Ga., May, 1900:

The committee appointed by the General Assembly in New Orleans in 1898 (see Minutes, p. 228) to correspond with the Western Section of the "Alliance of Reformed Churches Throughout the World, Holding the Presbyterian System," and to notify the delegates of their appointment to the Council to meet in Washington city, D. C., September 27, 1899, with authority to fill any vacancies in the list of delegates, respectfully report that they discharged the duties assigned to them. Such information as they could obtain was furnished the delegates by letter or through church papers, and after filling vacancies as they occurred, secured the attendance at the Council of the following named delegates:

Ruling Elders*—Chancellor R. B. Fulton, LL. D., Prof. W. M. Graybill, J. D. McIver, Esq., Prof. A. L. Nelson, John M. Brooks, Esq.

It will be seen from the above that thirty-two of the thirty-four delegates to which this church was entitled were present; the other two were prevented at the last moment from coming, and it was too late to supply their places. The Rev. J. V. McCall, who was appointed in the room of Rev. W. M. Anderson, D. D., yielded the place to the latter upon his appearing later in the session of the Council.

G. W. FINLEY, Chairman.

A report from the delegates to the Alliance was put upon the docket, to be considered next Monday at 11 o'clock A. M. in connection with the address of the representative of the Alliance.

The ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund presented a report, which was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Home Missions.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported appointments for the Lord's Day.

The Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

For the purpose of engaging in devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. Geo. L. Petrie, D. D., the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Moderator announced the following Special Committee on the report of the ad interim Committee on the Hymn Book: T. M. Hawes, R. C. Anderson, C. T. Caldwell, G. G. Sydnor, J. C. Williams, Joseph Hardie, Donald McQueen, G. E. King, J. S. Munce, E. L. Siler, J. S. Rea.

The Stated Clerk read the following telegraphic salutation from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

ST. LOUIS, MO., May 19, 1900.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Atlanta, Ga.:

The General Assembly in session at St. Louis, Mo., cordially reciprocates your fraternal greetings. See Ephesians vi. 23.

CHARLES A. DICKEY, Moderator.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The overture from the Presbytery of Norfolk touching the publishing in detail the expenses of the executive committees was transferred from the Standing Committee of Publication to the Standing Committee of Foreign Missions.

The Assembly adjourned till Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. John W. Davis, D. D.

FOURTH DAY.

MAY 21, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Ruling Elder C. A. Bridewell.

The minutes of Saturday's sessions were read, corrected and approved.

The Judicial Committee had leave to retire. Ruling Elder C. H. Broom was assigned to said committee.

The overture from the Presbytery of Brazos on the name of the Invalid Fund was transferred from the Committee on Systematic Beneficence to the Committee of Home Missions.

Overtures were received as follows: From Robert C. Osborne, touching amendment to paragraph 104 Book of Church Order; referred to the Committee of Bills and Overtures. From M. C. Taylor, touching admission of divorced persons to church membership; referred to the Committee of Bills and Overtures. From W. E. Shive and W. M. Kilpatrick, as to "elect infants"; referred to the Committee of Bills and Overtures.

The Annual Report of the Board of Directors of Louisville Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The order of the day, the consideration of the Report on Church and Christian Education, was postponed, and a partial report from the Judicial Committee was received, adopted, and is as follows:

There has been placed in the hands of your committee a complaint by Rev. J. S. Shaw, a minister of the Presbytery of Central Texas, against the Synod of Memphis. This complaint is found in order, except that it is addressed to the General Assembly, not directly, but through the Stated Clerk of the Synod of Memphis. Your committee recommend that this slight irregularity be overlooked, and that the complaint be heard—the following order to be observed:

1. "The record of the case" shall be read.
2. The complainant shall be heard.
3. The respondent shall be heard.
4. The complainant shall be heard again.
5. The court shall then consider and decide the case.

The complainant cannot be present in person, and asks that the Assembly appoint one of its members to represent him. Your committee recommend that this request be granted, and that Rev. G. A. Blackburn be appointed.

There has also been placed in the hands of your committee an argument in support of his complaint by Rev. J. S. Shaw. We recommend that this be placed in the hands of the person appointed to represent Mr. Shaw to be used by him as he may see fit.

Your committee further recommend that the hearing of this complaint be made the first order of the afternoon session of the Assembly on Monday next, and that each party be granted one hour and a half in which to present the case.

Your committee find that in order to a proper understanding of the case it will be necessary for the Assembly to have before it, in addition to the "record of the case," as furnished by the Stated Clerk of the Synod of Memphis, the minutes of North Mississippi Presbytery of the date of October 19, 1899, as recorded on page 67.

We recommend, therefore, that the General Assembly authorize the committee to present this minute as a part of the "record of the case."

The Rev. C. N. Van Houten was also appointed to represent the complainant. The parties in the case having declined to submit its decision to a commission, its adjudication was made the order of the day for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A communication from the Mayor of Fort Worth, Texas, and an invitation from the First Church, Little Rock, Ark., touching the meeting of the next Assembly were read and put upon the docket.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures made a partial report, as follows:

1. Recommending that the Assembly answer in the negative the overture of Angus Johnson, asking the repeal of the law requiring ministers to sign the obligation set forth in paragraph 76, Book of Church Order. The recommendation was adopted.
2. Recommending that the overture from Joseph K. Rankin, through Presbytery of Mecklenburg, asking the removal from the Book of Church Order of all presbyterial distinctions between teaching and ruling elders, be answered in the negative. The answer was put upon the docket.
3. Recommending that, in answer to the overture from Charleston Presbytery, asking an in thesi deliverance on the scriptural doctrine of teaching and ruling elders, the Assembly reply that the Book of Church Order is sufficiently clear on this point. The recommendation was adopted.
4. Recommending that the overture from the Presbytery of Albemarle, asking that the fiscal year be made to begin January 1st, instead of April 1st, be answered in the negative. The recommendation was adopted.
5. Recommending that, in answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Enoree, asking the repeal of the action of the Assembly of 1899, which vests in the Moderator alone the authority to convene the Presbytery in an extraordinary emergency, the Assembly reply in the negative. The answer was put upon the docket.

6. Recommending that the Assembly answer in the negative the overture from the Presbytery of Nashville, asking the Assembly to request the ministers and churches to discuss the binding obligation of the tithe law. The answer was put upon the docket.

It was made the third order of the day for Tuesday morning to consider the report on Church and Christian Education.

The overtures from Nashville and Norfolk Presbyteries in reference to fixing the salaries of the Assembly's secretaries and other paid officers were transferred from the Committee of Foreign Missions to the Committee of Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day, the consideration of the report of the delegates to the Alliance of Reformed Churches and the hearing of the address of the Rev. Dr. R. H. Fleming, the representative of the Alliance. The report was adopted, and the address was referred to the Committee of Foreign Correspondence for suitable response. The following is the report:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session in Atlanta, Ga., May, 1900:

At a meeting of the delegates from this church to the "Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World, Holding the Presbyterian System," held in Washington, D. C., September 27, 1899, the undersigned were appointed a committee to report to this Assembly upon that Council. In discharging that duty, we respectfully submit the following:

There were in attendance upon the Council two hundred and fifty delegates, representing over forty different churches in parts of Asia, Africa, Australia, Europe, and North and South America. A full representation would have given about three hundred and fifty delegates from eighty-seven churches, comprising five million communicants, and about twenty-five million adherents, in about thirty countries. Among those present were many men highly distinguished in their own and other lands. Speaking generally, the body impressed us as strong and conservative, devoted to the Great Head of the church, and with kindly fraternal feeling for each other, and a spirit which manifestly, while holding firmly to "the old paths"—to "the faith once delivered to the saints"—still sought to meet, with aggressive steps and methods, the demands of the present.

Now and then, as might have been expected in any body composed of men from distant and different parts of the world, there came expressions of views and tendencies of thought and action that fell painfully upon the ears of Southern Presbyterians; but unquestionably the large majority of the Council and of the churches represented in it stood for sound doctrine, as was shown and emphasized by the general favor with which the noble sermon of Dr. DeWitt at the opening was received, despite some dissent audible in and out of the Council.

Among the numerous and important subjects that occupied the attention of the Council, a notable interest—we might say enthusiasm—was manifested in Foreign Missions, to which, no doubt, the presence and address of the venerable Dr. John G. Paton, of the New Hebrides, largely contributed. The strong and direct influence of the Alliance upon the development of the spirit of comity and co-operation among the churches in the foreign fields, and thereby producing greater efficiency and economy in men and means employed to extend the kingdom of Christ among the heathen, was clearly brought out.

The addresses and discussions also showed that along the same lines something had been accomplished in Home Mission and evangelistic work in the United States and Canada, and also among the Waldenses and in France. The outlook for advance in such comity and co-operation is more and more hopeful, as the principles and aims of the Alliance are better understood and its methods followed.

If no other reasons could be given for the existence and continuance of the Alliance, the results already achieved, and the rich promise of still greater, through the influence of the body upon Home and Foreign Missions, ought to vindicate its right to be, and to justify its continued existence. The Sabbath and Sunday-schools received marked and earnest attention, and the papers and discussions regarding them were stimulating and hopeful.

We note another, to us particularly gratifying, characteristic of the Council, as shown in two directions—

(1) The watchful jealousy against any departure from that fundamental principle of the Alliance which leaves to each church the absolute freedom of its judicatories from any control or interference by the Council over or with its internal affairs. The utmost care was taken to maintain this principle, so vital to the existence of the Alliance.

(2) The emphasis in word and action put upon the principle of non-interference by the church of Christ in civil affairs. In one notable instance the Council found great relief by resorting to that principle when a very delicate matter was thrust upon it, which threatened to provoke heated controversy and seriously to disturb the harmony of the body.

Some dissatisfaction and not a little disappointment was felt and expressed with the proceedings of the Council, because of a too crowded programme, and a too rigid, though not altogether impartial, adherence to it. In the judgment of not a few there were too many formal papers, with too much attention to subjects, historical and other, belonging to the past, to the exclusion of fresh and vital questions of the day, and thus limiting unduly the time for discussion of topics presented. Happily a discussion upon "Increasing the Efficiency of the Alliance," secured by and taking its tone and form largely from an honored delegate from this church—the Rev. Dr. F. R. Beattie—led to provision for such changes in programmes for future Councils as will remove the grounds for such dissatisfaction as was above mentioned; for it is believed they will secure the three things suggested, and so ably advocated by Dr. Beattie, viz.:

(1) More publicity to the preparations for the work of the Council.

(2) Greater elasticity and spontaneity in the actual proceedings of the Council.

(3) More courage and a wider outlook in regard to the living issues of the day which confront the churches.

It will, no doubt, gratify this Assembly to know that the church it represents was enabled to make herself felt all through the proceedings of the Council.

To her were assigned two subjects on the programme ably presented by Drs. G. B. Strickler and W. McF. Alexander. Another of her ministers was chosen to preside over one of the sessions of the Council—a duty, it is needless to say, admirably discharged by the Rev. Dr. Samuel A. King.

On the large "Business Committee," to which the difficult and often delicate duty of determining and shaping the business of the Council was entrusted, this Assembly had three representatives, one of whom, the Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, was honored with the chairmanship of that committee, and by his ability, tact and good humor contributed largely to the pleasant and orderly progress of the business, and the conclusions reached by the Council.

In the discussions upon various subjects representatives of this Assembly were heard with marked attention, as they showed that their church stood in that body for something definite in doctrine, polity and work.

It is known to many members of this Assembly that for several years past there has been dissatisfaction with not a few among us in regard to the expenses of the Alliance, and especially to the amount apportioned annually to the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

It was thought that she was called to pay an undue proportion of that expense, and that the outlay was too great for the good accomplished. The Assembly made at least two efforts to bring this matter to the attention of the Alliance, and at New Orleans, in 1898, directed its representatives in the Western Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance to secure relief from what was regarded as an unjust burden. They did so, and a plan was proposed by the Western Section to the Council, which was referred to the Business Committee, and by it carefully considered, with the result that it was recommended to the Council to commit the whole subject of representation and apportionment to both Eastern and Western Sections of the Executive Commission "for consideration and adjustment."

From careful examination into this matter, and conference with both of the secretaries of the Alliance, as well as with representative delegates from other churches, together with correspondence with the Hon. George Junkin, treasurer of the Western Section, we are satisfied that the discontent on this whole matter has grown out of the want of full knowledge of the facts in the case, and that no adequate grounds exist for the opinion that this Assembly has been unfairly or unjustly treated in the matter of representation and apportionment of annual expenses.

The facts as given in a joint letter from the secretary (Dr. Roberts) and treasurer of the Western, or American, Section are these:

The present arrangement for meeting the expenses of the Alliance went into operation in October, 1888. The plan adopted was to divide the general expenses between the Eastern and Western Sections, and to add a sum for the local expenses of each section. One-half of the general expenses of the Alliance for each year was ascertained to be about $2,000, the Western Section added for local expenses the sum of $1,000. This total of $3,000 was divided among the churches of the Western Section in proportion to the number of delegates appointed by each church to the meetings of Council at the rate of $15 for each delegate. From the Manual of the Alliance (page 20), it will be seen that the "basis of representation" was fixed so that there would be "for each hundred congregations, or less, two delegates up to 1,000 congregations; above 1,000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 100 up to 2,000 congregations; above 2,000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 250 congregations."

The Southern Presbyterian Church on this basis was given 32 delegates and the sum of $480 per annum was apportioned, which is $15x32=$480. This apportionment has remained unchanged, and the result for the eleven years ending with October, 1899, would make the total apportionments to this Assembly $5,280; but the actual payments for that period amount to but $3,376, leaving a balance unpaid of $1,906. It thus appears that even if the $480 annually apportioned was a burden, the church has not borne it, and under the practice of the Western Section is not now held liable for any arrears. While the full apportionment has not been paid, no question has been raised about the sending of the full quota of delegates to the Council; nor have we been able to discover that any other basis of representation and apportionment has been adopted for any other church in the Western Section.

When the work required of the General Secretary, and the expenses incident to his office and that of the American Secretary (the latter serves without salary), with the partial payment of the travelling expenses of the members of the Western Section in attending their meetings, is all considered, we are satisfied that the amount asked of the churches composing the Alliance is not too large to maintain its work upon a proper plane. Nor can we find any disposition to an extravagant use of the money paid in. The Alliance has no debt.

Summing up, we can but express the judgment that the Council as a whole accomplished much good. It was in itself a noble and striking object-lesson, and gives promise of widespread and stronger usefulness in the future.

If we felt that the scope of our duty called for recommendations of any sort, we might suggest a decrease in representation in the Council, so as to make a smaller body, better adapted for deliberation and more easily handled. Inasmuch as its influence is not dependent upon governing, or even advising, the churches constituting it, the more, and better opportunity for, wise and earnest consideration of fresh and living questions would give all the more weight to its deliverances. We believe that, in the providence of God, the Alliance has a great work to do, and ought to be heartily sustained.

Moreover, we are satisfied now that the church this Assembly represents has a special and important place in the Alliance, and should earnestly seek to retain and fill that place.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. FINLEY,
E. M. GREEN,
F. H. JOHNSTON,
Committee.

For the purpose of engaging in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. C. E. Cunningham, D. D., the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

2 P. M.

The Assembly met.

The committees on the records of the Synods of Texas, Kentucky, North Carolina, and Mississippi reported recommending their approval. Adopted.

The report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Memphis was put upon the docket pending the trial of the judicial case.

The Standing Committee of Publication reported recommending that the Assembly answer in the negative the overture from the Presbytery of Brazos asking the institution of circulating libraries. Also, that the same answer be given to the overture from the Presbytery of Wilmington asking a change in the title of the Executive Committee of Publication. Also, that the same answer be given to the overture from the Presbytery of Lexington asking change in the heading of the publication column in the statistical table. Also, that the same answer be given to the overture from the Presbytery of Louisville asking that an alphabetical list of the churches be printed in the Minutes. These answers were adopted, except that to the overture from the Presbytery of Lexington, which was docketed.

The Standing Committee of Publication further recommended that the Assembly reply in the negative to the overture from the Presbytery of Winchester asking the preparation of graded lessons for the home and Sunday-school. The answer was put upon the docket.

The Standing Committee of Bills and Overtures recommended that in answer to the overture from the Presbytery of East Hanover asking that a catechism on the Church and Church Government be prepared the Assembly appoint a committee, with the Rev. Robt. P. Kerr, D. D., as chairman, to prepare such catechism. The recommendation was adopted.*

The Assembly entered upon the trial of the complaint of the Rev. J. S. Shaw vs. the Synod of Memphis. The Moderator charged the court as required by paragraph 183, Book of Church Order. The Assembly was led in prayer, at the Moderator's request, by the Rev. Dr. Petrie. The record of the case was read. The Rev. C. N. Van Houten opened for the complainant. The Rev. T. W. Raymond and the Rev. W. H. Neel, D. D., followed for the Synod. The Rev. C. N. Van Houten closed for the complainant. The roll was called for the expression of opinion, the speakers being limited each to two minutes. The vote was then taken, resulting in 26 to sustain the complaint, 142 not to sustain. The Judicial Committee was directed to bring in a minute expressive of the mind of the Assembly.

* The nomination of this committee was submitted to the Standing Committee on Publication. This committee failed to report names, whereupon the Moderator has since ventered to suggest and appoint the following as the additional members: W. A. Alexander, D. D., F. R. Beattie, D. D., T. C. Johnson, D. D., G. B. Strickler, D. D., W. C. Preston, Esq., and G. L. Christian, Esq. This committee is to "prepare and report to the Assembly a brief catechism on the Nature and Government of the Church, to be submitted to such revision and further preparation as the Assembly may deem necessary in order to secure a catechism on this subject which will be worthy of use in the instruction of adults and of children in the nature and government of the church as set forth in the Holy Scriptures."—Stated Clerk.

8 P. M.

The Assembly, according to order, convened in popular meeting in the interest of Colored Evangelization, the Rev. Donald McQueen in the chair, at the request of the Moderator. The chairman read the Annual Report of the Executive Committee on Colored Evangelization. The report went to the docket. Prayer was offered by the Rev. G. A. Blackburn. The Assembly was addressed by the chairman and by the Rev. D. Clay Lilly, the Secretary of Colored Evangelization, and a memorial of the late Rev. O. B. Wilson, Superintendent of Stillman Institute, was read by the Rev. Theron H. Rice, D. D.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with the benediction by the Rev. D. McQueen.

FIFTH DAY.

MAY 22, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by Ruling Elder Joseph Hardie.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Ruling Elder R. C. Nicholas was assigned to the Standing Committee of Foreign Missions.

The Stated Clerk announced the enrollment of Ruling Elder J. P. Munroe, a commissioner from the Presbytery of Concord.

The Judicial Committee had leave to retire.

It was made the order of the day for Wednesday at 2.30 to consider the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

The ad interim committee to prepare a Pastoral Letter on Worldly Amusements presented a report, which was read and put upon the docket.

The Permanent Committee on the Sabbath presented a report, which was read and referred to the Standing Committee on the Sabbath.

The Special Committee on the Hymn Book had leave to retire.

The Standing Committee on Publication made a report, which was read and put upon the docket.

The Standing Committee on Education for the Ministry made a report, which was read, considered seriatim, amended, and adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

Your committee has examined the minutes of the Executive Committee of Education, together with the Treasurer's report and attached certificates of the Auditing Committee, and also the annual report of the Executive Committee to the General Assembly for the year 1899-1900. The Secretary, at the request of the committee, came before the committee and gave valuable information.

Your committee would also record the fact that friends in Memphis have contributed to the comfort of the Executive Committee, and also financially by furnishing exchange.

The Executive Committee endeavored to raise $30,000 for the work during the year, though failing in this and securing only $18,335.59, still the committee was able to pay all appropriations in full, and report a balance in hand of $1;529.90.

The Standing Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the diligence and fidelity of the Secretary, together with the men associated with him, be commended; that the thanks of the Assembly be heartily given to those banking institutions which have rendered aid, and also to the Treasurer for long and faithful service.

2. That, in view of the decreasing number of candidates for the ministry, your committee suggests the importance of urging upon all churches the duty of seriously looking within their borders to see if there may not be those who are really called of God to preach the word, but who are refusing to respond, and that ministers now in the work be urged to speak of it as the noblest calling God ever offers to men, and urge the "first fruits" in all their fields to inquire of the Lord if he will not honor them by using them in the same work he gave his Son and holy men of old.

3. That the committee be authorized to continue the same appropriation to the candidates, viz.: $75 per year as the maximum, provided the funds in hand justify this amount, and that appropriations be paid to such candidates as are in the advanced classes in institutions approved by their Presbyteries.

4. The following papers have been referred to your committee: An overture from East Alabama Presbytery, asking the General Assembly to unite the cause of Church and Christian Education with that of Education for the Ministry. We recommend that the overture be answered in the negative.

5. An overture from the Presbytery of Columbia to direct the Executive Committee of Education to inform each applicant for aid with the view of engaging in the ministry, that a pledge will be required to give as much as two years immediately after leaving the Theological Seminary to Home Mission work in the bounds of the Presbytery to which the applicant belongs, if required to do so by the Presbytery, and provided that a salary of at least $480 each year be assured. Your committee recommend a negative answer upon the ground that the Presbyteries have the power to require such service in any case where, in their judgment, it is needed.

6. In answer to a paper from the Executive Committee for instructions from the General Assembly as to granting aid to foreign beneficiaries, we recommend that the Assembly give as its judgment that no candidate for the gospel ministry should be aided by the Assembly's committee unless the applicant be regularly and fully endorsed by the session of his church and by his Presbytery, and further, that the sessions and Presbyteries are admonished to exercise great caution and intelligent investigation concerning the needs, motives and character of the applicant, and that the Presbyteries are requested not to receive candidates under their care who have been rejected or dropped by other Presbyteries or ecclesiastical bodies without correspondence with such Presbyteries or bodies.

7. Regarding the overture from West Texas, requesting the General Assembly to make an exception to the general rule regarding a claim of Licentiate Elias Trevino for $25, we recommend that the Committee of Education be instructed to pay said debt according to the pro rata due him as per the distribution to other candidates during the time the said debt was incurred.

8. That the following persons be appointed the Executive Committee of Education for the ministry: Rev. Joseph H. Lumpkin, secretary; G. W. Macrae, treasurer; Rev. Sterling J. Foster, John Johnson, Rev. N. M. Woods, D. D., Rev. William H. Neel, D. D., Rev. Turner A. Wharton, Thomas Welford, S. P. Read, J. S. Devant, C. H. Albright.

Respectfully submitted, J. W. LUPTON, Chairman.

For the purpose of engaging in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. W. E. Cave, D. D., the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

2 P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Standing Committee on Sunday-Schools and Young People's Societies made a report, which was received and put upon the docket.

The report on Church and Christian Education was taken up. The Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., was heard, and, by invitation, the Rev. Dr. F. H. Gaines addressed the Assembly.

Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock this evening.

8 P. M.

According to order, the Assembly convened in popular meeting in the interest of Home Missions. The Rev. W. C. Clark, D. D., presided, at the request of the Moderator. After prayer by the Rev. Dr. W. H. Dodge, the Assembly was addressed by Dr. Clark, followed by representatives of the Home Mission field: Dr. Dodge, of Florida; Ruling Elder H. L. Moseley, of Texas; Rev. J. F. Lloyd, of Indian Territory, and Rev. M. McN. McKay, of Arkansas. A collection, amounting to $336.85 in cash and pledges, was taken.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock A. M.

Closed with the benediction by Dr. Clark.

SIXTH DAY.

May 23, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by the Rev. F. T. McFaden.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were approved.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Publication was made the second order of the day for this afternoon.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a further report, as follows:

7. On the overture from the Presbytery of Suwanee, asking the Assembly to order a meeting of the Synod of Florida, on Tuesday, 7: 30 P. M., before the second Sunday in November, 1900, it is recommended that the Assembly reply in the negative, and call the attention of the Synod of Florida to paragraph 55, Form of Government, as authorizing the Moderator to call a meeting at a suitable time and place. Adopted.

8. On an overture from the Synod of North Carolina, asking the Assembly to interpret paragraph 154, last sentence, with paragraph 128, as to whether or not members of a church may vote by proxy, it is recommended that the Assembly answer that voting by proxy is not allowed. Adopted.

9. On the overture from the Synod of Alabama, and another from Dugald Munroe and others, relative to a quorum of commissions, the record of the same and the scope of their duties, and asking for an ad interim committee to report amendments to the Book of Church Order in this matter, it is recommended that the Assembly appoint an ad interim committee, to whom shall be referred these overtures, and who shall revise section 7 in the Book of Church Order, and report to the next Assembly such amendments as said committee may deem necessary to make the book clear and consistent on these points. Adopted.

10. On the overtures from the Presbyteries of Florida, Suwanee and St. Johns, asking that a quorum of Synod shall be representatives from two Presbyteries instead of from three, as at present, it is recommended that the Assembly send down to the Presbyteries for approval the following amendment to the Book of Church Order, so that paragraph 82, last clause, shall read, "Provided this number include representatives from a majority of the Presbyteries constituting the Synod." Docketed.

11. On the overture from M. C. Taylor, asking the Assembly's judgment as to the propriety of receiving into the church persons divorced under given circumstances, it is recommended that this overture be returned to the sender, and he be advised to seek from his Presbytery the information he desires. This answer was put upon the docket.

12. On overtures from the Synod of Alabama, and the Presbyteries of Memphis and Norfolk respecting scriptural grounds of divorce, remarriage of divorced persons, and the duty of ministers as to officiating at such remarriages, it is recommended that the Assembly call attention to the teaching of God's word upon this subject. The only grounds upon which divorce can be rightfully obtained are adultery, and such wilful desertion as can in no way be remedied by the church or civil magistrate. (See Matthew v. 31, 32, and xix. 9, and 1 Corinthians vii. 15. See Confession of Faith, Chap. XXIV., Secs. 5 and 6.) It naturally follows that the innocent party in cases of divorce granted upon such grounds has the scriptural right to contract another marriage; and the Assembly takes this occasion to admonish our ministers to watch carefully for the purity of our families, and to officiate only at the marriage of innocent parties. This answer was put upon the docket.

13. On the overture from W. E. Shive and W. M. Kilpatrick, asking that the Confession of Faith, Chap. IX., Par. 3, be amended so as to read, "All dying in infancy are elect infants, and are regenerated," etc., it is recommended that the prayer of the overture be declined, inasmuch as the present language of the Confession cannot, by any fair interpretation, be construed to teach that any of those who die in infancy are lost. Adopted.

14. On an overture from Robert C. Osborne, asking an amendment to the Book of Church Order, Par. 104, so as to require election by ballot under given conditions, it is recommended that the Assembly answer in the negative. Adopted.

15. On the overture from the Presbytery of Nashville, asking the Assembly to withdraw from its Executive Committees the right to fix the salary of Secretaries, and that the Assembly itself fix such salary, it is recommended that a negative answer be returned. This answer was put upon the docket.

16. On an overture from the Presbytery of Norfolk, asking the Assembly to direct the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions to publish a detailed statement of its expenses in The Missionary, and the other Executive Committees to publish a similar statement in one or more of the church papers, it is recommended that the answer be in the negative, for the reason that the information desired is already furnished in the annual reports of the several Executive Committees. This answer was put upon the docket.

The Judicial Committee made the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee have had placed in their hands a complaint against the Synod of Memphis signed by W. H. Dunlap, F. L. Cline, R. W. McGinnis, session of Springport Church; J. F. McNeely, elder of Long Creek Church; W. T. Meeklin, elder of Batesville Church; R. M. Atwell, deacon of the Batesville Church.

Your committee find the complaint in order, but the complainants are not here to prosecute the case. A communication from them to the Assembly has been placed in the hands of your committee. This communication might be construed as a prosecution of their case in writing; but if so construed, an examination of it shows that it deals almost exclusively with matters that lie outside of the "record of the case."

Your committee, therefore, recommend that the complaint be dismissed on the ground that the complainants are not here to properly prosecute their case.

A memorial from R. J. Shaw, addressed to the General Assembly, has been placed in the hands of your committee. In this memorial the said R. J. Shaw traverses substantially the same ground covered by a pamphlet which he has put into hands of the members of the Assembly. After reciting numerous alleged wrongs done him by the Presbytery of North Mississippi, he makes this recital the ground of an earnest plea to the Assembly to afford him in some way an opportunity to appeal from the judgment of said Presbytery.

Your committee recommend for answer that this Assembly has no means of affording the opportunity of appeal for which he prays.

A memorial addressed to the Assembly and signed by Josie A. Shaw and Josie C. Shaw has been placed in the hands of your committee. It asks that "your venerable body look well into the proceedings of the Synod of Memphis in the matter of their examination of the minutes of the Presbytery of North Mississippi, of dates of July and October, 1899. The answer to the prayer of these memorialists was granted by the Assembly in hearing the complaint of Rev. J. S. Shaw against the Synod of Memphis.

Your committee recommend, therefore, that no further notice be taken of the memorial.

Your committee, appointed to prepare a minute of the General Assembly in the complaint of Rev. J. S. Shaw vs. Synod of Memphis, recommend the following minute:

That from the record in the complaint it appears that Rev. R. J. Shaw was deposed from the ministry for contumacy without process; that this contumacy was committed in the presence of the court. It was, therefore, not a case requiring process, and it is ordered that the judgment of this General Assembly be, and is, that the complaint of Rev. J. S. Shaw be not sustained, and that the action of the Synod of Memphis complained of be, and is hereby, affirmed as constitutional and regular.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Georgia, Virginia, Memphis, South Carolina, and Nashville reported recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Florida reported that said records were not present. The committee was discharged.

The report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama was received and put upon the docket.

The report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was read and put upon the docket.

The Rev. Dr. John Fox, Secretary of the American Bible Society, was introduced and invited to sit as a visiting brother, and it was made the first order of the day for to-morrow to hear him in behalf of the Bible Society's work.

The report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was taken up, adopted, considered seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Home Missions would respectfully submit the following report:

1. We find that during the past year the sum of $31,506.81 was contributed to Assembly's Home Missions; that 119 men were employed, 340 points supplied with preaching, and the erection of 15 houses of worship secured. Besides the above named amount, our Presbyteries and Synods gave to local Home Missions $113,000 (approximate), making a total of $144,506.81 for the cause of Home Missions within our bounds. The receipts of the committee indicate a loss of $7,491.17 as compared with the receipts of last year in the department of legacies and special donations, but a gain of $3,205.11 in contributions from the more regular sources. A larger number of churches, Sabbath-schools and societies contributed to this cause than for the previous year.

It is gratifying also to note that the receipts for the Invalid Fund were $15,251.56, an increase of $867.43 over the previous year. It is earnestly hoped that this increase and the interest shown in the proposed "Relief Fund Plan" indicate a purpose on the part of our people to provide more liberally for those who have grown old in the service, and for the families of such as fall while doing battle for our King.

For what has been done gratitude should be expressed to the Great Head of the church, and thanks be given to our faithful and efficient committee.

2. The Treasurer's accounts have been duly audited by the local committee; and the annual report of the committee has been examined, and we now recommend the approval of the same, and commend the diligence and fidelity of our Executive Committee in Atlanta.

3. In answer to the overture of Fort Worth Presbytery the Assembly replies, that it is not deemed wise at this time to reduce the appropriation to the work in the Indian Territory.

4. In reply to the overture from C. W. Chambers, of the Presbytery of Eastern Texas, asking that the rule in the committee's Manual touching the taking of collections for Home Missions in fields receiving aid be repealed, we would suggest this answer:

The Assembly sees no good and sufficient reason for making the alteration in the Manual.

5. We recommend that the application of the church at Apopka (endorsed by the Presbytery of St. John) for relief from a small balance long due on loan from the committee, be granted.

6. In regard to the "report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund," referred to this committee, we recommend—

(1) That the thanks of the Assembly be returned to the committee for the thorough investigation which has been made of the subject, and for the able report which has been presented.

(2) That the ad interim committee be continued, and enlarged, with instructions to present a definite outline of a plan to the next Assembly, the committee as enlarged to consist of the following members: Rev. Francis R. Beattie, D. D., chairman, Rev. E. M. Green, D. D., Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D.; Elders W. A. Clark, Columbia, S. C.; T. S. McPheeters, St. Louis; J. S. Munce and J. N. Cullingworth, Richmond, Va.; H. W. Hunter, Louisville, Ky.

(3) That the report of the ad interim committee be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes, and that our church papers be requested to publish it at such time as may be deemed best by the ad interim committee.

7. The Assembly commends the Presbyteries and Synods for their activity in their local work, and rejoices in the amounts raised for this department of Home Missions; and, in view of the wide fields and pressing demands, suggests that yet more earnest and determined efforts be made to give the gospel to those who most need it within their own bounds.

At the same time, in view of the urgent needs in the newer fields and territories, and of the increased strength and ability of our church, the Assembly urges that $50,000 be raised for the General Assembly's work in the ensuing year. To this end—

(1) That sessions make special effort in connection with the collections in January and September, by calling the attention of the people to the duty and privilege of aiding this great enterprise.

(2) That ministers be requested to preach sermons on this subject in connection with the annual collection.

(3) That our Sabbath-schools and societies be encouraged to continue to give to this cause.

(4) That our Secretary continue to lay the facts before the churches and people.

(5) That we pray the Lord of the harvest that he would send forth more laborers into his harvest.

8. That the churches be requested to raise $20,000 for the Invalid Fund; that, in order to do this, the Executive Committee address an appeal for the July collection, in the name of the Assembly, not only to the pastors, but to sessions, with a request to the deacons, that they join with the pastors and elders in making a vigorous presentation of the cause to their congregations a week or two before the day appointed for the collection.

9. In answer to the overture from Rev. W. I. Sinnott, touching the name of the Invalid Fund, we reply that "the authorized name is the Invalid Fund."

10. That the General Assembly reappoint the present Secretary and Executive Committee as follows: Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., Secretary; W. A. Powell, Rev. T. P. Cleveland, D. D., Rev. A. R. Holderby, D. D., Rev. J. G. Patton, Rev. T. H. Rice, D. D., Rev. C. P. Bridewell, Hon. M. A. Candler, W. P. Inman, John C. Kirkpatrick, John C. Whitner.

Respectfully submitted, W. C. CLARK, Chairman.

For the purpose of engaging in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. F. W. Lewis, the Assembly had recess until 2 P. M.

2 P. M.

The Assembly met.

The report of the Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School was taken up, adopted, and is as follows:

Your special committee, to whom was referred the annual report of the trustees of the Assembly's Home and School, would respectfully report that we have carefully considered the items and suggestions of the report presented, and beg leave to offer the following:

1. We have found that the Home and School has been conducted upon the most economical principles, and, despite the meagre support given it by our people, has yet succeeded not only in carrying on its noble work, but also in liquidating a considerable portion of its indebtedness.

2. The institution is greatly limited in its capacity, and hampered in its noble work, by the indebtedness still resting upon it, relief from which they earnestly ask, and the lifting of which would greatly increase its effectiveness.

3. Your committee believe that if the nature, scope and working of this institution, in affording a home and school for the widows and orphans of deceased ministers and missionaries, were better known and understood by our people, it would meet with a much more generous support. Certainly no one of our causes ought to lie nearer to the hearts of our people, or appeal to them more strongly.

4. Your committee feel that this cause should occupy a more prominent place among the causes of the Assembly than it has done hitherto, and would respectfully urge upon all our ministers and elders to inform themselves fully concerning it, and we would further recommend that our ministers be directed to present it to our people, and secure as far as possible an enlarged contribution for its support.

5. We further recommend that our ministers and churches be earnestly urged to observe the last Sabbath in December, or some date near thereto, in presenting this cause and contributing thereto, and that our Sunday-schools be urged to make a contribution during the month of December as a Christmas offering to this cause. H. T. DARNALL, *Chairman.

It was made the third order of the day for this afternoon to receive and consider the report of the Special Committee on the Hymn Book.

The Assembly proceeded to select the place of meeting of the next Assembly.

Invitations were read from the Broadway Church and the Mayor of Fort Worth, Texas, the First Church, Little Rock, Ark., and the Rev. E. E. Smith, pastor of the Church in Owensboro, Ky. It was voted that the next Assembly meet in the First Presbyterian Church, Little Rock, Ark.

The following resolution on the death of the Rev. J. O. Lindsay, D. D., who had been appointed a commissioner to this Assembly from the Presbytery of South Carolina, was adopted by a rising vote:

Whereas, the Rev. J. O. Lindsay, D. D., was appointed a commissioner to this General Assembly, and whereas, on Friday night preceding the convening of this body he was removed by death to the general assembly of the firstborn, whose names are written in heaven; therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That we hereby tender our sincere sympathy to his bereaved family, and assure them of an interest in our prayers.

2. That this Assembly be now led in prayer by Rev. Dr. W. P. Jacobs.

3. That the Stated Clerk of this Assembly be requested to furnish the bereaved family with a copy of this action.

Whereupon the Assembly was led in prayer by Dr. Jacobs.

The order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, was taken up. Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock to-night.

8 P. M.

According to order, the Assembly convened in popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions. At the request of the Moderator, the Rev. Geo. W. Finley, D. D., presided. After devotional exercises and introductory remarks by Dr. Finley the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. W. C. Buchanan, of Nagoya, Japan, and the Rev. John W. Davis, D. D., of Soochow, China. A collection for Foreign Missions was taken, amounting to $118.74, of which $93.74 was currency and $25 in one check.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with the benediction by Dr. Davis.

SEVENTH DAY.

MAY 24, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by the Rev. Robert Hill.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported on the overtures from Louisville Presbytery and from L. H. Blanton, J. I. Vance and others touching a Twentieth Century Fund. The report went to the docket.

The Special Committee on the Hymn Book presented a report, which was read and put upon the docket.

A resolution touching the insertion in future editions of the Confession of Faith of a foot-note explanatory of the teaching concerning elect infants was put upon the docket.

The report of the Committee on the Narrative was read and sent to the docket.

The committees on the records of the Synod of Arkansas and the Synod of Missouri reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Committee of Foreign Correspondence made the following report, which was adopted:

In response to the overture from Enoree Presbytery, asking for a definition of the rule distinguishing between "corresponding members" and "visiting brethren" (Book of Church Order, Par. 80 and 83), your committee recommend the following answer: Our church having established correspondence with all Reformed churches holding the Presbyterian system, representatives of said churches are entitled to seats in our Presbyteries and Synods as corresponding members.

The General Assembly has heard with pleasure the address of Rev. R. H. Fleming, D. D., the representative of the Western Section of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System.

It is recommended that the Treasurer of the Assembly be instructed to pay the $480 due the Alliance for the current year.

As to the establishment of mission work through summer stations on the continent of Europe, in which this Assembly is asked to engage, it is recommended that this matter be referred to the Assembly's Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.

It is recommended that the standing committee to be a medium of communication between the Assembly and the Alliance be reappointed. This committee consists of Rev. G. W. Finley, D. D., Rev. F. H. Johnston, D. D., and Prof. William M. Graybill.

It is recommended that Rev. J. F. Cannon, D. D., of St. Louis, Mo., as principal, and Rev. G. R. Brackett, D. D., of Charleston, S. C., as alternate, be appointed to respond to the letter of greeting received from the Reformed Church through their delegate, and to convey to that body the Christian salutation of this Assembly.

The unveiling of the monument at Monmouth, N. J., having been postponed from October, 1899, to June, 1900, and Rev. Joseph A. Vance having resigned his place on the committee appointed to represent our church on that occasion, it is recommended that Rev. William C. Alexander, of Baltimore, be appointed in the place of Rev. Joseph A. Vance. The committee as then constituted will be Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., Rev. P. P. Flournoy, D. D., Elder T. B. Gresham, Elder W. W. Henry, and Rev. William C. Alexander.

G. L. PETRIE, Chairman.

The consideration of the report of the Special Committee on the Hymn Book was made the second order for to-day.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Publication was made the third order for to-day.

It was made the first order of the day for to-morrow to consider the report of the Standing Committee on Sunday-Schools and Young People's Societies.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was resumed.

Pending this business, the Assembly, for the purpose of engaging in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. D. Clay Lilly, had recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

2 P. M.

The Assembly met.

The report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Memphis, recommending their approval, was taken from the docket and adopted.

The Rev. T. H. Rice, D. D., was permitted to absent himself from this afternoon's session.

The unfinished business, the consideration of the report on Foreign Missions, was resumed. The report was amended, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

We have carefully, patiently and prayerfully examined the annual report of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, the minutes of the same committee up to the close of the year, and the minutes of the meeting held since, together with all the papers placed in our hands by the General Assembly, and find that they show that the work has made progress in every part of the field. With devout thanksgiving to the Great Head of the church the Assembly should recognize the special blessing of God upon the workers, and the work which has made the past year the best in all our history. The faithful services rendered by the Executive Committee and the efficient Secretary to this cause in the wise administration of the important interests entrusted to them merit the gratitude of the whole church.

The gratifying increase of $16,180.64 bringing the receipts for this year to $161,531.44 due to the effort to raise the "Twentieth Century Fund," has enabled the committee to send our during the year twelve new missionaries. While the amount desired—$200,000—was not raised, yet it is hoped and believed that a great advance has been made, which will result in a permanent annual offering of not less than $200,000 to the great cause. The examination of the annual report induces your committee to recommend—

1. That the Assembly approve the steps taken by the Executive Committee to bring to the attention of the King of Belgium and other civil authorities the atrocities committed by the Zappo Zaps employed by the Congo Free State in the collection of tribute with the view to preventing their reoccurrence.

2. That the Assembly approve the action of the Executive Committee in reference to the construction of the Congo boat, and hereby instructs the Secretary of Foreign Missions to express the hearty thanks of this Assembly to Lieutenants William Strother Smith and William Groesbeck for the services they have rendered as inspectors of the work done on the boat.

3. We recommend that, in reference to the invitation to the Secretary to visit the missions in Brazil, the Executive Committee be directed to grant the request, provided the expense for the same can be arranged for from private sources, so as not to draw upon the General Fund for Foreign Missions.

4. We recommend that, as the Assembly notes with approval the efforts to establish the mission in Cuba, it urges the Executive Committee to press this work, and especially to develop the interest in it already manifested to some extent by the Young People's Societies in our church.

5. That, in view of the manifestations of Christian courtesy and comity on the part of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to our missionaries and work in Cuba, and of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America to our missionaries in Korea and elsewhere, and the expressed desire of the Baptist Church to coöperate with us in the effort to secure the still broader exhibition of this spirit between the churches, the Secretary be instructed to express to these bodies our high appreciation of all they have done, and our desire and purpose to continue to work with them along the same lines.

6. We recommend that the Assembly reiterate its former urgent request to all pastors and sessions to secure a wider circulation of the missionary publications of our committee so as to bring, if possible, these periodicals to the point of self-support.

7. In view of the urgent needs of the work in all of our mission fields, this Assembly heartily approves the action of the Executive Committee in appealing to the church to raise not less than $200,000.

8. That the Assembly urge upon all pastors and sessions the observance of the monthly concert of prayer for missions.

9. That, in answer to the overture from Suwanee Presbytery touching the introduction of the "theatrical and spectacular" in the programme for Children's Day, the following answer be given: That in the preparation of the programmes in the observance of Children's Day the Executive Committee be instructed to exercise the greatest care to provide only that which is scriptural and appropriate.

10. That, in answer to the memorial from the Rev. H. C. DuBose, transmitted through the Synod of South Carolina, urging the appointment of a second Secretary, while the Assembly recognizes the importance of the matter and the zeal of the memorialist, yet it deems it inadvisable to appoint such an officer at this time.

11. That, in answer to the overture from Norfolk Presbytery, asking that a detailed statement of the expenses of the Foreign Mission work to be published annually in The Missionary, the Assembly instructs the Executive Committee to publish annually in The Missionary a statement of the expenses of that committee, showing separately the salaries paid to each officer, the expense of the office and also the travelling expenses of the committee.

12. That, in answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Ebenezer, asking for a special committee to examine the recent increase of the salary of the Secretary, and to report at this meeting, we recommend the following: That the request for the special committee be not granted, in view of the fact that the whole matter was referred by the Assembly to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

13. That, in answer to the overtures from the Presbyteries of Columbia, Arkansas, Central Texas, Mecklenburg, Orange, Paducah, Upper Missouri, Fayetteville, Macon and Western Texas, in reference to the salaries of the Secretary of Foreign Missions and the editor of the missionary publications and related matters, the standing committee having carefully investigated all the points raised by the overtures, recommend that the whole matter be left to the discretion of the Executive Committee, with the request that they reopen the question of salary of the Secretary, and that they carefully consider the matter in the light of the various overtures and discussions that have been before this Assembly, and with a due regard to the most economical administration of its affairs, consistent with effective service.

14. Certain matters that pertain to the methods of bookkeeping in the office of Foreign Missions have been brought to the attention of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, and have been carefully considered, but not feeling that it was in their province to pass upon them, we recommend that these matters be referred to the Auditing Committee of this Assembly.

15. We recommend that the following persons be elected the members of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions for the ensuing year: J. H. McNeilly, S. H. Chester, Angus McDonald, J. I. Vance, J. W. Bachman, F. B. Webb, J. H. Lacy, G. W. Patterson, C. R. Hemphill, Russell Cecil, R. J. Gordon, W. H. Raymond, G. H. Baskette, J. D. Blanton and W. Gales Adams, and that the Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., be re-elected the Assembly's Secretary for Foreign Missions.

G. W. FINLEY, Chairman.

A communication from the American Bible Society was read, and the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. Dr. John Fox, the society's secretary. The communication and Dr. Fox's address were referred to the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause.

The Secretary of Foreign Missions, the Rev. Dr. Chester, was heard touching the Assembly's action on the report of its Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, after which the Assembly was led in prayer by the Rev. Dr. Lupton.

The Pastoral Letter was taken from the docket and referred to the Committee on the Narrative.

The Assembly took up the report of the Special Committee on the Hymn Book. Its consideration was arrested for recess until 8 o'clock P. M.

8 P. M.

The Assembly met, pursuant to order, to hear the Rev. Jean Knatz d'Oriol, of the Reformed Church of France, the Rev. Dr. Geo. L. Petrie occupying the chair at the request of the Moderator.

The report of the Standing Committee on Publication was read, and Dr. Hazen, the secretary of publication, was heard. The report went to the docket.

It was made the second order of the day for to-morrow to hear the Superintendent of the Assembly's Home and School.

The consideration of the report on the Hymn Book was resumed. Pending this business, the Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells.

EIGHTH DAY.

MAY 25, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by the Rev. C. N. Van Houten.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Auditing Committee made the following report, which was adopted:

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

The Auditing Committee would respectfully report that they have examined the financial statements of the Treasurers of the following Executive Committees—Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Publication, Colored Evangelization—also those of the Board of Trustees of the Assembly's Home and School. We find same correct, as certified to by their Auditing Committees appointed by the Assembly of 1899.

2. In the matter referred to us by the Standing Committee of the Assembly on Foreign Missions, we find the accounts to be correct, but as to the details of his methods of bookkeeping, not having his books before us, we cannot give advice, but recommend that the matters referred to by the standing committee be referred to the Auditing Committee of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.

3. We have examined the statement of the Treasurer of the Executive Committee of Education, and same appears correct, but the Auditing Committee appointed by Assembly of 1899 fails to certify to this statement as required by Assembly of 1899, on page 423.

4. The report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly, showing receipts and disbursements, we find correct, as certified to by their own Auditing Committee.

5. The report of the Treasurer of the General Assembly we have examined in detail, together with all vouchers for expenditures, and find same correct. We recommend that a Standing Auditing Committee be appointed to examine the accounts of the Treasurer annually.

6. We recommend that the action of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, in his failure to prepare badges for the use of the commissioners, at the request of the Central Presbyterian Church of Atlanta, our hosts, be approved, and in this connection recommend that the order of the Assembly of 1896, directing the Stated Clerk to prepare such badges, be rescinded.

7. Your committee further recommend the election for three years of the following named Trustees of the General Assembly, whose term expires with this Assembly, viz.: Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, Peter M. Brown, Esq., George F. Bason, Esq.

8. We recommend that the following Auditing Committees be appointed for the coming year, and that their attention be called to the form of certificate adopted by the Assembly of 1899, and found on page 425 of the Minutes:

(a) For Executive Committee of Home Missions.—W. F. Parkhurst, W. R. Hoyt, John B. Daniel.

(b) For Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.—George G. O'Bryan, R. S. Hollins, R. E. Magill.

(c) For Executive Committee of Publication.—H. Swineford, B. C. Wherry, Edwin Pleasants.

(d) For Executive Committee of Education.—H. M. Neely, A. B. Hill, George C. Mason.

(e) For Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization.—W. E. Bingham, W. H. Verner, E. B. Nuzum.

(f) For Board of Trustees Home and School.—S. G. Howison, J. H. Myer, Jr., Dr. J. M. Barney.

(g) For Treasurer of General Assembly.—B. H. Owen, H. C. Merritt, George S. Bowling.

HOWARD W. HUNTER, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath, to whom was referred the report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath, respectfully reports:

1. That there does not seem to be any great change since the last report. Fifty-three Presbyteries have made reports, and some of them send up encouraging information, while others are not so hopeful. Among the church members, most of them report that the Sabbath is fairly well observed: but in our cities and towns there is a growing laxity and disregard of the sacredness of the Sabbath, as evidenced by railroad excursions, reading the Sunday newspapers, social visiting, etc. In our country churches there is much less complaint in this respect, but even there a growing laxity is apparent. In some of our cities undenominational Sabbath Leagues have been formed, with the view of influencing the sentiment of the community in favor of Sabbath observance.

In some few of our towns and villages the post-office has by petition of the people been closed on the Sabbath.

In some of our congregations notices of church services are not allowed to appear in the Sunday morning papers. We also note that many of our congregations are bearing a courageous testimony to the sanctity of the Sabbath, and striving by their prayers and their example to arrest the increasing tide of Sabbath desecration.

Your committee can but recommend that the Assembly reiterate what has so often been said before as to our duty as Christians and Presbyterians, to continue to stand firmly and decidedly for a sacred Sabbath.

We offer the following recommendations:

1. That all our people be urged to increased fidelity in bearing testimony by their words and acts to the strict and faithful observance of this holy day. That they be on their guard against the Sunday newspapers, Sunday recreation, social functions, and all other forms of Sabbath desecration.

2. That the report of the permanent committee be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

3. That the following named ministers and elders constitute the Committee on the Sabbath for the ensuing year, viz.: Rev. James Stacy, D. D., Theron H. Rice, D. D., Rev. C. P. Bridewell, and Mr. John A. Barry.

JOSEPH HARDIE, Chairman.

It was made the third order of the day for to-day to consider the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization.

The Committee on the Narrative made a partial report recommending the adoption of the Pastoral Letter reported by the ad interim committee. Adopted.

Pastoral Letter on Worldly Amusements, adopted by the General Assembly in Atlanta, Ga., May, 1900, to be read in all the churches:

For the promotion of the spiritual well-being of the church, the General Assembly feel constrained to address all our people a few words of instruction and advice on the importance of abstaining from such amusements as are destructive of or unfavorable to the religious life of the Christian.

Under the term worldly amusements may be included the dance, the theatre and the card-table. There is dancing which is innocent in itself; there are plays that are not immoral, and card-playing without gambling cannot be called a sin. There are also dances, stage plays, and games of cards that are in themselves harmful, and contrary to the law of God, and such being evil, and only evil, are condemned and forbidden by the church. On these matters the church, through its constitution, the deliverances of its courts, and from its pulpits, has spoken in the strongest terms.

The question then arises, may not Christians freely indulge in such forms of worldly amusements as are not sinful in themselves? In reply the General Assembly urges our people to abstain altogether from the amusements referred to, as a matter of Christian prudence, example, and out of regard for the honor of Christ, because—

1. These things are accounted worldly, and are regarded as characteristic of a worldly, as distinguished from a spiritual, life. Christians cannot afford to do those things which are looked upon as belonging peculiarly to the world, and by doing which the line of separation between the world and the church is erased, or obscured. "Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, O my people, saith the Lord."

2. Experience shows that persons engaging in worldly amusements are easily led into such indulgences as are wrong in themselves. Entering into these things, it is difficult to stop within the bounds of prudence, and under their fascination and the influence of worldly surroundings many are led into sin, and become alienated from God, to the ruin of their souls. Those who dance at all are in danger of being led into dances that are improper. Those who attend the theatre are likely to witness and take pleasure in things which are evil, and card-playing has led many a person to gambling, which is one of the most fatal of all vices.

3. Worldly amusements, and the company into which they often bring those engaged in them, are not favorable to growth in grace, and a loving service of God and the church. It cannot be denied that those who indulge in worldly amusements do not become eminent for piety, do not hunger and thirst after righteousness, and do not excel in Christian work. It is touching such matters as these, not things evil in themselves only, but also things considered evil, or associated with evil, that Christians must practice self-denial, and live lives which will mark them as separate from the world. Those things are not "expedient" which draw the soul away from communion with God, and from the greatest efficiency in his holy church.

Be Christians in earnest. Let the dear, sad, glorious cross of Christ overshadow all your life. Never get beyond its chastening presence, and let its precious sacrifice be the model and inspiration of all you do.

ROBERT P. KERR,
R. F. CAMPBELL,
JAMES G. RAMSAY.

The Committee on the Bible Cause made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee desire in this report to lay before the Assembly the leading facts concerning the work of the American Bible Society, whose total issues in eighty-four years amount to 67,369,306 copies. During last year it issued in all, at home and abroad, 1,406,801 copies, and its balance sheet shows that the receipts were from donations made by the living, $95,304.25. Its total income, not counting sales of books, was $238,845.11.

Small indeed is the amount contributed by our church in aid of this work. The statistics show that for the past five years our contributions have, at most, amounted to but little more than five thousand dollars in one year, and the last state of these contributions is worse than the first, the figure for 1899 being $4,460.28, and this year, 1900, it was $4,391, considerably less than $5,000.

In view of the fact that our contributions in aid of the Bible Cause are the smallest found in any of the columns which describe our ecclesiastical benevolence, your committee would most earnestly strive to correct the impression that the American Bible Society is rich, and increased with goods. It ought to be known that the Society has during the past year felt the necessity of not funding, but spending some of its legacies, and that the income of the Society, received in the form of rents for parts of the Bible House in New York, is decreasing on account of business in that city moving away from the neighborhood of these premises.

We desire to correct another mistake. It has been by some believed and asserted that the books issued by the Society (which, we may here state, are sold at cost) are higher in price than Bibles and portions issued by other publishers. In a communication received from Rev. John Fox, Corresponding Secretary of the Society, and addressed to this Assembly, attention is called to the fact that if due regard be paid to quality, it will be found that the books of the Society compare favorably with those issued by others.

Attention should be called to the fact that during the past half century the whole country has been thoroughly canvassed, four times about once in ten years, to ascertain to what extent there is in the land a famine of the word of God. The last canvass was finished in 1890, and resulted in placing a Bible in nearly every home in the land. It is the opinion of your committee that there is more destitution, especially among the negroes, than is commonly known.

The most striking feature of the work of the American Bible Society is its marked missionary character. Of its total issues last year, 1,406,801 copies, more than one-half, 832,497, were distributed outside of the United States. After the so-called benevolent assimilation policy added to our territory, several of the islands of the sea, the American Bible Society began its work of benevolent illumination, sending to the people of these islands the Bible to be to them a light to shine upon the path of progress. Agents or colporteurs went to Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Philippine Islands to distribute the Scriptures, and a telegram has been recently sent, saying to the Society's agent in Manila, "Proceed," i. e., take steps to translate the Bible into four languages in the Philippine Islands. The need of pressing forward the Bible work is intensified by the fact that soon after the Philippine Islands were brought under the government of the United States, 400 army canteens, or places for selling liquor, were promptly opened, and were in full operation before mission stations or Bible depositories had been established.

In the work of revising and translating the Bible in other lands the American Bible Society is taking part with liberal hand. It is a significant fact that Rev. J. R. Hykes, D. D., the Society's general agent for China, with headquarters in Shanghai, called for $39,000 this year, against $32,000 last year, to be expended in China, where, during 1899, 614,100 copies of Bibles and portions were issued. The rest of the 832,497 books issued were printed in, or sent to, Korea, Japan, Siam, Turkey and Syria. It is interesting to note that the Society employs in foreign lands no less than 286 persons, including agents, clerks and colporteurs, all engaged in distributing the Scriptures. From all this it clearly appears that the Society is doing a broad and far-reaching work in the foreign field, a work which underlies all the work done by missionaries.

Recommendations.

1. We recommend that the ministers of our church be urged to obtain for themselves, and present to their people, the facts concerning this great cause. The American Bible Society's monthly journal, the Bible Society Record, price thirty cents a year, is specially commended to patronage. The Society also publishes a considerable amount of leaflet and other literature, all instructive and helpful, and furnished without cost upon application to the Society's agents.

2. That the attention of our ministers be called to the importance of organizing or resuscitating local Bible Societies to act in connection with the parent Society, whose Corresponding Secretary is prepared to furnish printed forms of a Constitution and By-laws suited to such local organizations.

3. That our ministers, elders and people are specially urged to ascertain and relieve the destitution of the Scriptures which exists among the negroes.

4. That the collection provided for in our plan of benevolence, to be taken up on the third Sabbath in October, be carefully attended to. In cases where there is no preaching on that Sabbath the collection should be taken up in the Sabbath-school.

This report is approved by all the members of the committee.

JOHN W. DAVIS, Chairman.

Resolution presented by the Standing Committee on Bible Cause:

Resolved, That the Assembly having heard with pleasure and profit the address on the Bible Cause by Rev. John Fox, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the American Bible Society, heartily bids him Godspeed in his work.

JOHN W. DAVIS, Chairman.

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence reported the following, which was adopted:

Your Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence would respectfully report—

That we are unable to make a full and accurate statement of the sums contributed by the church to the different benevolent causes, for the reason that five Presbyteries, viz., Central Alabama, Columbia, Ethel, Holston and Indian, have failed to send up any report to the General Assembly, and again, of these reports, some of them have not used the regular printed forms prepared for the purpose, and so have left out important items. However, from the reports of seventy-four Presbyteries which have been in the hands of the committee, the following tabulated statement is made, which, in the main, represents the contributions of the church to the different causes:

1764	churches	gave	to	Foreign Missions,	$142,695
1494	"	"	"	Assembly's Home Missions,	25,552
1845	"	"	"	Local Home Missions,	119,729
1224	"	"	"	Colored Evangelization Fund,	10,759
1382	"	"	"	Relief Fund,	14,682
1509	"	"	"	Education,	55,045
1239	"	"	"	Publication,	7,980
679	"	"	"	Bible Society,	4,391
	Total—all causes,				$380,833

The churches have contributed to the benevolent causes in the following order:

505	churches	have	contributed to	8 causes.
455	"	"	"	7 "
339	"	"	"	6 "

641	"	"	"	none of the causes.

We note with pleasure that there has been an increase in the contributions of the churches in the aggregate of $46,678 during the past year, as follows:

To Foreign Missions,	$39,382
To Local Home Missions,	10,811
To Invalid Fund,	1,144
To Education,	4,060

While gratified to note the increase in the contributions of the churches to the above-named causes, we regret that there has been a falling off in the contributions to the following causes, to-wit:

To Assembly's Home Missions,	$4,366
To Colored Evangelization Fund,	1,012
To Publication,	4,272
To Bible Society,	69

In view of the fact that some of the reports are incomplete, and that some Presbyteries fail to report at all, we recommend—

1. That the Assembly again urge upon the attention of Stated Clerks the importance of carefully preparing their reports, using, as far as possible, the printed forms prepared for that purpose.

2. That those Presbyteries which have failed to send up reports on Systematic Beneficence for several years past be directed to request their Stated Clerks hereafter to prepare and submit their reports at the proper time.

3. That the attention of Presbyteries be directed to the fact that they are expected to call upon churches that fail to make any of the collections ordered by the Assembly to give their reasons for said failure.

Respectfully submitted, G. G. SYDNOR, Chairman.

The unfinished business, the consideration of the report of the Special Committee on the Hymn Book, was resumed. The report was amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

The special committee appointed to consider the report of the ad interim committee on the preparation of a new hymn-book, respectfully reports as follows:

We recommend—

That the list of hymns and tunes prepared by the Committee on the Hymn-book be substantially approved.

That this list be referred to the Presbyteries, with the view of having the whole matter sent to the sessions for criticisms and advice.

That the Presbyteries be directed to appoint committees to receive the suggestions of the sessions, tabulate them, and forward the same to the ad interim Committee on the Hymn-book, not later than January 1, 1901.

That the Executive Committee of Publication be directed to publish the book in such a way as shall be, in the judgment of the committee, most advantageous to the church, and under the editorial supervision of our present ad interim committee, the book being subject to such changes as may be necessitated by copyrights or deemed expedient in the light of criticisms or suggestions, and that the publication be delayed until January 1, 1901.

That during this time of delay the ad interim committee be instructed to invite, through the press, the full and free criticism of the church.

That the Assembly express its thanks to the ad interim committee for its careful and painstaking work, and also to Professors John P. Campbell and Joseph McLean for valuable aid rendered the committee as musical editors.

T. M. HAWES, Chairman.

It was ordered that this morning's session be continued until 12.45 o'clock.

The report of the Committee on Sunday-Schools and Young People's Societies was taken from the docket. Pending its consideration, the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

2. P. M.

The Assembly met, the Rev. C. N. Van Houten occupying the chair at the request of the Moderator.

The address of the Rev. Jean Knatz d'Oriol was referred to the Committee of Foreign Correspondence.

The consideration of the report on Sunday-Schools and Young People's Societies was resumed. The report was amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies report as follows:

Statistical reports from seventy-five Presbyteries have been placed in our hands concerning our Sunday-school work, and the following is the summary of the reports: Number of schools reported, 2,093; officers and teachers enrolled, 18,418; scholars enrolled, 133,099—total enrollment, 151,407. Average attendance officers and teachers, 14,679; scholars, 80,930—total average attendance, 95,609. Scholars added to communion, 4,761. Current expenses, $58,181; contributed for other objects, $28,919—total contributions, $87,100.76. To Foreign Missions, $6,856; Home Missions, $1,501.

If these reports are to be accepted as a full showing of the condition of our Sabbath-school work, there are many discouraging features in the figures. We are convinced that the reports do not fully represent the status of this great department of our church work, and must attribute the unfavorable showing to the lack of full and accurate information. The blame for this lack of information must be divided between the church sessions and Stated Clerks of Presbyteries.

It is beyond belief that we have nearly 900 Presbyterian churches in which there are no Sunday-schools, and that we have lost 14,000 enrolled scholars and teachers since last year, but this is the story told by the reports as tabulated.

The feature in the reports received of greatest encouragement is the large number of scholars added to the communion—4,740. There was also a slight increase in the contributions both for current expenses, and for other benevolent causes, the largest increase, however, being for current expenses.

The reports are uniform in stating that the schools are under the control of the sessions, and that the Catechisms and Scriptures are memorized. The standards of the church, except the Catechisms, are not generally taught, and it is evident that many of our schools are not using our own publications. Teachers' meetings are not held in over twenty per cent. of our schools. Special religious interest is reported in many Presbyteries, but the addition to the church of an average of about two scholars per school from the schools reporting would seem to indicate a lack of definite earnest effort to lead the scholars to accept Christ as their personal Saviour.

We would not minify or belittle the results accomplished. for had but one soul been saved, the year's work of our 15,000 officers and teachers would not have been in vain, yet when we consider the historical record, and continual boast of our church, that we lead all other denominations in the matter of training the young, we must confess that we are stopping far short of our duty and privilege in this great work.

When we consider the vast army of 2,750,000 children and young people within the territorial limits of our church who are out of the Sunday-school and untouched by its influence, and think of the mighty forces which are actively working for their destruction, it is time for us to "wake out of sleep," and meet our responsibilities as a church.

Other evangelical denominations, occupying the same territorial limits as our church, are waking up to their duty, and making great forward movements in their Sunday-school work.

The Southern Methodists are adding to their Sunday-school enrollment at the rate of about 15,000 per year, and have a standing Sunday-school committee, and two paid secretaries who give their entire time to promoting this interest. Sunday-school conferences are held in every district, and systematic effort is made to arouse greater interest in Sunday-school work, and to introduce better methods in their Sunday-schools.

The Baptists established a Sunday-school board, and employed a salaried secretary nine years ago, and the result of the move has been a vast improvement in methods in their Sunday-school work—a large increase in membership (639 new schools being organized last year)—and their Sunday-school publications have yielded a net revenue of $144,000 in the nine years, and the amount has been used for the most part in church extension work.

The Cumberland Presbyterian Church has a Sunday-school committee, and a paid secretary, who edits their Sunday-school periodicals, and supervises the general work of their schools.

They are holding in every Presbytery Sunday-school institutes to arouse greater interest, and to introduce better methods of work. They set on foot in May, 1899, a new century Sunday-school movement, which had for its aim the adding of 50,000 new members to their Sunday-schools by May, 1901. Printed matter has been largely distributed, and the church has taken up the matter with great enthusiasm, and the effort will greatly enlarge their schools, and efficiency, even if not entirely successful.

It is a matter of great pride to all the residents of the Southern States to note the material development of our section, and the mining and manufacturing sections of our country are going forward by leaps and bounds, and growing in population at a rate that is astounding. The civil government is meeting its added responsibilities, and is providing more and better schools for the youth of the land, and in fact the educational advantages are being continually enlarged and improved, until we are offering privileges for broad and liberal culture in our Southern institutions of learning, which are scarcely excelled in America.

Shall it be said of our church that we are sitting still and permitting such opportunities for enlarged usefulness to go unimproved?

A simple statement of the need of a forward movement should rouse the church to do her full duty toward the young people of our land, the future hope of the church.

Recommendations.

We again urge that clerks of church sessions and Stated Clerks of Presbyteries furnish full and accurate statistical Sabbath-school reports, for in no other way can we ascertain what progress we are making.

We recommend that a separate statistical table be printed annually in the Assembly Minutes, giving a summary by Presbyteries of the number of Sabbath-schools in each Presbytery, the number of officers, teachers and scholars enrolled, the average attendance, the number of scholars admitted to membership in the church, number of Sunday-school institutes held, amount expended for current expenses, and total amount contributed to other causes, with separate columns showing amount contributed for Foreign and Home Missions and for the Sunday-school Department of the Committee of Publication; also columns for number Young People's Societies, membership and contributions to all causes.

We recommend that the first Sunday in October of each year be observed by all the Sunday-schools of our church as the day when special effort shall be made to bring all the forces of the individual churches to the support of their schools, and when definite plans shall be presented for reaching the children and young people of the community, who are not in any Sunday-school.

We recommend that a special collection be taken in the Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies at this time for the advancement of the Sunday-school interests of our church, and that such collections be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the Publication Committee.

We recommend that the matter of employing a man who shall devote his entire time to the development of our Sunday-school, Young People's Society and colportage work, the salary and expenses of this office to be paid from the Sunday-school Day collections, be submitted the Presbyteries for approval at Fall Meeting, and if a majority of the Presbyteries approve of the institution of said office, the Committee of Publication be, and is hereby, authorized to place such a man in the field, provided sufficient funds are raised by the Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies to meet expenses of such office.

We recommend that there shall be held in connection with, or under the direction of the Presbytery, at least one Sunday-school Institute each year, in the bounds of every Presbytery, to which delegates shall be sent from each church and Sabbath-school, and that special prominence be given in such institutes to training teachers for better methods of work, and inspiring a more intelligent interest in the cause of Systematic Beneficence commended by our church.

We recommend that the General Assembly express its appreciation of the helpful lesson commentaries our church papers are publishing week by week, and we ask that they continue the educational work already begun along the line of a series of articles on advanced methods of Sunday-school work, "The Graded System of Lessons," "The Home Department," "Standards of Excellence," and other practical and helpful themes.

2. Young People's Societies.

In 1898 fourteen Presbyteries, in 1899 twenty-eight Presbyteries, in 1900 thirty-six out of seventy-nine Presbyteries, made report on this subject, showing a little over fifty per cent. of our Presbyteries, either through negligence of sessions or Clerks of Presbyteries failing to report societies that do exist, or a partial or entire disregard for such work among the young people of their churches; a remarkable showing in view of the benefits derivable from this branch of the church's work. These thirty-six Presbyteries, however, exhibit a total of 374 Young People's Societies, of 9,371 members, contributing $13,922.38 to Foreign and Home Missions, Church Erection and Improvement and Local Sustentation Work: thus showing an advance in reports of 43 societies, 479 members, and $4,043.40 contributed over last year. The list of Presbyteries, societies and work is as follows:

Attention is called to the glaring carelessness of some of our Stated Clerks in regard of definite answers and full reports of Young People's Societies to the General Assembly, to the disregard or detriment of the best interests of this important phase of church enterprise.

We would specially note also the great lack of uniformity in the names of the Young People's Societies, such varied terms being employed as "The Christian Endeavor," "Westminster League," "Covenanters' Band," "King's Sons and Daughters," etc., more than fifty different titles being employed. We see no reason for this wide divergence from the hitherto expressed will of the Assembly, and would reiterate former deliverances in order to the thorough unification of these societies under the title of "Westminster League for Christian Endeavor," with junior, intermediate and senior departments, which meets every demand, and recommend the same for universal adoption wherever practicable.

We would likewise recommend that a column of The Children's Friend (published by our Committee of Publication) be devoted to the topics and interests of the Young People's Societies, and in simpler language than the matter now printed therein appears, and so call the attention of a wider circle of our young people to this very important department of Christian labor, to the end of a more abundant fruitage for good.

We further recommend that ministers of the word, ruling elders, deacons and members give this phase of church work the serious and thoughtful consideration it rightfully deserves; and that, realizing the great reserve power embodied therein, they seek earnestly and diligently to enlist the cordial sympathies and active co-operation of the young people in a work truly their own under supervision and direction of the church session, and at the same time a work of the church, man-saving and God-glorifying in its design, and means and operation.

Overtures.

1. In response to the overture from the Presbytery of New Orleans, asking that the blank forms for statistical reports on Young People's Societies be so changed as to embrace all church societies under the supervision of sessions, we recommend that the request be granted, and that the Committee of Publication be directed to prepare a combined blank, or separate blanks, for such information as economy in printing may dictate.

2. We recommend that the overture from the Presbytery of Savannah, asking for a separate column in Minutes for statistics on Young People's Societies, be granted, and that such reports be incorporated in the additional tables to be published in the Assembly Minutes, as provided for in our report.

ROBERT H. NALL, Chairman.

The Moderator appointed the following persons as the ad interim Committee on Commissions called for in the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overtures from the Synod of Alabama and Dugald Munroe and others: R. C. Reed, D. D., Judge J. P. Hobson, J. F. Cannon, D. D., G. W. Finley, D. D., Judge H. G. Bunn.

To this committee the Assembly added the Moderator, Judge Joseph W. Martin.

The order of the day arrived, and Ruling Elder S. W. Somerville, superintendent of the Assembly's Home and School, addressed the Assembly in behalf of that institution.

The next order of the day, the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization, was taken up, and the report, after amendment, was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your committee would respectfully report that they have examined the records of the Executive Committee on Colored Evangelization and Stillman Institute, and also their annual report to the General Assembly. We find these records have been accurately kept, and all matters coming before the committee carefully considered.

We are devoutly thankful to God for the manifest tokens of his favor during the past year, and for the quickened interest of the church in behalf of this great cause.

We are persuaded that the increased interest is due, in part, to the consecrated zeal of our able Secretary, and to the sanctified devotion of the lamented Superintendent, Rev. O. B. Wilson, the expense account having been reduced to a minimum through their wise and economical administration.

We desire to call the attention of your venerable body to the following matters, which we deem worthy of special emphasis:

Evangelistic.

As to the evangelistic feature of this work, we are gratified to note—

I. That there has been some measure of aggressiveness not only in the organization of new churches, but also in reaching territory hitherto unoccupied, four new churches having been organized, three in South and one in North Carolina.

Moreover, there have been organized fourteen additional Sabbath-schools under the supervision and control of white teachers, making thirty-seven schools of this kind, in which one hundred and seventy-nine teachers regularly instruct nineteen hundred and eighty-seven pupils in the word of God and the catechisms of our church.

This work has proved exceedingly effective in imparting sound doctrine, as shown in the number of Bibles and Testaments that have been awarded pupils for reciting Introductory and Shorter Catechisms. In addition, encouraging reports come to us concerning the spiritual results of this work, as evidenced by the number of conversions reported.

Education.

In addition to the instruction of a spiritual and intellectual kind imparted at the Stillman Institute, we are pleased to note the industrial feature, which conduces not only to the curtailment of the expense of the institution, but also to the cultivation of a spirit of independence and self help; we would also commend the Preacher's Institute and Summer School as valuable agencies in the furtherance of the work. In this connection, the following statement of the Executive Committee is worthy of special attention: "We might note here that as far as we have any knowledge, no Southern man has ever given or bequeathed any considerable sum for the benefit of the negro religiously or educationally."

Independent Organization.

Under the head of the Independent Organization, while regretting that the plan contemplated by previous Assemblies of forming an Afro-American Church has not been satisfactorily consummated, your committee is impressed with the fact that independent organization is the wisest solution of this question, and the end to be kept in view by the church.

Concerning the financial condition of the work, we are gratified to report that the receipts for the past year were $1,000 in excess of the year previous, amounting in all to $8,454 for the general work, and that all the Synods are now cooperating in the support of this cause.

Recommendations.

The following suggestions and recommendations are offered by your committee:

1. We would urge upon our churches the duty and the privilege of organizing Sabbath-schools among the negroes wherever Providence indicates an opening, believing that the undeveloped energies of many of our members would find here a splendid field for usefulness, as well as for the exercise of Christian graces. We are impressed with the urgency of this call of the Lord of the vineyard.

2. We would lay upon the heart of the church one of the last wishes of our lamented Superintendent, that the facilities of Stillman Institute be so increased as to make it possible to receive two hundred and fifty pupils.

3. That we approve the action of the Executive Committee in appropriating a small sum for the widow of a deceased minister, and we authorize the committee to make such appropriations in the future as in their discretion may appear necessary.

4. We would reiterate the call of the last Assembly for $15,000 for this cause, believing that anything less would be inadequate to the ever-increasing possibilities of the work.

5. In conclusion, it becomes our mournful duty to record the, to us, mysterious taking away of our beloved Superintendent, Rev. O. B. Wilson. We do not question the divine wisdom of this dispensation of the Great Head of the church, and would find comfort in the words of the Master in this hour of sadness, "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." Brother Wilson was a man of unusual consecration, as evinced by the heartiness with which he gave his life to this cause, without hope of remuneration, except so far as was necessary for the barest subsistence. It may be a matter of information to the church at large, that when offered a salary in keeping with his ability, he declined the amount proffered by the committee, expressing his willingness to do the work for the scant sum of twenty-five dollars per month. Such beauty of character, such devotion to high purpose, such consuming zeal for the cause of the Master and the souls of men were singularly blended in this noble life, "and, like the bloom of the aloe, he was the gift of a century."

6. Your committee would recommend the re-election of Rev. D. Clay Lilly as the Assembly's Secretary of this work, together with the following Executive Committee: Dr. E. H. Sholl, Hon. J. W. Lapsley, Rev. L. S. Handley, D. D., Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., Rev. J. A. Bryan, Hon. J. H. Miller, Rev. Neal L. Anderson, Rev. E. P. Davis, D. D., Rev. J. G. Snedecor, Gen. R. D. Johnson, Rev. D. C. Lilly.

7. That an ad interim committee of three, of which Dr. T. H. Rice shall be chairman, be appointed to make a thorough study of what is being done by other evangelical denominations for the religious education and evangelization of the colored race in the United States, to report to the next Assembly.

In behalf of the committee, DONALD McQUEEN, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Publication was taken from the docket, and its recommendation in answer to the overture from Winchester Presbytery on graded Bible lessons was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Winchester, the Assembly appoints a committee of five, with Rev. E. C. Murray, D. D., as chairman, and including the Secretary of the Assembly's Committee of Publication, to consider the best methods of securing the end contemplated, and, if possible, to submit to the next Assembly for approval a comprehensive, progressive and graded system of Bible study.

The Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock to-night.

8 P. M.

The Assembly met and resumed the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Publication, and its recommendation on the overture from the Presbytery of Lexington touching change in column of statistical tables was amended, the overture answered in the affirmative, and the Executive Committee of Publication directed to change the heading of the column from "Publication" to "Colportage and Sunday-School Work."

After further amendment the report was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee of Publication and Colportage would respectfully report that they have carefully examined the report of your Executive Committee, and the minutes of their meetings for the past twelve months, and very heartily recommend their approval. We are gratified in being able to call the attention of the Assembly to the very remarkable progress made by this important branch of our work during the past fiscal year. The sales have increased fully twenty-five per cent. All of the more important periodicals published by the committee have increased in circulation. There has been unusual activity in the publishing department, and in the Colportage and Sabbath-School department we note with pleasure the organization of eighteen Sabbath-schools, and the report of fifty conversions.

From the approved statement of the Treasurer, we find that the affairs of the committee are in a highly satisfactory condition. The balance-sheet of assets shows a remarkable statement of a clear surplus of $116,942.36 over indebtedness, the outstanding liabilities of every sort amounting only to $1,229.41.

Through changes made in the building and in tenants, there has been an apparent diminution of income from rents, but this diminution is temporary; excellent tenants for the next year have been secured, the alterations needed are complete, and without loss of income the committee secures for itself enlarged accommodation.

Your able committee and its honored officers deserve the hearty encouragement of this Assembly. It is not a light task to meet the requirements of a constituency of above a quarter of a million; this committee is certainly doing their best to fill their very responsible position to the satisfaction of the church at large.

The General Assembly has on various occasions in the time past urged on all Sabbath-schools, a participation in all the causes of the church, by making contributions regularly to each particular object recommended by the Assembly. The Executive Committee calls attention to the fact that only eighty-five of our Sabbath-schools contributed during the past year. There now appears to be a special reason for enlarged giving to this particular department of church work, arising from the new effort at Sunday-school propagandism now being urged by the committee under the instruction of the Assembly; therefore, we recommend that the attention of Presbyteries be called specially to this matter; and that churches and Sunday-schools be incited to larger liberality toward this very important branch of our missionary work.

It was resolved that the Committee of Publication is hereby authorized to use any money donated specially for publication work exclusively for that purpose.

The committee recommend the re-election of the same Executive Committee, viz.: Rev. James K. Hazen, D. D., as Secretary and Treasurer; J. P. Smith, D. D., Charles H. Read, D. D., R. P. Kerr, D. D., Jere Witherspoon, D. D., J. W. Rosebro, D. D., S. K. Winn, D. D., Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, W. W. Henry, B. R. Wellford, Jr., R. A. Lancaster, M. M. Gilliam, and W. C. Preston.

By order of the committee, W. P. JACOBS, Chairman.

The following report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures was taken from the docket and, after amendment, was adopted:

Overtures from the Presbytery of Louisville and from L. H. Blanton, J. I. Vance and others, praying the Assembly to undertake to raise $1,000,000 for the permanent work of the church to be known as the Twentieth Century Fund.

Answer*—We recommend, first, that the Assembly heartily endorse the general scheme proposed in these overtures, and appoint a committee after the manner recommended, to inaugurate the movement and have general management and oversight of it, which committee shall have power to fill vacancies which may occur before the next General Assembly; to elect a treasurer, and to pay out of the funds coming into his hands all legitimate expenses which the committee may incur in the prosecution of its work, and shall make reports to each succeeding Assembly until it be discharged.

2. The object of the fund shall be to promote and put upon a surer basis the cause of Christian Education; to endow and equip more fully our theological seminaries, our schools, colleges and other institutions of learning, both for males and females; and to found such new institutions of similar character as may seem advisable.

3. The movement shall in nowise interfere with or displace plans that are now in operation in different parts of the church, looking to the same end, but shall rather seek to unify all these local efforts and to stimulate and encourage them through sympathetic co-operation, either in our own land or the foreign field.

4. Each Synod or Presbytery or division of the church co-operating in the movement may employ such agencies as it deems wise, choose the institution or institutions for which its funds shall be raised, and have entire control and direction of such funds, but making reports of them to the committee appointed by the Assembly. All money coming directly into the hands of the committee's treasurer shall be distributed according to the judgment of the committee or the wishes of the donors.

5. The Assembly recommends to the several Synods to appoint each a committee of three to co-operate with the Assembly's committee.

6. The Assembly earnestly calls upon all its Synods, Presbyteries, sessions and members to co-operate heartily in this movement, and to signalize the opening of the new century by a great advance in this all-important branch of the church's work.

Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., was chosen chairman, and Rev. C. R. Hemphill, D. D., vice-chairman of the General Committee contemplated in resolution 1, and the following from the several Synods were appointed on the committee:

Alabama—Dr. Russell Cecil, J. W. Lapsley.
Arkansas—Rev. S. G. Miller, James P. Coffin.
Florida—Dr. W. H. Dodge, William Fisher.
Georgia—Dr. Theron H. Rice, Samuel M. Inman.
Kentucky—Dr. L. H. Blanton, A. J. Alexander.
Memphis—Dr. N. M. Woods, J. M. Boone.
Mississippi—Dr. W. McF. Alexander, C. H. Alexander.
Missouri—Dr. J. F. Cannon, T. S. McPheeters.
Nashville—Dr. George Summey, John H. Eakin.
North Carolina—Dr. J. W. Stagg, George W. Watts.
South Carolina.—Rev. W. G. Neville, C. E. Graham.
Texas.—Dr. W. N. Scott, A. F. Hardie.
Virginia—Dr. R. P. Kerr, George Evans Caskie.

The report of the Committee on the Narrative was taken from the docket, adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayed by the Rev. G. G. Sydnor.

NINTH DAY.

MAY 26, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met and was led in prayer by the Rev. Geo. T. Eddy.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Leave of Absence made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Leave of Absence beg leave to report that leave of absence has been granted as follows:

To R. N. Smith from 18th to 22d; to H. L. Moseley for the 19th; to J. H. Kirby for the 23d; to W. P. Jacobs for 25th and 26th; to E. McK. McCue and R. A. Brown after 19th; to J. Mc. Moore, W. E. Adams and O. Pearsall after 21st; to J. A. B. Barton, B. F. Wilson, G. W. Williams and H. P. Wherritt, after 22d; to S. D. Reynolds, W. O. Cochrane, M. D. McNeill, G. A. McLean, B. W. Ewing, J. J. Wood and J. A. Stewart, after 23d; H. O. Hausgen, J. L. Green, F. O. Rodgers, E. A. Palmer, J. C. Williams, W. T. Waller, J. W. B. Robinson, G. B. Crowe, V. R. Gaston, J. Barbee, A. E. Dimmock, H. M. Houston, W. M. Shaw, J. M. Carothers, J. P. Matthews, H. L. Moseley, J. S. Rea, R. S. Brown, J. P. Munroe, C. H. Broom, D. M. Killian, after 24th; to W. Y. Davis, W. H. Dinges, H. L. Scarborough, F. W. Lewis, T. P. Hay, G. W. Taylor, D. McCarley, J. M. McIver, G. A. Sparrow,

W. E. Glassell, C. Ghiselin, L. Foot, G. M. Steirer, J. S. Pancake, S. L. Grigsby, C. M. Hutton, R. C. Reed, J. M. Shive, J. S. Talmage, J. F. Lloyd, J. T. Leonard, T. D. Latimer, G. H. Oetzel, R. E. Douglas, J. M. Davis, W. C. Pease, R. E. Hardin, A. O. Hamilton, J. S. Paxton, W. S. Megginson, T. M. Hawes, J. E. Travis, W. C. Brown, W. R. Minter, E. D. Brown, S. W. Somerville, William Fisher, D. S. McAllister, E. H. Hines, R. E. Magill, S. W. Rhea, E. M. Stevenson, J. N. Turner, B. M. Shive, H. H. Sweets and H. W. Hunter, after 25th.

NEWTON SMITH, Acting Chairman.

In connection with the foregoing action the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the attention of the Presbyteries be hereby called to the unusually large number of requests for leave of absence on the part of the members of this Assembly, and the Presbyteries are again most earnestly urged to appoint as commissioners to the Assembly only such ministers and ruling elders as will endeavor to remain in attendance upon the Assembly till its final adjournment.

The Moderator announced the following ad interim committees called for by previous action to inquire into the methods and success of other denominations in colored evangelization. The following, to-wit: T. H. Rice, D. D., R. F. Campbell, D. D., and W. J. McKinney, Esq., A. L. Phillips, D. D., Charles Ghiselin, D. D., and Joseph Hardie, Esq., were associated with E. C. Murray, D. D., and Secretary Hazen to report to the next Assembly on a graded system of Bible study.

The report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama was taken from the docket, amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Records of the Synod of Alabama recommend their approval as far as written, with the following exception:

On page 362, the report on Home Missions speaks of Presbyteries being assessed for the Invalid Fund. There are no assessments in the Presbyterian Church, according to the Assembly of 1886.

The report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries would respectfully report:

We have had placed in our hands a report from Union Seminary for the year ending in May, 1899. From Louisville and Columbia Seminaries and the Southwestern Presbyterian University Divinity School for the current year.

From these reports, which are all of an encouraging nature, we gather the following matters of interest:

I. It is with gratitude to God we record the fact that the faculties of these seminaries are all composed of able, faithful and sound men who are teaching our candidates the truth as we believe it is found in the Word of God, and expressed in the symbols of our church.

The health of the teachers and students has been uniformly good and their work has been prosecuted diligently and successfully. There have been about one hundred and seventy-five students present during the session of these institutions.

II. Union Seminary is now firmly established in its new home in the city of Richmond, Va. With its commodious buildings, ample grounds and the opportunities for service that are around it in a large and growing city, the future of this, our oldest seminary, looks encouragingly bright. There is quite a large sum still due on the buildings, but there is reason to hope that the friends of the institution will not long permit this weight to rest upon it.

The need of a chapel mentioned in the last report has been met by the liberality of Mr. Watts, the generous donor, who had already done so much for the school.

III. The Louisville Seminary, having now secured the full time of Professors Hemphill and Marquess, has been enabled to enlarge its course of study and carry on its work more efficiently.

IV. Louisville Seminary reports large prospective additions to its endowment, and the Southwestern Presbyterian University informs us that it has received gifts which will largely increase its efficiency, and in which its Divinity School will share.

V. We are glad to note that Columbia Seminary, which is endeared to many by its past associations, as well as its present work, has had some increase in the number in attendance, and looks hopefully toward the future. May this long-established school of the prophets be abundantly blessed in its needed work.

In this connection, we would express our sincere regret that the seminary has lost the valued services of Rev. D. J. Brimm, D. D., whose resignation has just been accepted by the board. Rev. C. M. Richards has been appointed in his stead for one year.

VI. We desire to commend the plan in use in the Louisville Seminary in the administration of their scholarship funds. Aid from this fund is bestowed for successful work in the seminary classes, or for mission work in the city and vicinity.

We regard this action as based upon a sound principle, and would like to see it more widely in use.

VII. We have reliable, though not official, information of the election of Rev. T. R. Sampson, D. D., to the presidency of the seminary to be established at Austin, Texas, and of his acceptance of the call. This institution has, we learn, had commodious and suitable buildings given to it, located in the city of Austin. We earnestly pray that God's blessing may rest upon this new enterprise, and that it may be the fruitful means of providing many laborers for the wide and inviting fields of this great State.

With the establishment of this school we shall be well equipped for theological instruction and training in all parts of our territory, and there will be no need for our young men to go outside of our own boundaries for their mental, spiritual or theological furnishing. F. W. LEWIS, Chairman.

The Assembly re-appointed the same persons to be the Committee on Church and Christian Education.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overture from the Presbytery of Nashville touching the tithe was taken from the docket and adopted.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overture from the Presbytery of Nashville asking that the Assembly, instead of the executive committees, fix the salary of the secretaries was taken from the docket and adopted.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported appointments for the Lord's day.

The resolution as to the insertion in future editions of the Confession of Faith of a foot-note was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, That in every edition of the Confession of Faith published hereafter the Committee of Publication be instructed to insert as an explanatory foot-note the action of this Assembly regarding elect infants dying in infancy.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures as to a quorum of Synod was taken from the docket and adopted.

The report of the same committee on an overture from M. C. Taylor as to the receiving divorced persons to membership in the church was taken from the docket and adopted.

The report of the same committee on an overture from the Presbytery of Norfolk asking that the executive committees be required to publish in detail their expense account was taken from the docket, and a substitute for it granting the request of the overture was adopted.*

The report of the same committee on the overture from the Presbytery of Enoree asking the repeal of the action of the last Assembly as to the power of the Moderator of a church court to call a meeting of the court in an emergency was taken from the docket and adopted with an explanatory paper, and is as follows:

* The paper giving the exact phraseology of the substitute did not reach the clerk's desk. The above is the substance of the action. For the introduction and reference of this overture, see pp. 596, 602, 605. On p. 622 it was granted as to Foreign Missions. The Committee on Bills and Overtures considered it in reference to the other executive committees. The recommendation of that committee is found on p. 614. —Stated Clerk.

The Assembly declines to reverse the above deliverance; but interprets it as authorizing the Moderator to convene the court at his own discretion, only in the cases provided for in paragraph 55 (any extraordinary emergency which necessitates the anticipation of the ordinary time of meeting, and the failure of the appointed meeting), and not on any other emergency.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported the following in response to the address of the Rev. Jean Knatz d'Oriol. Adopted:

1. The General Assembly has heard with great pleasure the interesting address of Rev. J. N. d'Oriol regarding the work of the Huguenot Church of France.

2. The Assembly warmly recommends this work to the liberality of our churches.

E. L. SILER, Acting Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overture from Mecklenburg Presbytery touching the removal from Book of Church Order of distinction between teaching and ruling elders was taken from the docket and adopted.

A communication from the Rev. S. R. Gammon, of Lavras, Brazil, touching a proposed visit to the missions in Brazil by the Assembly's secretary of Foreign Missions was read and referred to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.

The following resolution of thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

The General Assembly, on the eve of adjournment, desires to put on record its grateful appreciation of the splendid hospitality with which it has been received and entertained by the people of Atlanta.

Words can give but poor expression to the deep gratitude which their kindness has inspired. Our warmest thanks are due and are hereby returned—

1. To the pastor, officers and members of the Central Church, whose special guests we have been. They have anticipated every want, and provided such comforts and conveniences for the Assembly as are rarely equalled.

2. To the authorities of the Second Baptist Church, who, with fine Christian courtesy, have given their commodious rooms for the use of our committees.

3. To all who have opened their homes and hearts for our entertainment, and have in so many ways ministered to our enjoyment. We gladly bear witness that the spirit of Gaius—the host of the whole church—still lives among us.

4. Most especially to the ladies of the various churches, who have so bountifully provided, and so winsomely served our daily luncheon.

5. To the ladies of the North Avenue Church for their delightful reception to the Assembly on the occasion of laying the corner-stone of their new building.

6. To the pages, who, with so much promptness and courtesy, have served the members of the Assembly, thus contributing to the order and decorum of our sessions.

7. To the telephone and telegraph companies and the post-office department for the exceptional facilities which they have provided. And

8. To the railroads, which have made such liberal reduction in rates for those attending our meeting.

9. To the daily press of this city for publishing the reports of our proceedings.

Nor would we fail to mention our sense of obligation to our excellent Moderator, whom we delight to honor as a worthy representative of the ruling eldership of our church, for the kind, courteous, impartial and effective manner in which he has presided over our sessions. And we express our gratification at the Christian fellowship that extended the invitation to our commissioners to preach in the several pulpits of the city the gospel of our common Lord.

We go to our homes, cherishing sweetest memories of our sojourn in Atlanta, and praying that grace, mercy and peace from God our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ may abide with all who have shown us so much kindness in our Master's name.

The minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

It was ordered that this Assembly be now dissolved, and that another Assembly, chosen in like manner, shall meet in the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Little Rock, Ark., on the third Thursday of May, 1901, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Closed with singing and prayer and with the benediction by the Rev. George L. Petrie, D. D.

ROBERT P. FARRIS, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE.

Seventy-five narratives of the state of religion have been placed in our hands. From a careful study of these papers we gather the following facts:

1. That the attendance on the services of the sanctuary has almost uniformly been good. There is some complaint on the part of churches that their evening congregations are small; but it is a well-known fact that in many of those churches the morning congregations are full and strong.

2. With a sad unanimity our reports declare that family worship is greatly neglected. This is the more serious because it presents no variation from the reports of the last few years. While we may hope that this discouraging aspect is due in part to the lack of accurate investigation on the part of sessions, the general truth of the report, we fear, must be accepted.

3. We are gratified at the testimony which presbyterial narratives bring with regard to the observance of the Lord's day. We do not mean that this testimony is uniform or universal. And the encouraging testimony applies only to our own people. But it is sufficient to show us that our people are still protesting against the turning of the day of rest and worship into a day of mere amusement.

4. The testimony in the matter of the training of the children in the home is not so good. It appears that in the Sunday-schools this training in religious knowledge has been pushed with considerable zeal. Indeed, we fear that this sacred prerogative and the solemn duty of parents have been given over to the Sunday-school teachers.

5. An excellent report comes to us on the matter of worshipping God with our substance. There are some arrearages in the matter of ministers' salaries, but these are not large or numerous. And we feel that we are warranted, from an examination of the narratives, in hoping that the liberality of our people is experiencing a steady growth.

6. The evidences of the growth of spiritual life and activity are altogether good. We fear that too much emphasis has been laid on the term "special," as it occurs in questions sent down to churches and Presbyteries; and that the use of this term has encouraged some churches to mistake accessions gained by the doubtful methods of an irresponsible evangelism as evidences of spiritual growth, and has caused others to depreciate their own earnest and constant labors.

7. Worldly conformity does not prevail to any considerable extent. This is the answer of the narratives. But it must be observed that in the minds of sessions "worldly conformity" means, almost entirely, an indulgence in fashionable amusements.

8. On the matter of evangelistic work outside of churches, we must make a report of moderate encouragement. Your committee understand that the report applies not to the labors of presbyterial evangelists, but to missions and preaching points ministered to by pastors and church members.

9. The committee are gratified, and even surprised, at the evidence presented that our churches are so largely supplied with the preaching of the word. The evidence on this point is strong and encouraging.

On the whole, it is the judgment of the committee, as we look back on the work of the past year, that we have reason to thank God for his mercy in having established the work of our hands upon us and to address ourselves with great hopefulness to the labors of another year. But one painful truth is evident: In those things that concern the Christian home and the godly training of children the church is neglectful. And in view of these things we offer the following recommendations:

(1), That our sessions be urged to investigate the number of families in their charges who practice family worship, and to persuade all to engage in this pious and beneficent custom.

(2), That the second Sunday in October, or where this cannot be observed, some other day, be appointed as a day on which grave and earnest consideration be given this subject; that due notice be given beforehand to congregations that all may meet together to engage in prayer and to hear what God commands concerning the training of children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

M. McN. McKAY, Chairman.

II. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

Notwithstanding many hindrances and some disappointments the work has made progress in every part of the field, and the special blessing of God on the workers and the work has made the year included in this report the best in all our history. The largest number of additions to the native churches reported in any previous year was 523 in 1898. This year the number reported is 642, an increase of more than 100. The average is something over ten additions to each ordained missionary. In the home church last year the average was less than six to each ordained minister.

The largest number of additions in any one mission was 175 in Northern Brazil, and the next largest 114 in Congo, Africa.

Our African mission is at this time involved in difficulties which have already greatly impeded the carrying out of their plans, and may involve grave consequences as to their future work. In the month of September reports reached Luebo that a force of native soldiers, of the Zappo Zap tribe, employed by the State in the collection of tribute, was raiding the country in the neighborhood of Ibange, our station on the border of King Lukenga's country, and perpetrating the most revolting outrages on the natives. By instruction of the mission, Mr. Sheppard went alone on what proved to be the dangerous errand of investigating the facts in the case. These were found to be so aggravated that the mission felt impelled by motives of humanity, not only to make remonstrances to the authorities of the Congo Free State and to the King of Belgium, but also to publish the facts, in the hope of awakening the public sentiment of Christendom to demand the suppression and prevention of such things in future. The facts will most probably be denied by the State officials responsible for them, and their bitter hostility aroused against our missionaries who exposed them. On receiving the representation of the mission, the King of Belgium at once instituted an investigation of the matter. What form the investigation will take, what weight will be given to the testimony of our missionaries as against that of interested parties on the other side, and what the final outcome of the whole matter as bearing on the future of our work in Africa will be remains to be seen. The committee addressed a letter to the King of Belgium, and also laid the facts before our State Department with the view of having the mission, if necessary, protected by our government in its treaty rights.

The committee has approved the action of the China Mission taken at its last meeting, dividing that mission into the Mid-China and the North Kiangsu Missions. The Mid-China Mission includes the stations of Hangchow, Kashing, Kiangyin, Kudin, Sinchang, and Soochow. The North Kiangsu Mission includes the stations of Chinkiang, Chuchow-fu, Suchien, Tsing-kiang-pu, and Whian-fu.

The receipts for the year from all sources were $161,531.44, including $360.70, of funds expended and returned. The net receipts were $161,170.74. This is $16,180.64 more than the receipts for last year. The sum of $1,866.29 was given by the children for the Congo Boat Fund. The balance in the treasury on April 1, 1899, belonging to the General Fund was $54.19.

The disbursements for the year, excluding repayment of borrowed funds, were $162,505.26.

The number of missionaries being 163, the cost of the whole work per missionary was $996. The average cost for the past five years has been between $950 and $1,000 per missionary. We can make no safe estimate for the future at a lower cost than that. As we now have 163 on our roll, $163,000 is the lowest estimate we can make of the cost of the work on its present basis for this year. On a larger income than that therefore depends absolutely the possibility of any enlargement of the work whatever without involving us in debt.

The increase of $16,180.64 over the receipts of last year represents the response of the church to our appeal for the Twentieth Century Fund. The amount asked for that fund was $55,000.

On the other hand, it may be said that the excess of last year over this year in legacies was $7,548.85. Hence the increase this year in gifts from the living was $23,729.49, and no doubt much the greater part of that amount is the result of our special effort for the Twentieth Century Fund.

Again, it may be said that the movement was only authorized by the Assembly and published to the church at the beginning of summer, and included only one of our regular annual collections, so that what was accomplished was done in only one-half of the fiscal year. From this standpoint the results attained are not discouraging, but rather the contrary.

Twelve new missionaries were sent out during the year, and five have retired from the work.

The China Mission needs, for the proper equipment of its present work, and without the opening of any new work, not less than three additional preaching missionaries, one medical missionary, and one trained nurse. The Japan Mission sends an urgent appeal reinforced by an appeal from the Council of Missions of the Church of Christ in Japan, for the enlargement of its force. It especially needs an immediate addition of two ministers and one single woman to keep up its present work, without making any provision for enlargement.

Our day of opportunity in Korea still remains, and the committee looks with melancholy interest on what it fears may be the passing of the opportunity before we are able to plan with adequate resources to meet it. The southern end of the peninsula, assigned us in the division of the field, lies before us, to go where we will and find a people ready, as no other Oriental people have ever been found, to hear the gospel and assist in its propagation among themselves.

None of our stations in Northern Brazil has more than one preaching missionary. As the tropical climate makes the term of five years as long as any of our people can prudently remain in this field without a change, it would be well for us to have in it two more men, who could be moved about as occasion required, to take the places of those who are absent on furlough.

There are great opportunities and great encouragement this year, as in previous years, in our work in Southern Brazil. But that mission only calls for an addition of one man and one single woman, proposing to make a larger use than heretofore of the native helpers they are training at the Theological Seminary at Sao Paulo.

The wonderful spiritual blessing reported by our African Mission as attending their work leads the committee to wish it were possible to send other workers there. But on account of the troubled condition of affairs already referred to, and the uncertainty as to the complications that may arise in the near future, we do not deem it wise to increase the force in that field at present.

The Mexican Mission generously consented to give up Rev. J. G. Hall and Miss Janet H. Houston temporarily to the work in Cuba, and the Mexican force has been weakened by their departure.

Our work in Cuba was opened in response to what seemed an irresistible sentiment in the church that called for it. Special funds were raised for it by the Young People's Societies and by a few individuals. Two of the four missionaries there are entirely supported by individual contributions. The work has met with almost immediate success, the present preaching hall being inadequate to accommodate the congregation that attends Mr. Hall's preaching services, and a church of twenty-one members having been organized at Cardenas on the 11th of February. But as yet the work is only carried on at this one station, while the contiguous territory, which the Southern Methodist Board, which is carrying a large and vigorous work in the island, at our request, courteously refrained from occupying, is not being worked by us at all.

Finally, the health and efficiency of our missionaries in the trying climates and conditions where they all labor require that they should be provided with good, restful, sanitary homes. For want of these some have suffered hardships which, in the spirit in which they were endured, were an honor to themselves, but which it has not been an honor to the church which sent them out to have suffered them to endure. Others have suffered in health and had to be brought home at heavy expense for the same reason.

To meet in any adequate way the expense of the work thus briefly sketched your Executive Committee needs a regular annual income of not less than $200,000.

The circulation of The Missionary has decreased during the year, the number of paying subscribers now on the roll being 9,901, as against 10,034 at the close of last year.

It has become evident that the change of price made three years ago had little, if any, effect in increasing the circulation. It has been thought best, therefore, to adopt the suggestion of the last Assembly to restore the old price of $1.00 a year for single subscriptions, retaining the 50 cent rate for clubs of five or more.

The circulation of The Children's Missionary has increased, the number of paying subscribers now on the roll being 5,806, as against 5,140 at the close of last year. The cost of publication was $1,505.66. The amount received from subscriptions was $1,361.50.

Three thousand and five hundred copies of the Prayer Calendar were issued at an estimated cost of printing and mailing of $412.22. Copies were distributed free to our ministers, and the sum of $479.67 was received for copies sold.

The last Assembly instructed us to expend the whole amount of the Congo Boat Fund, if necessary, in the construction of a boat suitable for the needs of our African Mission, and appeal to the children for the additional amount necessary to send the boat out. On September 22, 1899, a contract was made with the Wm. R. Trigg Company, shipbuilders, of Richmond, Va., for a boat 70 feet long, 12 feet broad, depth 3 feet 6 inches, and carrying not less than 1,450 cubic feet of freight in the hold.

According to contract the boat was to be finished by April 1st, but the impossibility of securing some of the material in time has caused some necessary delay. At the time of writing of this report it is expected that the boat will be finished by the latter part of April, 1900.

The committee lays before the Assembly the request of the Mission of Southern Brazil for the Secretary to visit them at the time of the meeting of their Synod in July. The educational value of such a visit to the Secretary, the Executive Committee and the church at large is one argument in its favor. The difficulties are the time it would require and the expense. The time would be about four months. Two of these, however, would be the months of August and September, during which the work of the office is relatively light. The expense would be about $500, a part of which can probably be secured from private sources, and the remainder from the income of the Campinas property.

A number of additional Women's Presbyterial Unions have been organized during the year. So far as known none have been organized except with the endorsement of Presbytery, and all are conducted in accordance with Presbyterian methods and in subordination to presbyterial authority. The committee desires to make grateful mention of the good work they have been doing in the way of organizing missionary effort and stimulating interest in the churches represented in them.

Receipts from legacies, $1,305.06; from Loan Fund, $374.40; from interest on Southern Railway bond, $50; contributions, $28,972.39; total, $30.701.85. Add on hand at the beginning of the year $11,988.39 and railroad bond $1.000 and we have total in the hands of the Treasurer for this cause during the year $43.690.24.

The whole number of ministers and teachers, whose support in whole or in part was furnished by your treasury, was one hundred and thirty-seven; some of these served only a part of the year.

During this year your committee loaned $600 to four churches to enable them to erect houses of worship. The total loans from this fund to our white churches in the fourteen years which have elapsed since the Assembly instituted this fund have amounted to $7,905 loaned to fifty-eight churches. The Assembly has cancelled $404.25 on two loans. The Treasurer's report (page 10) shows that $3,077.86 is outstanding. Some of this is not yet due, but some of it has been due for years. The loans are made as debts of honor without interest.

Cash on hand of the Moore Church erection fund at the beginning of the year $2,807.63. Returned during the year on loans, principal and interest, $804.96. Total cash in Treasurer's hands, $3,612.59; of this $1,450 was loaned to five feeble congregations to enable them to erect houses of worship; $79.04 was paid for expenses, and $2,083.55 remained cash on hand March 31, 1899.

Since this fund came into your treasury loans have been made amounting to $6,275 to twenty-four churches, and $3,709.06 has been paid back. The outstanding loans are secured by mortgage on the church property, some of the notes being personally indorsed also by the church officers.

The Treasurer's report shows that 1,424 churches sent contributions directly to your Treasurer. From four Presbyteries contributions were sent by the Presbyterial Treasurer in bulk to your Treasurer, and in one Presbytery a per cent. of contributions from its churches was forwarded. Reports from those treasurers show that 167 churches contributed through them, making a total of 1,591 churches contributing to the cause during the year.

The receipts from legacies were less this year than last year by $2,491.17.

Again, there was a receipt last year (for each of the last two years) of $5,000 given by a generous lady who, as we have understood, anticipated her will, becoming her own executrix. These two items created in this year's receipts a loss of $7,491.17, as compared with the receipts of last year. As an offset we have a gratifying increase of $3,205.11 in contributions from the more regular sources.

The gain of $2,796.77 from churches was that much gain over any previous year, and the income from regular sources was greater than in any previous year by $1,175.64.

Receipts for the Invalid Fund from contributions, $15,251.56, to which add $105, returned, and $14.21, cash on hand at the beginning of the year, and we have $15,370.77 total in the hands of the Treasurer during the year. The sum of $13,856.50 was paid out to 149 beneficiaries (41 ministers and 108 widows or families of ministers deceased); expenses, $1,512.29, were paid, and $1.98 cash remained in the treasury March 31, 1900.

During the year four aged ministers and one in his early prime were called from their sufferings on earth to the reward which, by God's grace, awaits his redeemed and faithful servants in "the realms of the blest." Three widows died during the year; two others will not longer ask for aid.

Ten new ministers and five families of ministers deceased were added to the list, and $1,860 was asked of the treasury for their benefit.

Owing to the rather unusual increase in the applications for aid, the fund paid only eighty-three and one-third cents on the dollar applied for.

Of the 1,472 churches contributing 1,383 sent to your treasury directly, 89 contributed through presbyterial treasurers.

The total receipts this year were $867.43 above those of last year, and were by that much larger than in any year of our history, except in the two years ending March 31, 1891, and 1892.

The ladies' societies in the churches of Romney, W. Va.; Central Church, St. Louis, Mo.; Mt. Washington, Maryland; Franklin Street and Franklin Street Sabbath-school, Baltimore, Md.; Second Church, Little Rock, Ark.; of St. Charles, Mo., and the Boys' Band of Centre Church, Concord Presbytery, N. C. (and probably others who did not report their action to us), rendered very efficient service to the Master during the year by sending some valuable boxes which cost the ladies much work, and also by sending, in some instances, considerable cash contributions to several of our earnest, hard-working ministers who have a small salary upon which to live.

Our best information enables us to state that the Synods of Alabama, Florida, and Georgia have no work known as Synodical Home Missionary work. Each Presbytery cares for its own fields.

The six Synods of Arkansas, Memphis, Missouri, South Carolina, Texas, and Virginia have synodical committees which raise funds by collection and by subscriptions, and employ a synodical evangelist (in South Carolina and Virginia several evangelists are employed), who serve under assignment from the committee in the different Presbyteries, the Presbyteries at the same time caring for presbyterial work through presbyterial committees and treasuries.

In the Synod of Nashville three of its four Presbyteries coöperate in having one treasury, no evangelist, the fund being divided between the three Presbyteries pro rata, according to their estimated weakness, and each Presbyterial Committee, with its share of the fund, conducts the presbyterial work.

The Synod of Mississippi has one treasury, to which all funds are sent. A synodical evangelist is first employed and assigned by the Synodical Committee to serve the Presbyteries, and funds are given to presbyterial committees for their use. One Presbytery in the Synod cares for its own fields and gives a per cent. of its collections to Synodical Committee.

In the Synod of Kentucky three Presbyteries send all funds to synodical treasury; three have presbyterial treasuries also. The Synodical Committee employs evangelists and aids the Presbyteries.

In North Carolina there are synodical and presbyterial treasuries. Funds are given in bulk to one weak Presbytery for its use, and the Synodical Committee, after employing superintendent and synodical evangelist, aids the work in four Presbyteries, the other two Presbyteries not asking aid from Synodical Committee.

What has been accomplished during the year?

1. The erection of fifteen buildings has been secured.

2. By the employment of 118 ministers and one candidate over 260 churches and over 80 missionary outposts, making at least 340 points, were supplied with the preaching of the word. Without the Assembly's aid scarcely any of these points could have heard that word with any regularity from a Presbyterian minister. Thirty-eight of the churches thus supplied are in Florida, the remainder, except three, are west of the Mississippi river.

Your committee has secured eight schools in Indian Territory during the year. In these fifteen teachers were employed, and there was an enrollment of 675 white and 251 Indian pupils.

IV. ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY.

We gratefully acknowledge obligation to the Union and Planters' Bank for permitting the committee to use without charge its rooms for our monthly meetings, and also to the Memphis National Bank, of which your Treasurer is president, for giving us all necessary exchange, thus reducing our expenses.

In obedience to the instructions of the last General Assembly, we endeavored to raise this year $30,000. This sum was apportioned among all the Presbyteries of the Assembly, and each was notified at its fall meeting of the amount it was requested to raise.

We are pleased to report encouraging unanimity on the part of the Presbyteries in the prosecution of this work. Three which formerly have not been coöperating with the committee, namely, Chickasaw, Columbia, and Red River, have come into full coöperation this year. A large number of Presbyteries are now in coöperation with the committee than have been for many years, only two at present not coöperating fully or in part.

The Presbytery of Florida, while educating its own candidates, has given us contributions for our work. In this connection Lexington Presbytery deserves especial mention. It, too, provides for its own candidates, and in addition contributes very liberally to our treasury.

It is with peculiar pleasure that we report that our people have responded liberally to appeals, in consequence of which we have received this year, from all sources, as shown by the Treasurer's report, $18,335.59. These receipts resulting from the regular collections are the largest for this cause since 1895, and have enabled us to pay in full all appropriations for this year and to report a balance of $1,529.90. We have received no legacies. These receipts, therefore, in view of the fact that we closed our books two weeks earlier than last year, are very encouraging. We have enrolled 195 beneficiaries.

This total is twenty less than were enrolled last year, and the number actually aided is eighteen less than last year. In proportion to the entire number of candidates the percentage of those aided through your committee is very large, constituting the rule rather than the exception. But the giving of aid ought to be the exception rather than the rule. Any successful effort, therefore, to secure an increase of the number of candidates should result in a larger proportion of non-beneficiaries.

Of our beneficiaries 103 are theological, 38 seniors, 34 in the middle class, 33 juniors; 92 are in colleges.

Of those receiving aid through our treasury thirteen have received through us from other sources $896.61 in addition to our appropriations.

Three of our beneficiaries are foreigners, but pursuing their theological studies in our institutions under the care of two of our Presbyteries. When making appropriations in their behalf, at the request of the Presbyteries, the committee expressed the judgment "That the appropriation of aid to such candidates is an improper use of this fund, yet recognizing that, being merely an executive body, they must obey the will of the Presbyteries in the making of appropriations. enrolled these names and granted the appropriations desired." The committee further instructed the Secretary "to inform the Presbyteries making these applications that we would submit the granting of aid to such candidates to the next General Assembly for instruction as to our course in the future." We therefore ask for instruction upon this point.

In view of the decline in the number of candidates, your committee realize that efficient measures such as may be wise and expedient should be adopted to impress upon the heart and the conscience of the church the necessity of perpetuating and multiplying a divinely called and thoroughly equipped ministry.

Near the beginning of this year the Rev. W. McF. Alexander, D. D., having accepted a pastorage in New Orleans, was transferred from Memphis. He, therefore, resigned his membership in this committee. The committee, realizing that in his removal they sustained a serious loss, accepted his resignation, and by unanimous vote elected the Rev. Turner A. Wharton, D. D., pastor of the Alabama Street Church, Memphis, to fill the vacancy.

V. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

In some departments of our work we are able to report much that is encouraging. This is especially true as to the business of our depository. There has been an increase of a little more than 25 per cent., the sales having been larger than for many previous years. There has been a substantial increase in the sales of our own publications.

The past year has been one of more than usual activity in our publishing department, and some of our new issues have been of unusual importance. Among them we note two that have attracted wide attention, but which are of especial interest to our own church. One of them, My Life and Times, by Dr. John B. Adger, is the record of a life spanning almost the whole century, and closely identified with the history of our church from its beginning. The other, The Life of Moses D. Hoge, D. D., by Rev. P. H. Hoge, D. D., is of equal importance to the annals of our church as giving the life-work of one who as a representative minister was perhaps best and most widely known of all, and prominent not only in all the great movements of the century in our own church, but in evangelical Christianity.

An Exposition of the Book of Church Order, from the pen of Rev. F. P. Ramsay, has been published during the year, and while its sales have been limited, it has been received with much favor by those who are especially interested in the study of our ecclesiastical law.

Still another book that has received high commendation in many quarters, and is worthy of it, is Christian Science, by Rev. W. P. McCorkle.

SABBATH-SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

The list below shows an increase in the circulation of the three principal papers as compared with last year, while the others have not decreased in number.

Earnest Worker,	234,000
Children's Friend,	1,120,000
Pearls,	940,000
Pictorial Lessons,	90,000
Lesson Quarterly,	135,000
Primary Quarterly,	65,000
Lesson Papers,	900,000

As in former years, much less has been accomplished in the colportage work than the needs of our field require, but, whether measured by the time employed or the amount of literature distributed, nearly twice as much has been accomplished as last year.

SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSION WORK.

In accordance with the purpose announced in the last Annual Report looking to the inauguration of a Sabbath-school mission work, four young men, candidates for the ministry, were employed during the seminary vacation; two others were engaged and assigned to fields; but one through sickness, and another because of an opening in another direction, failed to enter upon the service. Two of these young men—R. T. Coit and W. C. Young—were engaged in the mountains of Western North Carolina; two others—T. Wyatt De Vane and M. E. Hansel—were employed in Southwestern Virginia and in West Virginia with the following results:

Total number days' service,	940
Miles travelled,	4,173
Sabbath-schools organized,	18
Number of teachers,	70
Number of scholars,	663
Sabbath-schools visited,	34
Prayer meetings held,	151
Addresses delivered,	32
Sermons preached,	67
Families visited,	1,569
Books and tracts distributed (value),	$233.96
Total expenses,	$643.12

All of these young men have been under pastoral or evangelistic control in the prosecution of their labors, and their fields of labor have been selected by the Synodical Home Mission Committees. By the adoption of this method it is hoped that a wise discrimination in the selection of fields and in the prosecution of the work will be employed so that time and labor may not be wasted in localities that give no promise of permanent success.

Through the two agencies, Colportage and Sabbath-School Missions, twenty-six new Sabbath-schools were organized in localities destitute of gospel privileges, all giving promise of continued usefulness.

It ought to be noted that in connection with the work of some of these young men coöperating with pastors and evangelists there were over fifty conversions. In the case of several of the Sabbath-schools organized, steps looking to the organization of churches were taken during the season, and in the case of most of these schools there is reason to believe that they will lead eventually to church organizations.

With such a measure of success attending our very limited and tentative effort there would seem to be a clear indication of Providence as to our duty as a church in this line of work. There can be no doubt as to the need of such a work in our broad field. It would seem to be demonstrated that we can successfully prosecute the work in a remarkably inexpensive way by the methods proposed and adopted. The only question seems to be whether we can secure the comparatively small amount necessary for the purpose. It will not do for us to diminish or to curtail the colportage and donation features of our work. On the contrary, there is a constant demand for their enlargement. These departments require, and have required for several years past, funds considerably in excess of all contributions made to this cause. If, therefore, the work of Sabbath-school missions be prosecuted, the means must be furnished by increased contributions.

The work would appear to have special claims upon our Sabbath-schools, but the number reported as contributing anything to the cause in 1899 was only about sixty, and this year only about eighty-five.

Notwithstanding the meagre funds supplied for this purpose, the Executive Committee have determined to prosecute the work upon an increased scale the coming season, and ten young men, candidates for the ministry, have already been engaged and will enter the field in at least six different Synods of our church.

DONATIONS.

The grants of literature, including Sabbath-school papers, books, etc., to mission Sabbath-schools, needy churches, etc., during the year past reached in value the amount of $5,849.88, more than has ever been donated before in any one year.

As our mission fields are extended, and as the Sabbath-school mission work is developed, the demand for the assistance given by the church in this way must increase, and will demand greater resources to meet it.

Seven hundred and fourteen Bibles have been given for the perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism, and twelve hundred and fourteen Testaments for the perfect recitation of the Introduction to the Shorter Catechism.

The contributions received from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals during the year amounts to $8,040.56, an increase of 8 per cent. over what may be regarded as the regular collection of last year, which, leaving out a special contribution of $5,000, reached only $7,408. The total amount appropriated to the benevolent work of the year, as appears from the Treasurer's report, was $10,937.35, or about $2,900 in excess of our collections. Our present plans of work will demand an appropriation considerably beyond this during the current year.

By reference to the Treasurer's report it will be seen that the net income from the Publishing House is much less than that reported in previous years, being only $965.15. This is due to the fact that important improvements and changes in the building have been made necessary by a change in the lease of the most important part of the premises.

For more than twenty years the first floor has been leased to a mercantile concern, which has been a most satisfactory tenant. Increase of business rendered it necessary for this concern to secure additional room, and it surrendered its lease at the close of this financial year, having, however, vacated the premises months before. During the interval an advantageous lease was affected with one of the strongest financial institutions of the city, and while the changes and improvements required by this new lease involved a very considerable expense, we have secured a most desirable permanent tenant, and the building is in a better condition throughout than it has ever been before.

The Treasurer's report is herewith submitted, showing receipts and disbursements of the year, together with the assets and liabilities, from which it appears that our net assets are $116,942.36.

VI. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COLORED EVANGELIZATION.

This work has moved on without friction in any part of it during the year, and we hope that some real progress has been made. It is beset with many difficulties at all times, and we feel grateful that these have not been as trying this year as during the previous one.

We have attempted in some measure to enlarge our work by entering new fields. We have had an evangelist at work in and around Texarkana, Ark., preaching to the destitute of that region. We have had for part of the year an evangelist in Louisiana Presbytery who was to go to those of his race who were not supplied with preaching. During last summer we employed Rev. S. G. Walker to do evangelistic work. He visited several churches already organized, and organized churches at Clio, S. C., Dillsboro, N. C., McCall, S. C., and Epps, S. C.

Our faithful worker, Brother O. B. Wilson, presents the following report for the small portion of time he has been able to give to evangelistic work from his other laborious duties:

"The amount of time I have been able to give to evangelistic work has been smaller than I could wish. I have been able to visit the mission work at Atlanta, Ga., Columbus, Miss., Selma, Ala., Farmville, Va., and in the Mercy Seat Congregation in Virginia. Also at the request of pastor and session of the church at Oxford, Miss., I visited that point, where a most hearty welcome awaited me, and a most encouraging work was inaugurated by the workers of that church. It is gratifying to note how well the people respond to a call for volunteers to teach in the mission schools if the pastor and session are interested in the work. The progress during the year has not been rapid in extending the work of mission schools. The last Assembly bravely outlined the policy which our work needs to pursue. No one need be surprised or discouraged that as yet but few churches have heeded the call. Any one familiar with the growth of the cause of Foreign Missions is prepared to wait patiently for a great truth to find its way among the people. In some cases it is the pastor who bravely leads his people; in others it is some zealous member of the congregation that feels constrained to hear and obey the clear call of God. As it has always been, so it will be, and whether by one way or the other, the cause advances, and therein we rejoice."

We have aided in the construction of two churches and in the purchase of one manse.

Perhaps the most encouraging work of an evangelistic nature is the work done by our white people in the mission Sunday-schools for colored people. We are glad to report the number of such schools as 37, an increase of 14 during the year.

Following is a table showing location and giving statistics of these schools:

It appears that 179 teachers are regularly and faithfully instructing 1,987 scholars in the word of God and the catechisms of our church.

The number of workers to be sustained in part or whole by us is larger this year than last. The number of our ministers is greater, and a greater number are at work. We have 53 on our roll. Some of these are supported in part by white churches or Presbyteries. We have made and paid in full appropriations to these workers amounting to $2,714.82. Other amounts paid out to colored ministers and churches raises the sum to $3,094.23.

Stillman Institute.—We have maintained the work of the institute during the entire calendar year. From the first of June to the last of September we kept the institute open in the academic department. During the other months it has been open in both the academic and theological departments. There have been fifty students in attendance, thirty-five of whom were given instruction most of the year. We are greatly pleased with the industrial features of the work of the institute. Without interfering with the time for study or recitation, the superintendent has had the students do a great deal of work on the farm and garden. This has reduced the cost of the institute to the committee in a very marked degree. But of more importance than the saving of money has been the cultivation in the students of the spirit of independence and self-help, and also of habits of thrift and economy. The health of the students is most excellent, and a spirit of helpfulness and zeal characterizes their work.

EXTRACT FROM REPORT OF REV. O. B. WILSON, SUPERINTENDENT.

For the Year ending April 1, 1900.

As agent for the institute, it has been my duty to collect the monthly payments on the "Old Institute" property and deliver the same to the treasurer, Dr. J. Little.

I have received the amount due from this source, up to date, $318.78, and paid it to the treasurer.

In accordance with directions of the last Assembly, the work of the institute has been much enlarged. It may be said to have three new departments of useful work.

Besides the instruction in theology and other branches it has a ten day's "Preachers' Institute" for the alumni and other colored ministers to receive instruction in such studies as will help them in the work.

It has also a Summer School for the Christian education of colored youth. This is simply a continuation of the perparatory department, which is thus kept open the year round.

It works in with the Industrial Department so well that neither would be practicable without the other.

The enlargement in the work is seen also in the increased attendance, which is somewhat greater than it has ever been. If we count the roll of both schools, the summer school and the regular session, we have given instruction to fifty pupils. Thirty-five of these are on the roll of the present session.

Notwithstanding the increased attendance, there has not been an increase in our expense—but a decided reduction.

Every boarder used to cost us $8 per month. The average cost during the past twelve months has been exactly one-half of that sum—$4 per month. It is, moreover, an improvement on the previous session, when our average was $5 a month for each student.

I confidently hope that the students will do better than this—not that they will work any more willingly, but simply in that we can readily have more facilities for profitable work. Limited, as we have been, to one single industry, the cultivation of the land, there were many times when I had to say to twenty or more willing workers, "I have no work for you to-day." Had we at such times had such in-door work as broom or mattress making, a carpenter's shop, or any one of many possible industries, there is no reason to doubt—it is practically certain—that our expenses would have been still further reduced.

I could have, with all ease, doubled my number during the past session if I had had work to give those who applied for admission. Knowing that I did not have work for them, I declined to take them.

The health of the students has been exceptionally good.

The facilities at Stillman Institute ought, without delay, to be so increased that we could receive 250 pupils.

In addition to the work done at Stillman Institute, we have helped carry on the work of the Ferguson-Williams College at Abbeville, S. C. This school has done a good work during the whole period of its existence.

At its last meeting the Synod of North Carolina took the following action:

"It was ordered that the trustees of the Synod of North Carolina, or other trustees who may hold the title to the following named property, transfer and convey to the trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States all of the right, title and interest of the said Synod in and to the Colored Industrial and Academical Institute located at North Wilkesboro, N. C., upon condition that said General Assembly, through its Committee of Colored Evangelization, assumes all the outstanding liabilities of said Synod on account of said Industrial and Academical Institute."

This gives the property to the Assembly without specifying whose benefit it is to be used for, and calls upon this committee to assume all outstanding obligations. But as it is clearly the intent of the Synod to transfer the property to this committee, we have accepted it in good faith and have operated the school on a small scale during the year. We hope in the future to enlarge the work of this industrial school.

It is the judgment of this committee that if a number of schools in which industrial and academic training could be given were established by us, it would be a valuable factor in the work of Colored Evangelization. These schools need not be projected on an expensive plan, and should, in our judgment, be conducted on the general plan of the industrial department of Stillman Institute, which gives industrial training to equip the negro for work in connection with the farm, a sphere to which he has proved himself peculiarly adapted.

Last June we brought a number of our ministers together in a "Preachers' Institute" at Stillman Institute. For ten days they were instructed in all matters relating to their work. They enjoyed an opportunity of mutual acquaintance which they had never had before. This institute accomplished many good things, but it did not accomplish a very important thing which we had hoped for, viz., the completion of the organization of the Independent Colored Presbyterian Church. Those who had opposed the independent church opposed it still, and the institute adjourned without progress in this line. This leads us to speak of

THE AFRO-AMERICAN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

During the institute just mentioned the members of the body commonly referred to as the Independent Colored Presbyterian Church, but which was officially styled "The Synod of the Colored Presbyterian Church of the United States and Canada," adopted as their official designation the shorter and more appropriate one of "The Afro-American Presbyterian Church."

It behooves us to give a candid statement of the condition which confronts our church in this matter. Briefly stated, it is this: The two largest and most influential Presbyteries, Ethel and Central Alabama, have always opposed the organization of the separate church. These Presbyteries are composed, for the most part, of men who have been trained in Stillman Institute and have been in organic connection with our Assembly in their work as ministers. Those Presbyteries which favored the separate church are principally composed of men who have had little or no training and have not been in organic union with our Assembly at any time. These two bodies of ministers hold different views upon this subject, and we have been unable by any arguments to make any change in the views of those opposing the separate organization, or to bring them into harmony with the Assembly's position in this matter. Following the suggestion of the Assembly, our Secretary visited the Presbyteries of Ethel and Central Alabama and laid the whole matter before them. They both expressed themselves as unalterably opposed to the movement. Were all our ministers united in the one organization, it would then be a very small and weak body, and with this division in their numbers the Afro-American Presbyterian Church is made an extremly weak and struggling body, and its success rendered very doubtful. We lay this before you frankly and make no suggestion as to what action, if any, should be taken.

During the year we have had a call made upon us to help the widow of one of our ministers. Supposing that the Assembly's plan is to put all of the work for colored people in the hands of this committee, we made an appropriation of $20 for her. We respectfully ask your approval of this action and the authority to make such appropriations in the future as we see fit.

We have received during the year $8,454.57 on the general fund of Colored Evangelization, and $538.85 on the special or improvement fund of Stillman Institute. This is an increase of $1,000, in round numbers, over last year, and we are truly grateful to the head of the church for this evidence of his favor. We have advanced $600.08 from the general fund to the special or improvement fund of Stillman Institute, which, with the $222.83 due from the special to the general fund on last year's accounts, brings the special fund in debt to the general fund in the amount of $822.91. This amount is to be replaced from the proceeds of the sale of the Indianapolis property, which is to the credit of the special fund.

We are able to report a balance of $3,330.35 the first day of our new fiscal year. But of this amount about $1,350 will be needed to pay the balance on the Superintendent's house, which will fall due when completed; and as we will receive very little from now until December, we will need the remaining $1,980 with which to maintain the work until then. We take pleasure in saying that all the Synods of the Assembly are now sending their contributions for this cause to our treasury, and that this work has grown in unity and strength.

VII. THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

For the Year ending May 10, 1900.

The Board of Directors would gratefully acknowledge the goodness of God to this time-honored institution through another year. The health of faculty and students has been excellent, and the work done has been quite satisfactory.

Twenty-seven students have been enrolled, an ancrease of three over the previous year. They were enrolled as follows: Seven in the senior class, four in the middle, ten in the junior, five special, and one post-graduate. Five of the graduating class having completed the full course, were awarded diplomas conferring the degree of B. D., viz., Kenneth McCaskill, Albert W. Pierce, H. Maxcy Smith, Frank H. Wardlaw, and William J. Wiley. James A. Berry, John T. Butler, Robert S. Latimer, and Thomas Parker, not having taken the full course, were awarded certificates.

Rev. D. J. Brimm, D. D., Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, tendered his resignation to the Board, which was accepted. To fill the vacancy, Rev. C. M. Richards, of Harmony Presbytery, was unanimously elected Provisional Instructor for one year. With this exception the Faculty will remain the same as during the year just closed.

The committee that has hitherto had charge of the matter of collecting funds for the erection of a Seminary Mess Hall are instructed to continue the solicitation of additional funds, and to proceed to the erection of said building as soon as, in their judgment, the way seems clear.

The library now numbers over 22,000 volumes, and it is a collection of rare excellence.

This institution has been a great blessing to the church in days by-gone, and with its present equipment there is no reason why it may not render as efficient and valuable service in the future. Those seeking a thorough preparation for the gospel ministry need not hesitate to patronize it.

W. W. MILLS, Secretary of the Board.

VIII. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES OF THE UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Board of Directors and Trustees of the Union Theological Seminary in Virginia respectfully report to the General Assembly that the session of 1898–'99 was the most prosperous in its history.

In October, 1898, the new buildings described in our last year's report were dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. In the morning Watts Hall was dedicated with an address by Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D. D., and prayer by Rev. A. C. Hopkins, D. D.; and the Spence Library, Westminster Hall and professors' houses were dedicated in the afternoon with an address by Rev. L. B. Turnbull, D. D., and prayer by Rev. Peyton H. Hoge, D. D. Mr. S. H. Hawes and Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., presented to the trustees the keys of the different buildings.

On the first Wednesday in October, 1898, the session was formally opened with an address by Rev. Prof. T. C. Johnson, D. D. There were present during the session 88 students, 23 more than the previous year, as follows: In the senior class, 20; in the middle class, 28; in the junior class, 36; special students, 4. With a few exceptions students and professors have enjoyed excellent health. The fidelity and success of the students in their studies have been worthy of all praise. The relations of faculty and students on one hand, with the pastors and churches of the city on the other, have been mutually helpful in many ways, and the students have enjoyed the benefit of a number of special lectures and courses of lectures.

The number of volumes in the library is as follows: Bound, 16,000; unbound, 5,000; total, 21,000. The library has been enriched with some valuable MSS., and, with an admirable fire-proof depository, it is hoped such additions will be increased.

FUNDS.

The endowment of the seminary amounts to $265,511.21, which sum includes the library and scholarship funds. In addition to this the Seminary owns lands in several States of considerable value.

The buildings have been erected at a total cost of $155,995.20. Value of the lot, $20,000. Indebtedness on buildings, $76,700. Subscriptions yet to be realized on, $28,085.

The Board has placed the disposition of the property at Hampden-Sidney in the hands of a committee to negotiate a sale or other disposition of the property to Hampden-Sidney College.

During the year Col. J. P. Fitzgerald, the faithful secretary and treasurer of the board for many years, was removed by death. On account of the state of Col. Fitzgerald's health he had resigned the office of treasurer. Mr. W. C. Preston had been elected treasurer, as reported last year. Upon his death Mr. Preston was also elected secretary. Mr. H. B. Davidson was elected a trustee in Col. Fitzgerald's place, according to the appointment of the Synod of Virginia.

Dr. English was elected chairman of the Faculty and Intendant for the ensuing year.

The Board has conferred diplomas upon the following gentlemen with the right of the degree of Bachelor of Divinity as soon as authority is conferred by the Legislature: James Eustace Ballou, Edward Paschal Bradley, William Henry Fraser, Edward Epes Lane, Daniel Patrick McGeachy, George Thomas Pace, Robert Ernest Vinson, and Robert Murphy Williams.

The following gentlemen were awarded diplomas without degree: William Ford Bull, Joseph Layton Mauzey, Hugh Peyton McChristie, William Scott Morton, John Gibson Reveley, George Field Sevier, and Hazael Joseph Williams.

The Board takes special pleasure in reporting to the General Assembly the zeal and fidelity of the faculty not only in the discharge of their ordinary duties, but in providing for all the emergencies growing out of the removal of the seminary to Richmond. The Board expresses its cordial sense of appreciation to Messrs. S. H. Hawes, John S. Munce, C. D. Larus, R. P. Kerr, D. D., and L. B. Turnbull, D. D., of the Building Committee, and Messrs. John A Coke, Jas. W. Sinton, and G. R. Cannon, of the Finance Committee, for their laborious and faithful service in the admirable taste and excellent judgment displayed by them in the discharge of their voluntary service. To them as well as to the generous donors of the means for removal we owe the elegance and completeness of the plant and equipment at Richmond. The principal present need of the seminary are (1) a chapel or other auditorium, (2) an additional dormitory, and (3) gifts and legacies for paying off the remaining debt on the buildings and increase of endowment.

WM. C. PRESTON, Secretary.

IX. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SOUTHWESTERN PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY DIVINITY SCHOOL.

To the General Assembly in Session May 17, 1900:

The Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University respectfully reports that during the year now about to close it has had an enrollment of twenty-eight students, who have done good work and led exemplary lives. The corps of professors, six in number, has been the same as named in our last report, except that Mr. J. B. Wharey has been instructor in public reading, etc., in the place of Dr. Henry W. Naff, who died July, 30, 1899. The death of Dr. Naff was a distinct loss not only to this institution, but to the entire church and to the cause of Christian education. He was a man of singular purity, devotion, lofty ideals, gifts and accomplishments.

During the year the Divinity School has been greatly blessed in connection with the general interests of the university by the reception of large gifts to its endowment, rendering its work more permanent and adequately provided for.

The following young men will enter upon their work in the gospel ministry in June: J. F. Eddins, North Mississippi Presbytery; C. P. Browning, Palmyra Presbytery; William Goddard, Nashville Presbytery; Alva Hardie, Dallas Presbytery; E. L. Hill, East Alabama Presbytery; P. C. Irwin and W. R. McCalla, Memphis Presbytery; M. E. Melvin and J. W. Moss, Central Mississippi Presbytery; D. H. Ogden, New Orleans Presbytery; Jno. W. Orr, Columbia Presbytery; J. A. Pankey and E. L. Storey, Central Texas Presbytery, and W. W. Powell, Suwanee Presbytery. By order of the Board of Directors.

GEORGE SUMMEY, Chancellor.

D. N. KENNEDY, Secretary.

X. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LOUISVILLE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

For the Year 1899–1900.

In presenting their seventh annual report to the General Assembly, the Board of Directors desire to record the goodness of God in granting the institution under their care another happy and prosperous year.

The annual meeting of the Board was held at the Seminary on May 1, 1900, and its proceedings were marked by harmony and hopefulness. The attendance at the meeting was larger than usual, and there was much to encourage in the condition and prospects of the Seminary. It was especially cheering to find in various ways evidences of the growing interest of the friends of the Seminary in its welfare and support. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Rev. J. G. Hunter, D. D., Harrodsburg, Ky., president; Rev. S. M. Neel, D. D., Kansas City, Mo., vice-president; Rev. J S. Lyons, D. D., Louisville, Ky., secretary; W. T. Grant, Esq., Louisville, Ky., treasurer; Stuart Duncan, Esq., Louisville, Ky., assistant treasurer.

The health of the professors and students has been unusually good throughout the entire session. There has not been a single case of illness, nor was there any break in the work of the classes by reason of sickness. The location of the Seminary is found to be very healthful, and the use of filtered rain water in the Seminary is found of great value for the health of the students. The location of the institution at this point is very central, and the railways give the students special privileges in all directions. In addition, the location of the Seminary serves the church in important ways, in that it makes it less likely that students will go to institutions outside of our bounds, and it trains ministers near to the growing and needy fields of the West and Southwest.

The forward step taken last year in securing the entire services of Prof. Hemphill and Prof. Marquess has been a very great gain to the efficiency of the Seminary. Prof. Hemphill taught Homiletics and Pastoral Theology in addition to Greek Exegesis, and Prof. Marquess taught Biblical Instruction in addition to his other branches. Prof. Hawes, who a year ago was unable to take his classes during the entire session, took his work through the whole of this year. The work of Prof. Beattie and Prof. Muller remains the same as before. Instruction in sacred music was given throughout the session.

The courses of study have been considerably expanded in several important directions this year. In both Hebrew and Greek three courses instead of two, as heretofore, were provided, and the time devoted to Greek New Testament has been greatly increased. In connection with Homiletics and Elocution special pains is taken to train the students very thoroughly in the art of public speaking. It may be interesting to note the fact that as the courses are now arranged more than half the class hours are devoted to studies that are distinctly biblical in their nature.

There has also been expansion in post-graduate work this session. Three distinct courses were conducted this year, and for next session four additional courses are offered. The purpose of the Seminary in this connection is to develop these post-graduate studies, and in the course of time to organize non-resident courses of reading, upon which examinations shall be conducted as the basis upon which higher degrees may be given.

Three years' experience of the policy of the Seminary in not granting indiscriminate aid to students out of its funds has further confirmed the wisdom of this policy. It has been good for the students, and it has resulted in eliciting the liberality of many friends in founding scholarships which are awarded partly on the basis of academic standing and partly as remuneration for work done in the city missions. In this way the young men feel that they earn what they get, and the scholarships thus awarded serve the double purpose of aiding worthy young men and of building up our Presbyterian Church in the city and suburbs.

The position of the Seminary is now such in regard to this scholarship scheme that no deserving student who fulfills the conditions set forth in the catalogue will fail to secure aid according to the policy of earned scholarships. The liberality of many friends, who have made this possible, is very gratifying and a further evidence of their abiding interest in the work of the Seminary.

During the year a large and unexpected bequest for the Seminary was announced by the will of a lady recently deceased. Owing to a contest over the will in the courts this bequest is not available as yet, but there is good reason to believe that within a year a large sum will be secured for the Seminary from the estate in question. Legal steps have been taken to look after the interests of the Seminary on this important matter, and the realization of this bequest will greatly increase the resources of the institution.

The report of the faculty and the reports of the several professors show that the deportment of the students has been excellent during the year; that their diligence in study and other duties has been good, and that an earnest devotional and missionary spirit prevailed all the year.

Thirty-one students were enrolled this session. This is a smaller number than for several years. The decline is accounted for by the fact that very large class was graduated last year (eighteen), and by the new policy concerning financial aid. The entering class this year was sixteen, the largest for three years, and the prospect for next session is equally good for a large entering class.

The students this year come from ten different States and represent seventeen colleges. Only three are not college-trained men.

With a few exceptions all the students passed the required examinations on a basis of 75 out 100. The standard of work is kept up in all cases.

The buildings and material property of the Seminary remain about the same as last year, but the annual income has been somewhat increased, so that the Seminary each year is steadily gaining in financial strength. Several large bequests to the Seminary are known to be made by will, and when these are available the Seminary will have large financial resources. These bequests are an indication of the fixed purpose of the friends of the Seminary to provide amply for its future service to the church.

The library has been greatly favored this year by an increase of over 1,000 volumes, which makes the whole number of books now in the collection over 5,000 volumes. Prof. Hemphill takes charge of the library, and the board has provided for the cataloguing of the books this summer. The library of the late lamented Dr. Trenholm and a large donation from Dr. Leyburn are of special value.

According to the report of the intendant the dormitories and refectory have been conducted in the usual way. Good board is provided at barely cost price—$3 a week. This includes fuel, lights, attendance and laundry. This is almost less than cost. A competent matron looks after the welfare of the students.

During the session several valuable lectures were given in the Seminary by visiting friends. The Rev. J. W. Davis, D. D., gave two; Rev. D. C. Lilly, two; Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., two; Rev. P. H. Hoge, D. D., one; Rev. R. Y. Mullins, one. These lectures were of much interest and value.

This year five students completed their full course, and at the close of the session received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity: H. P. Alexander, of Missouri; T. F. Gallaher, of Missouri; W. K. Johnston, of Texas; W. E. Knowles, of Canada, and D. D. Little, of Alabama. This makes the whole number which the Seminary has given to the ministry of the church eighty-five. Of these eight are in the Foreign Mission field.

The board is profoundly thankful to God that the Seminary under its charge has during the seven years of its service to the church had the privilege of doing so much for the advancement of the kingdom of Christ in the world in training so many young men for the ministry.

With a splendid location, with many liberal and devoted friends, with an able and vigorous faculty, and with many tokens of divine favor, the Seminary is in a position to render a large and growing service to the church.

XI. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE ASSEMBLY'S HOME AND SCHOOL, AT FREDERICKSBURG, VA.

We are pressing on in this great work, and though we have been facing difficulties and battling with discouragements. we have had strong evidences of God's love and approval. We believe the institution is accomplishing a good that will last through eternity. We have a Home and School for the children of deceased ministers and of our missionaries, thus affording the orphan an opportunity of securing education, lifting a burden from the widow's heart and giving to the living ministry an assurance of a home for their children when they are called home to heaven. We have endeavored to carry out the wishes of the last Assembly, which heartily approved our work and recommended that "the board be directed to continue the work as during the past year, particularly and vigorously pressing toward these two results.

1. (a) The entire extinction of the debt and (b) the enlargement of the capacity of the Home and School.

2. That the General Assembly, expressing its entire confidence in the wise and economical administration of the institution, renew the direction for a collection in all our churches on the last Sabbath in December for the support of the institution, commending it to the sympathetic liberality of our people."

We have continued the work and have been educating thirty-five orphans. We have made progress toward the extinction of the debt, and are still making an earnest endeavor to eliminate it. Rev. H. H. Hawes, D. D., is now travelling in the interest of the same. We have had some difficulty in securing agents for this work. Rev. G. E. Chandler died a month after entering upon the work. Rev. Chas. R. Hyde travelled for six months, and Rev. Dr. Hawes has but recently entered upon the work. All have been faithful in the service.

The strictest economy is practiced in the home. At the same time tender care is taken of each inmate, and due regard is had for the mental, moral and physical condition of these young people. They are hedged about with Christian influence, and almost without exception are professing Christians and lead Christian lives. They appreciate their opportunities, are faithful to their studies, and give promise of great usefulness in the Master's cause.

We have been giving the young people excellent educational advantages. They are being educated in Fredericksburg College now under the control of Rev. F. P. Ramsay. In the future it will be under the control of Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D. Dr. Rosebro is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Assembly's Home and School. His associates cannot refrain from expressing their gratification at having the opportunity of intrusting the education of the orphans to his care. A strong and tender chord of love and sympathy binds together the work of these institutions which are separate in their nature.

The response to the December collection ordered by the Assembly were small; out of 2,816 churches on the roll only 275 responded. These 275 churches and thirty individuals contributed $2,953.69, and yet, notwithstanding this small collection, we have supported thirty-five orphans, meeting our running expenses promptly. We have paid over $500 interest, and also have paid $2,387.84 on the debt. During the last three years we have paid $8,518 on the debt, $2,664 interest, and have maintained thirty-five orphans annually. The first year 285 churches contributed about $3,400; the second 258 churches contributed about $2,200, and the third year about 275 churches and thirty individuals contributed $2,953.69. The liabilities have been made less than the assets. The interest account has been greatly reduced. These are remarkable facts.

We earnestly call your attention to this Christ-like work we are doing, and beg your help and sympathy. Relieve it of the debt, and we can easily meet our expenses and enlarge our capacity. We are now doing a grand work for the Master, and we believe the time is not far distant when this great work will shine in its beauty. We beg you will continue to order a collection to be taken in all our churches on the last Sabbath in December for the support of the institution. We feel that many of our individual members and some of our entire congregations are ignorant of the nature and the importance of the work. We beg, therefore, you will earnestly commend it to the attention and sympathy of all God's people, and urge them to come to our help.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT P. KERR, President.

XII. FIRST REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY'S PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON CHURCH AND CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

Respected Fathers and Brethren:

The Assembly's Committee on Church and Christian Education beg leave to report.

I. The committee have adopted the following Constitution and By-Laws, which they present for your approval, as follows:

Constitution and By-Laws.

1. The paper on Church and Christian Education adopted by the General Assembly held in Richmond, Va., and found on pages 411–413 of their printed Minutes, sets forth the object and scope of the duties of this committee, while the special duties assigned are suggested and defined in the second part of the paper—the plan of organization—which creates this committee. The entire paper is here transcribed, and is recognized as fundamental law for this committee, to-wit:

[Paper adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Richmond, 1899.] Minutes, pp. 411–413.

CHURCH AND CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

To the Reverend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

Your committee appointed last year to consider the several overtures sent up from Presbyteries on the subject of Church and Christian Education, after giving the subject careful thought and seeking the counsel of many of the leading men of the church, recommend the adoption of the following paper:

While expressing its appreciation of the great work done for the cause of education by the schools, colleges and universities supported and controlled by civil authorities, by philanthropists, and by other religious denominations, and urging our people to do all that is expedient to throw about these institutions a wholesome Christian influence, the General Assembly does not consider it safe for any church to turn over to any other parties, either religious or civil, the entire education of her sons and daughters. The history and traditions of the Presbyterian Church in this and other countries amply prove that denominational fidelity in this and other matters has not only secured the best results for our church, but has accomplished great good by its influence on all others.

The General Assembly hails with delight the unmistakable signs of a reawakening, not in our church only, but in all the evangelical churches, to the great importance of Christian education.

We also record with satisfaction the increasing prosperity, success and usefulness of our higher institutions of learning, male and female, under direct church control and denominational influence. We also hail the increasing number of high schools, academies, grammar schools, and mission schools which have more or less ot direct church control. Therefore, in view of the great importance and promise of earnest effort for church and Christian education, we do recommend that all our Synods, Presbyteries and church sessions undertake whatever may be practicable in furtherance of this cause, and we believe that very much may be done along denominational lines without antagonizing any good work done by others.

For the assistance and guidance of all who may find it practicable from time to time to found and support schools under church control, and in order to secure uniformity of effort and example, we do set forth the following constitution:

CONSTITUTION FOR PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SCHOOLS.

1. A school founded by a congregation, or by two or more contiguous congregations, shall be called a Westminster School.

2. The sole government of the school shall be in the hands of a Board of Trustees, not less than three nor more than six, who shall be appointed by the session or sessions of the churches founding the school for terms of one, two and three years, and the session or sessions shall fill vacancies as they occur, electing for three-year terms. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum. The trustees in all cases must be male communicants in the Presbyterian Church.

3. The school shall be limited in its scope and design to primary and preparatory education for males or females, or both.

4. The Bible shall be used as a text-book throughout the school in such measure and proportion as the board may determine, so as to make the school distinctively a Christian school, and the standards of the church, especially the Shorter Catechism, also, as far as it may be found practicable. The school shall be opened each day with suitable devotional exercises. It is very desirable that the pupils be trained in vocal sacred music.

5. The Board of Trustees shall elect a president, secretary, and treasurer from their own number annually, and shall employ such teachers and other agencies as may be necessary.

6. The board shall have power to raise and disburse moneys, and to hold property in trust for the furtherance of the objects of the school, and when necessary may secure articles of incorporation.

7. The board shall adopt their own by-laws, subject to the limitations of this constitution, which constitution shall be of the nature of a fundamental law to the board in the execution of their trust.

8. In case it shall ever prove desirable to secure a charter of incorporation, the provisions of this constitution shall be incorporated into the charter, or else adopted as a fixed part of the by-laws.

9. In founding, developing and administering the school the board shall be careful not to incur debt.

10. This constitution, mutatis mutandis, is recommended to the Presbyteries and Synods for the founding of educational institutions of any grade.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

In furtherance of this cause of Church and Christian Education. your committee would recommend the Assembly to approve and adopt the following plan of organization for systematic effort throughout the church, which plan substantially has been in operation for some years in the four Synods of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, and has been productive of excellent results in many places, to-wit:

1. That the General Assembly appoint a Committee on Church and Christian Education, and urges the Synods and Presbyteries throughout the church to appoint similar committees, the duty of all of which committees shall be to gather and disseminate information and excite interest in church and Christian education as best they may, and make annual reports to their respective bodies on this subject. These committees ought to be organized as permanent committees similar to those which have charge of other departments of Christian work.

2. The chairman of the Assembly's Committee shall be the organ of communication with the chairman of the several synodical and presbyterial committees.

3. The Assembly urges upon the ministers under its charge to preach and instruct the people on the duty and necessity of providing, as far as possible, for the education of our sons and daughters, giving special emphasis to the cause of female education.

4. That Synods, Presbyteries, sessions, officers and private members of the church be exhorted and encouraged to provide in every possible way for schools, both primary and preparatory, in which the Bible shall be a text-book.

5. That the Presbyteries are urged to prepare and circulate pastoral letters on this subject to all our people.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ROBERT P. KERR (Chairman),
J. B. SHEARER,
A. E. SPENCER,
R. B. FULTON,
JOHN E. WHARTON, Committee.

2. The number of members of this committee shall be sixteen until otherwise ordered by the Assembly, and consists of the following persons appointed by the last Assembly: J. B. Shearer, D. D., R. P. Kerr, D. D., G. B. Strickler, D. D., Donald Guthrie, D. D., Hon. Geo. L. Christian, J. N. Cullingworth, F. H. Gaines, D. D., Geo. Summey, D. D., E. C. Gordon, D. D., L. H. Blanton, D. D., T. R. Sampson, D. D., J. A. Mecklin, D. D., Pres. E. R. Long, Rev. W. E. McIlwaine, Rev. D. N. McLaughlin, A. B. Curry, D. D., G. W. Macrae.

3. The officers of this committee shall be a chairman, a vice-chairman, a clerk and a treasurer, all elected by the committee, provided, that the first named on the committee shall act as chairman and the second named shall act as vice-chairman until the committee shall elect officers.

4. The committee shall itself be reëlected each year by the Assembly just as other permanent committees, or as often as the Assembly shall decide, but shall remain in office until their successors shall be appointed.

5. Five members of the committee shall be residents of the city of Richmond, Va., or within easy reach of that city, and one member shall be appointed from each of the other eleven Synods, sixteen in all.

6. Five members of the committee shall constitute a working quorum, and the committee shall meet at the call of the chairman, or, in case of necessity, at the call of the vice-chairman.

7. The chairman of the committee shall discharge the duties usually pertaining to this office, and, besides, shall be the executive officer of the committee, as set forth in the paper adopted by the Assembly. The vice-chairman shall act in case of the absence or disability of the chairman. The clerk shall keep a record of the meetings of the committee, and shall do such other clerical work as may be assigned him. The treasurer shall receive and disburse all moneys belonging to this committee, and shall provide as far as possible for the expenses of the committee, and shall pay out moneys only on the order of the chairman.

8. The chairman, on conference with the other officers, may fill any vacancies that may occur by death or by removal in this committee until the next meeting of the Assembly.

9. It is the first duty of this committee to press the perfecting of the Assembly's plan of organization throughout the Synods and Presbyteries, and to urge in the name of the Assembly the appointment in all these bodies of permanent committees of church and Christian education, and then to contribute in every proper way to successful coöperation in the advancement of this cause throughout our church.

10. This committee is not in any sense an executive committee to found and administer schools of any grade, nor to do any distinctively executive work in education except such as may be laid upon them by the Assembly, and for the present their duties are limited by the express provisions of the paper adopted by the Assembly, or by fair inference therefrom.

11. This committee shall advocate the adoption of the "Constitution for Presbyterian Church Schools" wherever it may be found practicable, but shall not press the same as the only form of Christian education, but shall advocate the sound principles of that constitution, especially the distinctively Christian features, for adaptation in every form and grade of school possible as varying conditions may allow or demand.

12. Mission schools in Home Mission work—both white and colored—shall receive especial emphasis; so also female education, and, in short, the primary, secondary and higher education of both sexes

13. It shall be the duty of this committee to enlist and use all proper means and agencies for the furtherance of Church and Christian Education, such as the press, pastoral letters and especial correspondence, and also to enlist teachers, ministers, ruling elders and private members of the church in providing in every possible way for schools, both primary and preparatory, in which the Bible shall be a text-book.

14. This committee shall make annual reports to the General Assembly.

15. This Constitution and By-Laws and all additions thereto shall be subject to the review and approval of the General Assembly.

II. The work of the committee the past year has been mainly directed to securing the attention of the Synods and Presbyteries to the paper adopted by the Assembly at the last meeting, as found on pp. 411–413 of the minutes. It gives us great pleasure to report the following digest of the action taken by our twelve Synods and seventy-nine Presbyteries:

DIGEST.

Fifty-seven Presbyteries approve and recommend the paper adopted by the Assembly and appoint permanent committees on Church and Christian Education. Six Presbyteries endorse or approve or commend the Constitution and Plan of Organization, but decline for the present to appoint permanent committees, mainly because they see no present prospect of doing anything within their own bounds. Seven Presbyteries postponed action till another meeting. Five Presbyteries overlooked the matter entirely. One took no action because they saw no opening, one endorsed and commended Christian education, but appointed no committee because of doubts as to the results, and one Presbytery failed to appoint the permanent committee because they did not approve of the paper adopted by the Assembly.

Of the twelve Synods one failed to meet, and therefore failed to consider this matter; five of the Synods approved and commended the Assembly's paper and appointed permanent committees; one referred the matter to an ad interim committee; the other five, pending the consideration of favorable reports, referred the matter to their next meetings, mainly for lack of time.

This digest shows an interest in this subject which its most ardent friends hardly dared to hope for at this stage until it was remembered that the traditions of the Presbyterian Church and the practice of the fathers have always been to sanctify secular learning and make education the handmaid of religion.

III. While there has long been no systematic and organized effort throughout the church, and in many hearts and in many places only a hopeless outlook for the future of Church and Christian Education, it is a source of great interest and encouragement that so much has been done in the past by Synodical, Presbyterial, Parochial and private effort, of which your committee can only furnish at this time a brief synopsis—schools actually or virtually under Presbyterian control.

SYNOPSIS.

Six (6) theological schools; ten (10) colleges and universities for males; forty-one (41) colleges and and seminaries for females; twenty-three (23) coeducational schools and colleges; thirty-three (33) male academies and high schools; seven (7) orphanages; nine (9) Indian schools; six (6) colored schools.

This synopsis includes but few parochial schools proper, and these of higher grade. No attempt is made to report the large number of primary schools, mission schools and small academies which are directly under church control or at least under Presbyterian influence.

It would be of interest to record in this report the great results that have been achieved in some of the South Atlantic Synods within a few years past working under substantially the same Constitution and Plan of Organization as that adopted by the Assembly; but we do not wish to burden this, our first report, with too many statistics which we have yet had no opportunity to verify.

IV. Some Westminster schools have already been started since the action of the last Assembly and others are contemplated, and a number of the Presbyteries have taken up the subject of Presbyterial High Schools and Academies for both sexes, and there is much of hope to be realized in the near future.

V. Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., has been appointed, under the by-laws, to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Rev. Donald Guthrie beyond our bounds.

VI. The following officers have been elected by this committee: Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., chairman; Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., vice-chairman; Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., clerk, and Mr. J. N. Cullingworth, treasurer.

VII. The committee have no recommendations except to ask the Assembly to set apart early in the sessions a popular hour for a conference on this important subject in connection with the consideration of this report.

Respectfully submitted, J. B. SHEARER, Chairman.

XIII. THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

To the Venerable the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

Your trustees herewith submit their report for the fiscal year ending April 20, 1900.

From this report it will appear that the total receipts have amounted to $1,379.79, which amount has been duly disbursed as directed to the different causes of the church, and from this report it will appear also that the treasurer has in hands the sum of $541.16. Of this amount $102 is interest on the Craig fund, which is held under the will of Mrs. Ann Guthrie. Two hundred and ninety-six dollars and six cents has been received under the Sutton will, the interest of which only can be paid, and $143.10 is contingent fund held for the expenses of the trustees.

For a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements you are referred to the report of the secretary and treasurer hereto attached.

The term of office of the following members expires with this meeting of the Assembly: Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, P. M. Brown and Geo. F. Bason, and your board would unanimously recommend the reëlection of these gentlemen.

The officers of the board beginning to-day are Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, president; Geo. E. Wilson, vice-president, and John R. Pharr, secretary and treasurer.

Respectfully submitted, E. NYE HUTCHISON, President.

JNO. R. PHARR, Secretary and Treasurer.

XIV. REPORT OF THE HYMN BOOK COMMITTEE.

The ad interim committee on the preparation of a hymn book appointed by the General Assembly of 1898 in New Orleans begs leave to report, as follows:

A short history of the movement in issuing the appointment of your committee will be in place.

At the Assembly of 1897, in Charlotte, overtures were presented asking the General Assembly to enter upon the work of making a book of praise peculiarly our own and adapted to the needs of the church. In answer to these overtures the Assembly said, "At this juncture the making of such a book is inexpedient, owing to existing contracts." It is apparent from the minutes of the session of the Assembly that the obstacle in the way was the fear that to proceed was to do injustice to Dr. R. P. Kerr, with whom arrangements had been made by the Executive Committee of Publication for the publishing of the Hymns of Ages. Hence the reason assigned for not responding favorably to the overtures. At the next meeting of the Assembly (1898), in New Orleans, nine (9) overtures came up on the same subject. Two (2) of these were from Synods and seven (7) from Presbyteries, altogether representing twenty-six (26) Presbyteries, or about one-third of the whole church. The special committee to which these overtures were referred reported to the Assembly a favorable answer, which was adopted by the Assembly, provision being made that the work of the committee proceed as to the time of completion so as not to interfere with arrangements for sale of other hymn books. Subsequently, however, the same Assembly authorized the Executive Committee of Publication to purchase Dr. Kerr's interest in the Hymns of Ages, which, as your committee is informed, was immediately done.

Thus it will be seen that the movement in the church to secure a hymn book suited to her wants and peculiarly her own continues to urge itself upon the General Assembly in growing proportions until it resulted in the appointment of your committee and in the removal of all seeming obstacles to the free progress and the final adoption of its work. By the terms of the resolution appointing the same your committee was "empowered to go forward in the work at once with the purpose of having the book ready for use by 1903, when all arrangements for sale of other books shall have expired." The "contracts" referred to in this commission were obviously those existing between Dr. Kerr and the Executive Committee of Publication; for Dr. Hazen had explained that the agreement with the Century Company touching Psalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs was not in the way at all, as, indeed, it did not interfere with the Assembly's entering into a similar agreement with Dr. Kerr. The Assembly at New Orleans having authorized the purchase of the Hymns of Ages from Dr. Kerr, and Dr. Hazen having reported to the subsequent Assembly that the purchase had been effected, your committee felt free to proceed with the work with a view to making final report of the same at as early a date as practicable.

Your committee has held three full meetings, viz., in Atlanta, December, 1898; in Norfolk, July, 1899, and in Atlanta, May, 1900. At the first meeting a plan was adopted, which has been executed, by which, through a central committee composed of members of the ad interim committee in the vicinity of Atlanta, the work could be carried on largely by correspondence, and in this way save expense to the church.

Before the ad interim committee was organized Dr. E. H. Barnett was called from his earthly labors, and, under authority given to the committee by the General Assembly, at the first meeting of the committee Dr. S. L. Morris, of Macon, Ga., was elected to fill the vacancy.

Your committee found at hand two valuable musical editors, viz., Prof. Joseph Maclean, of Agnes Scott Institute, Decatur, Ga., and Prof. John P. Campbell, of the University of Georgia, Athens, Ga. Both of these gentlemen are thoroughgoing Presbyterians, and have freely given their valauble labors to this work out of love for the church and her worship. They are accomplished and experienced organists who have made special study of hymnology. The committee does not hesitate to say that we could not have secured, at any price from any quarter, musical editors bettter qualified for the work done by them. "With a conservative regard to time-honored associations" as enjoined by the General Assembly in appointing the committee these brethren have taken special care and, as we think, displayed rare taste in the adaptation of tunes to hymns throughout the book.

In laying the foundations for our difficult task, and in the final shaping, almost to the consummation of our work, we had the help of that cultivated and devout man of God, Dr. W. S. Lacy. The committee felt greatly bereaved when God called him away from us. Dr. Theron H. Rice, of Atlanta, was elected to fill the vacancy made in the committee by his death.

The name given to the book, Psalms and Hymns, indicates the spirit of the committee in its work of hymn compilation. Our desire was to take the one book of praise of our church, adopted early in her career, and by judicious re-arrangement, exclusions, and additions perpetuate that which is historic and endeared by use. The psalms we have, in consequence, distributed among the hymns, according to classification, with a special index provided, however, so that they can be readily found.

We call the attention of the General Assembly to the following canons by which the committee was guided in the work now reported:

1. To retain every old hymn of decided merit.
2. To retain a large number of the best versions of the Psalms.
3. To introduce the best of the modern hymns, giving preference to those that are direct ascriptions of praise.
4. To retain the versions found in Psalms and Hymns.
5. To exclude hymns that are purely didactic, personal, exaggerated, and highly wrought in sentiment, sensuous, and all those that have made little or no impression on the mind and heart of the church.
6. To apportion the number of hymns under each subject in such way that the book may be well balanced.
7. To find for each hymn the tune that best brings out its meaning bv having the musical accent fall on the important words, as well as considering general character.
8. To retain every old association of hymn and tune than can be found to exist generally through the church.
9. To use alternative tunes where the old associated tunes may not be acceptable.
10. To use very familiar tunes for hymns for special occasions, as dedications, ordinations, etc.
11. To group hymns under each subject so that several tunes of same meter will come close together, and to see that at least one tune of each group is a very familiar one.

12. To retain every old tune that is in any way meritorious.

13. To transpose old tunes that are too high for average voices.

14. To provide every hymn with a tune of exactly the same length so as to avoid meaningless repetitions of words.

15. To avoid all tunes that are not adapted to congregational singing; all arrangements of melodies written for secular purposes; all tunes that are flippant or undignified in rhythm; all tunes that are florid and over-elaborated, and all tunes that contain independent parts for the different voices. To this rule a very few exceptions were made in the case of tunes which seemed to have established themselves very generally in the church.

16. To index very fully, both by Scripture text and subject, and in the latter case to make abundant use of cross references, so that all the hymns in any bearing on any desired subject may be quickly and easily found.

Under the last canon, calling for full index, we think our book will be made the equal, if not the superior in this respect, of any book now in use.

These canons are in accord with the instructions given to the committee at the time of its appointment. We feel sure that they set forth correct principles of hymnology that easily commend themselves to the good sense of all of God's people. As to the success with which we have been controlled by them in our work, we feel confident, but we must leave you to judge. We were gratified to find ourselves in harmony in this respect with the committee appointed in 1861 to make the original Psalms and Hymns of our church, as revealed by an examination of the canons guiding them in their work. These canons are to be found in the Minutes of the Assembly of 1865, as reported by Dr. B. M. Palmer, chairman of the committee.

Early in our work we made formal requests with the church papers as, indeed, the Assembly did when appointing the committee "to suggest to the committee for its consideration such lists of hymns and tunes as it is thought ought to be included in a church book of praise." The committee received and carefully considered the very many communications sent from all parts of the church. We feel, therefore, that our work has been in a great measure shaped by the church itself.

The General Assembly of 1899, at Richmond, in answer to overtures from several Presbyteries touching the use of some hymn book already published as a basis around which to build the book in process of preparation, referred the matter of these overtures to your committee, urging that they carefully consider all such propositions. This we have done. Through our chairman a careful investigation was made as to the prospective cost of the book as determined by such proposals. We found it inexpedient to depart from the individual plan of the book as previously adopted by the committee any further than to avail ourselves of all desirable stereotyped material in In Excelsis, published by the Century Company, and, in the judgment of your committee, the best book extant for such a purpose. The provisional agreement between the Century Company and your committee contemplates the Assembly's ownership of copyrights, plates, etc., upon terms to be settled by contract with the Executive Committee of Publication in the event the Assembly should adopt our work as now presented; or, with a few changes in the book, which your committee is prepared to make, on account of copyrights, and which will not substantially alter our work, the Executive Committee of Publication will be free to make arrangements for issuing the same through any other publishing house if such a course seems expedient to them. In any event, a cloth edition can be produced so as to sell for introduction for not more than 75 cents net, according to plan for publishing agreed upon. A word edition in cloth can be sold for not more than 35 cents.

Along with this report we hand the Assembly the manuscript copy of the Psalms and Hymns as prepared by us and ready for publication; also a list of the same, in their first lines, with names of tunes attached; also a full copy of new hymns introduced, to the number of eighty, such as cannot be found in Psalms and Hymns, in the Psalms, Hymns, and Spiritual Songs, or in the Hymns of Ages, books which have had an authorized use in our church.

We venture to ask for the early appointment by the Assembly of a judicious and competent committee before which we may go and show our work somewhat in detail.

If allowed to express a wish, we would be glad to have the Assembly, in the event our Book is substantially approved, to order its publication by the Executive Committee of Publication (as was done by the Assembly of 1866 with the old Psalms and Hymns) in such a way as shall be judged by said committee most advantageous to the church, and under the editorial supervision of your ad interim committee, the book being subject to such changes as may be necessitated by copyrights or deemed expedient in the light of criticisms.

All of which is respectfully submitted. J. W. WALDEN, Chairman.

XV. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE SABBATH.

In presenting to the General Assembly this their twenty-second annual report, and the last in this century, your Permanent Committee on Sabbath Observance can at the very outset but express regret that they are forced to come again before you with the same mournful statement as in the past, that they have nothing either bright or encouraging to present, but rather the reverse. It pains our hearts to say it, yet truth demands the statement that while the Christian world seems to be pressing forward with unwonted strides towards the goal in other directions, and aiming to get nearer to the scripture ideal, in bringing the world more and more under the influence of gospel truth, yet in the matter of Sabbath observance, instead of lifting up, it seems actually more and more to be losing its hold upon the masses; and just here we are confronted with the startling inquiry, whether there can be any real advance, and whether the world, with all its boasted progress, can really and truly be getting upon a higher plane, whilst the Sabbath of the Lord remains in the dust, and this sign of divine sovereignty lies trampled under foot of men?

In contrasting the present with the past, nothing seems more obvious than that the general movement, like that of the mountain glacier, has been but in one direction, and that direction downward. Of the fifty-four presbyterial reports that have come to us, very few speak of anything like decided improvement. By far the larger portion agree in thus summing up the situation: That while the day is fairly well observed by our own people, it is rapidly assuming the characteristics of the continental Sabbath, so far as the masses are concerned, being by them regarded as a day of recreation and pleasure, and even of business, if necessary; and especially is this the case in the cities and towns and sections of country adjacent to them.

More or less social visiting is reported; railroad travel, stimulated by the growing practice of granting excursion rates, is largely on the increase. The Sunday newspaper, that insidious foe of the church, is encroaching more and more upon the sacredness of the Lord's day; railroad traffic is also greater, there being a greater number of through trains, though perhaps not as much handling of local business; but few of the States forbid the running of these trains. A bill was introduced a short time since into the legislature of one of our States (Mississippi) to stop the running of freight trains on the Sabbath day, and was defeated. A similar effort was made before the legislature of Alabama a few years ago, and with like result.

These instances too clearly show the apathy and indifference of a large part of God's professed people. If all the professing Christians of either of these States were united in their opposition the evil would soon be abated. It is when "men sleep" that the enemy does the work of "sowing tares."

In the midst of the darkness may be seen a few streaks of light. We mention, first, the fact reported that an undenominational Sabbath league has been organized in the city of Richmond, and that a similar effort is being made to organize one also in Petersburg.

2. That in one of the towns in North Carolina (Wallace) the post-office has (by the request of the people) been closed on the Lord's day, so that now there is neither receiving nor distribution of mails on that day.

3. That in some places churches and ministers do not allow notice of their church services to be published in the Sunday papers.

4. And, lastly, that many of God's people in different parts of the land are anxiously watching the progress of events, and eagerly inquiring if anything can be done to arrest the increasing tide of desecration.

We mention these and similar instances with pleasure, as they show that whilst a portion of our own people, like many others, are being swept away by the current, a very large part of them, at least, still hold to the tradition of the fathers, and the teachings of the Scriptures upon the subject.

As to the best course to be pursued in meeting this great and growing evil, your committee are wholly unable to say. They would, however, take upon themselves to make two suggestions—

The first is that as the matter is more directly and intimately under the eye and purview of the Presbyteries, the Assembly would urge upon all the Presbyteries the duty and responsibility of constantly holding up the subject before the churches, with a view of awakening a deeper interest. We feel that much can be done in this way. One Presbytery reported that they had two thousand copies of their committee's report on the Sabbath printed and distributed, which no doubt did much towards stirring up the minds and hearts of the people to a more conscientious regard for the claims of the day.

The second is that, in their utterances at this time, the Assembly would most solemnly put all our people on their guard against the great danger of becoming —by their patronage—"partakers of other men's sins," unwittingly though it may be, and thus, according to Scripture teaching, being made sinners by endorsement. It is well for the truth ever to be held up before the minds of the people, that it is impossible for them, unless the clearest demand of necessity or mercy, to have anything to do with any of the great agencies of Sabbath desecration, in any way, shape or form, without becoming the Aaron and the Hur in holding up the hands of those engaged in the perilous work of setting aside the authority of the Lord as symbolized in the weekly recurrence of his day of rest.

In response to the overture of the Presbytery of Athens, referred by the last Assembly to your committee, in which the Assembly was asked to withdraw its recognition of the American Sabbath Union on the ground that this is a society for the promotion of legislative reform, which is not a function of the church of Jesus Christ, your committee would recommend—

That, as the charter of said Union says nothing about legislative reform, as forming any part of the object of its organization, and as there is such a diversity of opinion among our own people upon the propriety of the church petitioning the State, no further action be taken in the matter.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES STACY,
T. H. RICE,
C. P. BRIDEWELL,
Committee.

XVI. REPORT TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF AN AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON THE INVALID FUND.

BRETHREN: The General Assembly of 1899, in response to several overtures from Presbyteries, appointed an ad interim committee, consisting of Rev. Francis R. Beattie, Rev. E. M. Green and Ruling Elder S. V. Rowland, to consider the whole subject of the Invalid Fund of our church, and to make report to this Assembly. The appointment of the committee was made in the following terms: "While believing that the outlook of our present scheme is good, and that it will accomplish the end if properly supported, we recognize the fact that a more adequate provision should be made by the church, and we recommend that the requests of these overtures be granted, and that an ad interim committee be appointed by the Moderator, consisting of three, and, if possible, conveniently located to each other, who shall give this whole matter consideration—not only the Canadian Relief Scheme (referred to), but that of the Methodist Episcopal Church (North), and any other to them occurring; and that they make report to the next Assembly."

In accordance with these instructions, the committee proceeded to give diligent study to the whole subject of the care by the church of aged and disabled ministers, and of the families of deceased ministers, and it now begs to submit, at some length, the following report of its labors.

In order to carry out as fully as possible the spirit of the action of last Assembly, your committee sought to get all possible information bearing upon the subject. To this end it solicited through the church papers information and useful suggestions. It also entered into communication with various churches in this country, in Canada, and in Britain. It also obtained much valuable information from the Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., who has had charge of the Invalid Fund of our church for some time. From the mass of information upon the subject thus obtained, the main materials of this report are drawn.

In response to the call made through the church papers two suggestions were offered, and are here briefly noticed.

The first came from a worthy ruling elder in Virginia, and was endorsed, in a general way, by the Presbyterian Ministers' Association of Richmond, Va. It proposed to raise a large permanent endowment fund by having each member of the church pay in ten cents a month, or $1.20 a year, and each minister $3 or $5, for a period of five years, thus raising in that time a capital sum of $1,278,000, which, at the current rate of interest, would realize about $51,120 of annual income. Though this proposition seems simple, your committee thinks it scarcely practicable to put such a scheme into operation in our church.

The other suggestion came from Georgia, and it consists in a proposal to start a pecan nut orchard on a somewhat extensive scale, the profits of which would go to the benefit of the fund in question. Though this scheme may have some merit about it, and may be worthy of consideration by private parties, yet your committee cannot encourage the church to engage in a business enterprise of this nature, even though its proceeds went to this worthy object.

The plans of the following churches have been studied with some care by your committee: The Presbyterian Church in England, the Free Church of Scotland, the Established Church of Scotland, the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the Methodist Church in Canada, the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, and the Presbyterian Church in Canada. An outline of the scheme of each of these churches will be given, and the plans of those churches mentioned in the action of the Assembly of last year will be the more fully sketched. Inquiries were also made by your committee in other directions, as, for example, concerning the plans of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the Episcopal Church, the Baptist churches, the Lutheran Church, and the Reformed Church of America. In this way your committee has sought to survey the whole field opened up by the subject with which it has to deal. Those schemes which may lend some aid to an understanding of the subject will now be outlined.

I. THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF ENGLAND.

According to the scheme of this church there are two separate funds, but they are managed by a single committee. The one is called "The Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund," and the other "The Widows and Orphans' Fund."

The first of these is for ministers and missionaries who, through ill-health or old age, have become permanently incapable for active duty in the ministry, or who have reached the age of seventy and wish to retire from active service.

The revenues of this fund come from the proceeds of certain invested funds and from annual congregational collections.

The grants to the beneficiaries of this fund are graduated in proportion to the length of service given by them in the ministry, and in no case does any one receive more than $200 per annum.

The Widows and Orphan's Fund is for the benefit of the widows and children of ministers who, while living, fulfilled the requirements and regulations of the fund. The main condition is the payment of certain fees and dues. If a minister marries while a member of the fund, he must pay a marriage fee of $25, and an annual rate of $25, payable half yearly, is required. These fees and dues constitute the main sources of revenue for this fund, together with the income from some invested funds.

The grants to beneficiaries are made as follows: For widows, $150 a year, the grant ceasing should the widow remarry. The children of deceased ministers receive $50 each until they are eighteen years of age; but if both parents are dead, each child receives $75 a year.

II. THE FREE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.

This church has also two branches of its scheme, each bearing the same title as in the plan of the Presbyterian Church in England.

The Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund is for the benefit of ministers who are advanced in years, or in feeble health, and no longer able for ministerial service. It is intended mainly to increase the sum usually given by congregations as a retiring allowance to their ministers.

The revenues are derived from a permanent invested fund of about $100,000 and from annual contributions made by the congregations of the church.

The grants to those who receive aid from this fund are graded in proportion to the length of active service in the ministry, but in no case is more than $400 a year allowed any one.

The Free Church has in addition a special aspect of this fund for foreign missionaries who have no congregations to rely on for a retiring allowance.

The Widows and Orphans' Fund of the Free Church is quite extensive, and is really a large private insurance scheme, having incorporation by Act of Parliament.

Its revenues are derived from a large capital sum which has been gradually acquired by gift and bequest from various sources, and from the annual rates paid in by ministers who are members of this fund. Membership in it is voluntary, and those who unite with it pay an entrance fee of $50, a marriage tax of $25, and afterwards an annual rate of $35. From these two sources a large income is derived.

The beneficiaries of this fund are paid as follows: The widows of deceased ministers receive $220 a year while remaining unmarried, and each child receives $110 a year up to eighteen years of age. If both parents are dead, each child receives $155 a year.

The Free Church has also a special society for the benefit of the sons and daughters of deceased ministers in which membership is also voluntary. The annual rate for membership fees is $6, while $60 will constitute life membership in the society. The grants to the children of deceased members of this society range from $50 to $200 a year. It will thus appear that the Free Church has given much attention to this whole question.

III. THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND (ESTABLISHED).

This church being a State church, and holding various endowments under legal statute, has features about its working which are not applicable to the conditions which prevail in this country. Yet the provision which it makes for disabled ministers and for the families of deceased ministers is worthy of passing notice. The aid of this church is to provide suitable aid for all its ministers who have reached a certain age and wish to retire from the active duty of the ministry.

The plan of this church is to grant an annuity to all such ministers. The fund for this purpose is provided partly by an investment and partly by annual payments made to it by ministers and congregations. The capital sum of this fund has been steadily growing, and now stands at about $500,000. At present it yields from $200 to $750 a year, according to his length of service, to each retired minister.

For the benefit of the widows and orphans of deceased ministers the Established Church of Scotland has several organizations, such as the Paton Trust, The Society for the Children of the Clergy, and the regular Widows and Orphans' Fund.

The last named is the main source of benefit for the families of deceased ministers. It is supported mainly by ministers' rates. These rates are of four grades, ranging from about $15 a year to nearly $38. The payments made to widows of ministers range from $130 up to $250 a year, and to children from $60 to $85, according to the rate which had been paid into the fund by the father.

IV. THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

So early as 1717 the Synod of Philadelphia began to raise "a fund for pious uses." It was to be spent in Home Mission work, education, and for the relief of ministers and their families who were in need. After thirty-eight years' experience of this useful fund in 1755 a more elaborate plan for the assistance of the families of deceased ministers, known as "The Widows' Fund," was established, and it obtained a charter in 1757. But there seemed to be difficulty in getting the ministers to pay their dues, so that in this form it eventually failed to do what was expected. It was continued in a very imperfect way for ninety years, when, in 1837, it was finally merged into what is now the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund.

In 1849 what is now known as the Relief Fund of this church was organized by the General Assembly. This fund is now well established and has a large permanent fund. In 1861 the New School branch of the church organized a similar fund, but in 1870, on the occasion of the reunion of the Old and New School branches of the church, the two funds were united, and the Board of Ministerial Relief as at present constituted was organized in 1876.

This board has two branches, one for the relief of disabled ministers, and the other for the benefit of the widows and orphans of deceased ministers. Its revenues are derived from annual collections made by the churches, which last year amounted to about $80,000, and from the income of invested funds, which now amount to $1,547,000, and yields an income of over $70,000 a year. This, together with some contributions from other sources, made the total income of this board $180,000 last year.

This fund is available for two classes of ministers. First, for every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age who has served thirty years in the ministry and who wishes to retire. Such ministers are entitled to its benefits to the amount of $300 a year without annual recommendation by their Presbyteries. The other class consists of those who may not have reached seventy years of age, nor have served thirty years in the ministry, but who are disabled by illness or other causes. Those who belong to this class must have their applications renewed annually with the approval of their Presbyteries. The amount granted is in a measure graduated according to the need, but in no case does the grant exceed $300.

Lay missionaries and women who have served in the foreign field may also receive certain benefits from this fund. Suitable provision is also made by the fund of this board for the widows and children of deceased ministers. The rules and regulations for the conduct of this fund are very complete.

V. THE METHODIST CHURCHES.

These churches, both in this country and in Canada, have very fully developed superannuation schemes for the care of aged and feeble ministers, and for the benefit of the families of ministers who have passed away. In every case the principle of these schemes is that of superannuation, which is really a modified form of relief and pension. The Methodist Episcopal churches, North and South, and the Methodist Church in Canada, have practically the same plan, differing only in details to suit circumstances. As the directions given your committee made special mention of the Methodist Episcopal Church plan, some proper account of it may be given.

The fund is called "The Superannuation Fund." Its claimants are superannuated or retired ministers, the widows of deceased ministers, and their children under sixteen years of age. The management of the fund is in the hands of the Annual Conferences, and each such Conference makes its own rules and regulations in regard to it. One service at each Annual Conference is usually devoted to the interest of this fund, and in this way it is kept prominently before the ministers and people.

The revenues of the fund come mainly from three sources, viz., annual collections taken in churches of the Conference; the proceeds of the Chartered Fund and of the Book Concern in whole or in part, as may be determined by each Annual Conference, and specific gifts and bequests. The funds from these sources constitute the Conference Claimant Fund, and it is distributed annually among the various persons whose claims are allowed on the basis of necessity. This to a large extent is of the nature of a Relief Fund.

A second branch of the Superannuation Fund is called the Special or Annuity Fund, and it consists of such sources of revenue as may be devised and appropriated by each Annual Conference. This fund is distributed on the following basis: Each superannuated minister is allowed annually $10 for each year of his effective service, each widow receives annually $5 for each year in which she was the wife of a minister in effective service, and each child under sixteen years of age of a deceased minister is granted $2 a year for each year of the father's effective service. The whole fund is administered under carefully framed rules and regulations, and its result is that if a minister has served thirty years, he will receive, on retiring from active service, $300; the widow of a minister who has served the same length of time, she being his wife so long, receives $150, and the children are entitled to $60 each if the father has served thirty years.

As already indicated, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Canadian Methodist Church have practically the same plans. That in Canada seems to be largely supported and efficiently conducted. In some respects it is even more comprehensive than that of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this country. Its revenues are derived from a permanent invested fund, from appropriations from the publishing house, from annual subscriptions by ministers, from collections made by the congregations, and from payments made on behalf of ministers not in regular work. From all these sources a large fund is obtained.

The grants to claimants are made in proportion to the years of service after five years. The lowest grant is $25, if five years' service has been given, to $286, if thirty years have been spent in active work. Then after thirty years' service $10 a year is given for each additional year, so that a minister who retires after serving forty years receives $400. The widows and orphans of deceased ministers are also aided at about the same rate, so that it is plain that our Methodist brethren are deeply interested upon this whole subject.

VI. The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Following the example of the Scottish churches, the Canadian Presbyterian Church early took action in regard to caring for aged and invalid ministers and the families of ministers who had passed away. Through various stages and changes there has been developed a fully matured and well arranged plan for the care of aged and infirm ministers, and for the benefit of the widows and children of deceased ministers. It has two distinct branches, each of which is managed by a separate committee. One committee has charge of "The Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund" and the other of "The Widows and Orphans' Fund."

For the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund the sources of revenue are interest on a permanent invested fund which now amounts to about $200,000, annual congregational collections, ministers' annual rates, and donations and bequests, in whole or in part. A feature of the sources of revenue for this fund worthy of notice is the annual rates to be paid by ministers who are connected fully with the fund. The scale of rates now in force are as follows: By those under thirty years of age when they unite with the fund, $4 a year; between thirty and thirty-five years of age, $5; between thirty-five and forty years, $6; between forty and forty-five years, $7; between forty-five and fifty years, $9; between fifty and fifty-five years, $12, and for those above fifty-five when they come into connection with the fund special provision is made in each separate case.

Those who receive benefits from this fund are ministers who, by reason of age or infirmity, are compelled to retire from the active duties of the ministry. Great care is exercised in the matter of retiring from active service and obtaining the benefits of this fund. Presbytery takes the initiative, requiring satisfactory evidence, by medical certificate and otherwise, of the age and infirmity of the minister in question. The congregation of which he is minister is conferred with to ascertain what it can do to give him a retiring allowance; the Presbytery sends the whole case up to the Assembly, with its recommendation thereon, through the committee in charge of this fund. When the permission of the General Assembly has been obtained for the minister to retire, his resignation is accepted by Presbytery, and his name is placed on the list of those who are entitled to the benefits of this fund. In this way it is very carefully safeguarded at every step of its administration.

The scale of aid granted to those who have paid their rates is graduated according to the years of active service, as follows: If ten years' service have been given in the active ministry, the grant is $100 a year; then $5 a year is added for each additional year of service up to twenty years, which will make the grant for such cases $200; and then $10 a year for each additional year of service from twenty to forty years, if the fund will allow, which makes the sum granted in cases where there have been forty years of service $400 a year, which is the maximum in any case.

The payment of ministers' rates is voluntary, so that membership in the fund, in the strict sense, is not compulsory. Hence, if a minister does not from any cause pay his annual rates, he still receives the benefit of the fund to a certain extent, for, on retiring from the active work of the ministry, according to the regulations already recited, he will receive one-half the amount received by those who have paid their annual rates. This gives such cases $50 a year for ten years' service; $100 for twenty years, and $200 for forty years.

This scheme blends the relief and annuity ideas in a very proper way, and has been a great blessing to many faithful men. It draws its revenues from various sources, and has stability about it, and it thereby elicits the interest and coöperation of ministers and people on its behalf.

The Widows and Orphans' Fund is conducted on nearly the same plan. The revenues of this fund come from a small investment from congregational collections and from ministers' rates. The last named source is important, and is as follows: For a minister under thirty-five years of age when he unites with the fund the rate is $8 a year; between thirty-five and forty years it is $10; between forty and fifty years, $12 a year. Cases over fifty years of age are provided for by special consideration. Membership in this fund by the payment of annual rates as above is also voluntary, and the families of those who do not pay the rates receive only partial grants.

The payments are made to the widows and orphans of deceased ministers according to the following scale: Each widow receives $150 a year; for one child the grant is $20 a year; for two, $36; for three, $50 a year, and $10 a year for each additional child. A widow with six children would thus receive $280. If both parents are dead, one child receives $150, and two $170, and so on. The allowance for children ceases at eighteen years of age. This has also been a great blessing to many a minister's family in the Canadian Church.

VII. The Plan of Our Church.

The plan which has been doing good service in our church for many years is a simple relief scheme. While it is working well within its sphere, it can scarcely be regarded as so complete and adequate as that of some of our sister churches.

The history of our scheme is not easily traced, and perhaps its present limitations are to be explained in part from some things in the early history of the scheme itself. Some brief allusion to this history may therefore be of value in this connection.

Prior to the organization of our church in 1861 the interests of the Southern Presbyterians were identified with the old Relief Scheme described in explaining the plan of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, which finally merged into the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund. In 1863 two overtures came before the General Assembly, praying that something be done for the welfare of disabled ministers and for the families of deceased ministers who may be in straightened circumstances. The Assembly expressed its interest in the subject, and appointed a committee to consider it fully and make a report to the next Assembly. This committee presented a report, which was not adopted by the Assembly of 1864, but the subject was recommitted to the same committee for further consideration and future report. So far as the records show, no report was ever presented by this committee, and thus the matter ended for the time.

In 1867 the subject again came before the Assembly in a concrete form by means of an overture that something be done to provide for the relief of the family of a deceased minister which was in destitute circumstances. In response to this overture action was taken to the effect that five per cent. of the funds of the Sustentation Committee be set apart for the benefit of indigent ministers in infirm health, and for the relief of the destitute widows and children of deceased ministers. This temporary provision was to continue only two years, ending in 1869, but it was really the origin of the present Invalid Fund. In 1868, instead of the five per cent. on the Sustentation Fund, a collection was ordered to be taken in the churches for this cause, so that in 1869 the Invalid Fund, as now constituted, with its annual collection, took definite form, although it was managed by the Sustentation Committee, which, in the course of time, came to be known as the Home Mission Committee of the Assembly, as now constituted. With some slight changes from time to time, this plan has continued in operation down to the present day.

This scheme, though a simple relief expedient, is not to be confounded with the Relief Scheme proper, which orignated in the church about the same time, and which introduced for a time no little confusion into the whole subject of aid to needy ministers and their families.

In 1869 the subject was again introduced to the General Assembly by overture, and in 1870 an elaborate report was presented and, in substance, adopted, inaugurating a comprehensive scheme for disabled ministers and the families of deceased ministers. In some respects this scheme was not unlike that of the Free Church of Scotland already described. In the form in which it was presented, and finally adopted by the Assembly by a small majority vote, it failed to elicit much interest in the church, or to secure hearty support from the people. The high rates which it imposed on congregations or ministers gave it the appearance of an insurance scheme. It never became popular in the church, so that it was not till 1872 that it really came into operation. It required payments annually of $30, $60 or $100, with corresponding annuities to the families of deceased ministers of $200 for six years, or $400 and $600 for the same period. This scheme was found so unsatisfactory in many ways that it was so modified by the Assembly of 1876 as to be practically repealed, so far as its main provisions were concerned. After this date it was continued only for the benefit of those who had become connected with it, their membership in it being voluntary in any case. It was managed by the Home Mission Committee, as also was the Invalid Fund proper, but in 1881 it was practically freed from ecclesiastical control and conducted as a private concern. In 1886 it was placed in the hands of the "Clergy's Friendly Society" of Baltimore for management, and finally, in 1890, it passed by transfer into the hands of the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund. It has been managed ever since by this body on behalf of those who were connected with it, and has entirely passed beyond the church. This fund, at the time of the transfer, amounted to $50,573, and in 1896 it had increased to $53,949.

Meantime the Invalid Fund was steadily continued in operation, and was administered by the Committee of Home Missions. In 1869, when it was first really operative in the church, the collections for it amounted to $3,624, and this aided fifty-seven persons. In 1876 the result of the July collection was as much as $10,190, and eighty-six persons were aided thereby. But in 1879 only $8,382 was given by the churches to aid 109 persons. Then in 1887 the income rose to $12,158, and in 1892 the highest mark was reached with collections to the amount of $15,485 for the assistance of 135 persons. It has kept near that figure ever since, last year providing a collection of $14,573 to aid 141 persons.

The plan of administering this fund is to distribute pro rata what comes into it from the annual July collection, and the committee is seldom, if ever, able to pay in full the applications sent in by the Presbyteries. It would take at least $18,000 a year to do this on the present scale of applications. Last year only 83½ per cent. was paid on the applications. This scheme, even on its present basis, does a great deal of good, but its operations are confined to the one principle of the relief of needy cases as they may arise.

VIII. Some Inferences.

From the foregoing exposition of these various schemes of ministerial relief several inferences of practical moment may be made:

1. That the various branches of the church are as one in regard to the duty of the church to care for aged and invalid ministers and to provide in some way for families of departed ministers that may be in need. The scriptural principle that the laborer in the Lord's vineyard is worthy of his hire, and that they who preach the gospel should live by the gospel, carries with it the inference that those who have spent their lives in the work of preaching the gospel and serving Christ and the church should be cared for with tender and loving hands when they are no longer able to engage in active service. In like manner their families after they die, if in need, should, within proper limitations, be regarded as charges upon the sympathy and benevolences of the people of God. The various churches, by the schemes of relief and annuity already described in this report, evidently have the conviction that this is their duty, and no church can be regarded as doing her duty in this matter if she allows her disabled ministers to be in distress, or permits the families of ministers who have ceased from all their earthly labors to be in want.

2. In the case of most of the schemes passed under review more than the mere relief of temporary or individual need is aimed at. The simple relief idea is always present, but in all the more fully matured schemes there is an advance on this, and the recognition of the length of faithful service rendered in the ministry by some sort of annuity which may relieve old age from care and anxiety in regard to food and raiment. In some cases this becomes a well defined superannuation scheme. It is an interesting and important question whether some middle scheme between simple relief and definite superannuation may not be found to best meet the requirements of the case.

3. From the study of the schemes just made it appears that in every case the interests of this very important subject are put in charge of a separate board or committee. In not a single case is it attached to any other committee, and in every instance it makes its separate report to the General Assembly or Conference, and is there considered by a separate Standing Committee. Indeed, in some cases there is one committee for the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund and another for the Widows and Orphans'. This division of committees may not be necessary, but it is evident that all the churches whose plans we have studied deem it best to have a separate committee to take charge of the whole subject of Ministerial Relief. And it seems reasonable to conclude that by giving this cause a separate place proper importance is given to it before the people.

4. From the foregoing study of the plans of the different churches several distinct principles of constituting and conducting the work of aiding disabled ministers and assisting the families of deceased ministers emerge. There are at least three distinct principles observable. First, there is the definite superannuation principle, which is a modified pension. Secondly, there is the partial annuity principle, which is a modified insurance, And, thirdly, there is the simple relief principle to meet cases of need as they arise. This gives pension, insurance and relief as the three principles upon which the schemes are constructd. The superannuation aspect of the Methodist plan represents the first, and our scheme represents the last, while the Free Church of Scotland exhibits the second. It must be borne in mind, however, that the relief principle runs through all the schemes described in this report. The Canadian scheme combines in a well-balanced way annuity, insurance and relief, and thus obtains the good features of each principle without any one predominating unduly.

Different principles also emerge in regard to the sources of revenue and the modes of raising income. Here there are also three principles. First, the proceeds of invested funds; secondly, the results of congregational collections; and, thirdly, the outcome of ministers' annual rates. All the schemes studied except our own combine these principles. We rely on congregational collections alone.

The plan of the Canadian Church again combines all these principles. It has a moderate endowment; it has annual collections, and it has low ministers' rates. This combination would seem to elicit as many interests as are available in the church on behalf of this important cause.

There is also diversity as to the principles upon which the aid actually given is granted. In some cases the principle is necessity, and a grant made to meet the need of each case; in others it is payments graduated by the amount paid in rather than by need or by length of service, and in still others the term of active service is the main factor in settling the amount of the grant made. The Canadian plan here again seeks to unite all these principles in the method of its administration, though several of the other churches have nearly the same combination; and such combination seems best fitted to give balance and efficiency to the scheme.

VIII. Recommendations.

1. Your committee is deeply impressed with the importance of this whole subject and with the propriety of carefully matured action at the present time. This being the case, your committee does not see its way clear to recommend to this Assembly any definite scheme for its adoption.

2. Your committee would, however, respectfully recommend that the ad interim committee be continued and enlarged if the Assembly sees fit, or a similar new committee be appointed with instructions to continue the careful consideration of the whole subject, and to present the outline of a scheme to the next Assembly; and, further, that in this consideration it is suggested that the committee might give special attention to the following points among others:

(a) Whether the scope of our present plan might not be enlarged so as to embrace some of the desirable features found in the other schemes expounded in this report, thereby increasing its compass and efficiency.

(b) Whether annual ministers' rates of a moderate amount, say from $5 to $10 a year, should not be instituted in connection with this fund, the payment of this rate being voluntary, and not necessary to some advantage from the Fund, but only conditioning its full benefit.

(c) Whether provision should not be made for receiving and investing as a permanent fund any gifts or bequests made for this purpose and obtained without the employment of a financial agent to secure them.

3. Your committee would also recommend that this report be printed in the Appendix of the Minutes of the Assembly this year, so that the subject may be studied by our ministers and people, and that suggestions may be sent in to the ad interim committee during the year by any persons interested in the subject, so that the committee may be aided in preparing its report, with an outline of a scheme, for the next Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE,
E. M. GREEN,
S. V. ROWLAND.

XVII. REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE GENERAL ASEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

Balance on hand,	1,245	16

There was collected on the assessment for 1899 and reported last year the sum of $326.75. During this year I have collected for 1899 the sum of $1,371.50, as stated above. This makes a total of $1,698.25, leaving still due on that year $464.95. In my last report I gave a list of arrearages due the Assembly from various Presbyteries for 1898 and the five preceding years, corrected before printing, however, to correspond with my books on the day of going to press with the Minutes. Making allowance for an error in the case of one Presbytery, the sum of the delinquencies there given were on the 1st of June, 1899, $1,930.75. Of this $779.50 has been cancelled by payment in whole or in part under the direction of the last Assembly authorizing its treasurer to correspond with Presbyteries in arrears and to compromise back claims in certain cases. The amount received thus has been $246,60; the amount relinquished to the Presbyteries $532.90. Of this latter five-sixth was to three Presbyteries whose circumstances seemed to warrant the concession. Only four or five Presbyteries have asked any rebate whatever, and only two have asked that the whole of their back dues be remitted. The following is a list of the Presbyteries that are still indebted to the Assembly with the amounts due from each: [*]Arkansas, $10; Bethel, $75; Chickasaw, $11.65; Fayetteville, $348.70; Harmony, $39.50; Lafayette, $68.25; Louisville, $78.50; Mecklenburg, $153; Muhlenburg, $19.95; Nashville, $133.50; Orange, $205.50; Pee Dee, $91.85; Pine Bluff, $24.50; Potosi, $30.30; St. John, $69; Suwanee, $2.10; Western District, $54. Total, $1,415.30. Of this $386.95 is for 1899 and $1,028.35 is for dues of the six previous years. One year ago thirty-four Presbyteries were more or less in arrears; now only twenty-one are behind. With several of these, under the authority granted by the last Assembly, I have agreed upon terms of settlement and readjustment. The Presbyteries have shown a commendable willingness to meet these past obligations, and only in a few instances have they asked relief from the burden of full payment. I am satisfied that by the prompt sending out of annual statements to the Presbyteries by your treasurer a recurrence of the large and growing deficit in the collections for your contingent fund may be prevented, and in this way an equal distribution of the burden of the Assembly's expense be secured. We recommend that your treasurer be required to further press the payment of these back dues with the discretion given him by the last Assembly till the whole of them are eliminated from his books.

There is an excess of receipts over amounts paid out in the summary given above of $1,245.16. This does not indicate, however, that the treasury carries a surplus of that amount. The Presbyteries, more largely than ever heretofore, have anticipated the time of the Assembly's meeting by sending in their assessments in advance of the convening of this body, so that sums are embodied in this report that the delay of a few days in remitting would have thrown over into the report of next year. Of the amount in the treasury named above $1,029.39 is on the dues of 1900 and 1901, whereas at the convening of the last Assembly I had collected only $326.75 on the year then beginning. On the other hand, there is due to the Western Section of the Alliance $380 for the year April, 1899, April, 1900, not hitherto paid, since only in the past few days have the funds come into the treasury sufficient for purpose. There is due, by statements just received, $620.39 to the Presbyterian Committee of Publication for printing the Minutes of 1899, and $182 for printing, travelling and sundry expenses of the Hymn Book Committee. These are the only outstanding claims against the treasury. Their total is $1,182.39, leaving a balance of funds on hand in excess of accrued obligations of $63.77. In my last report I called attention to the fact that I have had to utilize receipts of 1899 to the extent of $482.17 to pay the bills growing out of the Assembly of 1898. This was a reduction of more than $300 from the $784.15, which had to be drawn from the future collections to meet the expenses growing out of the Assembly of 1897. This year, however, I will have to draw about $956.64 on the receipts of 1900 to meet the obligations accruing from the last Assembly and payable before the meeting of this. In other words, in spite of the large collections of arrearages made during the year, the demands on the treasury during the year have been $469.47 in excess of all the collections so far made on the assessments of 1899 and the rather large collection on delinquent dues of years prior to 1899, amounting to $335.85. One cause of this is that the Assembly two years ago, in constituting its Hymn Book Committee, made no special provision for the expenses of that committee, but left it as a charge upon its own contingent fund. The propriety of this is a matter entirely within the discretion of the Assembly and is in nowise here criticized. Yet, in erecting a large and scattered committee to undertake an extensive editorial work, and in authorizing it to hold meetings from time to time with no fund to draw upon for its necessary travelling, typewriting and printing expenses save your already overdrawn treasury, without at the same time making provision by additional assessment or otherwise for the relatively large expenditure thus entailed, the Assembly has made necessary this draft upon the revenues of the coming year to meet the requirements of the year that is past. It is evident that such a policy, if continued, will lead to great embarrassment. In order to protect your treasury from the burden of obligations beyond its resources, I venture respectfully to suggest that the Assembly consider the advisability of making the further expenses of this editorial work a charge upon the hymn book itself, to be paid for out of the proceeds of its sale when published; and that it also consider whether, in view of the deficit in the treasury created in large part by this new item of expenditure, it be not feasible to stipulate in any contract it may make for the publication of the hymn book that your treasury be reimbursed out of the first sales for all it has paid out in the preparation of the book. This would obviate the necessity of raising the rate of assessment on the Presbyteries, which is now as heavy as it would be wise to make it. At the same time it would make the hymn book, as a business enterprise, stand on its own base and pay for itself.

[*] These amounts and the total have been corrected so as to conform to my books on May 31. 1900. The total of indebtedness to the treasury on closing of the report was $1,616.20. This has been reduced by receipts aggregating $175.90, and by surrendering claims amounting to $25.00. Of these eceipts, $78.00 was on dues of 1899, and $97.90 on dues of years prior to 1899. By payments, four Presbyteries have retired from the delinquent roll since May 11th.—W. A. A.

We recommend that the order of the Assembly of 1896 directing the Stated Clerk and Treasurer to prepare badges each year for the use of the members of the Assembly be rescinded.

Respectfully submittetd, W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

The attention of the Treasurers of the Presbyteries is invited to the above schedule of assessments, calculated, by order of the Assembly of 1896, upon the basis of one cent for each communicant member, as shown by the statistical tables of 1900 published in these minutes. It will require full payments of the above assessment to meet the current expenses of the General Assembly.

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficiency of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, 1, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of his great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions, and decisions, as to promote his own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, 2, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

FORMS OF BEQUEST.

"I give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States ——— (here insert the estate devised and bequeathed) for the use and benefit of said church."

"I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia), (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the publication work of said church, which is popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church."

"I give and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee), (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the foreign mission work of said church, which is popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church."

[Legacies of this kind in Mississippi are barred by the constitution of the State.]

The price of the Minutes of the General Assembly is 25 cents a copy, being less than cost. Orders should be sent to the Executive Committee of Publication, and not to the Stated Clerk.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED:

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, viz.: (1), Statistical, as per form on preceding pages; (2), on Systematic Beneficence; (3), on Sabbath Schools; (4), Narratives; (5), On Young People's Societies.

2. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables.

3. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that the numbers of their communicants should be inserted from their last reports.

4. To report NO FRACTIONS in the money columns.

5. To add up each column of figures with special care.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dismissions of pastors, organizations of new churches, and the names of ministers deceased. Place a star after name of church if a manse is furnished.

7. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly as soon as they are prepared, if possible before the meeting of the Assembly. If statistical reports are not received before the Assembly adjourns, it will occasion embarrassing delay in the publication of the Minutes. Clerks should also see that the amounts due for General Assembly's assessments are promptly sent up. See page 698.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterial Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for Statistical Reports.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

Notify the Stated Clerk of General Assembly when a change is made in the clerkship of your Presbytery.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly, through its Stated Clerk, (1), of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2), by the 1st of May in each year, of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies. It is not required that Synodical Narratives or statistical reports prepared by Synod be sent to the Assembly. They are simply for Synodical record. Notify the Stated Clerk of the Assembly when a change is made in the clerkship of Synod.

The annual report of the Board of Directors of the Assembly's Home and School, together with the report of the Treasurer of that institution, was received. The former was referred to the Standing Committee on the Home and School, and the latter to the Auditing Committee.

The reports of the local auditing committees were received and referred to the Assembly's Auditing Committee.

The annual report of the Committee on Church and Christian Education was received and referred to a special committee, consisting of P. C. Clarke, J. E. Dunlop, Jonathan Mays, John Y. Kilpatrick, and H. B. Nicholas.

The Rev. Dr. Rice presented the report of the ad interim Committee on Colored Evangelization. It was referred to the Standing Committee on that subject.

The Moderator announced the following as the special committee to whom the overtures touching a quorum of Synod were ordered to be referred: J. H. Lacy, B. H. Charles, F. W. Farries, J. A. McDonough, Richard Field.

The Moderator announced the following as the special committee to report on the overtures relating to the amending of Chap. X., Sec. 3 of the Confession of Faith: F. R. Beattie, D. G. Armstrong, J. B. Hutton, J. Albert Wallace, E. C. Murray, S. M. Smith, J. G. Anderson, T. C. Johnson, Thomas Gallaher, J. D. McLean, J. L. Caldwell, F. L. Ewing, S. P. Greene.

The Stated Clerk announced the enrollment of Ruling Elder T. P. R. Brown, a commissioner from the Presbytery of Lexington.

An overture from the Presbytery of Lafayette, asking the providing of literature for Westminster Leagues, was transferred from the Committee on Bills and Overtures to the Standing Committee on Publication.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a partial report, as follows:

First. To the communication from the Presbytery of Paris, approving "the plan of the Assembly to raise a million dollar fund for educational purposes," no answer is necessary.

Second. On the overture from the Synod of Virginia, asking the transfer to it from the Synod of North Carolina of a church and contiguous territory, "provided the last named Synod concurs therein"; and on the overture from the Synod of North Carolina, petitioning against such transfer, it is recommended that, inasmuch as the one condition on which the overture from the Synod of Virginia is based was not fulfilled, no action is necessary.

Adopted.

It was resolved that the Assembly set apart the hour from 4 to 5 P. M. Saturday to be spent in prayer for the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon our beloved church, with particular reference to the falling off of additions to our communion upon profession of faith, and the decline in the number of candidates for the ministry.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. R. D. Stimson.

THIRD DAY.

MAY 18, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. J. L. Bachman.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A. R. Vail, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Orange, and J. B. Hall, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Macon, were enrolled as additional commissioners.

Credentials of the appointment of Rev. F. R. Beattie, D. D., to convey to the General Assembly fraternal greetings from the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System were presented.

The thanks of the Assembly were ordered to be returned to the Southeastern Passenger Association for further courtesies.

The Moderator appointed additional members on the Standing Committee of Home Missions, as follows: F. D. Thomas, J. E. Jones, J. Y. Kilpatrick, and S. P. Greene.

A communication from Brandford Church, asking release from pecuniary obligations to the Executive Committee of Home Missions, was read, and referred to the Standing Committee of Home Missions.

The Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., and Judge Joseph W. Martin each presented a report from the ad interim Committee on the Matter of Commissions. These reports were put upon the docket, and their consideration made the first order of the day for Monday morning. It was ordered that so much of these reports as proposes amendment to the Book of Church Order be printed for the convenience of the commissioners.

The Rev. Dr. Kerr presented the report of the ad interim Committee on a Catechism on the Church. It went to the docket, and its consideration was made the second order of the day for Monday.

The Committee of Foreign Correspondence made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Our Assembly sends greeting. See Ephesians iii. 14–19 inclusive.

NEANDER M. WOODS, Moderator.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

To the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

Our Assembly sends greeting. See 1 Thess. ii. 16, 17.

NEANDER M. WOODS, Moderator.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

Your committee was directed to report a response to the following letter:

"Diocese of Arkansas, Residence of the Bishop, 1609 Arch Street,
"LITTLE ROCK, ARK., May 16, 1901.

"To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church—Greeting:

"In the Providence of Almighty God, our heavenly Father, you are convened within our charming little city, and I beg to add to words of welcome already given my earnest greeting. Permit me to express my prayerful desire that your forty-first session shall be marked, as well in the deliberations as in the devotions, by that conservatism and high Christian aim which has always characterized your honorable body.

"It would afford me real pleasure to visit the Assembly, but my uncertain health and the urgency of many duties incident to leaving the State to-night for a prolonged absence forbid me expressing in person the fellowship I feel.

"It occurs to me that the spacious room of Trinity Cathedral may be convenient for some of your more general or public services, missionary or otherwise, and I hereby tender the use of it to you on any Sunday evening or night.

"Praying that the God of Peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant may make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, I am, with great respect,

"Very cordially yours,

"WM. M. BROWN, Bishop of Arkansas."

We recommend the following response:

"To the Right Rev. Wm. M. Brown, the Bishop of the Diocese of Arkansas Protestant Episcopal Church—Greeting:

"The General Assembly appreciates your cordial salutation and reciprocates heartily the fraternal feeling underlying it, and tenders its thanks for the courtesy extended in the offer of the cathedral, which courtesy would be gladly accepted if occasion required.

"May the Lord have you ever in his gracious keeping and bless you abundantly in home, heart and work.

"NEANDER M. WOODS, Moderator.

"W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk."

The Rev. Dr. Beattie presented the report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund. It was referred to a special committee, to be appointed, and instructed to report as the first order of the day on Tuesday.

The Rev. Dr. E. C. Murray presented a minority report, and the Rev. Dr. Hazen a majority report from the ad interim Committee on Graded Sunday-school Lessons. These reports were referred to the Standing Committee on Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies, the consideration of whose report was made the first order of the day for Wednesday.

The Moderator announced the special committee on the report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund, as follows: F. B. Converse, L. O. Spencer, J. McL. Seabrook, R. E. Porterfield, H. Ginder, A. R. Vail, T. P. R. Brown, S. H. Hawes.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock Monday morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. J. M. Rose, D. D.

FOURTH DAY.

May 20, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. J. M. Clark.

The minutes of Saturday's session were read and approved.

Additional commissioners were enrolled as follows: H. B. Gilkeson, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Winchester; George Reese, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Florida; T. W. Bullitt, ruling elder, from the Presbytery of Louisville, and G. E. Thompson, minister, from the Presbytery of Muhlenburg.

The Rev. L. H. Blanton, D. D., having been called home by serious illness in his family, the Assembly united with the Rev. Dr. Beattie in prayer for him and them.

An overture from the Presbytery of Missouri, on the removal of the Executive Committee of Home Missions, was referred to the Standing Committee of Home Missions.

The annual report from the Board of Directors of the Louisville Theological Seminary was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

A communication concerning the Austin Theological Seminary from the Rev. Dr. T. R. Sampson, the president of that institution, was read, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presented a recommendation, that the Assembly authorize the Rev. Dr. Chester, Secretary of Foreign Missions, to proceed at once on a visit to our missions in Brazil. Adopted.

The Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., made a final report from the ad interim Committee on the Hymn Book. The report was received, and the thanks of the Assembly were returned to the committee for faithful discharge of duty.

Overtures touching the Hymn-book from the Presbyteries of Suwanee, Paris, Lexington, Montgomery and Holston, were read and referred to the Standing Committee on Publication.

The annual report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath was read and referred to the Standing Committee on the Sabbath.

The report of the Committee on the Twentieth Century Fund was read and referred to the Standing Committee on Education.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a report on the communication from the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to the communication from the Executive Committee of the Western section of "The Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," your committee recommends—

1. That the Assembly express continued interest in the work of the Alliance.
2. That provision be made for meeting our apportionment of the expenses, viz., $480.
3. That the matters in the communication called to our attention be referred for their consideration to the several Executive Committees of our Assembly dealing respectively with these matters.
4. That the representative of the commission accredited to us to bear its official salutations be given opportunity to discharge this honorable and pleasing duty.

Respectfully submitted, SAMUEL M. SMITH, Chairman.

It was made the first order of the day for Thursday to hear the Rev. Dr. Beattie, the accredited representative of the Alliance.

The Rev. Dr. J. W. Primrose offered two resolutions, which were referred to the Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools.

The Standing Committee on Publication made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Concerning the overture from the Presbytery of Louisville, asking that the General Assembly authorize the Committee of Publication to return to the old system of completing the Catechism in two years instead of one, your committee recommends that this overture be answered in the affirmative, and that the change asked be ordered.

Concerning the overture from the Presbytery of Florida, asking the Assembly "to consider the advisability of establishing, under the management of the Committee of Publication, a circulating library for the use of the ministers of our church," your committee recommends that the subject to which this overture relates be referred to the Executive Committee on Publication, with instructions to inquire whether it be practicable to establish such a library, and to take such action as it deems wise in regard to the proposal of this overture.

Concerning the overture from the Presbytery of Lafayette, asking the General Assembly "that it provide literature especially adapted to the needs of Westminster Leagues," your committee recommends that no action be taken, inasmuch as such literature is provided, in part at least, in The Children's Friend and in other publications.

Concerning that section of the report of the Executive Committee of Publication which relates to the appointment of a General Superintendent of Sabbath-school work (pp. 8-11), your committee recommends that this section of the report of said Executive Committee be referred to the Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies.

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE, Chairman.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was made the first order of the day for Tuesday afternoon, and a popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions was appointed for Tuesday night.

Wednesday night was appointed as the time for hearing the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions, and the holding of a popular meeting in the interest of that department of church work.

It was resolved that hereafter the daily sessions of the Assembly be held from 9 A. M. to 12 M.; from 2 P. M. to 5: 30 P. M., and from 8 P. M. at the pleasure of the Assembly.

The special committee appointed for the purpose made a report on the annual report of the Permanent Committee on Church and Christian Education. The report was put upon the docket.

It was ordered that a popular meeting in the interest of Church and Christian Education be the second order on Wednesday.

The overture from the Presbytery of Western Texas, asking a place in statistical reports for the "Home Class" Department of Sabbath-school work, was transferred from the Committee of Bills and Overtures to the Standing Committee of Publication.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a further report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

In response to the overture from the Presbytery of Memphis in regard to the manner of keeping sessional records, especially as to recording of papers adopted by the session, we recommend the following answer:

While it is important that a record be made of all the proceedings, this does not necessarily require the copying at length on the record book of all papers adopted by it, unless so directed by the Presbytery. It is largely in the discretion of the session to direct as to what papers shall be copied. It is important, however, that papers so adopted should be kept on file by the clerk of session as in that sense a part of the record.

On overture from Presbytery of Cherokee, asking deliverance against outside individuals or Presbyteries, asking other Presbyteries to join in overtures to General Assembly, we recommend that the Assembly decline to make such deliverance.

The Presbytery of Fayetteville asks the Assembly to revise its assessments upon the Presbyteries for its Contingent Fund so as not to make a fixed sum to every communicant for the assessment, but instead to base the assessment upon the several Presbyteries on their known liberality and financial ability, as well as on the number of their communicants.

We recommend on this overture that the Assembly answer in the negative.

On the overture from the Synod of Arkansas, asking the appointment of an ad interim committee to make an exhaustive study of our system of government with reference to the possibility and wisdom of effecting such change or changes in our system of government as will give our Synod its logical, natural and rightful position in the line of our church courts, your committee recommends that the Assembly decline to appoint the committee.

On the overture from the Presbytery of Brownwood, asking the General Assembly to expunge certain parts from the Pastoral Letter ordered by the General Assembly of 1900, your committee recommends that the request be not granted.

On the overture of the Presbytery of Arkansas, asking the Assembly to legalize the proceedings of the Presbytery at Wynne, instead of at Augusta, which was the place appointed, your committee would recommend that the Assembly do, and hereby does, grant their prayer.

The Presbytery of New Orleans overtures the Assembly to amend in the constitutional way the Book of Church Order, Par. 88, by adding after words, "A. B. Moderator," the following: "Before delivering the above commission, the Moderator of the Presbytery shall demand an affirmative answer from each commissioner to the following questions:

"First. Do you promise to attend the sessions of the Assembly from the convening to its adjournment, unless prevented by unforeseen providential reasons?

"Second. In the event you shall find, between this time and the convening of the Assembly that you shall be unable to attend, do you promise promptly to surrender your commission to your alternate?"

Reply: While we deprecate the too prevalent practice of members of the General Assembly in leaving the court before the close of its sessions, and while we hold that it is the duty of every member to remain until the close of the Assembly, unless providentially called upon to be excused, yet we recommend that the overture be answered in the negative.

In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Savannah, touching the soliciting, for religious schools, aid from the nation or state, we recommend that the Assembly take no action, inasmuch as the matter is clearly covered by our Constitution, and by deliverances of former Assemblies.

The Presbytery of Fort Worth asks if it is unconstitutional for a minister of a corresponding denomination to be asked to make the prayer at an installation service.

Reply: While we hold that the installation service should be conducted by the proper commissioners of our own church, yet we do not consider it an infraction of our law to call upon a minister of another denomination to lead in the prayer.

On the overture from the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, asking that Par. 142, ii., of the Book of Church Order, be amended so as to read: The Book of Church Order may be amended on the recommendation of our General Assembly when three-fourths of the Presbyteries advise and consent thereunto, and a succeeding General Assembly shall enact the same, your committee would recommend that the Assembly decline to take steps promotive of this change.

JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overture from the Presbytery of Brownwood, asking the interpretation of Par. 113, Book of Church Order, was put upon the docket.

T. W. Bullitt was added to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, and M. S. Smith was added to the Standing Committee on Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies.

The Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

It was made the order of the day for Tuesday at 4 o'clock P. M. to select the place for the meeting of the next Assembly.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a report on overtures touching a quorum of Synod, which report was put upon the docket.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Memphis, Georgia, Mississippi, and Virginia reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Assembly proceeded to the order of the day—the consideration of the reports of the ad interim Committee on Commissions. The report, presented by Judges Hobson, Bunn and Martin, was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

The undersigned members of your ad interim committee on the subject of commissions would respectfully submit for your consideration the annexed and accompanying paper as a substitute for the whole of Sec. 7 of Chap. V. of the Book of Church Order, Form of Government, being paragraphs 92, 93, 94 and 95 of the same.

As we understand it, the object of the reference to this committee by the Atlanta Assembly was with the view of enabling this venerable body to formulate and send down to the Presbyteries a more definite and distinct statement of the composition, powers, and duties respectively of commissions and committees, and that the Constitution of our church may be so amended as, if possible, to avoid misunderstanding and confusion in the future.

We regard it not a question as to what has been historically the practice of the church in the past, but what ought to be made the well-defined and easily understood law of the church in the future. If it is vague and indefinite, as well as inconsistent with the practice of the church now, we see no reason why the church, through its duly authorized courts, may not make the needed change.

It is as we submit a question, not as to what the law has been, but what the legislative power of the church through its constituted authorities ought to make the law.

We believe it ought to be made, so far as is consistent with its practical operation, simple, clear and definite, and have endeavored to embody this in the paper herewith submitted.

We propose the following as a substitute for Chap. V., Sec. 7, Form of Government:

Of Ecclesiastical Commissions. 92, i. A commission is a body of presbyters to which an ecclesiastical court entrusts special powers for the performance of specific business. It differs from a committee in that it provisionally stands for and represents the court itself, and is empowered, not only to examine and report, but also to deliberate upon, decide, and conclude, the business submitted to it; its judgment, on all issues submitted to it, being in force from time of finding its judgment, and subject to the review of the court appointing it; such review to be confined to errors of law and doctrine, unless, by reason of newly discovered evidence, it may be manifest that injustice will be done. To this end full records of its proceedings shall be submitted to the court, and if approved the judgment shall be entered on the records of that court as its final judgment.

Committees are the executive agencies of the church and its courts, for the transaction of such business and the performance of such duties as may be entrusted to them.

93, ii. Every court of the church has power to act by a commission, and to it may be properly committed the ordination of probationers for the ministry; the visitation of portions of the church for the correction of disorders; the organization of churches, including the ordination of officers; the trial of judicial cases, and similar cases requiring the exercise of the authority and judgment of the court.

No judicial case, however, coming up by way of appeal or complaint from a lower to a higher court, shall be tried by a commission without consent of parties; and in such cases no member of the lower court, who took part in the trial below, shall be appointed on the commission.

The ordination of a probationer shall not be committed to a commission, except in cases in which the Presbytery shall have examined him, and passed upon his fitness therefor.

94, iii. The quorum of a commission shall be the same as that of the court appointing it. The number of members that shall constitute a committee, and its quorum, is left to the discretion of the court appointing it; but in all cases, when no quorum is provided for, a majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

95, iv. In trials of judicial cases the commission shall proceed as far as applicable according to the requirements of the Rules of Discipline in cases on trial before the court itself.

In connection with the above, this Assembly herewith sends down also to the Presbyteries, with its recommendation, for their advice and consent thereto, the following:

"Wherever in sections 179 and 215, Rules of Discipline, the word 'commission' appears, substitute therefor the word 'committee.'"

[This clause was adopted and added to the above on the eighth day (see forward in these Minutes), and is inserted here by the Clerk to secure its consideration as a part of the whole action.—W. A. A.]

J. P. HOBSON,
HENRY G. BUNN,
JOSEPH W. MARTIN,
Of the Committee.

This action was sent down, with recommendation, to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent, and they were instructed to signify their decision by yes or no.

The Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock P. M.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

It was made the second order of the day for Tuesday morning to consider the report of the ad interim Committee on a Catechism on the Church.

It was made the third order of the day for Tuesday morning to consider the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overture from the Synod of Memphis, relating to the quorum of church courts.

The Rev. Dr. R. H. Fleming presented the report of the Standing Committee on Education. Said report was adopted, with the exception of sections 7 and 8, action on which was deferred to be taken in connection with the consideration of the report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund.

The following salutatory response was received from the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

WEST POINT, MISS., May 20, 1901.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Little Rock, Ark.:

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly is pleased to acknowledge your kindly greetings, and most sincerely and cordially reciprocates the same, praying for divine blessings upon your deliberations.

E. E. MORRIS, Moderator.

J. M. HUBBERT, Stated Clerk.

An invitation from Rev. Prof. A. S. Maddox to witness the exercises of his Seminary for Young Ladies was received with thanks.

The Assembly was led in prayer by the Moderator for an increase in the number of candidates for the ministry.

The Rev. Dr. J. W. Primrose presented the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization. It was put upon the docket.

The Judicial Committee made a report on the Complaint of E. T. Hoge against the Presbytery of Abingdon, which report was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Judicial Committee would make the following report on the paper placed in its hands, purporting to be a complaint of E. T. Hoge against the Presbytery of Abingdon: As an appellant cannot also complain, even to the next higher court, and as he can do this with even still less propriety to the court second above, and as it appears from the Minutes of the Synod of Virginia, sitting in Newport News, in October, 1900 (see p. 162, Min. Synod of Virginia, 1900), that the appeal of E. T. Hoge against the judgment of the Presbytery of Abingdon, divesting him of the office of the ministry, was found to be regular, and put upon the docket for action at the next meeting of Synod, your committee would report that there is no formal complaint from the said E. T. Hoge before this body.

T. C. JOHNSON, Chairman.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Arkansas reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Rev. Dr. S. L. Morris, of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries, made a partial report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Theological Seminaries would respectfully report to the General Assembly that the following papers have come into its hands for consideration: The report of the Board of Directors of Columbia Seminary, the report of the Divinity School of Southwestern Presbyterian University of Clarksville, the report of the Trustees of Union Theological Seminary, in Virginia, for the current and the previous year; the report of the Board of Trustees of Louisville Seminary, a statement of the president of Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, of Texas, and a plan of union for the consolidation of Louisville and Danville Theological Seminaries.

The encouraging features exhibited by these reports so predominate as to call for devout thankfulness to the Great Head of the church for his manifest favor and blessings upon these institutions.

The death of one student at Clarksville, and of Mr. W. C. Preston, secretary and treasurer of Union Seminary, are the only losses sustained.

The only real discouragement causing serious alarm is the general decline in the number of candidates for the gospel ministry now studying in these institutions. Whilst parents may be called upon to dedicate their children to God, and appeals may be made to young men to consider the claims of the ministry upon them, yet we recognize that the great remedy for this distressing condition of affairs now threatening our beloved church is earnest, persevering prayer to "the Lord of the harvest to send forth more laborers into his harvest."

Columbia Seminary reports the election of Rev. S. C. Byrd, adjunct professor of the chair of English Bible and Pastoral Theology, and assigned him to teach the English Bible, and to be tutor in Hebrew, whilst Rev. J. W. Davis, D. D., is continued in the chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis for one year, and at the same time gives the students valuable instruction in the study of missions. The funds for the erection of a mess hall being now in hand, steps are being taken for its building at once. For the first time in some years the income is now sufficient to meet all the expenses.

Union Seminary has closed a prosperous year. Through the generosity of Mr. Watts, the new chapel has been added to the other handsome and commodious buildings at Richmond. In addition to this his gift of $30,000, together with the funds raised by Dr. W. W. Moore will, with the sale of the Hampden-Sidney Buildings, not only liquidate all the indebtedness of the institution, but add at least $7,000 to its endowment. The library has been increased by more than 1,100 volumes chiefly through the liberality of Mr. Spence.

The Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University has been conducted with its usual corps of professors and usual ability, but reports a decrease of ten in the number of its students.

The statement of President Sampson shows that the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, in Texas, is assuming tangible form, having now succeeded in raising $40,000 of the proposed $200,000, and the Assembly expresses the hope of its largest success.

The report of the Theological Seminary of Louisville indicates a degree of prosperity, and a probability of an increase in its endowment of nearly $20,000, due to a legacy, which has been finally settled in its favor by the courts, after a period of litigation. All of the elections are approved.

S. L. MORRIS, Chairman.

The Assembly reconsidered its action appointing the consideration of the report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund to be the first order of the day for Tuesday morning, and made such consideration the third order for Wednesday.

It was made the first order for Tuesday to hear and consider a further report from the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Rev. Dr. John M. Rose presented the report of the Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School. It was put upon the docket.

The Board of Trustees of the General Assembly was instructed to hand to George E. Wilson, Esq., the annual sum of $100 to defray the expenses incident to his gratuitous services as the Board's attorney.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. R. A. Lapsley.

FIFTH DAY.

May 21, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by the Rev. F. J. Brooke, D. D.

The Rev. J. H. Lacy, having been called home by tidings of the sudden death of one of his children, the Assembly united with the Rev. Dr. B. H. Charles in prayer for him and his family.

The following salutatory response was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Philadelphia, Pa., May 20, 1901.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in Session at Little Rock, Arkansas:

Your fraternal greetings are cordially reciprocated. See Ephesians iv. 4-6.

HENRY C. MINTON, Moderator.

William H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The following greeting was received from the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church of North America, and was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence:

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 14, 1901.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

Dear Fathers and Brethren: The Synod of the Christian Reformed Church of North America comes to you with its cordial and sympathetic greeting. Let us say by way of introduction that we are a denomination of Holland descent, numbering at present about 150 congregations, located mainly in New Jersey, Michigan and Iowa, served by about 100 ordained ministers. In Grand Rapids, our centre, we sustain a flourishing theological school, with a faculty of seven professors. The Christian Reformed Church is adhering strictly to the Calvinistic Doctrines of grace as embodied in the confessional standards of Dordt and Westminster.

And, becoming more and more a part and parcel of our common American church life, it has looked about for the last few years for ecclesiastical sisters in our broad land, of like mind and effort, that ecclesiastical correspondence may be established with such churches.

By this correspondence the Synod of the Christian Reformed Church understands a little more than the exchange of greetings, but, above that—

(a) Sending of regularly appointed delegates to the meetings of each other's principal church courts, with advisory vote.

(b) To pay attention to each other that no one depart in doctrine, liturgy and discipline from Reformed principles.

(c) Mutual deliberation what position to assume with reference to third parties, and—

(d) To assist each other with advice, especially when movements are on foot to modify the Confession, Church Constitution or Liturgy.

We would be delighted to begin ecclesiastical correspondence of this kind with your church because historical research and observance of your practice cause us to feel that we are very much akin.

We feel, however, that the distance between us in the North and you in the sunny Southland is so great that the expense of sending delegates to your General Assembly would be heavier than we as a church, with our many needs in home and Indian mission field, can bear. Therefore, our Synod, however much it desired to take this step, thought it not advisable to enter into correspondence in the wide sense as indicated above.

One thing, however, our Synod thought we could and ought to do, and that is to send you this official letter in which we as a church express our great appreciation that you as a denomination adhere so closely to the glorious standards set up by the fathers of Westminster, even as our own ancestors displayed them at Dordt. We rejoice to hear that no liberal party or revision movement is found in your midst, but conservatism, built upon the infallible word of God, is in control. Our earnest hope and expectation is that you will continue to fearlessly uphold this banner God gave them that fear him, that it may be displayed because of the truth, even until the Son of God shall appear upon the clouds.

And finally, remembering the apostolic injunction, "Let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works" (Heb. x. 24), we should rejoice very much if you would join us in loyally and strenuously opposing that cancer in our present church organism, Secret Oathbound Societies, which in so many ways is contrary to God's Word and the welfare of the bride of Christ.

Trusting you will carefully and fraternally consider this message of sympathy and love sent you in a sisterly spirit of appreciation, we remain,

Your brethren in our common Lord,
F. M. TEN HOOR, Chairman,
HENRY BEETS, Secretary,
Of the Committee for Correspondence.

In response to an invitation from the Omer D. Weaver Camp of United Confederate Veterans to attend "the decoration of ex-Confederate graves," the following was adopted:

The invitation is received with thanks, and we express our profound sympathy with our friends on the occasion, and our regret that we are unable, on account of the pressure of business, to take a recess in order to permit the members of the Assembly to attend.

The Rev. Dr. Kerr, of the commissioners appointed by the last Assembly to attend the dedication of the Presbyterian Historical Monument at Freehold, N. J., reported as follows:

> I beg to report that according to appointment by your body, I attended the dedication of the Presbyterian Historical Monument at Freehold, N. J., June 14, 1900, and made an address conveying the cordial greetings of the Southern Assembly, and expressing our interest in the movement, so successfully carried out, to commemorate at Freehold the first recorded ordination, that of the Rev. John Boyd, which took place there December 29, 1706.
> The occasion of the dedication was one of great interest, and your commissioners were treated with great respect by the representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and of the Synod of New Jersey, who had charge.
> It is proposed by the Synod of New Jersey to raise a fund, the income from which will be used to keep the monument in repair.
> Respectfully, ROBERT P. KERR,
> Chairman of Commissioners.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Nashville reported, recommending their approval, with the exception that "mistakes in dates are found on pages 17, 24, and 25." Adopted.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Florida, South Carolina, and Missouri reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Texas reported, recommending their approval, "save in the exception taken to the action of the Presbytery of Fort Worth (see page 31), concerning which the Assembly has already expressed its mind." Adopted.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence, to which was referred an overture from the Presbytery of Ouachita, made the following report, which was adopted:

> The Committee on Leave of Absence, to which was committed an overture from Ouachita Presbytery, asking that the Assembly's Committee on Leave of Absence be instructed not to grant leave of absence to members of the Assembly except in case of sickness, or what may be considered absolute necessity, recommend that while the terms of the overture are the only conditions under which a commissioner should be granted leave of absence, yet we do not deem it necessary to so instruct the committee. A. G. LINK, Chairman.

In place of J. H. Lacy, who was called away from the Assembly, R. T. Simpson was made chairman of the Committee to Canvass the Votes of the Presbyteries on the Proposed Amendment to the Book of Church Order.

The Committee on the Narrative made a report, which was adopted, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

The order of the day having arrived, the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries made a majority and minority report. The minority report was considered.

It was resolved that the vote on this business shall be taken by call of the roll, and that all who favor the majority report will answer, "Majority report," and those who favor the minority report will answer, "Minority report."

The Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The consideration of the reports on Theological Seminaries was resumed. Pending this business, the hour for recess arrived, and its further consideration was deferred until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

The Rev. W. S. Jacobs, an alternate Commissioner from the Presbytery of Nashville, was enrolled in place of J. H. Lacy, principal, who had been called home.

The Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock this evening.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

At the request of the Moderator, the Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., presided over the popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions, which had been appointed for this hour. The Rev. R. A. Haden, of the China Mission, led the Assembly in prayer in behalf of recently bereaved missionaries. After the reading of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, the Rev. S. R. Hope, of the Japan Mission, read the Scriptures and offered prayer. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. W. D. Reynolds, of the Korea Mission; the Rev. R. B. Grinnan, recently of the Japan Mission; the Rev. J. S. Crowley, of the Congo Mission; the Rev. George Hudson, of the China Mission, and the Rev. Dr. Chester, the Assembly's Secretary of Foreign Missions. A collection for this interest, amounting to $79.24 was received.

The Moderator resumed the chair. Pending the consideration of the report on Foreign Missions, the Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. R. D. Stimson.

SIXTH DAY.

MAY 22, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and, according to appointment, spent an hour in devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Rose, with special reference to the increase in the number of ministers of the gospel.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a further report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

In response to the communication from "The Synod of the Christian Reformed Church of North America," your committee recommends the following letter:

DEAR BRETHREN: Our Assembly receives with cordial and grateful appreciation your expressions of fraternal regard. We rejoice in the tokens of God's favor on the work committed to your trust, and pray that his large and enlarging blessing may abide ever with you.

You are the heirs of heroic traditions, a precious legacy of trial and triumph, and we need wish you no higher privilege than that of proving worthy, by God's grace, of such an inheritance.

Yours in the best of all bonds,
NEANDER M. WOODS, Moderator.
W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

Respectfully submitted, SAMUEL M. SMITH, Chairman.

The unfinished business—the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions—was taken up. The report was adopted, and is as follows:

While the past year has been marked by much trial in China, it has also been characterized by many tokens of the Master's blessing throughout our fields.

The contributions to the work have been larger, and the number of missionaries increased over that of former years.

Amid the destruction in China, none of our forces has suffered, nor a single piece of mission property been injured. While our stations have not been scenes of general massacre, they have been of persecution; but no case is known of apostasy among our native Christians.

The Congo boat has been completed, and at this time floats on those waters, a magnificent monument to the hearty and determined effort of the children of our church.

The work generally evidences the power of God on our toil, especially in Africa, where the churches have been in a constant state of revival. We recognize and commend the activity and zeal of the missionary societies in the contribution of nearly one-third of the gifts of the year.

We record our deep regret at the death of Dr. Charles S. Terrell, who fell asleep at his home in West Virginia, October 22, 1900; also the death of Mrs. Eugene Bell, who fell at her post in Korea April 12, 1901; and the serious illness of Mrs. D. W. Snyder, necessitating her return to this country, together with the death of her little child, which occurred at Antwerp April 24, 1901, on her way home.

We ask that the consideration of this report be opened with devout prayer to God for his comfort to those who are sorely tried by these deep afflictions.

After a careful examination of all the papers placed in our hands, we unanimously recommend the following:

1. That the Executive Committee be directed to send the Secretary to Brazil for the purpose of examining the condition of our work, and of accomplishing a settlement of the Campinas property matter; and, in this connection, that the General Assembly gratefully acknowledge the kindness of Mr. Charles A. Rowland, Jr., of Athens, Ga., in securing half of the money necessary to cover the expense of this trip.

2. That we cordially approve the organization of the Synod of Mexico, and in reply to the earnest request of our missionaries there, do now appoint as delegate to represent this body at said organization, the Rev. J. H. McNeilly, D. D., and direct the Executive Committee to send him; in the event of his inability to go, the Executive Committee to appoint and send an alternate, and, in this connection, we recommend the sending, by the commissioner, of a letter of greeting, copy of which is hereto attached, and made a part of this report.

The following is the letter referred to in Resolution 2 above:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Mexico—Greeting:

Beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

First of all, we thank God on your behalf that the work of the Lord has, under our care and under the care of our sister church, the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, so far prospered in the great republic of Mexico, and that a sufficient number of congregations and Presbyteries has been established and built up as to make it possible now to organize the Presbyterian Synod of Mexico, and to add another independent body to the family of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, all being a part of the visible, holy, universal church, of which Christ is the only head and king.

We rejoice that the prayers offered in your behalf have been answered, that the toils and tears of all those faithful servants of Christ, who have so long waited for this consummation, have now at last been rewarded, and that those who have given up their lives for Christ and his church in Mexico have not died in vain.

Through all your trials and afflictions we have had you in our hearts to love you, and have made mention of you in our prayers. We have been glad to give what we could of temporal support, and to send for the work among your brethren and sisters, honored and beloved, some of whom remain to this present to assist in your complete organization, others having been called from their labors in the church militant on earth, to join the general assembly of the church triumphant on high.

The good hand of God has been with you, to bring you to the knowledge of his truth, to establish and build you up in the most holy faith, and in spite of all opposition to prosper you and to enlarge your numbers continually.

We join with you in rendering thanks to God the Father for all his mercies, to God the Son for the great salvation through his blood, and to God the Holy Spirit for his quickening power, and blessing upon the preaching of the word, by which you are saved, and brought into the liberty of the truth.

We beseech you, brethren, dearly beloved, that you stand fast in the faith long since delivered to the fathers, and by faithful men preached to you. that you be not led away from the simplicity of the gospel, that you maintain the doctrine, government, and worship of the Presbyterian system; that you ever hold to the infallibility of the Holy Scriptures as the oracles of God; that you all lead lives of soberness, virtue, faith and holiness, which shall ever be a testimony to them who are without, that the gospel you preach is able to make men wise unto salvation. May they see your faith and good works, and take knowledge of you that you are the followers of Christ.

We do make special prayer this day that you may be abundantly blessed of God, that you may be filled with the Holy Ghost, that you may ever increase in all the riches of God's grace, that you may continually grow in numbers and influence, and that the Presbyterian Church in Mexico may be kept and prospered of God until the very end of time.

When, in the good providence of God, you may send commissioners to visit us, we shall welcome them to our fellowship, and to participate as visiting brethren in all our deliberations.

Now the God of peace that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Done at Little Rock, Ark., U. S. A., May 22, 1901, and ordered sent by our commissioner to the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Mexico, to be organized in the City of Mexico, July, 1901.

WILLIAM A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.
ROBERT P. FARRIS, Permanent Clerk.

3. That the Executive Committee be authorized to secure such help as may be necessary, in the furtherance of the work; that they be urged to use all proper means to arouse the deeper interest of the whole church in this great work; and that they make special effort to keep before the youth, particularly in the colleges and seminaries, the claims of the Lord upon their service in foreign lands.

4. That we approve the suggestion of the Executive Committee that the maintenance of the Congo boat be laid as a special object of work upon our Sabbath-schools.

5. Referring to the paper referred to us by the Assembly from the Executive Committee touching the salary of the Secretary, we recommend that the matter be left entirely with the Executive Committee.

6. That in view of the increased demands of the work, every member of our church be affectionately urged to, if possible, increase the offerings by twenty-five per cent. during this year.

7. The Assembly expresses its appreciation of the excellent character of the literature sent out by our committee, and urges the churches to a more cordial support of its periodicals in order to a wider circulation of missionary information, and that our people may be kept in closer touch with the brethren in the foreign field.

8. That the records of the Executive Committee for the past year, which manifest marked fidelity in attendance, and careful and systematic disposition of business, be approved; that Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., be re-elected Secretary, and the committee for the ensuing year be composed as follows: S. H. Chester, D. D., Secretary; J. H. McNeilly, D. D., W. M. Anderson, D. D., Angus McDonald, D. D., J. W. Bachman, D. D., C. R. Hemphill, D. D., J. H. Lacy, W. S. Jacobs, F. B. Webb, D. D., A. L. Philips, D. D., R. J. Gordon, W. H. Raymond, G. H. Baskette, J. D. Blanton, W. G. Adams, R. E. McGill, J. F. Cannon, D. D.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

W. R. DOBYNS, Chairman.

It was ordered that communications from outside sources, designed to influence the action of the Assembly, be laid on the table.

The consideration of the reports from the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was resumed.

Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The Standing Committee on Publication made a further report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Concerning the overture from the Presbytery of Suwanee, asking that the new Hymn-book be printed with a divided page, your committee recommends that the suggestion of this overture be referred to the Executive Committee of Publication for consideration.

Concerning the overture of the Presbytery of Western Texas, asking the Assembly to direct the Assembly's Executive Committee of Publication to print a column in the sessional report on Sabbath-school blanks for reports on the Home Class Department of the Sabbath-school, your committee recommends the following answer:

That such a column is not needed, for the reason that the members of the Home Class should be enrolled as a part of the Sabbath-school membership.

Concerning the memorial of certain stated clerks of Presbytery, asking that certain changes be made in the blanks for presbyterial statistical reports in regard to the column for baptized non-communicants, and young people's and other societies, your committee recommends the following answer:

1. Your committee believes that it would be better to omit the column for baptized non-communicants from our statistics than to give such defective and misleading reports as are usually given as matters now are. But your committee also believes that an effort should first be made to secure uniform and accurate reports as to the number of baptized non-communicants. To this end we recommend that the Assembly instruct its Presbyteries to call the attention of pastors and clerks of session to the defective nature of these statistics, and to the use made of them against our church by others, and to urge pastors and clerks of session to make accurate reports as to the number of baptized non-communicants under their care.

2. As to the wording of the column for Young People's Societies, and the use of the term Invalid Fund, your committee recommends that the Stated Clerk be instructed to edit the blanks sent out so as to render them clear, and to make them consistent with each other and in harmony with the instructions of the Assembly.

Concerning overtures on the new Hymn-book from the Presbyteries of Holston, Paris, Montgomery and Lexington, asking, in substance, that delay and care be exercised in its publication, your committee recommends that no action is necessary, since the end which these overtures sought to attain has really been secured by the further consultation of the Presbyteries, and the delay in the publication of the Hymn-book till April 1st of this year by the ad interim committee.

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE, Chairman.

It was ordered that the next Assembly meet in the First Presbyterian Church at Jackson, Miss.

The unfinished business—the consideration of the reports on Theological Seminaries—was resumed, and it was ordered that speakers following Dr. Beattie, who had the floor, be limited to ten minutes.

The Rev. Dr. S. K. Winn presented a substitute for the majority report. Pending its consideration, this business was arrested until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock this evening.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

According to order, the proceedings were of a popular nature in the interest of Home Missions, and were presided over by the Rev. A. H. Hamilton, at the request of the Moderator.

After devotional exercises, the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was read, and the Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. J. G. Anderson, of Florida; Judge S. P. Greene, and the Rev. Dr. Sampson, of Texas, and the Rev. Dr. J. L. Caldwell, of Arkansas. A collection amounting to $116.95 was received for this department of the work of the church.

The Moderator resumed the chair, and the Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. S. M. Smith, D. D.

SEVENTH DAY.

MAY 23, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by Judge S. P. Greene.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Rev. J. E. Jones, D. D., of the Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of North Carolina reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Judicial Committee reported as follows on the complaint of E. W. Bedinger against the Synod of Kentucky:

On the complaint of Rev. E. W. Bedinger, D. D., against the Synod of Kentucky, the committee would report that at the request of the committee Dr. Bedinger appeared before it, and that after conference, he, in view of the ventilation of the kindred matter now being made in the discussion of the consolidation of the Louisville and Danville Seminaries, expressed himself as not inclined to press the complaint, and left its disposition with the discretion of the committee. Your committee, therefore, recommend that the complaint be not heard.

THOMAS C. JOHNSON, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on the Bible Cause made a report, which was put upon the docket.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a further report, which was put upon the docket.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries was resumed. The substitute for the majority report was amended, and adopted, and is as follows:

That while the Assembly may not wholly approve the wisdom of the consolidation of the two seminaries, yet, in view of the fact that there was practical unanimity in the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri as to the measure, and because of the safeguards thrown about the compact, this court hereby interposes no bar to such consolidation, but gives its assent thereto, leaving the entire responsibility thereof to the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri.

The ayes and noes were ordered on the foregoing action, with the following result:

YEA.—R. B. McAlpine, R. T. Simpson, W. I. Sinnott, James A. Going, J. D. McLean, L. G. Hames, J. E. Latham, Joseph W. Martin, R. H. Latham, R. A. Cloud, J. L. Caldwell, R. H. McFadden, J. E. The Rev. S. Taylor Martin, for himself and others, gave notice of protest against the above action.

The Assembly had recess until half after 2 o'clock this afternoon.

2:30 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and resumed the unfinished business—the consideration of the Standing Committee's report on Home Missions. The report was amended, and adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

We have carefully considered the minutes and annual report of the Executive Committee and overtures from several Presbyteries touching the interests of Home Missions.

Since the last meeting of the General Assembly the Rev. Dr. J. N. Craig, for seventeen years the faithful Secretary of Home Missions, was suddenly called to rest from his labors. He was a devoted friend and zealous advocate of the cause he loved so well, and only ceased to plead in its behalf when the summons came to enter at once upon the higher and better service of the church triumphant. Appropriate testimonials to his noble life and service are placed on record in the minute book of the Executive Committee.

The Rev. Dr. T. P. Cleveland filled the place of Secretary, ad interim; and now the responsible duty devolves upon this Assembly of selecting his successor to carry on the great work which is fundamental to every other interest of our beloved church.

2. The Treasurer's report was examined by the local auditing committee, and found to be correct. During the past year the total amount in the treasury was $55,356.56, which was administered at a cost of only eight per cent. on the whole amount. The fund was $7,750.04 less than that of the preceding year; $4,590.86 of the loss being in receipts for Home Missions, and $655.06 in receipts for the Invalid Fund. From the Home Mission Fund $30,635.11 was expended in the support of 121 ministers and 8 teachers; from the Invalid Fund $13,233.50 was paid to 141 beneficiaries, an average to each of $93.15; and from the regular Loan Fund $200 was loaned to 2 churches for church buildings, and $1,533.10 donated to 11 churches for the same purpose. The amount left in the treasury when the year closed, the 31st of March, 1901, was $6,313.31; $3,708.04 for Home Missions, including the railroad bond for $1,000, and $2,764.73 for the Moore Church Erection Fund, the Invalid Fund being overdrawn to the amount of $159.46. The cash balance in the treasury for Home Missions at that date—the beginning of the current year—was $6,525.87 less than the amount on hand for this work on the same day last year.

3. The attention of the Assembly is earnestly asked to the following facts concerning Home Missions:

1. The work is prosecuted with vigor in the Presbyteries under the Assembly's care. The efforts of the presbyterial chairmen are directed to bringing the churches to a self-sustaining condition as soon as possible; and the aided churches are taking up their own support, while new ones are being organized.

2. Fields are opening up faster than our present force can occupy and cultivate them. The destitutions are so great that the more the home missionaries do, the more they find to do, as it is in China. The influx of population into the Indian Territory calls in pathetic terms for the evangelist.

3. The money in the treasury at the beginning of this year was $6.525 less than last year. The receipts for the year just closed were $4,590 smaller than in the year preceding.

So we have the work successful; the needs and opportunities growing, the revenues diminishing, with this result: The amounts asked of the Executive Committee to carry on the work in the Presbyteries under the Assembly's care are cut down from forty to sixty per cent.; in other words, the committee at Atlanta is compelled to say to these Presbyteries, we can furnish you only about one-half of the funds which you estimate to be necessary to the efficient prosecution of your work. It is clear that an increase of men and means for the General Assembly's Home Missions is imperatively demanded.

4. The minutes of the Executive Committee are well kept, and we recommend their approval, with this exception: The committee has added a condition to loans from the Moore Church Erection Fund, viz.: When a church fails to make the first payment on a loan, the whole loan shall be treated as due. This condition renders the fund less useful than the generous donor intended; and the fact is, only two churches asked aid from this fund last year, though there is $2,708.04 in the treasury, which is offered at three per cent. interest. It is the judgment of your committee that no restriction should be thrown around the Moore Loan Fund other than Mr. Moore and the Assembly ordered.

5. The Assembly is to be congratulated upon the opportunity to secure a college, equipped for useful work, at Durant, Indian Territory. This institution will doubtless be of great service to our church, and to the cause of Christ in that new and growing country.

6. The contributions to the Invalid Fund came from 82 less churches, 18 less Sabbath-schools, and 26 less societies than the year before, which indicates the need of the special attention now given to this important causes by the General Assembly.

7. The overture of the Presbytery of Paris, suggesting a nomination for the secretaryship of Home Missions, is respectfully returned to the Assembly without answer.

8. The following recommendations are submitted:

1. That the overtures of the Presbytery of Missouri, asking the Assembly to "consider the propriety and feasibility of removing the headquarters of its Executive Committee of Home Missions to some point more accessible to and in closer touch with that committee's principal field of operation," and of the Presbyteries of Ouachita and Washburn, asking that the office of the Home Missions Committee be removed from Atlanta to Little Rock, be answered in the negative.

2. That the overture of the Presbytery of Arkansas be answered as follows:

That the Assembly appoint an ad interim committee, of which the Secretary to be elected shall be chairman, and which shall be composed of the chairmen of the Synodical Committees of Home Missions, who shall take into consideration the whole matter of our Home Mission work, in order to devise, if they find it practicable, a more efficient plan of Home Mission work, and report the result to the next Assembly for its action.

3. In response to the memorial from the Presbytery of Indian, concerning Calvin Institute, we recommend—

(a) That the name of Calvin Institute be changed to the Presbyterian College of Durant.

(b) That the tender, by the citizens of Durant, I. T., of a building and grounds, and not less than $5,000 in money, be accepted; that $2,000 be donated by the Executive Committee of Home Missions; that $3,000 be secured from other sources outside of the Indian Territory to erect a college building on the ground above mentioned, and that the Rev. Dr. T. R. Sampson be recommended to all our people in his efforts to secure the $3,000.

(c) That the property rights remain vested in the Assembly's Board of Trustees.

(d) That the said Board of Trustees be authorized to sell the ground now lying west of the Presbyterian Church in Durant, which is not necessary to be retained for church purposes; and that the proceeds of such sale be applied, first, to securing a lot and erecting a manse for the Durant Presbyterian Church, and, second, to the equipment of the college.

(e) That the Executive Committee of Home Missions be instructed to secure a charter for the new institution, and provide a constitution which shall insure the erection and maintenance of the college, under the rules and regulations governing the work of the Assembly in the Indian Territory.

(f) That the Board of Trustees of the Presbyterian College of Durant consist of twelve men, five of whom shall be chosen by the Presbytery of Indian, two by the Synod of Arkansas, two by the Synod of Texas, two by the Executive Committee of Home Missions, and the twelfth member be the Assembly's Secretary of Home Missions.

(g) That the building, now known as Calvin Institute, be removed at a suitable time to a convenient place near the college, to be known then as "Calvin-Ralston Memorial Hall."

4. That the overture of the Presbytery of Suwanee, asking the cancellation of a debt of $100 due the Loan Fund from Branford Church, be granted, and that a balance due the same fund from Umatilla Church, in the Presbytery of St. Johns, be remitted, as recommended by the Executive Committee.

5. That the sum of $50,000 be apportioned to the Presbyteries for Home Missions on the basis of their combined contributions to pastor's salary and benevolent objects; that the Presbyteries by urged to select efficient men for chairmen of the Presbyterian Committee of Home Missions, whose duty it is to see that every church in their Presbyteries contributes to the Assembly's Home Mission work; and that the plan of apportionments to the churches be earnestly recommended to all the Presbyteries.

6. That pastors and sessions be urged to enlist the support of their Sabbath-schools and ladies' societies in the Assembly's great field of Home Missions.

7. That Oklahoma be included in our Home Mission field, and that the Executive Committee be directed to make such investigations as will enable it to undertake the work intelligently in that territory.

8. That the Manual be amended so as the Executive Committee shall consist of the Secretary and twelve members instead of ten; and that the committee be composed of the following persons: W. A. Powell, treasurer; T. P. Cleveland, A. R. Holderby, J. G. Patton, C. P. Bridewell, T. H. Rice, A. B. Curry, ministers; and Messrs. M. A. Candler, Charles H. Martin, Hugh T. Inman, John C. Whitner, and W. P. Inman.

9. That the General Assembly elect a Secretary of Home Missions, who shall take charge of the work at least by the first of August next, and, in the meantime, the Rev. T. P. Cleveland continue as Secretary pro tem., on the salary of the Secretary for the time he may serve.

A. H. HAMILTON, Chairman.

The hour for recess having arrived, the session was extended until 6 o'clock.

It was ordered that the Executive Committee of Home Missions pay the expenses of the ad interim Committee on Home Missions.

The Moderator announced the committee to prepare a Pastoral Letter on the increase of candidates for the ministry (see report of Standing Committee on Education adopted on page 25), viz.: W. T. Hall, D. D., G. B. Strickler, D. D., and C. R. Hemphill, D. D.

The Standing Committee on Publication made a further report, which was put upon the docket.

It was resolved that the first business to-night be the election of an Assembly's Secretary of Home Missions, and that the election be preceded by a half hour of prayer for God's guidance in this important matter.

The Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock P. M.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met, and spent half an hour in prayer for the divine guidance in the choice of a Secretary of Home Missions.

The Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., of Macon, Ga., was then unanimously elected to that office.

It was made the first order for to-morrow to consider the report of the ad interim Committee on a Catechism on the Church.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. Dr. J. W. Primrose.

EIGHTH DAY.

MAY 24, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by Ruling Elder R. T. Simpson.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A communication from the Pozsony Reformed Presbytery, in Hungary, was read, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence would respectfully report that we are unable to make a full and accurate statement of the sums contributed by the churches to the different causes for the reason that five Presbyteries, viz., Central Alabama, Muhlenburg, Ethel, Meridian, and Indian, have not reported to this General Assembly, and again many of these reports received have omitted important items.

The following tabulated statement is made, showing the contributions of the church to the different causes:

1514	"	"	"	Assembly's Home Missions,	21,086
1844	"	"	"	Local Home Missions,	119,894
1283	"	"	"	Colored Evangelization Fund,	11,029
1399	"	"	"	Relief Fund,	16,292
1498	"	"	"	Education,	80,325
1128	"	"	"	Publication,	8,256
681	"	"	"	Bible Society,	3,356
Total to all causes,					$392,710

The churches have contributed to the benevolent causes in the following order:

483	churches	have contributed	to	8	causes.

We note with pleasure that there is an increase in the contributions of the churches of $11,877 during the past year.

To the question, "Does your Presbytery call upon the churches that fail to make any of the collections ordered to give their reasons for failure?" 29 Presbyteries answer, Yes, 14 answer, No, and 29 give no answer.

In view of the fact that many of these reports are incomplete, and that five Presbyteries fail to report at all, we recommend—

1. That the Assembly again urge upon the attention of Presbyteries the importance of carefully preparing their reports, using only the printed forms prepared for that purpose.

2. That those Presbyteries which have failed to send up reports on Systematic Beneficence be directed hereafter to prepare and submit their reports at the proper time.

J. LYNN BACHMAN, Chairman.

It was ordered that, instead of a popular meeting, as heretofore appointed, in the interest of Church and Christian Education, the consideration of the report of the committee on that subject be made the second order for to-day, at which time the Rev. Dr. Sampson shall be heard in its advocacy, and that he be substituted as a member of the proposed permanent committee on that interest in place of the Rev. Dr. W. N. Scott.

The Special Committee on Synodical Quorum made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee, to whom were referred the amendment to the Book of Church Order, Par. 82, on the subject of a quorum of Synod, and the action of the Presbyteries, and overtures thereon, respectfully report that twenty-one Presbyteries voted aye thereon, as follows, to-wit: West Lexington, Harmony, Transylvania, Washbourne, Albemarle, Tuscaloosa, Maryland, Greenbrier, Pine Bluff, Western District, Abingdon, Arkansas, Eastern Texas, Orange, South Carolina, Ouachita, Columbia, Paris, St. Louis, Bethel, Concord; and thirty-six Presbyteries voted no, as follows, to-wit: Athens, Mecklenburg, Kanawha, Chickasaw, Wilmington, Holston, Western Texas, Asheville, Brownwood, Brazos, Enoree, Knoxville, Lexington, Fort Worth, Louisville, Louisiana, Tombeckbee, Central Texas, Norfolk, Potosi, Dallas, Cherokee, Cheraw, Montgomery, Central Mississippi, North Alabama, Upper Missouri, Mississippi, North Mississippi, New Orleans, Memphis, Macon, Fayetteville, East Hanover, Nashville, Winchester. The Presbytery of East Alabama enclosed a page from its minutes, which does not show what action was taken by the Presbytery on the subject.

Five Presbyteries, to-wit: Florida, Suwanee, Louisville, Asheville, Augusta, and one Synod, that of Virginia, sent up overtures recommending amendments on this subject, varying a little in statement; but we have selected from these the statement which seems to come nearest to meeting the views of the Presbyteries generally. We accordingly recommend, in accordance with the overtures from Suwanee and Louisville Presbyteries, which are in the same words, that this Assembly send down to the Presbyteries the following amendment to the Book of Church Order, for their advice and consent, with the recommendation that it be adopted, to-wit: Add to Par. 82 the following words: "Provided, further, that in the case of a Synod composed of only three Presbyteries, any seven ministers representing any two Presbyteries, together with three ruling elders, shall be a quorum."

R. T. SIMPSON, Chairman.

The Special Committee on Invalid Fund presented a report on the report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund. Its consideration was made the third order for to-day.

The report of the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause was taken from the docket, and adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Bible Cause would respectfully report that we have given careful attention to the communication from the Rev. Dr. John Fox, Corresponding Secretary of the American Bible Society, and other accompanying documents which were referred to us; and we are gratified to learn from these papers that the work of this Society, during the last year, has progressed successfully, and with encouraging increase along all lines. Its receipts from the gifts of individuals, auxiliaries, and churches exceeded those of the year preceding by nearly $11,000, and from legacies by over $5,000, while the net income from the Bible House was also considerably larger. The distribution of the Scriptures, too, surpassed that of the past year, the issues reported in 1900 being 1,406,801, as against 1,554,128 this year, making an increase of 147,327 volumes. All these facts are encouraging.

But what seems specially deserving of attention in the reports placed in our hands is—

1. The continuous and rapid development of the work in the foreign field. While the circulation of the Scriptures in our own country was fully maintained, reaching 580,513 volumes (a larger number than the year previous), 973,615, over sixty per cent. more, were circulated in the foreign field. The Bible Society has been prompt in reaching with the word of God the benighted inhabitants of the islands lately brought under the protection of our government, and in Cuba, Porto Rico, and the Phillipine Islands the work is being vigorously prosecuted with signal evidences of success. In China, despite the interruption caused by the late troubles there, the circulation was little short of that of the year previous, many of the native colporteurs, in their consecrated zeal to give God's word to the people, perishing as martyrs to the cause. In Japan, too, the work is rapidly expanding. While in other lands, not so closely connected with our own missionary operations, the work is steadily going forward. We note this as a most cheering fact in relation to the evangelization of the heathen and papal nations.

2. Another matter which has impressed us as worthy of special notice in this work is the magnificent opportunities now presented, through Divine Providence, for the distribution of God's word. The Bible Societies have it in four hundred versions, covering all the leading languages of the earth; they are able, through the improvements in printing and bookmaking, to provide it at the smallest cost; their agencies engirdle the earth, so that they can distribute it with the greatest facility, and the world stands open before them, with almost every outward barrier removed, with the people ready and waiting to receive it. If ever there was a time in the history of the church when the Lord called his people to send out his light and his truth to the nations sitting in darkness, and to cover the earth with the knowledge of salvation, this is that good day.

3. A third fact brought to our attention is that the only thing now hindering the large expansion of this fundamental work is the lack of funds. The American Bible Society operations are restricted on that account; it is unable to do nearly so large a work as the British and Foreign Society because the means provided it are so much smaller. The report before us states that at least $250,000 a year are needed to the proper prosecution of the work; and now how far is our church responsible for thus holding back the word of life from those who are perishing without it? The contributions of our churches as reported in the tables sent up to this Assembly, covering both the local Bible work and that done directly by the American Bible Society, amount to $3,356.41, less than that contributed to any other object of our scheme of beneficence, and averaging about one and one-half cents per member. The trouble seems to be that this cause is not presented to our people by pastors and sessions as duty requires, so that the vast majority of our congregations neglect it altogether, and many others make but a nominal contribution. Even in many of our wealthier city churches it is almost altogether neglected. Are we not seriously at fault in this matter?

In view of these facts, we recommend to the Assembly the following resolutions:

1. That our pastors and churches be again reminded that the collection for the Bible Society on the third Sabbath in October, or some other more convenient day, is embraced in the Assembly's scheme of beneficence, and should be regularly and faithfully attended to along with the other causes recognized.

2. That the great opportunities and facilities for serving the Lord in this way of evangelizing the world be commended to the consideration of our people and their liberal support of the work.

3. That as our church fully shares in the home and foreign field the benefits of the American Bible Society's essential work of circulating God's word, we should recognize and sustain it as one of our own agencies.

J. ALBERT WALLACE, Chairman.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on overtures touching the division of the Synod of Mississippi was made the fourth order for to-day.

The Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies made a report, which was amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies respectfully submit the following report:

Seventy-five Presbyteries have sent in reports; many of them doubtless are correct and complete, while many others are very incomplete.

Sabbath-schools.

From these reports we have 2,173 Sabbath-schools, 29,230 officers and teachers, 142,933 scholars enrolled; average attendance of officers and teachers, 14,107;* average attendance of scholars, 84,396; number admitted to communion during the year, 4,679; contributed for current expenses, $54,778; contributed for other causes, $34,435—total contributions, $92,066. This total does not correspond with amounts reported for current expenses and contributed to other causes. This discrepancy is doubtless the result of some misunderstanding on the part of those making these reports. Over last year there has been some increase in the number of schools, also of officers and teachers, enrollment, and attendance. Some increase in contributions, but a slight falling off in the number added to the communion; nearly all the schools are reported as being under the care of sessions, except in a few instances. No other standard of our church is taught in the schools except Catechism.

Very few schools are reported as having teachers' meetings. Special religious interest among the children is reported by a few of the Presbyteries.

From these reports your committee is impressed with the conviction that our Sabbath-school interest is not what it should be. Our children are not under the influence of the church, and are not being imbued with the spirit of our faith as we could wish. It becomes us all to inquire why this is true? and if we can find the trouble, remove it. To increase the interest in this part of our church's work, your committee might offer various suggestions and recommendations; but will content itself by submitting the following for your consideration:

The General Assembly of last year sent down to the Presbyteries for their consideration the advisability of employing a man who shall devote his entire time to the development of our Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies.

From the annual report of the Executive Committee of Publication, together with the answers of Presbyteries, which came into our hands, your committee have found that at least fifty-two of seventy-nine Presbyteries have voted in favor of employing some man for this work.

In view of this fact your committee recommends that a suitable man be chosen to undertake this work.

In view of the further fact that in the action taken by the General Assembly of 1900, there is nothing definite as to the duties of this officer, or method of organizing the work, we submit the following:

* The general tables from the four non-reporting Presbyteries give 65 schools. 567 teachers and 4.677 pupils additional. W. A. A.

1. While the Assembly does not see its way clear at this time to elect a superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, it directs the Executive Committee of Publication to select one, and put him in the field as soon as the way is clear for his support.

2. This work shall be organized by and be under the oversight and control of the Executive Committee of Publication.

3. The work shall be conducted through an official known as the General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies.

4. A collection shall be taken in all our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies each year on the first Sabbath in October, or as soon thereafter as possible, for expenses connected with this work.

5. It shall be the duty of the General Superintendent to secure as far as possible the better organization of the work in the various Presbyteries. That he may be aided in the work, Synods and Presbyteries are requested to appoint synodical and presbyterial committees, with efficient chairmen, on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, to co-operate with the General Superintendent in his work. The Presbyteries are urged to hold Sabbath-school institutes annually, to promote the formation of normal classes, to introduce our own literature, and whatever they may be persuaded will promote the interests of our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies.

6. It shall be the further duty of the General Superintendent to organize and promote Sabbath-school mission work in such destitute fields within our bounds as may, in the providence of God, be open to such effort; but always securing the consent and approval of the Presbytery, or presbyterial representative of this work, in whose bounds such work is undertaken.

7. An annual report of the General Superintendent's work shall be made to the Executive Committee of Publication, to be transmitted to the General Assembly. This report shall embody the statistics of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and Presbyteries are hereby directed to place their statistical reports on this subject in the hands of the General Superintendent as soon after the adjournment of spring Presbyteries as possible.

It is distinctly understood that this entire plan is provisional only, being dependent on the raising of the money for the Superintendent's salary by the means provided herein for that specific purpose. J. E. JONES, Chairman.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S AND OTHER SOCIETIES.

For the past three years reports have been made only on Young People's Societies. In 1898, 14 Presbyteries reported, in 1899, 28 Presbyteries, in 1900, 36 Presbyteries. The last Assembly made provision for reports from all other church societies, and this year we have reports from 50 Presbyteries. While this is a gratifying increase, there are 29 Presbyteries, or 37 per cent. of the whole number, which have made no report. These 50 Presbyteries report 1,319 societies, with a total membership of 30,680, contributing $98,060.86. This is an increase over last year of 945 societies, 21,309 members and $84,138.48. The list of Presbyteries, societies and work is as follows, the Presbyteries being named in alphabetical order. (See in Table of Statistics for Sabbath-schools and Societies, in Appendix.)

Your committee endeavored to analyze the work of these societies, but the reports are so incomplete or partial it was impossible to make just averages. Confusion also arises from the use of names which signify little save sentiment, such as

"Golden Thread," "The Olive Club," "Candle Lighters," "Coral Workers," etc., etc. In fifty reports more than sixty different names appear, exclusive of the various kinds of "Bees," "Gleaners," "Bands," and "Circles."

Attention is called to the fact that the Children's Friend, published by our Committee of Publication, devotes suitable space to the topics and interests of the Young People's Societies, in accordance with the recommendation of the last Assembly.

Resolutions.

The resolution of Dr. J. W. Primrose, concerning the pastor's relation to the Sunday-school, after reciting Form of Government, Chap. IV., Sec. 1, and Pars. 1 and 4, concerning the dignity and usefulness of the minister of the word, and his duty of catechising the children and youth, declares concerning the letter, "This function pertains to his office as it does to no other officially. He is ex officio the superintendent of the Sunday-school, and all officers and teachers are to be regarded as his assistants."

Your committee would recommend the following declaration: The pastor has an ex officio primacy as teacher of the Sabbath-school, and should be recognized and honored as such by the whole school. But as the superintendent is principally charged with ruling and not with teaching the school, the pastor is not ex officio superintendent, but exercises joint authority over the school as a member of the session.

In response to a second resolution offered by Dr. Primrose, and referred to this committee, asking the Assembly that it warn our churches against an improper observance of Children's Day, your committee recommend the following:

That while this Assembly sanctions a proper observance of Children's Day, it would respectfully request all churches under its care to avoid, as far as possible, all exercises in which the prominent feature is mere display, or which, by the introduction of the spectacular, may lead to the desecration of God's house and his holy day.

J. E. JONES, Chairman.

The same committee made a report on overtures touching graded Sunday-school lessons, which was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

From the ad interim committee, appointed by the General Assembly of 1900 to submit "a comprehensive, progressive, and graded system of Bible study," there have come to us three reports. The majority report is signed by three members of the ad interim committee, and each of the other two minority reports by a single member.

In the majority report the attention of the Assembly is called to the fact that a system of grading is already in use in the International Lessons, and that efforts are being made by the International Lesson Committee to still further extend this system, a strong sub-committee having recently been appointed to prepare a course of graded lessons. This report maintains that it is possible to bring our Sabbath-schools under a more systematic and stricter grading than now prevails. Many difficulties will arise, but none that cannot be overcome. An outline is then given of a stricter system of grading and the way in which it may be secured.

The two minority reports recommend more radical changes. All these reports, however, concur in this that there should be no abandonment of the International Course of Lessons.

Your committee recommend—

1. That all the reports of the ad interim committee on the subject of graded Sunday-school lessons, or so much as may be necessary for an intelligent understanding of what is proposed, be published in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly, that the Presbyteries may have an opportunity to examine the same; and that the whole matter be referred to the next General Assembly.

2. That the thanks of this Assembly be given to all the members of this ad interim committee for the fidelity and ability displayed in their reports.

Respectfully submitted, J. E. JONES, Chairman.

The following resolution, touching the proposed amendment of the Book of Church Order, was adopted:

Resolved, That in connection with the recommendation in the paper on commissions, adopted by this Assembly, there be sent down also to the Presbyteries, with the recommendation of this Assembly, for their advice and consent thereto, the following: "Wherever in Secs. 179 and 215, Rules of Discipline, the word 'commission' appears, substitute therefor the word 'committee.' "

The Assembly had recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

2 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The report of the ad interim Committee on a Catechism on the Church was taken from the docket. After its consideration, the following was adopted:

That the Catechism on the Church be sent down to the Presbyteries for their criticism, the same to be reported to the ad interim committee by February 1, 1902, and that said committee report to the next Assembly, and that the expense connected with it be paid by the Publication Committee.

A resolution touching the giving of diplomas to reciters of said Catechism and the Shorter Catechism was referred to the ad interim Committee on a Catechism of the Church.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence reported the following response to the communication from the Pozsony Reformed Presbyterian congregation in Hungary:

The Committee of Foreign Correspondence would report as follows, in answer to the communication from Pozsony Reformed Presbyterian Church, in connection with the General Assembly of the Trans-Danubian Reformed Churches in Hungary:

1. That the communication be referred to our Executive Committee of Foreign Missions at Nashville, with authority to act as may seem best to that committee, after careful investigation, the Assembly, however, expressing the hope that some limited aid, at least, may be extended to the Pozsony Church.

2. That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be directed to reply to the communication from the Pozsony Church, assuring its people of our profound and prayerful interest in their growth and spiritual prosperity, and informing them of the action taken.

SAMUEL M. SMITH, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Kentucky reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on overtures relating to the division of the Synod of Mississippi was taken from the docket, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

1. That the Assembly grant the request in overture of Mississippi Synod for a division of Mississippi Synod into the Synod of Mississippi and the Synod of Louisiana.

2. That this division follow State lines.

J. C. Barr, J. B. Hutton and H. Ginder were appointed a committee to report on the place of meeting, the officers, and the property rights of the Synods of Mississippi and Louisiana.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises reported appointments for the coming Lord's Day.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on overtures relating to the division of the Synod of Memphis was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to the overtures of the Synods of Memphis and Mississippi and the Presbytery of Holston, asking that the Synod of Memphis be dissolved, and the Presbyteries of Memphis and Western District be transferred to the Synod of Nashville, to be called hereafter the Synod of Tennessee, and the Presbyteries of North Mississippi and Chickasaw be transferred to the Synod of Mississippi, we recommend that the request be granted and the transfers be so made, and that the name of the Synod of Nashville be changed, as requested, to the Synod of Tennessee.

JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Chairman.

It was resolved that the foregoing action go into effect on the first of October, 1901.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on overtures from the Presbyteries of Knoxville, Columbia, Nashville, and Western District was adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to the overtures of the Presbyteries of Western District, Columbia, Nashville, and Knoxville, asking the General Assembly to change the place of meeting for the Synod of Nashville, your committee recommends that the request of the overtures be not granted. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Chairman.

The same committee made a report on the transfer of La Grange College, which was adopted, and is as follows:

On the transfer of the La Grange Synodical College by the Synod of Memphis to the Presbyteries of Memphis, Western District, North Mississippi, and Chickasaw, and their successors, your committee recommend that this Assembly, being empowered, authorized and requested to do so, do now confirm, approve and ratify the transfer of the said La Grange Synodical College, its property, assets, effects, rights and claims by the said Synod of Memphis to the Presbyteries of Memphis, Western District, North Mississippi, and Chickasaw, and their successors, and that the trustees named in the article of transfer, hereby submitted as a part of this report, be and are hereby empowered, authorized and directed to take all necessary steps to transfer and vest the title to said college, as requested.

JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Chairman.

The following are the Articles of Transfer:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, to convene in Little Rock, Ark., in May,* 1901:

At a pro re nata meeting of the Synod of Memphis, regularly called and held in the city of Memphis, April 9, 1901, the Synod of Memphis adopted the following paper, touching the transfer of the La Grange Synodical College, now under the care of the Synod of Memphis:

Whereas, heretofore, to-wit:* On January 3, 1856, the La Grange Synodical College, of the county of Fayette and State of Tennessee, was incorporated by an act of the Legislature of the State of Tennessee, known as the Acts of the Legislature of Tennessee of 1855 and 1856, Chap. 238, on page 485 thereof, and, whereas, it was provided by said act that the La Grange Synodical College, "Shall be and is hereby established, to be located in the vicinity of the town of La Grange and county of Fayette, which shall be known and distinguished by the name of the La Grange Synodical College, and the same shall be forever under the care of the Synod of Memphis, and their successors, in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America (O. S.);" and, whereas, it was provided by an amendment to said act, entitled, "An act to amend Sec. 1 of the act entitled 'An act to incorporate the La Grange Synodical College, in the county of Fayette, passed January 3, 1856,' which amendatory act will be found in the Acts of the Legislature of Tennessee, 1895, Chap. 72, p. 109, thereof; and, whereas, it was provided by said amendatory act, second section thereof, "that if at any time hereafter the said Synod of Memphis shall change or transfer the care, control and jurisdiction of said college, or its property, assets, or effects, to any other ecclesiastical body or bodies of the same connection, the body or bodies thus designated by it shall have the same care, control and jurisdiction thereof that is hereby conferred on said Synod, the purpose being to give said Synod the power to delegate the care, control and jurisdiction of said college and assets to any other ecclesiastical body or bodies in the same general church connection; and, whereas, the Synod of Memphis has memorialized the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to dissolve the Synod of Memphis; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the event of said dissolution, the Synod of Memphis does hereby transfer the care, control, legal title, and jurisdiction of said college, its property, assets, and effects, together with its claim against the United States government for the destruction of its property during the war, to the four Presbyteries now constituting the Synod of Memphis, to-wit, the Presbytery of Memphis, the Presbytery of Western District, the Presbytery of North Mississippi and the Presbytery of Chickasaw, and their successors, and each of the above Presbyteries shall be entitled to six representatives on the Board of Trustees, as provided in the charter of incorporation of January 3, 1856, said trustees to be elected as provided in said act of incorporation, each Presbytery at each regular fall meeting electing two trustees for the term of three years.

Be it further resolved, That for the purpose of carrying into effect the transfer of said college, and its assets, properties, privileges, rights, immunities and exemptions of all and every character whatsoever, including its real estate and claims against the United States government, that the Rev. S. L. Grigsby, Moderator, and Rev. J. H. Lumpkin, Stated Clerk of this Synod, in the event of said dissolution, are hereby vested with the title thereto, and are empowered and instructed to transfer and convey by deed to J. M. Boone and Rev. W. H. Neel and Rev. M. A. Matthews all of said assets, properties and privileges, rights, immunities and exemptions of every character and description whatsoever, including real estate and claims against the United States government, belonging to said La Grange Synodical College, to be by said J. M. Boone and Rev. W. H. Neel and Rev. M. A. Matthews held in trust until the dissolution of the Memphis Synod by the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church in the United States, at and after said dissolution, they, the said J. M. Boone, W. H. Neel and M. A. Matthews, or any two of them, are to transfer and convey all the assets, properties, privileges, rights, immunities of every character and description whatsoever, including real estate, claims against the United States government, to the Presbytery of Memphis, the Presbytery of Western District, the Presbytery of North Mississippi and the Presbytery of Chickasaw and their successors, vesting said Presbyteries with the care, control, jurisdiction and legal title of said college, and all of its assets, together with all the privileges, rights and immunities and exemptions as is at present enjoyed by the Synod of Memphis.

In the event of the death, resignation or refusal to act of any one or more of said within-named trustees, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States is empowered to fill said vacancy or vacancies, and said trustee or trustees, when so named and appointed, shall be vested with all the rights, powers and privileges of said trustees herein named.

Resolved further, That this Synod does authorize, empower and request the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States to confirm, approve and ratify its action in the premises, and to take such other and further steps and action as may be necessary and proper to fully complete this transfer, and carry out the purposes of this resolution.

By order of the Synod of Memphis.

JOSEPH H. LUMPKIN,
Stated Clerk, Synod of Memphis.

It was resolved that the records of the Synod of Memphis be deposited in the library of Union Theological Seminary.

The report of the Committee on Church and Christian Education was taken from the docket, amended, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Church and Christian Education, to which was referred the second annual report of the Permanent Committee on this cause, together with the report of the Committee on the Twentieth Century Fund begs leave to report that it has examined both of these reports, and finds that they contain information which is both gratifying and encouraging as to the revival of interest in the great cause of Education among our Presbyteries and Synods. The faithfulness and diligence of the Committee on the Church and Christian Education are to be commended. Owing to the duties laid upon both the chairman and vice-chairman of the Committee on the Twentieth Century Fund by their respective positions in theological seminaries, neither of them was able to undertake the work, yet they both rendered valuable service. This committee recommends the following action, viz.:

"That the General Assembly records its gratification that this enterprise has received such general approval and support throughout the church, and express anew its sense of the vital importance of this movement; and that it urge the Synods and Presbyteries to prosecute this work with all the zeal and energy possible."

Your special committee would respectfully recommend—

1. That the request of the Permanent Committee on the Church and Christian Education for a popular meeting to be held on behalf of this important subject during the sessions of the Assembly be granted, and that 11 o'clock Wednesday morning be appointed for this purpose.
2. That the Permanent Committee on the Church and Christian Education be reappointed for the ensuing year.
3. That hereafter a standing committee on the Church and Christian Education be appointed at each meeting of the Assembly.
4. That the Treasurer of the Assembly be instructed to defray the expenses of the Permanent Committee, which amount to $177.35, and that hereafter this committee be instructed to devise means for raising funds to defray its expenses.
5. That in response to the recommendation of the Committee on the Twentieth Century Fund "that a new chairman be elected," the Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., be added to the committee, and made its chairman, and that the name of Rev. T. R. Sampson, of the Synod of Texas, be substituted for that of Rev. W. N. Scott, D. D., who has removed to the Synod of Virginia, and that the other members of the committee be reappointed.

Respectfully submitted, P. C. CLARK, Chairman.

The consideration of the report of the Special Committee on Overtures touching the foot-note which the last Assembly ordered to be inserted in future editions of the Confession of Faith, was made the first order for to-night, and the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Publication was made the second order.

C. P. Bridewell, J. M. Rose and J. M. Clark were appointed to confer with the Rev. Dr. Morris as to his acceptance of the Secretaryship of Home Missions.

The report of the special committee on the report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund was taken up, and considered seriatim.

Pending this business, the Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock this evening.

8 o'clock P. M.

The Assembly met.

The consideration of the report on the Invalid Fund was resumed. The report of the special committee was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee, to whom was referred the report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund, beg leave to report as follows:

We recommend—

1. That the thanks of the General Assembly be returned to the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund for the careful and exhaustive study they have given to this important subject, the information they have gathered in reference to the schemes in use in other churches, and the valuable suggestions they offer for our consideration.

2. That a separate executive committee be created to take the oversight of this whole work, to be known as the General Assembly's Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief.

3. That this committee shall consist of eleven members, a majority of whom shall be active business men, who will give time and thought to its important duties.

4. That this Executive Committee be empowered to elect its own officers other than the secretary, and to make rules and regulations for the administration of its affairs. Should this Assembly fail to elect a secretary, that the Executive Committee be authorized to engage a secretary, who shall act also as treasurer, and to pay him such salary as may be consistent with due economy in the administration of this Relief Fund.

5. That the benefits of this fund be provided mainly for the relief (1) of pressing need of disabled ministers, and (2) of the families of deceased ministers; and that length of service be taken into account in case of aid given to ministers.

6. That careful regulations be drawn up by the Executive Committee in regard to (1) the mode by which the length of service to the church shall be taken into account, (2) the scale according to which the benefits of the fund shall be made on this basis of length of service, and (3) the conditions upon which the benefits of both branches of the fund are to be received, and that those regulations be reported to the next Assembly. In the case of ministers there should be a medical certificate of disability, the recommendation of the Presbytery and the approval of the Executive Committee in order to secure the benefits of the fund. In the case of the families of deceased ministers the recommendation of the Presbytery and the approval of the Executive Committee shall be required for participation in the benefits of the fund.

7. That collections be solicited from all our churches during the month of July, and that the earnest effort be made to raise not less than twenty thousand dollars for this work, and that the committee be authorized to apportion this fund to the two branches of this work.

8. That the Executive Committee formulate and submit to the next Assembly for approval a scale of "ministers' rates," which each minister may pay annually into this fund in order to a full particpation of its benefits, and which will justify a larger scale of aid than would otherwise be practicable.

9. That the Executive Committee also solicit gifts and bequests for the benefit of both of its branches, and that (unless the giver otherwise direct) the capital of these gifts and bequests be permanently invested and only the income thereof be used annually for the beneficiaries of this fund.

10. That all ministers whose names are on the rolls of our Presbyteries, whether laboring at home or in the foreign field, shall be eligible, according to the regulations of this committee, to the benefits of this fund for themselves and their families.

11. That the following persons be elected as members of the Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief: Rev. Russell Cecil, D.D., chairman; Rev. Robert P. Kerr, D.D., Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D. D., Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, George R. Cannon, John S. Munce, C. D. Larus, S. H. Hawes, J. N. Cullingworth, and William R. Miller, who with the secretary, to be elected, shall constitute the committee.

In response to an overture from the Presbytery of North Alabama, asking that one name only be used to designate this fund, your committee recommends that the Executive Committee of Publication indicate this cause by the name "Ministerial Relief" in all blanks for financial and statistical reports.

Respectfully submitted, F. B. CONVERSE, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Education for the Ministry was taken from the docket, was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

There was placed in the hands of your committee the minutes of the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry, the report of the Committee to General Assembly, with the Treasurer's report, and duplicate of the report of the Auditing Committee, also overtures from the Presbyteries of Harmony, South Carolina, Charleston, and from the trustees of Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, respecting the decrease of candidates for the ministry of the gospel; from the Presbytery of East Alabama, concerning the employment during vacations of candidates for the ministry who receive aid from the treasury of the Committee of Education.

From the report of the Executive Committee it appears that aid was given last year to 166 candidates, 87 of whom were in theological seminaries; that the receipts for the year were $20,228.44; that the disbursements were $12,733.64 to aid candidates, $2,311.30 for the expenses of the committee, and that there is a balance in the treasury of $5,183.50.

Your committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Executive Committee has faithfully and diligently performed its duties, deserves commendation, and that the records of its work be approved.

2. That in answer to the overtures concerning the decreasing number of candidates for the ministry, the Assembly hereby appoints the last Thursday in February, 1902, as a day of prayer for youth in schools, colleges and seminaries of learning; that the sessions of our churches are urged to invite the people to assemble in their respective places of worship on that day to pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into his harvest, and that the presidents of all schools and colleges be requested to assemble the student body on that day, have a sermon preached on the call to the gospel ministry, and prayer made for the calling and consecration of our youth to the service of God; that the Secretary of Education, as far as possible, visit schools not under the care of the church for the purpose of presenting the claims of God for the services of the young men of our land; that the Assembly appoint a committee to prepare a pastoral letter to be sent to pastors and churches, presenting and pressing the claims of the gospel ministry, and the call thereto, instructing pastors to preach distinctly upon the subject, and to urge parents to consecrate their sons to the Lord for his service in preaching the glorious gospel of the blessed God.

3. That this Assembly set apart Wednesday morning, 9 to 10 o'clock, to be devoted to prayer to God for his special blessing on his church, and for the increase of the number of men who shall minister in his name.

4. In answer to the overture of the Presbytery of East Alabama, asking the Assembly "to give to our theological students in the seminary a maximum of $100, and to those in the literary department $50 as a maximum per year," we recommend that the Assembly declines to fix a maximum, but instructs the Executive Committee to make an equitable distribution of the funds placed in its hands.

5. In answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, asking the Assembly "to arrange such plans of co-operation between its committees of Education, Publication and Home Missions, that they may give our beneficiaries employment as colporteurs in their college vacations, and supplies during their seminary vacations," we recommend that the Assembly declines to grant the request.

6. The Assembly exhorts the Presbyteries to exercise great care in receiving candidates for the ministry, that only those whom the Lord elects as his chosen vessels may receive aid from the treasury.

7. The Assembly directs the Executive Committee to endeavor to raise at least $30,000 during the coming year, and that authority is given to the Executive Committee to indicate to each Presbytery its equitable share of this amount.

8. The Assembly appoints as the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry for the year 1901-1902: Rev. Joseph H. Lumpkin, secretary; Rev. William H. Neel, D. D., Rev. Neander M. Woods, D. D., Rev. Sterling J. Foster, Rev. Turner A. Wharton, D. D., Thomas Wellford, G. W. Macrae, treasurer; S. P. Read, J. S. Davant, C. H. Albright, William E. Holt.

Respectfully submitted, ROBERT H. FLEMING, Chairman.

Dr. Morris appeared before the Assembly, and signified his acceptance of the office of the Assembly's Secretary of Home Missions, and the Assembly was led in prayer by the Rev. G. W. Boggs in his behalf.

The Rev. A. H. Hamilton, chairman, presented the following resolution from the Standing Committee on Home Missions, which was adopted:

In view of the emergency which is now upon the General Assembly's Home Mission work, threatening its ruin in several of the Presbyteries—

Resolved*, That the Assembly recommends that the Executive Committee borrow $5,000, if necessary, to pay in full the applications of the Presbyteries for the first quarter of the current year, pledging the September collection for the repayment of the same, if the money is not otherwise secured previously.

The committee appointed to report on the place of meeting, officers, and property rights of the Synods of Mississippi and Louisiana made the following report, which was adopted:

1. Each Synod shall own the synodical property situated within its bounds.

2. The Board of Trustees for Presbyterian Publications in New Orleans of the present Synod of Mississippi are instructed to make transfer of synodical property in accordance with the laws of the respective States of Louisiana and Mississippi.

3. The new Synod of Mississippi is to be the successor to the records of the present Synod of Mississippi.

4. The funds that may remain in the treasury after the discharge of the present Synod's obligations are to be equally divided between the new Synods.

5. This division is to take effect November 19, 1901, at 7: 30 P. M.

The new Synod of Mississippi is to meet at the above named time in the First Presbyterian Church, Natchez, Miss., Rev. T. L. Haman (or the oldest minister present) to preach and preside, and organize the body.

The Synod of Louisiana is to meet at above named time in the First Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, La., Rev. J. H. Nall, D. D. (or the oldest minister present) to preach and preside, and organize the body. JOHN C. BARR, Chairman.

The Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., was transferred from the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions to the Executive Committee of Home Missions.

The Assembly proceeded to the consideration of the report of the Special Committee on Overtures, relating to the insertion of a foot-note in the Confession of Faith. The report was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Concerning overtures from the Synods of Georgia, Nashville, South Carolina, Mississippi, Texas, and Florida, and from the Presbyteries of Suwanee, Chesapeake, Enoree, Louisville, Norfolk, Dallas, Cherokee, Charleston, Savannah, Orange, Tombeckbee, Upper Missouri, Central Mississippi, East Alabama, Paris, New Orleans, St. Louis, Memphis, Macon, Roanoke, Brazos, Fayetteville, Transylvania, Wilmington, Kanawha, Mecklenburg, Albemarle, Harmony and East Hanover, asking in various terms that the direction of the Assembly of 1900, to the effect "that in every edition of the Confession of Faith published hereafter, the Committee of Publication be instructed to insert as an explanatory foot-note the action of this Assembly regarding elect infants dying in infancy," which action is as follows:

"On the overture from W. E. Shive and W. M. Kirkpatrick, asking that the Confession of Faith, Chap. X., Sec. 3, be amended so as to read 'All infants dying in infancy are elect infants, and are regenerated,' etc., it is recommended that the prayer of the overture be declined, inasmuch as the present language of the Confession cannot, by any fair interpretation, be construed to teach that any of those who die in infancy are lost," your committee recommends the following answer:

1. That this Assembly hereby rescinds the order of last Assembly to print the aforesaid foot-note in future editions of the Confession.

2. That this action is in no way to be taken to modify the answer made to the overture of W. E. Shive and W. M. Kirkpatrick by the Assembly of 1900.

Concerning the overture from the Presbytery of Norfolk, asking that the Assembly send down to Presbyteries the following overture, "Shall Chap. X., 3, of the Confession be changed to read, 'Infants dying in infancy, being elect, are regenerated,'" and concerning the overture from the Synod of South Carolina that this be not done; and concerning the overture from the Presbytery of Fort Worth, asking that the Assembly take such action as will leave no doubt of the true position of our church upon this subject; and concerning the overture from the Presbytery of Chesapeake, asking that the Assembly send down to Presbyteries the following overture, viz.: "Shall the word 'elect' in Chap. X., 3, in the first line, of the Confession of Faith be stricken out?" and concerning an overture from F. H. Johnston and eight others, asking the same thing, or, failing this, asking that the word "infants" in the section in question be changed to "persons"—

Your committee recommends that no action be taken, for the following reasons:

1. Because it is unwise to initiate at this time the agitation of this question among our people.

2. Because no modification that does not eliminate scriptural Calvinism from this section of the Confession will obviate the objection which comes from Arminian sources.

3. Because the Westminster Confession of Faith is the first Great Creed which taught the salvation of infants dying in infancy, on truly scriptural grounds.

4. Because the Confession of Faith in this section does not teach the damnation of any infants dying in infancy, for the reason that the contrast made in it is not between elect and non-elect infants dying in infancy, but between elect persons who die in infancy, and elect persons who do not die in infancy.

5. Because, while we have a well-grounded hope, founded on scripture, that all infants dying in infancy are saved, yet the Confession of Faith goes as far as the scriptures justify a positive creedal statement upon this subject.

In addition, your committee recommends that this entire report be published by our Executive Committee of Publication in a convenient form for distribution, and that it be kept on sale at the Depository.

The following protest by F. J. Brooke and others was admitted to record:

We, the undersigned, beg leave to enter our respectful and kindly protest against the action of this Assembly in adopting Dr. Winn's substitute for the majority report of the Committee on Theological Seminaries, giving assent to the consolidation of Danville and Louisville Seminaries; and in doing so, we wish to be distinctly understood as casting no reflection upon the motives of those who voted for said action, but simply to express our conscientious conviction that this action was wrong, and for the following reasons, viz.:

1. We believe this action is unconstitutional in that the power to assent to such a consolidation is not given to the Assembly in the Constitution, and, therefore, the Assembly ought first to have referred this action to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent thereto before passing in its favor, even supposing the plan merited approbation.

2. This action, in our humble judgment, cuts across the distinctive principles of our church, viz., the spirituality of the church, the jus divinum theory of church government and the Old School biblical Calvinism—truths to which we have borne witness for forty years would seem to your humble protestants to have been cast aside.

3. In our humble judgment this action logically tends toward full organic union with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, notwithstanding the universal opinion to the contrary of those who advocated the action. This may be a fear, but we believe it is a well-founded one.

For these reasons, together with others held by the several protestants signing this paper, we earnestly and humbly beg leave to enter this protest.

The following protest by S. Taylor Martin and others was admitted to record:

The undersigned members of the Assembly respectfully submit their dissent from and protest against the action taken, authorizing the consolidation of Louisville Seminary with Danville Seminary, an institution under the care of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America. This protest is submitted for the following reasons:

1. As there is no constitutional provision for establishing such relation with another church, this question should have been submitted to the Presbyteries.

2. We accord to Synods and Presbyteries the right to conduct educational institutions within the church and under her control, but through the plea that the Synods of Missouri and Kentucky be allowed to manage their local affairs, by this act of the Assembly the Southern Church is now committed to union with the Northern Church in the most vital question affecting its integrity, namely, the training and instruction of its candidates. Under the terms of consolidation Danville Seminary is to be discontinued, the endowment of that institution is to be turned over to our seminary. To the Northern Church is to be accorded one-half interest in our seminary at Louisville, the appointment of one-half of its directors, and joint control in the selection and appointment of its instructors. Your protestants call attention to the fact that this involves a total abandonment of those questions of doctrines and practice, which constitute the distinctive principles of our church, differentiating it from the Northern Church. The Northern and the Southern Churches hold diverse views on the spirituality of the church, on the jus divinum theory of church government, on the integrity and preservation of the Westminster symbols, and on other important questions.

To delegate the instruction of our candidates to that church, which holds views diametrically opposed to ours on these questions, is to make an unconditional surrender of the doctrines of our church on these important matters.

3. We deplore the consolidation because it is a serious menace to the peace of the church. We apprehend trouble in bringing together in the board and in the faculty men of diverse views, representing different churches, and we fear that the provision for numerous vetoes from the two Assemblies is calculated to produce friction, controversy and strife. We now hold pleasant fraternal relations with the Northern Church, and we deplore any disturbance in the work allotted us in the providence of God.

4. We protest against this action because its logical sequence is organic union. We believe that a formal consummation of organic union would divide asunder the Southern Church; that it would neither carry all of its churches, nor all of its Presbyteries and Synods.

Thus what is proposed in the interests of peace would bring separation, confusion, and strife.

According to all who do not agree with us, the right to be guided by their conscientious convictions, we herein express our own freedom from responsibility for the action of the Assembly. For these and other reasons held by the several protestants signing this paper, we respectfully beg leave to enter this protest.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows on the overture touching ordination by a commission when said commission is less than a quorum of Presbytery:

> In response to the overture from Montgomery Presbytery, as to the validity of an ordination of a probationer by two ministers and one elder, we recommend the following answer: An ordination so made is not strictly regular, yet when ratified by the Presbytery, is valid. JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Chairman.

Adopted.

Rev. Dr. Converse, of the Special Committee on the Report of the ad interim Committee on the Invalid Fund, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

> Resolved, That the Executive Committee of Home Missions be directed to turn over to the Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief the property, books and papers of the Invalid Fund, when it shall receive notice that the latter committee is prepared to receive them. Should there be any delay in the organization of that committee, the Committee of Home Missions will in the meantime vigorously prosecute the work of the Invalid Fund.

The Auditing Committee made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Auditing Committee would respectfully report that they have examined the financial statements of the treasurers of the following Executive Committees: Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Publication, Colored Evangelization, Assembly's Home and School, and Education for the Ministry; also report of the Trustees of the Assembly, and the report of the Treasurer of the Assembly.

We find these reports all certified to as correct by their respective local Auditing Committees appointed by the Assembly of 1900.

We recommend that the following Auditing Committees be appointed for the years 1901-1902:

(b) For Executive Committee of Home Missions.—J. B. Daniel, W. R. Hoyt, Charles J. Martin.

(d) For Executive Committee of Education.—George C. Mason, H. M. Neely, A. B. Hill.

(e) For Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization.—W. E. Bingham, E. B. Nuzum, W. C. Harris.

(f) For Executive Committee of Home and School.—S. G. Howison, Dr. J. M. Barney, George H. Morrison.

(g) For Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief.—John Bolling, John A. Coke, George L. Christian.

(h) For Treasurer of General Assembly.—B. H. Owen, H. C. Merritt, J. M. Macrae.

We recommend that the Treasurer be directed to close his books March 31st of each year. JAMES A. GOING, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath made a report on the annual report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath, to whom was referred the report of the Permanent Committee of the Sabbath respectfully report:

1. That there seems to be but little, if any, improvement in Sabbath observance over previous years. While there may be a slight improvement in some portions of our church we fear that Sabbath desecration is a growing evil within our bounds.

2. We note with sorrow the death of one member of the Permanent Committee—Elder John A. Barry.

We recommend—

1. That the Assembly reiterate its previous deliverances, urging our people to "remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy."

2. That all our ministers preach upon Sabbath observance at least once a year.

3. That the Permanent Committee consist of the following ministers and elder: Rev. James Stacy, Rev. C. P. Bridewell, Rev. Theron H. Rice, and Dr. J. P. Thurman.

4. That the report of the Permanent Committee be printed in the Appendix of the Minutes of the Assembly. R. L. MOSER, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Publication was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Publication and Colportage submits the following report based mainly on the fortieth annual report of the Executive Committee of the Assembly:

The business of the Depository has not been equal to that of last year, though fully up to the average of several past years. The list of new publications is smaller this year; the expectation of the new Hymn-book has lessened the sales of the old ones.

The publishing department has continued its work as usual, and there has been increase in the number of Sabbath-school helps and papers issued. This is a gratifying feature.

It is a matter of regret that the Sabbath-school Mission work hitherto conducted has to be suspended during this summer. Seven colporteurs were at work last year, and ten young men were employed during the summer in special Sabbath-school work. The hope is expressed that next year the contributions of the church for this purpose may be greatly increased, and this important work be renewed. Pastors are recommended to bring this cause before their people in as clear a way as possible in connection with the taking of the collection for it.

The donations during the year of Sabbath-school and other literature have amounted to $5,171. Altogether the amount applied to Sabbath-school Mission work and colportage work is $10,033, which is $2,338 more than the total gifts from the churches for this purpose. This is a matter which arrests attention, and it becomes a question whether it should not be made plainer than it now is to many of our people, that this collection is for purely missionary work, and not to help to pay for printing books.

It appears from the report of the Executive Committee that the plant of the Publication Committee is worth $60,000, and that appropriations to mission and colportage work have averaged $1,200 a year, or two per cent. per annum above contributions for the past ten years. Such a plant might surely make more money by its business for mission and colportage work. It would surely do so, if our ministers and people would purchase all their books through our Executive Committee at Richmond. Our committee can furnish books as cheaply as they can be had elsewhere, and still have a small profit for colportage work, and it should be made known in all the borders of our church that books other than those published by the committee can be obtained through that committee.

In regard to the new Hymn-book it is only necessary to call attention to the fact that it is now ready for the printers, and will soon be issued. We express gratification that this work is now complete, and we earnestly commend it to all our churches for use.

The report of the Executive Committee mentions the sad fact that three of its members were removed by death during the year, viz.: Rev. C. H. Read, D. D., Hon. W. W. Henry and W. C. Preston, Esq. The death of these brethren is a loss not only to the committee, but to the church at large.

Your committee has examined the minutes of the Executive Committee, and, finding them neatly and correctly kept, recommend their approval as far as written.

Your committee recommend that the Executive Committee for the following year consist of the following members: Rev. James P. Smith, D. D., Rev. R. P.

Kerr, D. D., Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., Rev. S. K. Winn, D. D., Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D. D., Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, Hon. B. R. Wellford, Jr., M. M. Gilliam, Esq., R. A. Lancaster, Esq., Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., John S. Munce, Esq., J. G. Tinsley, Esq., and Rev. J. K. Hazen, D. D., Secretary and Treasurer.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

FRANCIS R. BEATTIE, Chairman.

The following was adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved,* That the thanks of this Assembly are hereby tendered those who have placed us in their debt by their kind, courteous and hospitable treatment. We would recognize with gratitude the generous hospitality of the good people of Little Rock, who have welcomed us so warmly and made their homes ours during our stay in this city. We assure the pastor, officers and members of the First Presbyterian Church that we feel their kindness could not be surpassed, and that it shall not be forgotten, and we are equally mindful of the kindness of the pastor and people of the Second Presbyterian Church, and other churches of the city, who have shown such zeal for our comfort and welfare. We thank the officials of the churches and of the Masonic Temple, whose buildings have been used for committee meetings by this body; the telegraph and telephone and post-office officials for special courtesies extended us; the railroads for special rates granted; the papers, religious and secular, for full reports of our sessions, and all who have befriended this body of the Lord's workers in connection with this meeting of the Assembly. We add that these are not mere formal words, but, on the contrary, a poor attempt to briefly express our sincere appreciation of those who have shown us much kindness and contributed so largely to the pleasure and efficiency of our meeting in "The City of Roses." And whilst we are expressing our gratitude we wish to thank the Moderator for the marked kindness, courtesy and fairness which have characterized his administration in this often trying position. Truly he has won the hearts of all.

The report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization was taken from the docket, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization, to which has been referred the report of the Executive Committee, would respectfully report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Little Rock, Ark., May, 1901, that the reports and records of the Executive Committee have been carefully examined.

That the Executive Committee is able to say that "the work is slowly growing in favor, and gradually gaining ground," is largely due, we believe, to the faithful, earnest and judicious management of the Secretary, the Rev. D. Clay Lilly. That its growth in favor is slow, and its gains only gradual are facts to be deplored, for it is indisputable that our churches are largely indifferent to its claims.

Finances.

For the general fund the committee received during the year only $7,460.59. For improvement for Stillman Institute $308.12 were realized from the sale of the old building in Tuscaloosa, and 2,701.19 from rent and sale of property in Indianapolis, given by the Rev. R. T. Liston.

Evangelistic.

That the large negro population within the limits of our church's territory is being evangelized by other agencies is not to be accepted as an excuse for our own inaction. We do not think ourselves discharged from the duty of offering the gospel to the whites of our land, though the whites are beyond contradiction far better provided with wholesome instruction than the negroes. It should not be forgotten too that we have a selfish reason for providing the negroes with sound religious teaching in view of the admitted fact that immorality and criminality advance with rapid pace among the blacks, and menace the peace and morals of the country. Obviously the agencies for their moral and religious betterment are inadequate. A need, therefore, lies at our door. Shall we accept the call—or longer neglect it? What are we doing? This year we have 54 colored ministers, one more than in 1900, 2 less than in 1897. We have also 2 licentiates; 10 candidates, the same number as in 1900, and 9 less than in 1897; 80 churches, an increase over last year of 8, and over 1897 of 22; communicants, 1,919, an increase over last year of 71, over 1897 of 651; number of Sunday-school scholars, 2,735, an increase over last year of 574, and over 1897 of 989. Two new churches have been organized; three other congregations are ripe for organization through labor of colored evangelists. Six congregations have been aided in erection of churches, and some progress has been made in mission schools. This is not discouraging because fully commensurate with the amount of aid given.

Sustentation.

With the exception of one or two fields all our colored churches have been supplied, and for this work $3,365.95 has been expended. The confidence already reposed in the committee and its Secretary should, if possible, be augmented by the fact that appropriations for sustentation will be decreased year by year, thus training these churches in self-support.

Where the membership is large the negroes are not behind others in the support of their pastors. That our own colored ministers may be as successful among their own people as those of other denominations your committee feels that they need only to preach plainly, and not above the comprehension of their hearers, the truths of utter ruin in Adam and redemption complete in Christ, presenting clearly and fervently a free, finished and present salvation—a salvation not only from the guilt, but also from the power of sin.

Education.

That they may be qualified for this work our own church must provide for their education. Much more has been done in this direction this year than ever before. The enrollment of Stillman Institute has been fifty-four. Of these, sixteen were in the theological department. The course of study in both academic and theological departments has been enlarged, and the theological course lengthened to four years. A well built house for the superintendent and teachers has been erected and called "The O. B. Wilson Hall." A three-story building for class-rooms and dormitories is in process of erection. This work is being done by the students themselves under competent direction, and will not cost more than $1,500, exclusive of furniture. The industrial feature is reducing the costs of the institute; in fact, it will be almost self-supporting, and the students at the same time made self-helpful in consequence of a charge of $30 for academic and $20 for the theological course, and $30 each in labor through the year. Thus judiciously is the little amount given by the churches expended. Furthermore, aid has been extended from the fund to other schools in North Carolina, South Carolina and Mississippi.

We recommend—

1. In concurrence with the urgent request of the Executive Committee, that this Assembly appeal to our people, pastors and sessions to organize mission Sunday-school work wherever practicable with a view to subsequent development into church organizations.

2. That our ministers make to their congregation a clear statement of the progress made with insufficient means; the real claims of the work upon the consciences of God's people; and assure them of the zeal, fidelity, and sound judgment of all in charge of the work, and with a special reference to the Secretary.

3. That the report of the ad interim committee read by the Rev. Dr. Rice be published by our Publication Committee in tract form, and a copy be sent to every pastor and session.

4. We recommend to the Executive Committee the advisability of placing in the field, as soon as the way be opened, an evangelist whose duty it shall be to visit the colored churches, and hold meetings with a view to their edification, and also for the establishment of new organizations.

5. Your committee recommend the re-election of the Rev. D. Clay Lilly as Secretary of the Executive Committee, which shall consist of the following others: Dr. E. H. Sholl, Hon. J. W. Lapsley, Rev. L. S. Hundley, D. D., Rev. J. A. Bryan, Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., Hon. John H. Miller, Rev. John Van Lear, Rev. Neal L. Anderson, Rev. J. G. Snedecor, and Gen. R. D. Johnston.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN W. PRIMROSE, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on the annual report of the Trustees of the Assembly's Home and School, was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

The Assembly has heard with great gratification and with sincere gratitude to God of the progress and success of the Home and School during the past year. It is glad to know that all of its expenses have been promptly met, and that, in addition to this, a considerable sum ($1,569) has been paid toward the liquidation of the indebtedness of the institution, leaving now a balance of only about $7,000.

Profoundly impressed with the good work which the Home and School is doing, in caring for and training the children of our deceased ministers and missionaries, and with the possibility of a future of enlarged usefulness and of blessing to the church in its ministry of charity, the Assembly hereby recommends a collection to be taken in all our churches and Sabbath-schools on the last Sabbath of December for the support of this work. Pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents are urged to give due information respecting the work of the Home and School to all our people and children, that their sympathy and interest may be enlisted in its behalf.

Respectfully submitted, JOHN M. ROSE, Chairman.

The Rev. Dr. Beattie, the accredited representative of the Alliance of Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, addressed the Assembly, conveying to this body the cordial greetings of the Alliance.

It was resolved that the Assembly has heard Dr. Beattie with great pleasure.

The following report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was adopted.

> In answer to the overture from the Synod of Memphis, asking that the quorum of all courts above the session be made to consist of an equal number of teaching and ruling elders, the committee recommend that the Assembly return an answer in the negative.

A communication from the Rev. Dr. R. P. Kerr, asking the return to him of the stock and plates of the "Hymns of the Ages," was referred to the Executive Committee of Publication, with power to act.

The report of the Committee on the Records of the Synod of Alabama was taken from the docket and amended, and its recommendation, that the records be approved, was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on an overture asking the interpretation of the word "competent," in Par. 113, Book of Church Order, was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

> On the overture from the Presbytery of Brownwood, asking the Assembly to define the word "competent" in Par. 113 of the Book of Church Order, and also asking the question, "When the officer described in this paragraph is unacceptable in his official capacity to a majority of the congregation, is his removal by the session essential or merely optional"—your committee would recommend the following answer:
> That the Assembly give as a fair paraphrase of the word "competent" the phrase "within the authority of," but it is a matter within the discretion of the session, to be exercised wisely in view of the facts in each particular case.
> JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Chairman.

A resolution as to the management of the W. A. Moore Fund was referred to the Executive Committee of Home Missions.

The following paper relating to divorce was adopted:

Resolved, That this Assembly call attention to the teaching of God's word upon the subject of the re-marriage of divorced persons, and the duty of ministers officiating at such marriages, as set forth on page 614, Minutes of Assembly of 1900, second line from top.

The minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

It was ordered that this Assembly be now dissolved, and that another Assembly, chosen in like manner, shall meet in the First Presbyterian Church in the city of Jackson, Miss., on the third Thursday of May, 1902, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Closed with singing, and with prayer, and the benediction by the Moderator.

ROBERT P. FARRIS, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. NARRATIVE ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

Your committee would respectfully report that there have been placed in our hands seventy-seven narratives on the State of Religion, which we have carefully examined, and from which we gather the following facts:

1. That with but few exceptions the attendance upon the services of the sanctuary has been good.

2. The observance of family worship is reported by a large majority as sadly neglected. This is to be greatly deplored as evidencing a lack of spirituality.

3. In regard to the observance of the Sabbath day, these narratives are far more encouraging, as but few report neglect or disregard of the sanctity of the Holy Sabbath, and its observance is most generally practiced.

4. In the training of the children in the home and Sabbath-school there is sad unanimity in giving testimony of neglect as to home training, but faithful work in the Sabbath-school. While it is to be noted that the few that bear testimony of faithfulness both in home and Sunday-school, also show faithfulness in all branches of Christian work as an evidence of the importance of home training.

5. It is gratifying to note the almost unanimous report that comes up as to the fidelity of God's people in worshipping him with their substance, and promptly meeting their obligations in paying pastors' salaries, there being but few instances showing neglect of these duties.

6. These narratives give evidence of growth and spiritual life, but few report any special outpouring of the Holy Spirit, but there is in all an evidence of God's blessing attending the preaching of his word.

7. The prevalence of worldly conformity among church members is noted to some extent far more than is consistent with Christian progress.

8. As to evangelistic work outside of the churches, the report is very general that but little is being done, though there are a few exceptions showing activity in this regard, and a few who have established and sustain Sabbath-schools among the colored people and Chinese.

9. The churches are very generally supplied with the ministration of the word, is the very gratifying report from nearly all of the Presbyteries.

The committee, in reviewing these narratives, feels constrained in closing its report to express gratification and thankfulness to God for the blessings he has bestowed upon our Zion. while we deplore that in so many of our Christian homes there is no altar erected, and the children and youth in consequence are not trained in those elements which go to the formation of strong Christian character; and we feel that this is mainly the cause of the great falling off in candidates for the ministry, and that God's Holy Spirit is not more abundantly poured out upon us.

Attention to these essentials to Christian progress should be constantly impressed upon the heads of families by all of our pastors. That previous Assemblies have made recommendations to the churches in regard to this, is no reason why this Assembly should not again press its importance upon those whose duty it is to admonish and council.

And, in the judgment of the committee, this Assembly should make such utterance as would bring this vital question to the attention of pastors and sessions, for "if the foundation is destroyed, what shall the righteous do?"

Respectfully submitted, S. M. SPENCER, Chairman.

II. EXTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

This has been a year of perplexity and anxiety, and of trials many and great. But where trials have been abundant the grace and goodness of God have much more abounded.

In the month of June mission work in the whole Chinese Empire was suddenly paralyzed by the outbreak of the Boxer rebellion. The scene of the troubles was chiefly in North China, beyond the limits of the territory occupied by our mission. But conditions everywhere rendered it necessary for all foreigners in the interior to leave their posts and seek refuge in Shanghai. Even there, at times, the situation seemed perilous and threatening. Our missionaries at the more northern stations found the journey to Shanghai difficult and dangerous, but by the kind assistance of friends among the natives, they succeeded in avoiding the dangers, and reaching Shanghai unharmed in person or property. Not only the native Christians, but some native friends who were not professing Christians, at Chuchowfu, Suchien, and Tsingkiangpu, showed friendship to the missionaries in such a way as would have made themselves marked men, and probably cost them their lives, if the uprising had extended to those places, as at the time seemed probable. At Chuchow, in Chekiang Province, only thirty miles from Hangchow, a massacre occurred in which several missionaries and many native Christians perished. The governor of that province, residing at Hangchow, was in full sympathy with Prince Tuan and the Empress Dowager, and was preparing to execute their orders for the murder of all foreigners. All the members of our Hangchow station were within a few hours of losing their lives at his hands, when the execution of his purpose was prevented by the viceroy at Chinkiang, who was notified by telegram from Shanghai barely in time to prevent it.

The committee felt warranted in asking the churches to observe the first Sabbath in May, the day of our annual collection, as a day of special praise and thanksgiving to God, for the reason that by his merciful providence no member of our force in China suffered any bodily harm, and that, so far as we know, not a single piece of our mission property was injured. The Executive Committee did not deem it best for the work that all the China missionaries should return home, notwithstanding their enforced absence for nearly a whole year from their stations, but instruction was given that all those whose furloughs were due, or nearly due, should return, and also any who needed to come for reasons of health. For these reasons an unusual number of the members of the China Mission are now at home. The expense of their travel, and the extra expense of living at Shanghai for those who remained, have largely increased the cost of the work for the present year. But in the next few years this item of expense will be correspondingly diminished, and absences from the field at a time when work can be done will be lessened. The time of those who remained at Shanghai has not been wholly lost. Most of the men have made visits to their stations, during which they have been able to do some work, and to give needed advice and encouragement to the native Christians. All of them have been able to devote time to the study of the language, which they could not otherwise have given to that important matter, and which will tell on their future efficiency.

While there were comparatively few massacres of native Christians in Central China, the ordinary persecutions to which they are always subjected were much intensified. Under these persecutions, so far as we are informed, in no instance has any communing member of the churches connected with our missions denied the faith. There is but one voice as to the heroic fortitude with which they have borne witness unto their Lord and Master. A few of those known as "inquirers" have gone back to idolatry, but even of these the great majority have stood firm. Will not the demonstration the native Christians have thus given of their sincerity and of the power of the gospel to sustain them in trial, eventually be more than enough to counterbalance all the loss of lives and property which the cause of Christ in China has sustained?

At the time this report is written some of our missionaries have already returned to their stations, and all were expecting to return by the first of March. Your committee believes that the day of great opportunity in China is now dawning, and earnestly hopes that, by the grace of God, our church will be found ready to meet it.

The work in all our other fields has made encouraging progress. The churches at Luebo and Ibanj, Africa, have been in a continuous state of revival, and have a combined membership at this time of nearly five hundred. The church at Cardenas, Cuba, has prospered from the beginning, receiving constant additions, and contributing liberally to the work. The work in Korea, though hampered by a most inadequate force, is beginning to yield splendid results from the labors of past years. Our brethren in Japan, who have had so many difficulties to contend with for some years past, are encouraged and hopeful, and are calling for help to meet their new and better opportunities. The Synod of Brazil, under the leadership of the missionaries, is pressing forward in its Home Mission work, which it will be the better able to do as the force of competent native ministers is recruited from the seminary at Sao Paulo. The church in Mexico shows a substantial gain, notwithstanding that we have been compelled to rob that field of several of its best workers to supply the need in Cuba.

By the good hand of our God upon us, we are able to report the close of another fiscal year with a balance in our treasury, over all liabilities for the year, of $46.88. The receipts from all sources were $163,056.29. This is $1,885.55 more than the receipts for last year. Of the total receipts $6,870.17 were from subscriptions to publications and sale of literature. The contributions of the churches, including legacies and interest on investments, were $156,186.12. Of the contributions received, $6,013.00 were given for investment. The sum of $2,942.84 was given for the Congo Boat Fund.

Owing to the time consumed in transmission of funds, it is our custom to send forward, before the close of each fiscal year, a remittance for the work of the following year. The amount advanced this year was $7,037.00. The total disbursements for the year, including the amount invested, were $173,653.28.

During the past ten years our missionary force has increased from 102 to 166, and our annual receipts from $133,015.00 to $163,056.29.

Dividing the amount disbursed by the number of missionaries gives the total cost of the work per missionary. This cost includes home administration, outfit, travel, and salaries of missionaries, house building, and property purchased or rented, school and medical work, publication and colportage work, pay of native assistants, and all incidental expenses. The average cost for the past five years has been between $950 and $1,000 per missionary.

The names of 719 subscribers to The Missionary, delinquent for over two years, have recently been dropped. On this account the roll of paying subscribers shows a small loss, the number being 9,830, as against 9,901 at the close of last year. One thousand five hundred and thirty-four copies were sent free to ministers and missionaries. Five hundred and fifteen names of delinquents were dropped from the list of The Children's Missionary, leaving 5,351 names on the list of paying subscribers, as against 5,806 at the close of last year. One hundred and eight copies are sent free to missionaries.

Three thousand five hundred copies of the Prayer Calendar were issued. One thousand six hundred and twenty-four copies were sent free to ministers and missionaries, and all the remaining copies were sold.

The cost of printing and distributing the three publications (not including the editor's salary) was $6,606.22. The receipts from subscriptions and advertisements were $6,671.75, the income from this source being in excess of the cost of $65.53.

Six new missionaries were sent out during the year.

The authorities of the Congo Free State have refused the request of our African Mission for the land concessions necessary for extending their work. The Congo boat was satisfactorily finished, according to contract, by the William R. Trigg Co., and shipped from Richmond early in June. It was safely landed at Leopoldville early in November. It was reconstructed under the superintendence of Rev. L. C. Vass, and successfully launched on the Congo on the 3d of February. At last accounts Mr. Vass was expecting to start on its first trip to Luebo early in March. Exact figures for the total cost cannot be given until the final drafts for the cost of reconstruction have been received. The contract price of construction was $8,671.00, to which amount $150 was added for furnishings.

The cost of shipment from Richmond to Matadi was about $1,500, and for the 200 miles over land from Matadi to Leopoldville about $3,900. The total amount of the boat fund received to date is $15,209.22. It is estimated that the total cost will exceed this amount very considerably.

It is recommended that the children of the church be asked to make a special effort at once to raise $3,000 to cover the probable deficit, and that the third Sabbath in June be designated as the day when their offerings for this purpose shall be gathered. It is also suggested that the maintenance of the boat be assigned to them as their special object in our work, and that they be asked to raise for this purpose at least $5,000 a year.

On April 1st the total disbursements for the boat were $389.14 in excess of the total amount of the boat fund. The final drafts in payment for the work of reconstruction will probably increase this deficit to about $3,000.

After the wearisome delay incident to all legal proceedings in Brazil, the friendly suit instituted for the purpose of vesting the title to the Campinas property in the Executive Committee has been at last decided in our favor. It is earnestly hoped that by the next meeting of the Assembly the committee may be able to report a satisfactory disposition of this property.

In connection with this matter, and also for the general interests of the work, the Brazil Missions continue to urge a visit from the Secretary. The last General Assembly authorized this visit on certain financial conditions, which at that time could easily have been met; but circumstances arose which rendered it inexpedient for the Secretary to be absent. The committee still thinks that the visit ought to be made as soon as practicable, and the suggestion is made from the Brazil Missions that the cost of it would be a legitimate charge on the proceeds of the Campinas property. It is believed that a conference with the Brazil Missions, such as is not practicable by correspondence, would lead to the early settlement of a matter which has been a source of much perplexity for years past, and has consumed much of the time of one of our most efficient missionaries.

The committee regrets to note that the number of volunteers for this work among the young men of the seminaries is smaller than it was some years ago. This is probably due in part to the same causes that have reduced the number of candidates for the ministry, but chiefly to the fact that we have not been able, for financial reasons, to assure the young men who have offered of our ability to send them out at any certain time. Except in a few special cases all accepted applicants have been asked to receive their appointments "to be sent out when the way is clear." It has been urged by some that the committee should accept all qualified applicants and send them out on the faith that the Lord will provide for the support of those whom he calls to the work. But your committee, while recognizing that this work, like all other true work for Christ, is a work of faith, holds that as executive agents we are only authorized to assume such financial responsibility as the faith of the church, as shown by its gifts to the cause, will warrant. In conducting the church's business we have felt it incumbent on us to exercise business prudence along with faith, and by all means, if possible, to avoid involving the church in debt.

Every mission field we now have is suffering from inadequate equipment in the way of buildings for schools, hospitals, and dwellings, and the inadequate manning of stations. Before inaugurating the Cuba Mission we already had more work on hand than our largest income in any one year would properly support. For this reason only the committee was reluctant to begin that mission. But the sentiment of the church demanding it was irresistible, and Providence seemed to open the way for it by putting it into the hearts of many to offer special help for that field. At this time such special help provides for a considerable part, but not all, of the expense of the mission. The wonderful success of the work places, beyond all questions, the seal of divine approval on the undertaking. The lowest cost per missionary for which our work has ever been conducted was $937 in the year 1899. The average cost for ten years past has been about $1,000. The average cost in the missions of other churches in this country ranges from $1,200 to $1,550. This does not mean extravagance on the part of other churches, but rather the proper equipment and manning of their missions for effective work.

The present number of our missionaries is 166, and our income (including $6,013 given for investment) for the year was $163,056.29. This means that we cannot wisely add to our present number, nor even fill the places of those who fall by the way, without an increase of income. We have, therefore, come to the parting of the ways, when we must either have an increase of income or cease to plan for the further extension of our work. As one means of obtaining the needed increase the Executive Committee would respectfully suggest and recommend to the Assembly the advisability of considering the appointment of a Field Secretary for Foreign Missions. The duties of this officer, properly defined, would not in any way interfere with the prerogative of the church authorities to whom the raising of funds is wisely committed by our constitution. His work should be to visit the churches as invited, give information of the work and its needs, give special attention to vacant and non-contributing churches, but only engage directly in the work of raising funds when authorized or requested to do so by the authorities of the local churches. That the labors of a man properly qualified for such work would be welcomed by the churches is manifest from the fact that the present office Secretary has for the past three years spent about two-thirds of the Sabbaths in the year in such work, and yet has been able to meet only a small proportion of the calls coming from pastors and churches for his services. One Secretary, with the assistance that is cheerfully rendered by members of the committee, is sufficient for the work in the office. The time of a second Secretary, if appointed, should be given entirely to work among the churches. Apart from the general good that would be accomplished in stimulating interest and zeal and prayer, the committee believes that the financial results of such work would go far towards relieving us of the embarrassment under which we are now constantly laboring, and would render unnecessary the numerous special appeals that have recently been inevitable by reason of such embarrassment.

III. EXTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

Since the last meeting of the General Assembly, it has pleased God to remove your beloved Secretary, Rev. J. N. Craig, D. D., from his sphere of labor in the church in grace. We rest assured that he has entered his sphere of service in the church in glory. Suitable testimonials have been placed in the minute book of the committee. His name and character are left as a precious legacy to the church he loved and for which he labored. His long and loving service should be an inspiration to his successor and to all of his co-presbyters. Patient, persevering, cheerful and courteous, he won many hearts while he lived, and his departure was a translation.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT OF THE SEVERAL DEPARTMENTS.

I. Home Missions.

From contributions, $26,061.31; from Loan Fund, $320.75; legacies, $453.89; from interest on railroad bond, $50; amount returned paid out before April 1, 1900, $30. Total receipts, $26,915.95.

The outlay on account of Home Missions was as follows:

For support of 6 missionaries for work among the Mexicans; for support of 75 ministers in Texas; for support of 16 ministers in Arkansas; for support of 8 ministers in Indian Territory, 16 in Florida, and for support of 8 teachers in the Indian schools. The whole number of ministers and teachers whose support your committee, in whole or in part, supplied, was 123.

II. Regular Loan Fund.

Two churches received $200 to aid in erecting houses of worship. Eleven churches received donations during the year, amounting to $1,533.10; $320.75 has been paid back by churches to whom, during the last fifteen years, loans have been made.

III. Moore Loan Fund.

This fund of $5,000, left and intended by Mr. Moore to aid feeble churches to erect houses of worship, the money loaned to bear 3 per cent. interest, has been very helpful to at least a score or more of churches. During the year two churches have availed themselves of this opportunity of getting assistance. There is now out $2,427.60, secured by mortgages.

IV. Invalid Fund.

Receipts from contributions, $14,513.17, to which add $83.39 returned, making $14,596.50.

The sum of $13,233.50 was paid out to 141 beneficiaries, in 51 Presbyteries, aiding 32 aged and infirm ministers, and 109 widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

While it is true that the committee begins the new fiscal year with a comparatively small amount of money in the treasury, still there are some facts or conditions which will compensate: 1. That at least once before (1897) we began the year with almost the same amount. 2. The committee is not in debt. 3. We firmly believe that our people are waking up to a fuller realization of the primal importance of this great scheme of benevolence—one indication of which being the urgent calls by Ladies' Aid Societies and others for Home Mission literature. 4. The work in those Presbyteries which receive help from the committee is not only prosecuted with vigor, and is, with a few exceptions, in good shape; but there also seems to be an evident desire on the part of the chairmen of the presbyterial committees to make their fields self-supporting as soon as possible.

The committee exceedingly regrets that so little can be given for the purpose of aiding in the erection of houses of worship. As Bishop McTyeire once stated with regard to his own church, that she could not afford to be a "tenant-at-will," she must be a "freeholder," so do we believe as to our own beloved church. She must, in order to grow, worship under her own vine and fig-tree. Urgent appeals are continually coming up for help from places of great strategic importance, but the small amount set apart for that purpose will not justify an extensive outlay in donations or loans.

The mission work of our church in Indian Territory has been diligently prosecuted during the year by our faithful, self-denying missionaries. Rev. J. F. Lloyd, to our great regret, felt constrained to give up his work here, and accept a call to Midland Church, Texas. He will be greatly missed. We have Rev. J. A. Paisley, a young, energetic and zealous minister, and Rev. William Thorne, of Tiptonville, who has recently accepted a call to Durant Church, a valuable acquisition to us for the work, who being added to those who for years have been engaged in persevering effort to advance the cause of Christ, make a worthy corps of co-workers. Yet we need many more to go in and assist in teaching and guiding the large influx of intelligent, energetic and well-to-do white population which are making their homes in this land so richly blessed of God in fertility of soil, abundance of timber, mineral resources and possibilities for a brilliant future.

The fiscal year was one of harmony and peaceful prosecution of the work in our Indian schools, notwithstanding the excitement of the witch craze in one community, and the small-pox in one or two others.

The self-denying teachers all seem to be cheerful, conscientious and willing to make sacrifices so that God may be glorified and good accomplished; and while all of the schools seem to be holding their own under difficulties, especially does the committee feel it a pleasant duty to call attention to the bright prospect of making Calvin Institute at Durant the most important institute of learning in the Indian Territory. Through the faithful efforts of Prof. E. Hotchkin, the Lloyds and others in the Territory, and also of Dr. T. R. Sampson, of Texas, a movement has been made which promises rich results. Your committee has agreed, on certain safe conditions, recorded in their Book of Minutes, to give two thousand dollars in two years to aid in raising ten thousand dollars to erect a building on a new site, which, with God's blessing, will enable the school to go forward with an expanding power for usefulness. This portion of our field is one of splendid possibilities, and calls for all that we can possibly do to cultivate it.

The Mexican work in Texas is divided into two fields, one in charge of Rev. R. D. Campbell and the other under the care of Rev. W. S. Scott. Mr. Campbell has the Laredo Church with 80 members, and the Corpus Christi Church, with 25 members, in his field. There is a Mexican preacher at Laredo; there are day schools at Laredo with 2 teachers and some 75 pupils, and one at Corpus Christi with some 20 pupils. Some fifteen new members were received last year in this field, and the two churches contributed about $216.

In Mr. Scott's field there are six churches: San Marcos, 133; Martindale, 82; Reedville, 75; Uvalde, 50; Beeville, 50, and Victoria, 33, in all 423, and in the entire mission, 531 members. There is a Mexican preacher at San Marcos and one at Victoria. There were about 54 new members received on profession of faith last year in these six churches, and about $493 was contributed by the members. There are no day schools in this field. The San Marcos group of churches hold summer camp-meetings each year attended by some 500 Mexicans. The elders of these churches are well instructed in the Scriptures, and very active workers.

Of the $2,100 received from the Central Committee for this work, $900 goes to Mr. Scott's field and $1,200 to Mr. Campbell's.

There is published a semi-monthly periodical for the Mexicans, called The Christian Observer. It is paying its own expenses now, and its circulation is increasing rapidly among the unconverted, among whom we hope to make it especially useful. The work is prospering. Seventy new members were received last year on profession of faith. More young men are offering to study for the ministry than we can educate.

It is to be deplored that so great is the demand for men and means in Texas, Arkansas, and Indian Territory that we cannot enter the open door of the inviting field of New Mexico. The Northern Presbyterian Church has for many years regarded this field as laid, by special providence, at the door of the great Presbyterian Church. We have only one church now within the borders of the Territory, Carlsbad by name, formerly Eddy; the other, Roswell, having gone over to the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Rev. W. M. Fairley now has charge of Carlsbad, in connection with other churches in Texas.

The Ladies' Aid Societies and Sabbath-schools have contributed, for all purposes, $3,173 during the year, besides contributions by societies in the way of boxes of valuable supplies to needy ministers and their families. More Sabbath-schools have given for the support of the Indian schools than last year.

The committee would unite with the Umatilla Church, in the Presbytery of St. Johns, in asking the General Assembly to release it from the obligation to pay the remainder of a loan from the committee for the erection of their church building.

The committee would also ask the Assembly to reiterate the advice given by the Assembly of 1882 in the following resolution:

"That the General Assembly advise the Presbyteries to devote one evening during spring sessions, or such other hour as may be convenient, to the general discussion of the subject of Foreign Missions in the presence of the congregation among whom they meet, and that during the fall sessions a similar meeting be held in the interest of Home Missions."

IV. EXTRACT FROM THE REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY.

In obedience to what we believe to be the wish of the last General Assembly we endeavored to raise this year $30,000. This sum was apportioned as usual among all the Presbyteries of the Assembly, and each was informed at its fall meeting of the sum it was requested to raise for this cause. While we have not succeeded in our efforts to secure this amount, the results are nevertheless gratifying.

The main facts in connection with this work have been kept before your committee and presented, in accordance with the plan of the Assembly, from time to time, to the lower courts of the church and to our ministers.

Seventy-five of our seventy-seven Presbyteries are co-operating fully, or partially, with your committee. The Presbytery of Florida and that of Lexington, while providing for their own candidates without aid from this committee, have contributed to our work. St. Johns Presbytery, while doing its own work, sends its funds for this purpose through your committee.

We have enrolled and aided this year 166 beneficiaries as compared with 195 last year. These are under the care of 56 Presbyteries. Of these beneficiaries 84 are theological: 37 seniors, 22 in the middle class, 25 juniors, 82 are in colleges—freshmen 18, sophomores 17, juniors 20, seniors 27.

One hundred and fifty-nine asked for $75, three for $50, one for $45, two for $25 each. These sums were appropriated, aggregating $12,170. In addition to this we gave $5 each to five beneficiaries on last year, but just after closing our books for that year, who by inadvertence on the part of their Presbytery had received only $70 each instead of $75, and by order of the last Assembly, we gave $15 to another, who had completed his course without having received this balance promised him. This makes the total appropriation for the year $12,210. We have paid these appropriations in full, or in proportion to the time devoted to study, and have a balance, as the Treasurer's report shows, of $5,183.50. This balance is due largely to the decrease in the number of beneficiaries.

These beneficiaries and the appropriations, promised and paid, are in institutions as follows:

Theological Seminaries.	No. Candidates.	Promised.	Paid.
Columbia, S. C.,	17	$1,225 00	$1,375 00
Louisville, Ky.,	12	925 00	865 00
Southwestern Pres. Univ., Tenn.,	11	800 00	865 00
Union, Virginia,	42	3,075 00	3,183 34
Princeton, New Jersey,	2	125 00	125 00
	84	$6,150 00	$6,413 34
Colleges.
Arkansas, Arkansas,	3	$225 00	$225 00
Austin, Texas,	6	450 00	450 00
Central University, Kentucky,	5	375 00	375 00
Davidson, North Carolina,	22	1,650 00	1,605 00
Hampden-Sidney, Virginia,	7	495 00	525 00
King, Tennessee,	4	300 00	300 00
Presbyterian, of South Carolina,	4	250 00	250 00
Southwestern Pres. Univ., Tennessee,	26	1,950 00	2,202 68
Various,	5	350 00	425 00
By order of Assembly,		15 00	15 00
Total,	82	$6,060 00	$6,372 68

Total beneficiaries, 166; appropriations, $12,210; payments, $12,786.02.

Of the total receipts, $921.07 were special contributions for particular beneficiaries, thus making the sum paid in some instances exceed the appropriations.

This exhibit shows there has been this year a decline in the number of beneficiaries. This decline in the number of candidates, which has been going on steadily since 1894, calls for prayerful consideration. The attention of all the Synods was called to it last fall, and of all the Presbyteries at their spring meetings, and these courts were urged to do all in their power not only to arrest this decline, but also to increase the number of our candidates for the ministry. Whatever causes may be assigned, this decrease is most probably due very largely to the low state of piety now prevailing, apparently, throughout the whole church. There is reason to fear that the spirit of worldliness, while seriously affecting all departments of the work of the church, is dangerously diminishing the future supply of our ministry. It prevents the church from realizing fully the need for more ministers. It prevents parents from dedicating their sons to this office. It prevents young men from offering themselves for this, the most noble of all callings.

Perhaps the remedy is to be found and should be sought along three lines—first, in a spiritual awakening on the part of the whole church, in consequence of which much prayer would be made to the "Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest." Second, in larger gifts and a more judicious use of funds for ministerial education. Third, greater care in selecting and directing our candidates. So far as your committee have been able to gather information touching our beneficiaries, they are worthy men, needing the support and deserving the confidence of the church. No intelligent person would be surprised to find now and then an exception to this rule. But the exceptions, we believe, are few, and are by no means of such serious character as to reflect upon the wisdom of the church in maintaining and conducting this branch of her work. Yet it is believed that improvement can and should be made in this particular.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the fact that it is absolutely necessary for Presbyteries to exercise great care in directing their candidates in the prosecution of their studies. The course of preparation, making due allowance for the individual peculiarities of candidates, should, as far as possible, be uniform, and in every case, such as, when properly pursued, will give thorough equipment for the work in view. Yet from the best information obtainable, it appears that at least forty per cent. of the young men who went out from our seminaries a year ago into the ministry had taken irregular courses. It is possible that an irregular course may be made a thorough one, at the same time it manifestly opens to the student a fearful temptation to enter by a short cut into the ministry, which means almost surely inadequate preparation for, and inefficiency in the ministry, and also the probability of laxity in, if not defection from our doctrines.

In this connection our institutions of learning must bear with the Presbyteries the burden of responsibility. Presbyteries should require strictly, and institutions should give cheerfully, full information concerning candidates as to their character, deportment, diligence, and progress.

We commend to your consideration the action of the Synod of North Carolina last fall in response to the address of the Secretary of this cause. It resolved, among other things, "That the presbyterial committees of education keep in touch with their candidates that they may be sure that they pursue the prescribed course of preparation for the ministry. That the Synod urge the faculties of the colleges and the principals of the preparatory schools to report upon the moral character and faithfulness in student life, as well as standing in the class-room, of each candidate upon their rolls." It is the judgment of your committee that compliance with these recommendations and courageous and vigorous action in the light of the information that thus might be obtained would redound greatly to the good of these institutions, to the advantage of ministerial education, to the usefulness of our future ministry, and to the promotion of the kingdom of Christ as entrusted to our branch of his church.

Your committee respectfully suggests to the Assembly that in view of the fact that now and then a considerable surplus is left over, after paying all the appropriations and expenses previously arranged for, as is the case this year, it might be wise to invest the Executive Committee with discretionary power enabling them to make an equitable distribution of such a part of such surplus to the candidates, supplemental to the sum previously appropriated, as they might find advisable.

V. EXTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

The business of the Depository has not equalled that of the previous year, but it must be remembered that an excess of 25 per cent. was then reported over the average sales of the house. The difference is in part accounted for by the fact that our list of new publications has been smaller for the last year than in some former years. The sale of hymn-books has also been restricted by the fact that many churches needing new supplies have deferred action in the matter in expectation of the new Hymn-book.

PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT.

Below will be found the list of issues from the press during the year, and the Assembly will note the unfailing demand for the Shorter Catechism, requiring the issue of 60,000 copies during the year. Our work of distribution has also required the issue of 120,000 pages of 12mo tracts, together with some 16,000 copies of small tract volumes. (This list we omit.)

NEW ISSUES.

Scriptural Holiness, Lapsley; Life of Dr. William S. Lacy, D. D.; Our Candidates, Graham; Philosophical Discussions, Girardeau; The Sanctifying Power of Truth; Grandma Elliott's Farm House, Mrs. Ireland; Reuben Delton, Preacher, Miss Dickson; A Face and a Life, Mrs. Hawkins; Infant Salvation, Dr. Rosebro; Little Burden Sharers.

The following table gives the number of Sabbath-school papers of all kinds issued during the year, from which it will be seen that as a whole there has been an increase, and this increase is the more encouraging because it is chiefly found in the subscription to the Earnest Worker:

Children's Friend,	1,120,000
Lesson Quarterly,	140,000
Primary Quarterly,	72,000
Lesson Papers,	900,000
Pearls for the Little Ones,	950,000
Pictorial Lessons,	100,000

The colportage work has hardly measured up to the previous year. Seven colporteurs have been in the field during the year, their work in some instances having been interrupted by sickness and other causes.

The result of their work may be tabulated as follows:

Number of days employed,	1,656
Miles travelled,	23,373
Sabbath-schools organized,	3
Sabbath-schools visited,	144
Prayer-meetings held,	75
Addresses delivered,	123
Sermons preached,	201
Families visited,	6,178
Value of literature distributed,	$5,025 81
Total expense,	3,790 15

In the work of Sabbath-school missions more was attempted and accomplished than in any previous year. Ten young men were employed during the summer months for longer or shorter periods.

One of these was sent out under the control of, and in part paid by, the Evangelistic Committee of the Synod of Kentucky. The salary of another was paid by a private individual. The result of their work may be indicated in this form:

Days employed,	772
Miles travelled,	6,239
Sabbath-schools organized,	49
Number of teachers,	52
Number of scholars,	891
Schools visited,	53
Prayer-meetings held,	65
Addresses delivered,	38
Sermons preached,	72
Families visited,	846
Value of literature distributed,	$ 196 29
Total expense,	1,072 18

It is greatly to be regretted that a decrease in the contribution of the church for this purpose, as elsewhere indicated in this report, forbids the continuance during the coming summer of a work so manifestly profitable and successful, and so greatly needed in a wide field.

Grants of Sabbath-school literature, libraries, etc., to needy Sabbath-schools, churches and mission fields have been continued during the past year. A reference to the Treasurer's report will show that for this purpose there has been appropriated the amount of $5,171.29. In addition to this, 608 Bibles have been awarded for the perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism, and 1,197 Testaments for the perfect recitation of the Introduction to the Shorter Catechism. The amount thus appropriated to donations, together with the amount applied to Sabbath-school mission and colportage work is $10,033.62, or $2,338.86 more than the total contributions from all sources, and it may be wise for us here to call the attention of the Assembly to the fact that the total amount so appropriated in the last ten years exceeds all contributions from the church by about $12,000.

We are compelled to report a decreased collection for the work of Colportage and Sabbath-school Missions, the total amount received being only $7,694.76, about $300 less than last year, and this includes about $600 contributed for the support of the Sabbath-school superintendent.

The General Assembly of 1900 instructed its Executive Committee of Publication to proceed with the publication of the new Hymn-book by January 1st of the present year, but as there had been delay in the preparation of the book for reasons that need not here be recounted, it was decided by the ad interim committee having the matter in charge not to furnish the manuscript until at least the 1st of April. Shortly after the latter date the Executive Committee was advised by the ad interim committee that its work was complete and ready to be turned over to the Executive Committee for publication in accordance with the declared purpose of the Assembly. This committee, therefore, immediately took the necessary steps looking to the making of the contracts for the manufacture of the stereotype plates, and the issue of the book as soon as possible.

The General Assembly of 1900, in adopting the report of the Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, took the following action:

"We recommend that the first Sunday in October of each year be observed by all the Sunday-schools of our church as the day when special effort shall be made to bring all the forces of the individual churches to the support of their schools, and when definite plans shall be presented for reaching the children and young people of the community, who are not in any Sunday-school.

"We recommend that a special collection be taken in the Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies at this time for the advancement of the Sunday-school interests of our church, and that such collections be forwarded promptly to the Treasurer of the Publication Committee.

"We recommend that the matter of employing a man who shall devote his entire time to the development of our Sunday-school, Young People's Society and colportage work, the salary and expenses of this office to be paid from the Sunday-school Day collections, be submitted to the Presbyteries for approval at their fall meeting, and if a majority of the Presbyteries approve of the institution of said office, the Committee of Publication be, and is hereby, authorized to place such a man in the field, provided sufficient funds are raised by the Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies to meet expenses of such office."

To this important action of the Assembly the Executive Committee of Publication has given most careful attention, and has taken such measures as seemed to be required in carrying out the purpose of the General Assembly.

Two conditions were by the action of the Assembly required to be fulfilled before the committee would be authorized to make an appointment of a General Sabbath-school Superintendent: First, the approval by a majority of the Presbyteries of the institution of the office, and, second, the raising by the Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies of the church, by a collection to be taken on the first Sabbath of October, of a sufficient fund to meet the expenses of the office.

Most of the Presbyteries acted upon the proposal of the General Assembly at their fall sessions, with the following result:

Forty-six Presbyteries voted in the affirmative.

Fifteen Presbyteries voted in the negative.

Fourteen Presbyteries took no action. Most of these latter deferred taking up the matter until the spring sessions.

It appears, therefore, that a decided majority of the Presbyteries approved the institution of the office of General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies in our church. This result could not, however, be ascertained until after the Presbyteries had all had their fall meetings.

The second condition was not met by the collection ordered by the General Assembly for the first Sabbath of October.

A circular inviting attention to the action of the Assembly was sent out to all our ministers, sessions and Sabbath-school superintendents, but up to March 1, 1901, only about $500 had been contributed for this purpose. In addition, however, to this amount pledges for about as much more had been given through the effort of special friends of the movement.

It was, therefore, clearly manifest that the committee had no authority at that date to make an appointment, and upon careful consideration of the duty of the committee in the premises, the conclusion was reached that as the date of another Assembly was so near at hand it would be wisest to refer the matter to that Assembly, with the recommendation that the Assembly itself elect some one to fill this office.

The reasons for this recommendation are two-fold. First, the call of the Assembly to this work will have an imperative force as addressed to any of our brethren, which cannot attach to an appointment by the Executive Committee. Second, the choice of the General Assembly will carry far greater weight before the church than an appointment of the committee, and the movement will have an introduction to our people without prejudice.

In the action taken by the General Assembly of 1900 upon this subject there is nothing definite as to the duties of the office, or the method of organizing the work. The Committee of Publication has, therefore, assumed that it was the purpose of the General Assembly to leave to this committee the duty of organizing this as a department of our church work. We, therefore, submit the following:

1. There shall be instituted a department of church work known as the department of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies.

2. This department shall be under the oversight and control of the Executive Committee of Publication.

3. The work of this department shall be under the conduct of an official to be known as the General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies.

4. A collection shall be taken in all our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies each year on the first Sabbath of October for the support of this work, and for any Sabbath-school mission work that may be undertaken in connection with it.

5. It shall be the duty of the General Superintendent to secure as far as possible the better organization of the work in the various Presbyteries, by the appointment of presbyterial superintendents; by the holding of institutes, by promoting the formation of normal classes, by the introduction of our own Sabbath-school literature, and by any other practicable methods.

6. It shall be the duty of the General Superintendent to organize and prosecute Sabbath-school mission work in such destitute fields within our bounds as may, in the providence of God, be opened to such effort.

7. An annual report of his work shall be made to the Executive Committee of Publication, to be transmitted to the General Assembly. This report shall embody the statistics of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries are hereby directed to place their statistical reports on this subject in the hands of the General Superintendent by the first of April of each year.

In closing this report it becomes our sad duty to note the losses sustained in our committee by death during the year.

Three of its valued members have passed away. One of these, the Rev. Charles H. Read, D. D., was identified with the committee almost from its organization, having been appointed by the General Assembly of 1865. He was a man of accurate literary taste and scholarship, and his services to the publication work of the church were greatly useful, and were highly valued by his associates. Until the infirmities of extreme old age forbade, he was one of the most regular and prompt of its members in attendance upon the meetings of the committee, and was ever ready cheerfully to undertake any work committed to his charge.

Hon. William Wirt Henry was elected as a member of this committee by the General Assembly of 1878, having been appointed by the committee itself to fill a vacancy nearly a year before, and had served the church in this capacity more than twenty-three years at the time of his death. From the urgent demands of a busy life and of large interests Mr. Henry found the time for a careful and thoughtful attention to the duties and responsibilities of our publication work, in the prosecution of which great reliance was placed on his excellent judgment and his wise counsels.

The death of William C. Preston, Esq., the youngest member of the committee, has removed from the earthly work of the church one who gave promise of many years of most useful labor for the cause of the Master, not only as a member of this committee, but in other important relations. His service with us was ever marked by an ardent zeal, and an intelligent interest both in the literary and in the business features of our work. He was elected as a member of the committee by the Assembly of 1890.

VI. EXTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COLORED EVANGELIZATION.

In the evangelistic work the direct work of reaching the destitute colored people we have done something. At Texarkana, Ark., we have had an evangelist at work, Rev. J. A. Turner part of the year, and Rev. A. M. Plant for the remainder of the year. By this work a church has been organized at Texarkana, and plans laid for the erection of a house of worship. Also some of the destitute people of the Red River Valley contiguous to Texarkana have had the gospel preached to them by these evangelists.

In Louisiana Presbytery Rev. L. L. Wells has conducted a successful work. He has organized a church at Zachary, La., and one at Street, Miss. In two other places he has gathered a following to be organized into churches in the future.

Rev. S. G. Walker has done evangelistic work at Statesville and Danbury, N. C. The members of the Presbytery of Texas, Revs. J. H. Blake, I. A. Cæsar, Romeo Wells and J. M. McKeller, have engaged in evangelistic work, though not doing the full work of evangelists. We have aided in the building of two churches. Have made appropriations for the erection of four others, and have assisted others in making repairs when called upon for such help. There has been some progress in the work of the mission schools for colored people. Last year we reported 37 schools, with 179 teachers and 1,987 scholars. This year we have 40 schools, with 194 teachers and 2,321 scholars.

We have maintained the work of sustentation in all our churches, keeping them supplied with regular preaching, except in one or two fields which we have had difficulty in supplying.

In this work we have expended $3,365.95.

We have adopted a plan by which our appropriations to a field will be decreased from year to year, and the field gradually made self-supporting. There is always the danger in missionary work of the churches aided becoming mere dependents on the committee aiding in their support. We are trying earnestly to avoid this danger—which is perhaps greater with colored churches than with any other—and are seeking to develop our churches in the graces of self-denial and liberality.

Probably in the department of Education we have made greater advances than in any other during the year.

I. Stillman Institute.—We have maintained the work here for the entire calendar year. From the first of June to the last of September we kept the Institute open in the academic department. During the other eight months it has been open in both academic and theological departments. There have been fifty-four students enrolled during the twelve months.

The industrial features have been continued most satisfactorily, and in addition to reducing the cost of the Institute, have contributed to the value of the training given the young men. The superintendent's house, mentioned in our last report as being erected, was completed early in the year. It is a well-built house of eight rooms for use of the superintendent and teachers of the Institute. We have given it the name of "The O. B. Wilson Hall."

We have enlarged the course of study in the Institute in both theological and academic departments, and have lengthened the required course in theology to four years, providing also a post-graduate course for those desiring it.

We have arranged for students to have instruction in the best methods of truck gardening, poultry raising and care of stock.

We are erecting a three-story frame building at the Institute—the first floor to be used as class-rooms, the second and third to have sleeping apartments for sixty-four students. This building is being erected by the students of the Institute, under the direction of a skillful mechanic from the city of Tuscaloosa, and will, we estimate, not cost more than $1,500 for the building exclusive of school furnishings. This new building is for the academic work. The present building will then be used solely in the theological work.

We are preparing room for one hundred boarding students, and will be ready to receive this number next session.

The Institute will be made almost self-supporting by charging each academic student $30 in money, each theological student $20 in money, and each one in both departments $30 in labor at the Institute. We do this in order to carry out the idea of making our students strong and independent men when they have finished the course here. Too much assistance is injurious to any one, and especially to colored youths, who are easily made dependent and helpless, and for this reason we insist on their doing everything for themselves which they can possibly do.

We have made an appropriation to the Ferguson-Williams College at Abbeville, S. C., assisting in paying the rent on the college building. This school has had a most successful year, having enrolled 230 pupils under the management of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Williams.

We have operated the Industrial Institute at North Wilkesboro, N. C., during the year under the management of Rev. S. G. Walker. Twenty-one pupils have been in attendance.

The J. H. Alexander Academy, Vicksburg, Miss., has had a successful year under the management of Rev. E. W. Benjamin. It has had an enrollment of 115 students, and has been well-nigh self-supporting.

Some industrial training is given in all these schools, and a high moral tone is preserved in all their management and work.

We have received during the year $7,460.59 for the general fund of Colored Evangelization, and $3,009.31 on the special or improvement fund of Stillman Institute, of which latter sum $2,701.19 was from the rent and proceeds of the sale of the property in Indianapolis, given by Rev. R. T. Liston. We have repaid the $822.92 due from the special to the general fund, and have now a balance of $43.72 to the credit of the special fund, after having expended $2,082.67 for building and permanent improvement during the year.

We have a balance to the credit of the general fund of $4,919.11. This must support all our work until the middle of December. Do not be misled by this seeming abundance of money.

This committee desires to bring before the church the fact that it has in contemplation larger operations with a view to accomplishing a work more in accord with the vast opportunities that lie open before us in this work. We believe that to do a work for the colored people that will at all satisfy a church that feels its obligations in this field, it is needful that schools shall be established at convenient stations in several States where the colored population is most numerous, which shall train colored youths for the theological work of Stillman Institute.

There has been no change in the situation respecting the organization of the Independent Colored Presbyterian Synod. The Presbyteries of Ethel and Central Alabama have not seen their way clear to break away from their organic connection with our Assembly. There is no friction between the Independent Synod and the Presbyteries and ministers united to our Assembly, and we believe that our work will be most successfully carried on if the Assembly for the present allow this matter to remain in this state.

This committee has caused itself to be incorporated under the general laws of the State of Alabama under the name and style of "The Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization," and we have done this to enable us to transact business which we could not otherwise do.

VII. THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

For the year ending May 9, 1901.

The Board of Directors of Columbia Theological Seminary would respectfully report to the General Assembly:

That the Board held its annual meeting May 7th–9th, and that twelve out of fifteen members were present. The following new members were enrolled: Rev. T. H. Rice, D. D., Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., and Mr. Habersham Clay, from the Synod of Georgia; Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., from the Synod of Alabama, and Rev. T. P. Hay, from the Synod of Florida.

We make grateful acknowledgments to God for his manifest favor to the seminary, faculty and students. The work of the year has been carried forward without intermission.

There have been enrolled twenty-three students, six of whom completed the course and graduated with the degree of B. D., and two with certificates.

The vacancy in the chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, caused by the resignation of Rev. D. J. Brimm, D. D., has been filled by the election of Rev. J. W. Davis, D. D., to the temporary supply of that chair. Rev. S. C. Byrd has been elected adjunct professor for one year, and assigned the work of teaching the English Bible.

Two hundred and fifty dollars' worth of new and valuable books has been added to the library, bringing the total number of volumes up to more than twenty-two thousand.

Optional courses of study have been introduced for the purpose of enabling students to equip themselves more fully than the regular curriculum permits. These courses are five, and cover Metaphysics and Ethics; the Septuagint, Arabic, Patristic and Ecclesiastical Greek; Patristic and Modern Latin; German, and History of Modern Sects.

Added interest has been given to the study of Missions under Prof. Davis, a course in the study of missions having been introduced into the curriculum. The students engage actively in mission work in and around the city. There are two mission churches in the suburbs of the city supplied by the students, two missions among the whites, and two among the negroes, in which the students work. Prayer-meetings, house to house visitations, Sabbath-schools, and street preaching services are conducted by the students.

The financial condition of the seminary is encouraging. For the first time in some years the expenses have been brought within the income. This has been accomplished in part by the reduction of expenses, and in part by a slight increase in income through more advantageous investments.

Sufficient funds are in hand for building the new mess hall, and it was ordered that the building be erected forthwith, and a building committee appointed to take charge of the work, and it is expected the hall will be ready for use next fall.

W. W. MILLS, Secretary of Board.

VIII. REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, IN VIRGINIA, TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

For the year 1899–1900.

The Board of Directors and Trustees of Union Theological Seminary would respectfully report to the General Assembly that the session of 1899-1900 has been one marked by many evidences of God's blessing. The number of students attending the seminary is four less, apparently, than last year, but this is due to the fact that four pastors took special courses last year, and thus swelled the number to eighty-eight, while eighty-four were actually matriculated this year.

The health of the faculty and students has been generally good.

The number of books in the library has been largely increased, 1,100 volumes having been added by the gifts of Mr. W. W. Spence and others. A slight fire in the library basement demonstrated the practical fire-proof character of the building —a member and officer of the City Fire Department, who responded to the alarm and extinguished the fire, declared it to be a really fire-proof building.

The endowment of the seminary has been strengthened by disposing of some unprofitable holdings, and by the sale of the old buildings at Hampden-Sidney for $10,000.

The board has conferred the degree of B. D. on the graduates of 1899 (under authority given by an amendment to the charter by the Legislature of Virginia), viz.: J. E. Ballou, E. P. Bradley, W. H. Frazer, E. E. Lane, D. P. McGeachy, G. T. Pace, R. E. Vinson and R. M. Williams.

Diplomas with the degree of B. D. have been conferred on Messrs. F. M. Allen, J. E. Brown, Jr., R. D. Carson, T. W. Devane, E. B. Druen, R. S. Eskridge, M. M. McFerrin, W. M. Fairley, J. C. Johnson, R. F. Kirkpatrick, W. H. Morrow, W. A. Murray, J. G. Varner, L. R. Watson, W. S. Wilson and W. C. Young, of the class of 1900; and diplomas without the degree on Messrs. M. E. Peabody, A. J. Ponton, D. H. Scanlon, and J. A. Trostle.

The new chapel built through the liberality of Mr. G. W. Watts was used at commencement, though not entirely finished, and will be dedicated at the next meeting of the board in May, 1901.

The board changed the dates of opening and closing the session to suit the time of meeting of the Board of Trustees of Davidson College, and also of the General Assembly. The next session will open on the second Wednesday in September, and close on the Wednesday before the second Thursday in May.

The board would record its grateful appreciation of the liberality of Mr. George W. Watts in adding the chapel to Watts Hall, and to the building committee for continuing their effective and useful labors in the erection of the chapel.

The board has appointed Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore its agent to canvass for funds for increasing the endowment, and to provide means to secure additional accommodations for the increased number of students, after all indebtedness shall have been paid; a friend of the seminary having offered to give $30,000 for this fund on condition that $120,000 be raised by the board for these purposes. The board undertakes to raise $170,000, the whole sum to be realized then amounting to $200,000, which will be counted as a part of the Twentieth Century Million Dollar Fund for Education, called for by the General Assembly.

WILLIAM C. PRESTON, Secretary.

For year 1900–1901.

The Board of Directors, when assembling for the annual meeting, on May 7th, felt painfully our loss in the death of our late efficient Secretary and Treasurer, Mr. William C. Preston. A proper expression of this grief was adopted and ordered for publication. Mr. J. S. Munce was asked to take his place for this year. Special thanks are due to the Father of mercies for the excellent health of the professors and students during the past year, which blessing they have improved by commendable diligence and successful work.

The new chapel, another proof of the abounding liberality of our benefactor, Mr. George W. Watts, is now completed. It is annexed to the rear of the main building and completes the original design of the architect. Its shape, proportions and windows, lighting every part, make it a thing of beauty. As an auditorium, also, it answers its purpose perfectly.

Over 170 new books have been added to the library during the year—70 by purchase and over 100 by donation. Progress in the work of cataloguing the books is reported. The appreciation of the library by the students is shown by the fact that 1,793 books have been taken out for use by them in the last session.

The reading-room is furnished with the best dailies and weekly religious papers and magazines. An excellent portrait of the late Major Ginter has been added to those that already grace the walls, and the room is slowly becoming an interesting art gallery.

Improvement in the economical arrangement of the affairs of the seminary during the year was noted, and the management of the refectory approved by the board.

The income from the scholarship fund has been used in small sums in helping students to meet their necessary expenses.

The board returned its thanks to the Rev. W. L. Lingle for his efficiency in teaching the classes of Dr. Moore during the time of his enforced absence as agent to raise funds for the seminary.

An unusually large number of the members of the graduating class has already been engaged by the presbyterial committees and churches for work. The falling off in attendance from that of last year is ascribed to the decrease in the number of candidates.

The degree of Bachelor of Divinity was directed to be conferred on the following members of the senior class: C. M. Barrell, B. C. Bell, S. W. Brown, Eugene Douglass, J. B. Ficklen, A. D. P. Gilmour, J. P. Hall, M. E. Hansel, D. W. Hollingsworth, T. D. Johnston, F. F. Jones, J. F. Kennedy, J. G. McAllister, H. B. Searight, E. W. Simpson, H. S. Springall, W. H. T. Squires, T. H. Watkins, T. E. P. Woods.

Diplomas were granted to W. D. Burkhead, J. F. Forsyth, J. S. Kennison, J. F. Leeper, G. F. Mason, V. P. Merrill.

Certificates were given to M. Y. Sayad, I. E. Yohannan.

Mr. James Gray McAllister was recommended as the beneficiary of the Moses D. Hoge Memorial Fellowship.

A memorial of Mr. J. M. Sydenstricker, who has died since the last meeting, was adopted by the board. The fence around the cemetery enclosing the remains of our dead at Hampden-Sidney was ordered to be repaired.

After applying to the indebtedness created on account of the new building of the seminary the amount of cash and subscriptions obtained by him (Dr. Moore), this indebtedness is reduced to $25,873.29. When $10,000 received for the sale of the buildings at Hampden-Sidney is credited to this fund, that indebtedness will then be reduced to $15,873.29. To meet this small deficit there is already a balance of $22,000 of the munificent conditional subscription received of our friend and fellow-member, Mr. George W. Watts; so that it will appear that practically this indebtedness of the seminary, on account of buildings, is not only provided for, but in addition thereto, when this $22,000 is permanently secured, there will then be between seven and eight thousand dollars which will be added to the endowment fund.

The chapel was crowded with a fine audience to hear from the president of Princeton University, Dr. F. L. Patton, a very entertaining and memorable address.

JOHN S. MUNCE, Secretary.

IX. THE REPORT OF THE CLARKSVILLE DIVINITY SCHOOL.

The Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University, at Clarksville, Tenn., has had no change in either its corps of instructors or course of study since the last annual report. During the year drawing to a close its work has been conducted without interruption. The professors and students have enjoyed good health, with the single exception of the sickness and death, from typhoid fever, of Kenneth McDonald, a candidate under the care of Fayetteville Presbytery.

The number of students is smaller by ten than last year. This school, in common with all the similar institutions of our church, is now beginning to feel the great decrease in the number of the church's candidates for the ministry. The end is not yet reached. It is only beginning. The shortage has appeared for several years, increasing year by year, in the literary classes here and elsewhere. The theological classes are just beginning to feel the result. The situation throughout our entire church calls for earnest prayer and effort.

The following young men, ten in number, will make the present year the last of their preparation, and will enter upon their work, the first six of the number being candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity, viz.: Joseph Edgar Berryhill,

A. B., a candidate of Western District Presbytery; John Nelson Blackburn, A. B., a licentiate of North Alabama Presbytery; Fred. Lee McFadden, A. B., a candidate of Memphis Presbytery; Edward Pope, A. B., a candidate of Nashville Presbytery; George Wilson Tollett, a licentiate of North Alabama Presbytery; James Franklin Turner, A. B., a licentiate of Nashville Presbytery; W. A. Hall, a candidate of Meridian Presbytery; William Warren Jones, a candidate of Red River Presbytery; John Joseph McInnis, a candidate of Mississippi Presbytery, and Thomas Amos Patton, a licentiate of Nashville Presbytery.

By order of the Board of Directors, GEORGE SUMMEY, Chancellor.

X. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LOUISVILLE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

For the year 1900–1901.

The Board of Directors of Louisville Seminary submits its annual report to the General Assembly in session at Little Rock, Ark. The work of the seminary has been conducted with the same staff of professors as during the preceding session. Twenty-eight students have been in attendance. Of this number six have completed their preparation for the ministry. The degree of Bachelor of Divinity was conferred on Messrs. T. M. Barbee, W. W. Harrison, C. H. Little, G. P. Scott and I. F. Swallow. Mr. J. L. McAdams received a diploma for proficiency in all the schools except those of Old Testament Exegesis and New Testament Exegesis.

The Rev. Edwin Muller, D. D., professor in the School of Church History and Church Polity since the founding of the seminary, has resigned his position to accept a call to the First Presbyterian Church, of Lexington, Ky. The board reluctantly accepted Prof. Muller's resignation, and placed on record its appreciation of his ability, fidelity and efficiency.

The Rev. J. S. Lyons, D. D., the faithful secretary of the board, tendered his resignation at the annual meeting of the board, on April 30th, in expectation of being abroad for some months, and Mr. John J. Harbison, of Louisville, was elected in his stead.

The property of the seminary remains as in the last report, with the addition of more than three hundred volumes of great value to the library, and with substantial increase of subscriptions to the temporary endowment. A bequest to the institution has been in litigation, and has been decided in favor of the seminary. It is thought that about twenty thousand dollars will be realized from this source.

The careful attention of the Assembly is directed to a paper that accompanies this report, and that is constituted a part of the report. This paper sets forth the terms of an agreement for the consolidation of the Louisville Seminary and the Danville Theological Seminary, which is in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and the establishing thereby a new institution in or near Louisville under the title of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky, which shall be in connection with both the Presbyterian Church in the United States and the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. For the information of the Assembly we also file a copy of a similar agreement between the two Synods of Kentucky for the consolidation of their collegiate institutions—the Central University and Centre College.

The board would not tax the patience of the Assembly with too detailed a statement of the reasons for this scheme of co-operation in educational work, but it seems only respectful to the Assembly, and just to the Synods involved, to set down briefly some of the considerations that have moved them to this course.

It is well known that after the division of the Synod of Kentucky in 1866, Centre College and Danville Seminary fell to the possession of that part of the Synod which continued in union with the Old School Assembly. In 1874 the Southern Presbyterians organized Central University, which several years later passed under the control of the Synod of Kentucky in connection with our Assembly. In 1893 the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri united in founding the Louisville Seminary.

All these institutions have done good work, but conditions have suggested at different times some method of co-operation, and through a period of years conferences, formal and informal, have been held with this end in view.

In this connection it may be noted that in 1870 the Southern Synod of Kentucky proposed co-operation with the other Synod in the control of Centre College upon terms almost identical with those of the agreement recently adopted. The existing situation in Kentucky has for some months drawn the thoughts of many brethren on both sides to this whole subject. The large and increasing resources and equipment of the State College of Kentucky, the concentration of several denominational colleges in the central part of the State, and other circumstances have made it appear unlikely that either of the Presbyterian colleges could maintain its position or secure the endowment and equipment demanded by the times. By uniting their forces the Presbyterians can sustain an institution of high order, strengthen Christian influence in the life of the commonwealth, and promote in many ways the kingdom of God. They once held the leadership in education in Kentucky, and there seems reason to believe that by this co-operation their former position may be regained. It is not to be forgotten that, though Kentucky Presbyterians are divided into two ecclesiastical bodies, they are kindred in origin, traditions and sentiments, and are alike conservative in their theology and ecclesiastical polity. Being so closely akin, and moved by the considerations to which reference has been made, they have found it possible to agree with warmest cordiality and almost unanimous judgment to the articles of consolidation of their respective colleges. All the bodies having any voice in the control of these institutions have approved these articles, with the exception of the Alumni Association of Central University, which does not meet until June, and which will doubtless add its approval. Consequently, the new institution, to be known as the Central University of Kentucky, may be regarded as established.

Although the General Assembly has, as we suppose, no jurisdiction in respect to this matter, it seems necessary to recite these facts in order to put the Assembly in possession of the conditions in Kentucky and to enable this venerable body to appreciate the reasons for a like agreement and co-operation in theological education. The consolidation of the colleges almost of necessity carries with it the consolidation of the seminaries. It would also seem most desirable to utilize to better effect, and for the advantage of our common Presbyterianism endowments originally contributed by all the Presbyterians of the State, and to build up by united effort at an important centre a strong institution for the training of young men for the ministry under thorough Presbyterian influence. This would appear to be in keeping with the spirit of co-operation, which has been commended by the two Assemblies; and, in the judgment of this board, there are no sufficient reasons to doubt the feasibility of the plan proposed in the articles of agreement. Particular attention is invited to the provisions in which the rights and powers of the respective Assemblies are declared, and to those which determine the character of instruction to be given in the new seminary. Happily the three Synods to whom the direct management of the institution will be committed not only have the same doctrinal standards, but they agree in their construction of their teachings. Being at one in their type of theological belief, and so nearly alike in all their ecclesiastical principles and usages, they have sought to impress these common characteristics upon the institution.

It remains only to say that all the bodies named in Article XIII. of the agreement, and whose assent is desired to make the agreement effective, have, with the exception of the two General Assemblies, already taken action, and with scarcely a dissenting voice given their most hearty assent. The board respectfully requests the General Assembly to add its assent, and it expresses the hope that the Assembly will accept the rights and powers accorded this venerable body in the control of the seminary which is proposed to be established.

Respectfully submitted, J. G. HUNTER, Chairman.

J. J. HARBISON, Secretary.

AGREEMENT FOR CONSOLIDATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARIES AT DANVILLE AND LOUISVILLE; CREATING THE PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF KENTUCKY.

This agreement, made and entered into this the —— day of ———, 1901, by and between the trustees of the Theological Seminary under the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at Danville, in the State of Kentucky (hereinafter designated as the Danville Seminary), party of the first part, and the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary (hereinafter designated as the Louisville Seminary), party of the second part, and the trustees of the Theological Fund of the Synod of Kentucky (hereinafter designated as Synodical trustees), party of the third part;

Witnesseth: Each of the parties hereto is a corporation created, organized, and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Kentucky as follows, viz.:

The Danville Seminary, under and by virtue of an act of the Legislature of Kentucky entitled, "An Act to incorporate the Trustees of the Theological Seminary under the care of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, at Danville, in the State of Kentucky," approved January 28, 1854, and an act supplemental thereto, approved February 25, 1854:

The Louisville Seminary under and by virtue of articles of association dated May 3, 1893, entered into by and between William T. Grant and others, creating thereby a corporation under the name of the "Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary," which articles of association were executed and delivered pursuant to the general incorporation laws of the State of Kentucky, and recorded in the county clerk's office of Jefferson county, Ky., in Corporation Book No 8, page 350:

The synodical trustees under and by virtue of an act of the Legislature of Kentucky entitled "An Act to incorporate the Trustees of the Theological Fund of the Synod of Kentucky," approved March 1, 1850.

The Danville Seminary was organized and has always continued in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and has received the income from the Synodical Fund; the Louisville Seminary was organized in connection with and is under the control of the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Each of said institutions was organized and has been conducted for the same general purpose, namely, the education and training of young men as ministers of the gospel, the Danville Seminary according to the Confession of Faith, catechisms, and other standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and the Louisville Seminary according to the Confession of Faith, catechisms, and other standards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States; and the Confession of Faith and catechisms of said churches are the same, and their other standards are nearly the same.

Each of said parties owns funds and property, real, personal and mixed; part of said property and funds being held for the general purposes of said institutions, respectively, and other parts thereof being held for specific or defined purposes.

It is believed that the best interests of both institutions and of the churches which control and sustain them will be conserved and promoted by the consolidation of such institutions under the terms and conditions herein set forth.

Now, in consideration of the premises, and of the mutual undertakings of the parties hereto, it is agreed between them as follows, to-wit:

I. Said Danville Seminary, said synodical trustees, and said Louisville Seminary, the corporations hereinabove designated and made parties hereto, shall be and are hereby consolidated into a single corporation under the corporate name and style of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky, which, for convenience, is hereinafter designated as the Kentucky Seminary.

II. The Kentucky Seminary shall be vested with and own all property, business, credits, assets, and effects of said constituent corporations without deed or transfer, and shall be bound for all the contracts and liabilities of each of the constituent corporations.

III. The Danville Seminary and the Louisville Seminary shall be conducted by the Kentucky Seminary at or near Louisville, as one theological seminary, under this agreement; and the Danville Seminary shall no longer be conducted at Danville.

IV. The Kentucky Seminary shall hold the property and funds hereby vested in it, and all property and funds which may hereafter be acquired, in trust for and the same shall be devoted to, the education and training of young men as ministers of the gospel according to the Confession of Faith, catechisms, and other standards of the Presbyterian Churches aforesaid, and for the support and maintenance of young men while in attendance on their studies in so far as the same may by said seminary be deemed advisable and practicable; provided, however, that such training and education shall at all times be in accordance with those standards which are now common to both of said churches, and with such modifications thereof, if any, as may hereafter be made and adopted by both of said churches; but said seminary shall not adopt, authorize, or pursue any course of education or training which is not in accordance with those standards which are now common to both churches, and modifications thereof which may hereafter be made by both, and shall thereby become common to both of said churches.

V. All property and funds which have been donated or contributed to either of said constituent corporations for the support or maintenance of special chairs, or for any specific purpose, shall be held by said Kentucky Seminary and dedicated to and used for such specific purpose or purposes, in accordance with the terms of the gift or contract under which the same shall have been received.

VI. The management and control of said Kentucky Seminary shall be vested in a board known as the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky. Said board shall consist of twenty-four members, unless and until the number of said board shall be changed (which may be done) by agreement between the Synod of Kentucky, which is in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, on the one side, and the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri, which is in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, on the other side.

For purposes of convenience, said first-named Synod will be hereinafter designated as the "Synod of Kentucky," and the other two Synods will be designated as the "Synods of Kentucky and Missouri."

One-half of the members of said board shall be elected by the Synod of Kentucky, and one-half shall be elected by the said Synods of Kentucky and Missouri. Said bodies respectively shall regulate the time and mode of election as to the members of the board to be elected by them; and it shall be competent for the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri, by agreement between themselves, to regulate the number to be elected by each.

The members of the first board of trustees to be constituted by election by said Synods shall hold office for the following terms, to-wit: One-fourth of said members shall hold office for one year; one-fourth for two years; one-fourth for three years; and one-fourth for four years; and thereafter the term of office of the members shall be four years.

Each member of the board shall hold office until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. If any member shall fail to qualify at or before the next regular annual meeting of the board after his election, or shall resign or otherwise cease to be a director, the other members of the board appointed by the Synod which elected the member whose office shall have become vacant, shall fill such vacancy, and the appointee shall serve out the term of office of his predecessor, unless the Synod which originally elected such member shall, by election at its next meeting thereafter, substitute another person, in which event that person shall serve out such unexpired term in lieu of the appointee aforesaid.

Elections of members of the board shall be so made that said Synod of Kentucky, on the one side, and said Synods of Kentucky and Missouri, on the other side, respectively, shall at all times have an equal number of representatives in the board.

The election of directors by the said Synods respectively shall be submitted to each of the General Assemblies hereinabove mentioned at their next annual meetings, respectively, and if either of said Assemblies shall, at said meeting, by resolution, object to and disapprove of such election, the same shall not become effective, or shall cease to be effective, from and after the time when said Kentucky Seminary shall, in writing, have been notified of such disapproval.

VII. The board of directors shall have power to elect, appoint, or provide for the appointment of such officers, professors, teachers, and employees generally as in their judgment shall make the work of the seminary most effective.

It may adopt and prescribe a constitution and by-laws for the government and control of the institution in all its parts, and with respect to its entire conduct, and may from time to time alter the same; provided, however, that it shall have no power to adopt any rule or regulation in conflict with this agreement, or with any joint resolution of or agreement between said Synod of Kentucky and the said Synods of Kentucky and Missouri.

The election, appointment, or transfer of any teacher or professor in said seminary shall be submitted to the said General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States at their next meetings, respectively, and if either of said bodies shall at said meeting by resolution object to and disapprove of such election, appointment, or transfer, the same shall not become effective or shall cease to be effective from and after the time when the said seminary shall, in writing, have been notified of such disapproval. This proviso, however, shall not apply to or permit the veto of the election, appointment, or transfer at the opening of said seminary of any of the professors or teachers now employed in either of the seminaries, constituent parties hereto.

In the event of the violation by said Kentucky Seminary of the terms of these articles of agreement, or of the misuse or division of the funds or property held by said seminary, then either of said General Assemblies shall have power to proceed against such violation, misuse, or diversion, and may, through any officer or committee, person or corporation, appointed by it, sue in any civil court to enforce this agreement and to protect the trusts under which property and funds are held by the said corporation, and said corporation shall not, in such suit, object that said General Assembly cannot acquire a standing in court through the intervention of its said officer, committee, or appointee.

VIII. A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum. The board may appoint an executive committee, and vest in said committee such powers of the board as it may deem fit.

IX. This agreement shall not be altered except with the concurrence of the board of directors, and of said Synod of Kentucky, and said Synods of Kentucky and Missouri, respectively. Any alteration so made and agreed upon shall be submitted to each of said General Assemblies above mentioned at their next regular annual meetings, and, unless disapproved as such meeting by one of said Assemblies, the same shall become operative.

X. The first board of directors of said Kentucky Seminary shall be selected, one-half by the present directors of Danville Seminary, and one-half by the present directors of the Louisville Seminary—in each case, preferably, from their own members—to hold office until the board shall be regularly constituted by the Synod of Kentucky and the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri.

XI. Each director of the board hereby constituted before entering upon the duties of his office shall qualify by taking an oath faithfully to perform the duties thereof.

XII. This corporation shall be perpetual.

It may acquire by gift, purchase, or otherwise, and hold and use for general and special purposes real and personal estate; and sell, convey, lease, pledge, or mortgage its real or personal estate, and generally it may exercise all corporate powers conferred by general law upon incorporated bodies.

XIII. This agreement shall become effective when and not until it shall have received the assent of the three constituent corporations herein named, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the Synod of Kentucky in connection therewith, the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri in connection with the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Attest: L. H. BLANTON, Stated Clerk, Synod of Kentucky.

XI. STATEMENT CONCERNING THE AUSTIN PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Synod of Texas, at its annual meeting at Temple, 1899, definitely located this institution, and unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"To call upon the Presbyterians of our State and our land to render the remaining year of our nineteenth century illustrious in the history of our church by thoroughly endowing and equipping this new seminary, that it may be ready, with the opening of the twentieth century, to enter on a grand career of usefulness in training young men for the gospel ministry." Further, "That the trustees be elected at the present meeting of the Synod, and that they be granted all necessary powers for the opening of the seminary when there shall have been raised and deposited with the treasurer of the Board of Trustees of a sum of not less than $100,000 in cash or good interest-bearing notes." Further, "That a president, a representative of this Synod, be elected to lay the whole matter of endowing the seminary before the church, and to raise, if possible, an endowment of not less than $200,000."

The following officers were elected pursuant to this action:

Board of Trustees.—Rev. S. B. Campbell, D. D., president; Rev. A. G. Jones, secretary; Rev. W. Hayne Leavell, D. D., Rev. Wm. N. Scott, D. D., Rev. B. T. McClelland, D. D., Judge S. P. Greene, Rev. C. J. Ralston, Rev. R. K. Smoot, D. D., Rev. S. A. King, D. D., Rev. J. S. Moore, D. D., Judge George H. Gould, Dr. J. L. Bell.

Executive Committee.—Rev. S. B. Campbell, D. D., chairman; Rev. Wm. N. Scott, Judge S. P. Greene.

In May, 1900, Rev. T. R. Sampson, D. D., then president of Austin College, at Sherman, was elected president of the seminary and representative of the Synod.

He accepted the position, and entered upon his duties on June 10th.

The destructive storms and disastrous floods, which soon thereafter consumed and devastated large sections of the State, created conditions that were exceedingly unfavorable to the immediate successful prosecution of the work.

But, notwithstanding these, more than forty thousand dollars had been raised within the State before March 1, 1901, affording unmistakable evidence of the interest of the people in the enterprise, and apparently warranting the confident hope that the institution may commence its work in 1902.

Since March the 1st the president, with the full approval of the board, has given his time and energies chiefly to the duties of his position as "chairman of the Committee on Church and Christian Education," in connection with matters, some of which will come before this Assembly. In inaugurating this movement, for a seminary, the Synod has been actuated by no spirit of antagonism to the existing institutions east of the Mississippi, but on the contrary, while deeply grateful to them for the valued services rendered in the past, this scheme has seemed to present the only possible method by which it could hope to meet the growing necessities of its own field.

While it is generally acknowledged that there are already too many seminaries within the bounds of the General Assembly, it must be more generally recognized that one is needed in that great territory west of the Mississippi.

The grounds and building now owned by the seminary are amply sufficient to meet all immediate necessities, so that the completing of the endowment is all that stands in the way of the realization of this long-desired object.

The Board of Trustees has not yet held its annual meeting, hence has sent no formal report to this Assembly, but this statement of facts and report of progress is made at the request of individual members of the board for the information of this body, and for such action as it may deem proper.

T. R. SAMPSON, President and Treasurer.

XII. EXTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY'S HOME AND SCHOOL, AT FREDERICKSBURG, VA.

We greatly rejoice to report to you that progress has been made in the Home and School, and that the last year is one that has been marked with many indications of the fact that this great and important work is becoming better known in the church, and its importance is being impressed upon the minds of our people. We who see the practical results of the work and understand fully the good that is being accomplished are more and more convinced that, in educating and maintaining the children of our deceased ministers and of our missionaries, the institution is yielding rich fruits to the church, and is supplying an urgent need in it. Besides, the fact that it helps the orphan and lessens the burden of the widow, we feel that the existence of the institution should be a comfort to the living ministry whose average salary is small, and the vast majority of whom never leave much of the world's good to their widows and orphans for their support.

We have been educating thirty-seven orphans this session. We have met our running expenses promptly, and have paid off much of the debt. Rev. H. H. Hawes, D. D., is travelling in the interest of the work, endeavoring to raise money to liquidate the debt. He is working faithfully.

The young people of the Home are faithful and earnest. They are comfortably situated. Their spiritual and temporal wants are well cared for. In their daily lives they can readily be distinguished as the children of God's ministers.

Fredericksburg College, under the efficient management of Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., offers excellent advantages to the children of the Home. This institution has in connection with it a primary, a preparatory and a college department, so that children of all ages can be admitted. It is strictly a Presbyterian institution, and the Bible is taught thoroughly.

OFFICERS.—S. W. Somerville, secretary, treasurer and superintendent, $700; Mrs. John Boyle, housekeeper, board; Mrs. James H. Smith, matron, board.

FINANCIAL.

The response to the December collection ordered by the Assembly, though still small, though it was not met by many of our churches (only about 275 out of 3,000 enrolled, and about 40 individuals responded, contributing about $3,300) shows an improvement. For the past four years we have been meeting the running expenses promptly, supporting on an average 35 orphans annually, paying in these four years, in addition to this, about $2,700 interest and also $10,000 of debt, which now leaves us with a debt of only $7,000, and property well worth $10,000, and when we began this work of retrenchment four years ago we had about $100 in bank. Now, surely a study of these figures is sufficient to show that God is manifesting himself in this work, and that if the institution were free of debt and better supported by the church it could heed the cry of every orphan of the deceased ministry in the Southern Church, would be sustained and enlarged without any doubt, and would be a blessing to the church.

XIII. THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly:

Your trustees would respectfully report that there is on hand invested as directed by the different wills for the various causes of the church, $13,850; that during the last year your trustees have received from all sources, $18,835.28, and in addition thereto the further sum of $3,105.04; that disbursements have been made as directed by the various wills to the different objects of the church, amounting to $19,376.43, leaving a balance in the hands of the trustees of $3,105.04 to be disbursed hereafter as directed by the wills.

For a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements, you are respectfully referred to the itemized accounts of John R. Pharr, treasurer, which is hereto appended, and made part of this report, which account has been duly audited and approved by a committee of trustees, as will appear by its report endorsed upon the account, and the treasurer has been authorized to forward this report to the General Assembly at its annual meeting.

The term of office of the following members expires with this meeting, namely: Dr. J. R. Howerton, D. W. Oates and J. R. Pharr. Your board would unanimously recommend the re-election of these gentlemen. The members now constituting the Board of Trustees are Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, president; Mr. George E. Wilson, vice-president; J. R. Pharr, secretary and treasurer; Drs. J. R. Howerton and J. W. Stagg, Messrs. D. W. Oates, P. M. Brown, George F. Bason and A. G. Brenizer.

Respectfully submitted, E. NYE HUTCHISON (M. D.), President.

XV. REPORT OF AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON HYMN-BOOK.

The ad interim committee for the preparation of a hymn-book begs leave to make a brief report for the information of the Assembly.

As is generally known, we made to the last Assembly what we thought was our final report. Along with it we presented a prospectus of hymns and tunes as the display of our completed work. The work as presented was substantially adopted. The Assembly ordered the "Psalms and Hymns" as reported to be published not earlier than January 1, 1901, and continued the ad interim committee for editorial supervision of the same till issued.

After the rising of the Assembly, it became manifest that there were some portions of the church desiring still longer delay. This was brought to our attention by the action of several Presbyteries, and one or two Synods. In view of this fact, and being greatly desirous of proceeding only in harmony with the wishes of the church at large, your committee sought a conference with Dr. Hazen, as the Secretary and representative of the Executive Committee of Publication. It was agreed at this conference that we would not hand the manuscript to the Executive Committee till the 1st of April, 1901; that we would meet January 1st, act on the suggestions and criticisms asked for by the Assembly, and publish all changes and additions in the church papers, at the same time calling for additional suggestions and criticisms against 1st of April; that we would carefully observe the situation, in the meanwhile, and if the church did not seem satisfied with the additional three months' delay, we would then make another full report to this Assembly.

Upon coming together the 1st of April we were of the unanimous judgment that no further delay was called for by the church. Indeed we had many assurances from many quarters that where there had been a desire for further delay that desire was now satisfied by the concessions and changes made by the committee at its January meeting. We were fortified in this position by the advice of Dr. Hazen, who had taken pains to ascertain the mind of the church at large.

Your committee, therefore, completed its work at the April meeting, and informed the Executive Committee that the manuscript was ready to turn over to them. That has been done in part, as the printer might have immediate need; the ad interim committee continuing to act as editorial supervisors in the course of actual publication.

As reported at the last Assembly the number of hymns was 652. By reason of the changes made in deference to suggestions and criticisms, the number of hymns has been increased to 715—an addition of some 60 more hymns to the collection. This gives us a book of about 500 pages.

We are happy to report that the Executive Committee has arranged a favorable contract for immediate publication, and it is hoped that by the coming fall the book will be ready for distribution.

Your committee is of the opinion in which it is encouraged by the judgment of our judicious Secretary, Dr. Hazen, that there is a large and growing interest in the book among our churches. Indeed, the committee has been importuned from very many quarters of the church, by congregations large and small, that are waiting for the book, to make the delay in publishing as short as possible.

Expressing the hope that the churches in need of a hymn-book will wait till the "Psalms and Hymns" is issued, and that all of our churches as they come to need new books will adopt this, which is now the one book of praise of our great communion, we respectfully submit this our final report.

XVI. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE SABBATH.

In presenting their annual report to the General Assembly, your Permanent Committee on the Sabbath desire to call attention to the fact that they have now been in existence for twenty-three years, having been appointed by the Assembly which met at Knoxville in 1878. Through all these years, the subject of Sabbath Observance has been regularly and constantly presented to each succeeding Assembly, and by them pressed upon the attention of the church and world; and now, as we are entering upon the new century, to which so many have been anxiously looking as the propitious era for bringing in the latter day glory, it may not be amiss to pause a moment to review the past, and see what progress we have made, if any, and whether we have gone forward in the great work we have undertaken, or actually been driven backwards by the force of the opposing current.

We need hardly say that the appointment of your committee was occasioned by the demoralization consequent upon the late civil war. During that entire period of internecine strife the Sabbath, which had previously been well respected by our rulers as well as the masses of the people, was largely disregarded upon the plea of necessity. The marching of troops on that day, the fighting of battles, the issuing of news bulletins, the running of supply trains—all unused and unknown before—so familiarized the minds of the people with the violations of the fourth commandment as to blunt and deaden the public conscience, and to leave the way open for continued and even greater secularization of the day; and thus it was. For that which at first was regarded as a necessity of war was equally claimed afterwards as a rightful appurtenance of peace—that which so stealthily and mildly came in under the harmless guise of mercy soon began to show its true character and real purpose in the bold effrontery of its demands. Deeply impressed with the gravity of the situation and with a view of preventing as far as possible farther encroachments, the General Assembly of 1878 ordered the subject of Sabbath Observance to be placed upon its docket for consideration at each meeting, and appointed a committee to give especial attention to the subject, and to make annual reports to them of their labors.

Other branches of the Christian church likewise seeing the danger by which the Sabbath was menaced, took the same or similar action; Sabbath committees were appointed, circular letters were sent out, conventions were called. In several instances prizes were offered which called forth essays and books on the subject, all of which greatly subserved the cause, and for a time further encroachment was held in check.

But the course of evil is ever onward. While men sleep, the enemy is sowing his tares. Other practices and other agencies of the evil one soon began to show themselves, and urge their claims for public patronage. Among these may be mentioned the Sunday newspaper, that mighty power in the land, which, whilst disclaiming all intention of evil and professing the utmost friendliness to the church and religion, still, Joab-like, bearing the deadly blade concealed in its girdle. The Sunday concert, with all its enticing blandishments, professing to come in the rôle of the good Samaritan, and claiming to furnish a healing balm for the wounded soul, and yet wielding a spiritual influence as subtle and deleterious as the destructive night-shade. The low Sunday rates now everywhere becoming more and more common, and actually offering to all classes a premium on Sunday desecration. These things all conspired with additional force to drag down the Sabbath of the Lord to a still lower depth. With all the lights before us, we do not hesitate to affirm that the Sabbath does not have the same hold upon the people of this nation as in former years. In this judgment we are confirmed by the reports from the Presbyteries. To the direct question submitted to them, whether the day has as strong a hold upon the masses as formerly, with few exceptions they all answer decidedly in the negative.

This serious question, then, confronts us to-day, What is to be the final result? If this degeneracy continues in the future as in the past, what is there to prevent the reduction of the Sabbath of the Lord to a common level with the other days of the week? And when that shall be accomplished and this sign of the Lord's supremacy set aside, what else can we expect than that he will deal with this people as with his people of old in withdrawing himself and leaving the nation to work out its own destruction?

With such an outlook before us the query arises, Are we doing all in our power to avert such a calamity? We need not disguise the fact that the task before us is not an easy one. Any effort on part of the church looking to reform must of necessity be difficult, not only because we have to combat usages and practices already established, but also to meet the whole force of the government in its antagonism. David rightly puts the case when he raises the question, "If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?" As long as the nation continues to set aside the divine law in the carrying and delivery of its mail, thus requiring its army of employees to work on the Lord's day; as long as it continues by its own example to disregard the authority of the Lord, in continuing its business on his day as its last Congress has done; as long as the different States allow the running of both freight and passenger cars; as long as secular newspapers are allowed to pursue their avocation as on other days, publishing and selling their papers for gain, it must be difficult, if not impossible to influence the masses to maintain a decent respect for the Lord's day. Yet, notwithstanding, and in the face of all these untoward circumstances, the church of God must not, and cannot, let go its firm grasp upon this divine institution, the very citadel of its life, as well as its great tower of strength!

We are glad to be able to report that from the reports sent up, the day continues to be observed generally and "fairly well" by our own people, and that in few of the Presbyteries there seems to be even some indication of general improvement. As instances of interest and effort on part of some of the Presbyteries, we may mention the following: The Presbytery of Chickasaw reports "the preaching of an excellent presbyterial sermon, which has aroused the churches to greater interest." The Presbytery of Norfolk, the discontinuance of Sunday newspapers "by some members of at least one church" as the result of faithful preaching on that subject. The Presbytery of Paris, the formation of "some Sunday leagues," and that of West Lexington, "the closing of the saloons in the city of Lexington upon the Lord's day." The Presbytery of Knoxville reports that "the reform committee of Pittsburg have held meetings in Chattanooga and Knoxville, with fair attendance and some interest." The Presbytery of Winchester, that at their last meeting a popular meeting was appointed and held, in which it is believed "permanent impressions were made as the result of forcible presentations of the subject." The Presbytery of Orange, that the Synod of North Carolina has recently created a permanent committee on Sabbath, and the Presbytery of Atlanta, the successful resisting of the opening of Sunday concerts in the city of Atlanta by the ministers' league of that city.

It is with profound sorrow we report the death of one of your committee. Mr. John A. Barry, a ruling elder in the Central Church, Atlanta, a member of this committee, and a warm friend of the Sabbath, ended his earthly labors soon after the adjournment of the last Assembly, this being the fourth time the committee has been called upon to mourn the loss of a member since its first appointment, the other three being Ruling Elder Thomas Q. Cassels, Rev. Dr. Donald Fraser and Rev. Dr. E. H. Barnett.

XVII. REPORT OF THE AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON THE INVALID FUND.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Little Rock, Ark., May, 1901:

FATHERS AND BRETHREN: The General Assembly of 1899, in response to overtures, appointed an ad interim committee, consisting of three persons, to consider and report upon the whole subject of the relief of needy disabled ministers, and of the destitute families of deceased ministers. This committee presented a very complete report to the Assembly of 1900, in which the plans followed by various churches were outlined, and certain general recommendations were made. These recommendations were adopted by the Assembly, and are as follows:

1. Your committee is deeply impressed with the importance of this whole subject, and with the propriety of carefully matured action at this time. This being the case your committee does not see its way clear to recommend to this Assembly any definite scheme for its adoption.

2. Your committee would, however, respectfully recommend that the ad interim committee be continued and enlarged, if the Assembly sees fit, or a similar new committee be appointed, with instructions to continue the careful consideration of the whole subject, and to present the outline of a scheme to the next Assembly; and, further, that in this consideration it is suggested that the committee might give attention to the following points among others:

(a) Whether the scope of our present plan might not be so enlarged as to embrace some of the desirable features found in the other schemes expounded in this report, thereby increasing its compass and efficiency.

(b) Whether annual ministers' rates of a moderate amount, say from five to ten dollars a year, should not be instituted in connection with this fund, the payment of this rate being voluntary, and not necessary to some advantage from the fund, but only conditioning its full benefit.

(c) Whether provision should not be made for receiving and investing, as a permanent fund, any gifts or bequests made for this purpose, and obtained without the employment of a financial agent to secure them.

3. Your committee would also recommend that this report be printed in the Appendix of the Minutes of the Assembly this year, so that the subjects may be studied by our ministers and people, and that suggestions may be sent in to the ad interim committee during the year by any persons interested in the subject, so that the committee may be aided in preparing its report, with the outline of a scheme, for the next Assembly.

In adopting this report the Assembly also appointed an enlarged ad interim committee to present the outline of a scheme to the next Assembly. This committee consists of Rev. Francis R. Beattie, chairman, Rev. E. M. Green, D. D., Danville, Ky.; Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., Richmond, Va., with Ruling Elders W. A. Clark, Columbia, S. C.; T. S. McPheeters, St. Louis, Mo.; H. W. Hunter, Louisville, Ky.; J. S. Munce and J. N. Cullingworth, Richmond, Va.

This committee begs now to submit its report setting forth the outline of a plan for the important subject with which it deals.

Your committee notes the fact that the report of last year was published in the Minutes of the Assembly for 1900, p. 616. It also mentions with pleasure that the church papers published this report in whole or in part during the year, and called special attention to it in their editorial columns. Your committee further states that it issued some months ago a series of questions, and sent them to a large number of ministers and ruling elders in the church, with a view to elicit information and the opinions of our people which might greatly assist the committee in its work. Many valuable replies were received from all sections of the church, and the committee begs to thank all those who were good enough to aid it by sending in replies to the questions asked.

At the outset the committee desires to express its well-defined judgment, based upon the investigations it has made, that in caring for our disabled ministers and their families, we are far behind other churches, and that we come sadly short of what we ought to do in this respect. That godly and deserving men, who have spent their lives in preaching the gospel and serving the church, often in very difficult fields, where they are poorly paid for their services, should suffer serious privations in old age, and that their families should often be left in sore poverty, is a condition which makes a pathetic appeal to us for sympathy and earnest action.

Your committee is persuaded that if a business-like and effective plan to remedy this condition of affairs be devised, and clearly brought before our people, it will be met with a hearty and liberal response. Your committee has had various cheering indications of this during the past year, and it believes that the church is prepared to respond to any plea that may be made in behalf of this important cause. In accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly last year, the following outline of a scheme is presented for consideration and adoption:

I. General Provisions.

1. That a separate executive committee be created to take oversight of this whole work. This step your committee deems essential to the efficient administration of this scheme. That other churches without exception have found this expedient and helpful to the work, is a strong reason in its favor.

2. That this executive committee should consist of seven members, and that it should be composed chiefly of active business men who would give time and thought to its important duties.

3. That the executive committee to be appointed be authorized to engage a secretary, should this Assembly not be able to name a suitable man, said secretary to act also as treasurer; and that he be paid such a salary as may be consistent with due economy in the administration of this fund.

4. That two separate collections be solicited from our churches, one for disabled ministers, and the other for the needy families of deceased ministers, and that in keeping the accounts and making disbursements, these two branches of the fund be kept separately in the books.

5. That the benefits of this fund be provided mainly for the relief of pressing need in the case both of disabled ministers, and of deceased ministers' families, and that length of service in the church be also taken into account in the case of aid given to ministers.

6. That the questions of the mode by which the length of service to the church shall be taken into account, and the scale according to which the benefits of the fund shall be made on this basis of length of service, be remitted to the executive committee to consider and report to the next Assembly.

7. That it is desirable to establish ministers' rates, or a scale of fees which each minister shall pay annually into this fund, for both of its branches in order to full participation in its benefits, it being understood that those who do not pay these rates will derive a partial benefit from this Fund, and further, that the question of the scale of rates to be made be remitted to the executive committee to formulate and report to the next Assembly for approval.

8. That provision be made in the scope of this fund for the acceptance of gifts and bequests for the benefit of both of its branches, and that the capital of these gifts and bequests be permanently invested, and only the income thereof used annually for the assistance of the beneficiaries of the fund.

9. That careful regulations be drawn up by the executive committee in regard to the conditions upon which the benefits of either branch of the fund are to be received. In the case of ministers, there should be a medical certificate of disability, the recommendation of the Presbytery, and the approval of the executive committee in order tó secure the benefits of the fund. In the case of the families of deceased ministers the recommendation of Presbytery and the approval of the executive committee shall be required for participation in the benefits of this branch of the fund.

10. That the question of the basis upon which payments are to be made to the beneficiaries of both branches of the fund be remitted to the executive committee for settlement, that committee to keep in mind the assured income of the fund in making its scale of payments.

11. That all ministers whose names are on the rolls of Presbyteries, whether laboring at home or in the foreign field, shall be eligible according to the foregoing regulations to the benefits of this fund for themselves and their families.

12. That the title of this fund be the General Assembly's Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief.

13. That the executive committee be empowered to elect its own officers other than the secretary, and to make rules and regulations for the administration of the fund.

14. That all those sections of this scheme which are not remitted to the executive committee to consider and report on to the next Assembly, come into operation when approved by this Assembly, and that the fund be administered according to the provisions of these sections, when they are so approved by the Assembly.

XVIII. REPORT OF THE AD INTERIM COMMITTEE ON GRADED SABBATH-SCHOOL LESSONS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1901.

MAJORITY REPORT.

The ad interim committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1900 to submit to the next Assembly for approval "a comprehensive, progressive and graded system of Bible study" for the use of Sabbath-schools, respectfully makes the following report:

I. The first point to consider is, shall the International System of Lessons, that has been in use for the past thirty years with such beneficent results, be continued by our church?

Your committee has been at much pains to ascertain the feeling in this matter, and is in a position to learn the actual state of sentiment that prevails, and is assured that no general demand exists for any change. On the other hand, it is believed that strong opposition would at once be manifested were a change seriously attempted, and there are many cogent reasons for the attachment that exists for this course of lessons:

1. To most earnest workers in the Sabbath-school field there is untold value in the fact that we have here a bond of union between the faithful laborers of all denominations of all lands. It is not a sentiment merely, but the fact of uniform lessons promotes a profitable co-operation and makes possible the organization of the forces of the kingdom in lines and by methods not open to any individual denomination. There are many practical benefits springing out of this co-operation that cannot be mentioned for lack of space, but, apart from any considerations of practical advantage, we, as a church, can ill afford to withdraw from this co-operation, which is perhaps the best expression of growing Christian unity the beginning of the twentieth century furnishes.

2. The abandonment of the International Course of Lessons, and the adoption of some other, would involve necessarily the loss to our Sunday-school workers of much that is greatly helpful to them in the prosecution of their work. Notes and comments on the lessons, in various forms, are within their reach. Lesson helps in great variety are provided. Studies on the lessons are to be found, not only in all religious papers, but in many secular papers also. A large mass of material for the use of teachers and scholars is thus brought within their reach, whereas, with a lesson chosen for our own church, and limited to our comparatively small constituency, our own lesson helps would be the only source from which our workers could supply their needs.

Further, a valuable aid in certain lines of Sabbath-school teaching has been found in pictured illustrations of the lessons, either for the wall or for lesson cards for infant classes. These we would be compelled to abandon altogether, as the patronage of this kind from our church would not be sufficient to justify the expense.

It cannot, we think, be questioned that the use of the International System of Sabbath-school Lessons has furnished a great stimulus to the best writers of all denominations to give some of their best work to the lessons and to their illustration, and the fruit of their labor is enjoyed by all. Papers and magazines devoted to the work are published and scattered everywhere, so that the teacher has a wealth of literature placed at his disposal, such as former laborers in the field never dreamed of. Can we afford to abandon all this, unless it can be shown that there is some serious and fatal defect in the system?

3. But, on the contrary, it is the opinion of your committee that no better series of lessons has ever been prepared, for it is so chosen that the complete series covers the whole word of God. Not that every chapter and every verse is made the subject of study, but the course is so arranged that the salient features of the whole Bible are studied, and if, with proper teaching, the connecting links are taken up, it will be found that the whole word of God has been reviewed in the seven years' course. As an illustration of what we here contend for, we call special attention to the present course of eighteen months in the life of Christ, which has been comprehensive, progressive, practical and spiritual. At the recent meeting of the International Lesson Committee a strong sub-committee was appointed to prepare a course of graded lessons.

4. Many, if not all, the objections that have been raised against this system would hold good against any. It has been said that it leads to the use of lesson helps to the exclusion of the Bible itself; but the helps are no part of the International Course of Lessons. That is the Bible simply, nothing else. We may, in our wisdom, banish every kind of "lesson helps," and still use this course of lessons. The use of lesson helps depends on the management of the school, and not on the system. It has been said that the International is a "hop, skip and jump" system. Now the principal competitor of the International is the "Blakeslee system," and that in one year covers the Bible history from the creation to the return from captivity. One lesson on the creation, one on Jacob, one on Joseph, etc. As a feat of skipping, this is far beyond anything the International has ever done. In passing from one portion of the word of God to another in the choice of its lessons, we believe the International Committee has been wisely guided, and has so chosen as to give a most desirable variety, as well as a substantial unity, to its course of lessons. A little thought and weighing of facts will, we think, lead to the conclusion that the evils complained of are due to unskilled or false methods of teaching, or to the lesson helps furnished, and not to the Bible lessons chosen by the International Committee.

5. The attempt to introduce another system of lessons will almost surely result, if it be at all successful, in a division among our Sabbath-schools in this matter, as a large proportion are so strongly attached to the International System as to be unwilling to give it up. Either the publishers of our Sabbath-school papers must abandon the patronage of this element, or they must publish two sets of papers at double the expense. In either case the effect would be the loss of all profit now derived by the Committee of Publication from this source, and the probable incurring of a deficit.

6. What is to be substituted in the place of our present course of lessons? It is proposed that we have a course of lessons based upon what has been known in the past as "The Blakeslee System," and now known as the "Union Bible Course," whose friends claim for it possibilities in the matter of graded lessons and progressive study that are supposed to be impossible in the International. It has admirable features, some of which are already exemplified in the International System. While making no attack upon it, we express the opinion that it is too difficult for the average Sabbath-school—indeed, that only here and there can be found a school which, under the guidance of a trained teacher, could make successful use of it. A man as prominent in the Sabbath-school work as any in the land has said of it: "The use of the Blakeslee System would tax even a class in the theological seminary. There are very few scholars, perhaps not one in a hundred, that could, with any degree of reasonable ease and profit, use this system."

Many schools have tried and abandoned it, and it has made no considerable inroads, in any of the great denominations, upon the use of the International series. Shall we, then, abandon a series of lessons which a large proportion of our schools find satisfactory, and take up one which has been partially tried, that some have found wanting, and which, while promising much in theory, is practically unusable by the great mass of our Sabbath-school workers?

7. It is easy to ascribe any measure of failure apparent in our Sabbath-school work to the lessons chosen, when, as a matter of fact, the failure may be due to other and altogether different causes. Let us remember that for nearly thirty years the best Sabbath-school workers of this and other lands, embracing in their number some of the brightest minds of the nineteenth century, have applied themselves diligently to the problem of giving the very best course of Bible study possible to our Sabbath-schools; that they have carefully examined all proposed plans of improvement, and have adopted such as their judgment approved, and that in this effort they have been the chosen representatives of the great mass of Sabbath-school workers in all Christendom, by whom their work is at this moment approved with a hearty unanimity that no other enterprise can boast; and we believe that our own church is not behind the Sabbath-school world at large in its approval of and attachment to the International System.

8. In addition to the above considerations we beg to submit the following extracts from opinions on the International system from some of the national leaders in Sabbath-school work:

Mr. B. F. Jacobs, chairman of the Executive Committee of the International Sabbath-school Association, says: "It is quite possible that one individual, or two or three, may do better work than the fifteen members that have been chosen carefully by the International Convention, aided by the British section of the committee consisting of seven members and the members in India and Australia, and the helpful suggestions of lesson writers, and especially of prominent primary workers constantly engaged in the work, but it does not seem so to us. We do not claim infallibility, but we do claim for the Lesson Committee the most carefully, thoroughly and prayerfully laid plans and study in the selection of the lessons, and its great success so far evidences the favor of God and the approval of the brethren."

Mr. Marion Lawrence, General Secretary of the International Sabbath-school Association, says: "I am not one of those who believe that the International Lesson System is faultless, but I do believe it is better to hold to it strongly than to throw it away before we get something better. The denomination that does that first will be sawing off the limb between them and the tree."

Rev. Jesse L. Hurlbut, D. D., of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday-school Board, writes: "I would say that as the Sunday-school is not an ideal institution, the present system of lessons is not an ideal system. But, taking the facts as they are, a mass of pupils who do not and will not study; volunteer, unpaid teachers who are mostly untrained, and an institution which is not in most places a thorough-going school, the present system, which is the study of selected paragraphs of the Bible, is the best that can be made practical. I believe that in ninety-seven out of every one hundred schools it is the only system that can be successfully worked."

Rev. J. A. McKamy, Sunday-school editor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, writes: "We are under lasting obligations to the International work as a whole. The uniform lessons have been vastly superior to the various courses of lessons that were in vogue in the Sunday-schools before the rise of the International movement. They have furnished an admirable basis upon which to rally the Bible students of the world. The system has made it possible for the unprofessional students of the Bible to avail themselves of the freshest and best thought of the great Bible scholars, because in various ways their resources have been laid under tribute to the current lessons. The uniform system has made it possible for the plain people to carry on their Sunday-school work in sympathetic touch with the most favored. By all odds the greater number of earnest Sunday-school workers in all our churches have not been prepared to grapple with questions of grading and separate courses of Bible study for different departments. With one system of lessons they have been able to accomplish a great work. The vast volume of lesson helps published by denominational and independent publishing houses has been made possible under the uniform system. The best products of Christian scholarship and the publishers' skill have been brought to the people at minimum cost. The uniform system has rendered great service in emphasizing the things that Christians hold in common rather than the differences."

Rev. James Atkins, D. D., Sunday-school editor of the Methodist Episcopal Church (South), writes: "I see the need of a better system of grading the work of children and young people on the International Lesson System, but that really does not affect the question of the general system by which we work. I could give a number of reasons which have proved entirely satisfactory to myself why the International Lesson System should not be dropped."

Mr. W. J. Semelroth, editor of The Sunday-School Evangel, writes: "He who starts up a special lesson course in his own church or school or denomination may succeed in presenting a perfect and in every way satisfactory lesson course, but unless that individual can produce so good a course of lessons, and upon so good a plan that it can win adoption by an unbiased company of devout and scholarly men, and through them win the approval of the vast majority of the Sunday-school hosts, then that individual is simply aiding to re-establish, so to speak, that condition of chaos that existed before the adoption of the uniform lesson system—the International."

Many more like opinions might be quoted, but we forbear for lack of space.

II. The second subject for consideration is, "Is it possible to introduce in our Sabbath-schools a system of graded instruction?" and if so, to what extent? It is admitted by all Sunday-school authority that there must be some system of grading. All schools grade, nearly all have the primary, intermediate and senior grades. But may not a more strict and extended system of grading be adopted?

While it may be admitted that our public schools have a stricter system of grading than may be possible to many of our Sabbath-schools, yet we believe it is possible to bring the Sabbath-schools under a more systematic and stricter grading than has generally prevailed in most of them. It has been done by many of our very best schools, and the experience of those who have tried it successfully is that more and better work is done, and they are unwilling to return to the old system. Good results cannot be obtained by this or any other system without patient, earnest effort. Many difficulties will arise, but none that cannot be overcome. Opposition will be encountered from teachers, pupils and parents, but it can be surmounted by "patient continuance in well-doing." All changes meet opposition from the most conservative. In any school where all the teachers or classes are not willing to be graded, such as favor it may be graded, and thus demonstrate the advantages of this system, and one by one they will all be won over; and this grading can be introduced into any school using International Lessons by employing wise and tactful methods, and by being willing to move slowly and surely. It has been done in numerous cases, and no unavoidable obstacles encountered. Every rule must have its exceptions. If a teacher has shown power to hold his or her class together, it may be best to promote teacher and pupils into a higher grade, thus recognizing the value of personal attachment between teachers and scholars. There should always be a free consultation between the superintendent and teachers as to promotions, in order to preserve harmony and efficiency. It is not necessary that every school should conform strictly to the grading here recommended, for there may be wants and circumstances peculiar to some schools that have to be met. But it should be incumbent upon every school to conform to some system of careful grading, adopted after a careful study of all the conditions and circumstances of the school, carried out with patience and persistence, and conforming as nearly as possible to the course of study herein suggested.

Every Sunday-school should offer training in at least three particulars, to-wit: Worship, Bible Study and Evangelization. It would be a great calamity for the home and church if the Sunday-school should cease altogether to teach the children and youth the sweet songs of Zion; to implant within their memories the precious seeds of God's truth, and to call forth their praises in the devotional exercises of the school. Equal disaster would come if we should lose sight of the evangelistic side of the Sunday-school life, by means of which teachers are taught and encouraged to bring their children into vital fellowship with our Lord Jesus, and to collect new pupils. But we have to do at present only with the educational element of the school. Every school should be divided into six departments: (1) Primary, (2) Intermediate, (3) Junior, (4) Senior, (5) Normal, and (6) Home Departments.

1. PRIMARY.—Cradle Roll, composed of names and dates of birth of children under three years. Pupils from three to nine years, divided into three classes or grades. Here careful instruction should be given in the (1) geography of the lesson by the use of cards, maps and Bible objects; (2) in its history, through Bible stories and International Lesson and Historical Catechism (from Adam to John the Apostle); (3) by memorizing the Lord's Prayer, Invitations to children, God's love in John iii. 16; Golden Rule, Doxology, Psalm xxiii., Ten Commandments (in short form first, and then full), Beatitudes, Names of Bible Books, Names of Apostles, Psalm i., "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name;" (4) in doctrine, by memorizing the Apostles' Creed, the Child's Catechism; and International Lesson.

2. INTERMEDIATE.—Pupils from ten to twelve years, divided into three classes or grades. Instruction in (1) geography of the lesson; (2) in history, through the International Lesson and Historical Catechism (more advanced than in Primary) from Adam to Christ; (3) by finding Bible passages, by memorizing "Bible and its Books," 1 Cor. xiii., "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," Psalm li., "Rock of Ages," Isaiah liii., "Just as I Am," etc.; (4) in doctrine, Shorter Catechism and International Lesson.

3. JUNIOR.—Pupils from thirteen to fifteen years, divided into three classes or grades. Instruction in (1) geography of the lesson, with something about Egypt, Syria, Assyria, Persia, Babylonia, Greece and Rome; (2) in history, through the International Lesson and Catechism on Life of Christ, Apostolic History, and the History of Presbyterian Missions; (3) in memorizing John xiv., and "My Dear Redeemer and My Lord," by outlines of Historical and Poetical Books of the Bible; (4) in doctrine, by International Lessons, Catechism on Church Government, and "How We Got Our Bible."

4. SENIOR.—Pupils from sixteen to seventeen, divided into two classes or grades; instruction in (1) geography of the lesson and by some study of Excavations in Bible Lands; (2) in history, by History of Missions; (3) in literature, by International Lessons and Outlines of Prophetical Books and Epistles; in doctrine, by the International Lessons, History of Presbyterian Church, and "Summary of Christian Doctrine."

5. NORMAL.—We are convinced by experience, reading and conference, that most of the serious difficulties in modern Sabbath-school work are due more to defective teaching than to a defective lesson system. In making this statement we would not in the least detract from the immense value of the painstaking labors of those who have been faithfully teaching in our schools. We simply desire to point the way to better work in the future. Every school should be provided with a Normal Class for training teachers. Here instruction should be offered through a course of two or three years in books like Legion of Honor Normal Bible and Training Course, by Hamill, two volumes; Normal Lessons, by Hurlbut; The Complete Normal Manual, by Semelroth; Normal Outlines, by Worden, two volumes. Only one of these will be necessary, since they all cover nearly the same ground. For Presbyterians, Worden's Normal Outlines is at present perhaps the best course.

6. HOME.—It is not necessary that we should here suggest any course of instruction for the Home Department essentially different from that given above, since we believe that it suggests a method of study that may be universally used.

A word of explanation as to the foregoing course may not be amiss at this point. It will be seen that it is thoroughly conservative, in that it introduces into the Sunday-school only in highest class or grades one or two subjects which are not universally taught in our schools in one form or another. It is an effort to make a scientific arrangement of the subjects taught, and to present them in progressive order. The subjects indicated are classified under Geography, History, Memory Work or Literature, and Doctrine. Under each of these heads there is an orderly development, from the first step in the Primary Department, leading up to a definite conclusion. It is modeled after the most approved classification in our day schools, and keeps step with the pupils' progress in them. It is not intended in any way to interfere with the devotional and evangelistic elements of Sunday-school work. It is not in any way difficult, but itself suggests how it may be carried out by any teacher with fair intelligence and ordinary education who is determined to give the best possible instruction in holy things to children under his or her care. It presents nothing new and lays no claim to originality. Substantially this scheme is in use in many schools, and has been used with great advantage.

We respectfully submit the following list of books which will be of great use in training future teachers, and will be most helpful and inspiring to those who are teaching now: (This list of books is omitted.)

We submit this report in the confident hope that it will meet with cordial approval not only of the General Assembly, but also of all practical and progressive Sabbath-school workers, and that it will materially aid in bringing this vital department of our church work into the highest degree of efficiency.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH HARDIE,
JAMES K. HAZEN,
A. L. PHILLIPS.

FIRST MINORITY REPORT.

The undersigned member of your Committee on Graded Bible Lessons, after most careful consideration of the whole subject, feels compelled to dissent from the views of the majority of the committee, and begs leave to submit the following minority report.

There are three questions to consider: (1) Is the present International Lesson Plan satisfactory? (2) If not, what better method can we propose? (3) How may we secure the introduction of the new system?

(1) Is the Present International System Satisfactory?

The answer to this question is found, first, in the very frequent expressions of dissatisfaction in all parts of the church; second, in the repeated overtures to successive General Assemblies asking for something better; third, in the appalling ignorance of the Bible exhibited by Sunday-school teachers and pupils; fourth, in the various supplementary lesson courses introduced; fifth, in the growing favor of the "Blakeslee" Graded Lessons, the circulation of which increased in the first three years from 10,000 to 150,000, and which are now being translated into about ten foreign languages and extensively used in many parts of the world; and sixth, in the fact that the Lutheran and Episcopal churches, as well as our own, have committees now at work preparing special lessons for these denominations.

What are the causes of this dissatisfaction with the present International Lesson System? What are its defects?

1. It is Not an Educational System.—It does not afford systematic, comprehensive, and progressive instruction in the Bible as the record of God's providential dealings with men and nations, and of the historical development of the plan of redemption. It has regard too much to "the homiletical use of detached portions of scripture rather than the educational use of the whole Bible." Its lessons often afford merely texts for sermonettes or topics for discussion. Hence it encourages and almost necessitates an improper method of teaching—the hortatory. The same idea runs through the "helps;" not so much to give the pupil a clearer insight into, and comprehensive view of the Bible, as to afford homiletical aids by furnishing illustrative thoughts to the teacher. Now the function of the Sunday-school is teaching, not preaching. We have textual and topical exposition in the regular preaching service, and lecture and exhortation in the prayer-meeting. The Sunday-school is the teaching service, and we cannot afford to waste the one precious half hour a week on a mere hortatory lecture.

2. It Does Not Sufficiently Promote Bible Study.—It neither requires nor incites study. Too much is done for the teacher and pupil; the labor of preparing the lesson is reduced to a minimum. A short printed passage of scripture, a number of questions on the same leaf, and comments ad libitum—that is all. And the study that is given to the lesson is not sufficiently devoted to the Bible itself. The blessed Book is being smothered under a mass of so-called helpful literature. The help we really need is some system by which the student may be incited and assisted to study the Bible itself at home every day, may gain a clear and comprehensive understanding of the whole book, and may come into sympathetic contact with the word of God.

3. It Does not Afford Sufficient Opportunity for Distinctive Doctrinal Instruction.—The uniform lesson for all classes necessitates a very limited use of the more difficult doctrinal portions of scripture; and the time of the Sunday-school is fully taken up with the regular lesson. Now the Presbyterian Church, especially, cannot long preserve its integrity without distinctive doctrinal teaching.

4. It is not Comprehensive.—(1) As to material—The Bible, excluding all portions not adapted to the Sunday-school, contains enough material for about a thousand International lessons, which would occupy about twenty-one years. A lesson plan not based on single detached passages of scripture could cover the same ground in about five years. (2) As to method—The Bible contains sixty-six books (a library), arranged with little regard to logical or chronological order, and containing a great variety of subjects. It cannot, therefore, be taught by selecting short disconnected passages. This plan "leaves the scholar with a fragmentary and undigested knowledge of the Bible." Again, the uniform lesson for all grades necessitates the total neglect of many topics that are too difficult for the younger pupils.

5. It is not Progressive.—The uniform lesson plan arranged in courses of seven years, adopted some thirty years ago, has been developed almost to the utmost, and is now revolving in a circle, and on a dead level. The aim is mainly to go through the Bible once in seven years, in no orderly way, and with no definite end in view; and there is very little difference in the character of the lessons from cycle to cycle. The introduction of supplementary courses is a confession of this lack of comprehensiveness and progressiveness, but not a remedy therefor.

6. IT IS NOT GRADED.—No other subject is taught in that way—the same lesson for children, youth, and adults. The passage selected is frequently either too difficult for some pupils or too simple for others, and so injustice is done to all through a necessary series of compromises; and it is impossible by any device to grade a system whose very fundamental principle is uniformity. Grouping pupils according to age and capacity, and having different sets of questions and methods of instruction for different classes, is not grading. The lesson material should be graded to suit different tastes and capacities.

Such are the defects in our present International Lesson Plan. That system was a decided improvement upon those which it superseded thirty years ago; but since that time there has been a complete revolution in educational methods, and the Sunday-school work has not kept pace with the improvements in other lines of study.

(2) The System Needed; Its Fundamental Principles.

1. IT MUST BE SIMPLE AND COMPLETE IN ITSELF.—Supplementary lessons, to be used contemporaneously with the regular scripture lessons, will almost necessarily introduce confusion and prove a failure. It is difficult to get pupils to study, and to find time to teach properly the Bible lesson without adding extra courses. It would take at least forty minutes to teach two separate lessons. The lesson plan, therefore, must contain, simply arranged, a full course of Bible instruction; and if anything else is taught, like theology and church government and history, special days should be set apart for these studies.

2. IT MUST NECESSITATE THE DIRECT STUDY OF THE BIBLE.—We must restore the Bible to the Sunday-school. Our publishing houses should issue the lesson papers in such form as that the student shall be compelled to search the Scriptures themselves for answers to the questions; and these questions should direct him not to one short passage, but to various parts of the Bible. In the higher grades there should be blank spaces for written answers.

3. AS EDITED BY OUR CHURCH, THESE LESSONS SHOULD BE INTENSELY SPIRITUAL, THOROUGHLY EVANGELICAL, SOUNDLY DOCTRINAL, AND DISTINCTIVELY PRESBYTERIAN.—Lessons in theology, ethics, church government, the sacraments, etc., should be constantly deduced from the Scriptures, and the aim throughout should be the cultivation of the spiritual life, the development of Christian character, the fitting for religious work, and the training of loyal Presbyterians.

4. IT SHOULD BE A COMPREHENSIVE PLAN.—It should take into account all the contents of the Bible with regard to their fitness for the Sunday-school and adaptation to different classes. This material must be so distributed into progressive courses, and the lessons so arranged in these courses, as to include all topics, historical, doctrinal, ethical, etc., in their proper order, and give due emphasis to each. Moreover, each of these lessons must be based, not on one short passage of scripture, but on so many, all bearing on one topic, as will make all the lessons of that year a comprehensive study of one great section of the Bible.

5. IT SHOULD BE PROGRESSIVE.—"If we go around, let it be in a spiral, not on a weary level." It should be a steadily progressive course, having a definite aim; leading up from the simple stories and great truths of the Bible, to the ever fuller unfolding of the divine purpose, and wisdom and power of the divine government, in history; exhibiting the historical development of the plan of redemption through successive dispensations; and bringing out in ever clearer light the doctrines of salvation, and all that pertains to life and godliness.

6. It Should be a Graded System.—We must have milk for babes, bread for children, strong meat for men. Sound pedagogical principles, the secular educational methods of to-day, and the gratifying success achieved by Sunday-schools using graded lessons, make this an imperative demand. Twenty-five years ago graded public schools were almost unknown in the South. Now they are so general, and the present generation has been so trained to appreciate their advantages that even the children feel painfully the defect in our Sunday-school system.

There are three methods of grading. (1) By Supplementary Lessons.—This is merely nominal, not real, grading. It is absurd to call a school graded when the main lesson is uniform and the grading a subordinate feature. To grade on the basis of a supplemental and subordinate course, and rely on a uniform lesson for the main educational work of the school, is logically inconsistent and practically impossible. There should be one coherent course, so graduated as to both matter and method as to form a natural basis for grading the classes. (2) By Classes.—Having a graded course running through a series of years, each class studying the subject best adapted to it without regard to others, and each teacher having a given grade. This is the method of our public schools. (3) By Departments.—This is the best method for the Sunday-school. The school should be divided into three departments: primary, junior, and senior; and each of these subdivided into two grades, thus constituting a school of six grades. All of these departments should study together the same general portion of scripture, but each department a different lesson, composed of passages specially adapted to its pupils.

(3) How May We Secure the Introduction of This System?

"The best method of securing the end contemplated" is to have the International Lesson Committee so modify their lesson plan as to embody the above principles, and we note with gratification that they have already taken the first step in that direction by appointing a sub-committee to select special scripture lessons for the primary and Bible classes. Now let them be urged to make the further changes suggested by Dr. Ghiselin in his report, as to the three-fold five-year cycle, and adopt the scheme of studies presented in his table—all of which the undersigned most heartily endorses.

The following action by this Assembly is recommended:

1. That the Graded System of Bible Study advocated in this report be approved as desirable.

2. That a committee of three be appointed to endeavor, by whatever means may be necessary, to have the present International Lesson System so changed as to embody the principles set forth in this report.

E. C. MURRAY.

Second Minority Report.

The General Assembly of 1900, in Atlanta, in response to an overture from Winchester Presbytery, "asking the preparation of a graded system of Bible study for the home and Sunday-school," appointed an ad interim committee of five to "consider the best methods of securing the end contemplated, and, if possible, to submit to the next Assembly for approval a comprehensive, progressive, and graded system of Bible study."

The undersigned member of the committee finds, after careful consideration of the whole subject, that he dissents too much from the views of the other members to sign either of the other reports, and, therefore, begs leave, for reasons that will appear, to submit to the Assembly the following third report:

The dissatisfaction with the present International System of Sunday-school Lessons, while perhaps not large, is eminently respectable, and is based on just grounds. The dissatisfaction is found not only in our own church, but more or less in all branches of the church of Christ. The causes of dissatisfaction are mainly two: The present system does not give sufficient opportunity for teaching the denominational doctrines; and it is an ungraded system, and so fails to furnish progressive religious education.

The attempt has been made to remedy the first of these defects by supplemental lessons, but they have not proved satisfactory, and have not been generally adopted. The attempt to remedy the second defect by the multiplication of graded helps has aggravated the dissatisfaction. The Lutheran and Episcopal Churches, as well as our own, have committees now at work, charged with the duty of preparing special lessons for these denominations. These attempts, together with the Bible Study Union Lessons, show that the churches are drifting slowly apart, and that the happy co-operation in Bible study now existing among the denominations will eventually be disrupted, unless the causes of dissatisfaction are speedily removed.

Sound pedagogical principles, universal secular education and Sunday-schools that have tried it, proved the practicability and desirableness of a graded system of Bible study. The age demands not only the grading of the Sunday-school, that is, the grouping of pupils according to age and capacity, and the use of methods of instruction adapted to the different grades, but also the grading of the instruction material, that is, the selection of scripture passages suitable to the age and capacity of the pupils. The Sunday-school is the church engaged in the instruction of youth in the Christian religion by means of the Bible, catechisms, hymns, etc., for the development of Christian character and the fitting for Christian work. It is no doubt desirable in Christian schools of high grade to have a course for the study of the Bible as literature or as history; but this is not the "end contemplated" by the Assembly, and is not desirable in the Sunday-school. It is not the appropriate work of the Sunday-school nor is it the appropriate time to give such instruction, and the teachers in most Sunday-schools are not competent to impart it.

Bible study in the home and Sunday-school is for the purpose of learning religion, its facts, doctrine, duties, and worship. The Bible is a divine library which in its historic unfolding of the plan of redemption by means of its biographies, histories, poetry, and philosophy is intended by God, its ultimate author, to teach religion, and so its material easily yields itself to grading; and it follows that the best method of imparting religious instruction to youth is not by the study of whole books of the Bible in their historical or literary setting, but by the wise selection of scripture passages adapted to the age, capacity, and need of the pupil.

"The best method of securing the end contemplated" is to have the present International System of Sunday-school Lessons so modified as to remove the cause of dissatisfaction, and change it into a graded system which will be satisfactory to all the denominations, and thus preserve what Dr. Hazen happily calls "the best expression of growing Christian unity the beginning of the twentieth century furnishes."

The undersigned member of the committee with diffidence "submits to the Assembly for approval such a comprehensive, progressive, and graded system of Bible study."

Let a three-fold five-year cycle be adopted instead of the present single six-year cycle. Let the three series of lessons, primary, junior, and senior, simultaneously cover the same part of the Bible, having different scripture passages, but all three proceeding on parallel lines through the Bible in five years. Let the scripture material be selected for nine lessons and the review, that is, ten lessons for each quarter. Three Sundays in each quarter, or twelve in each year, will be left as movable Sundays for the denominations to introduce special lessons as to distinctive doctrines, or church days, by means of catechisms, hymns, liturgies, etc. Three-fourths of the time will thus be spent in the direct study of God's word, while nearly one-fourth will be given to what must necessarily be supplemental instruction. This plan avoids the difficulty of introducing supplemental lessons on the same Sunday with the main Bible lesson in the brief time allowed for instruction in the Sunday-school. All needed additional instruction in the distinctive doctrines, or days, of each church, will be given as at present in the literature furnished as helps to the study of the lessons by the denominational publishing houses. Such a plan will remove all the dissatisfaction with the International System of Lessons, is simple and practicable, will reduce to a minimum the difficulties of expense, etc., incident to a change of systems, that the publishing houses have to meet, will stimulate the younger pupils who are accustomed to the same method in secular schools, will furnish instruction that is of interest to the older pupils and so help to keep them in the Sunday-school, and best of all will give a progressive and comprehensive education in the Christian religion to the youth of our churches.

The system is herewith presented in tabular form. Illustrative, ethical and devotional lessons from Proverbs, Psalms, and other books may be introduced at the proper points into the Biographical, Historical and Doctrinal courses.

Year.	PRIMARY. Age 6 to 10.		JUNIOR. Age 11 to 15.		SENIOR. Age 16 to 20.		SCRIPTURE PASSAGES MAINLY FROM
1	Stories of Israel's early heroes.	MAINLY BIOGRAPHICAL.	History of the Patriarchs.	MAINLY HISTORICAL.	Kingdom of God in its beginnings.	MAINLY DOCTRINAL.	Pentateuch.
2	Stories of Israel's later heroes.		History of the people of Israel.		Kingdom of God in prophecy.		Historical and prophetical books of Old Testament.
3	Stories of Jesus, 1st Part.		The Life of Jesus. 1st Part.		Kingdom of God fulfilled in teachings and work of Christ. 1st Part.		Gospels, 1st Half.
4	Stories of Jesus, 2d Part.		The Life of Jesus, 2d Part.		Kingdom of God fulfilled in teachings and work of Christ, 2d Part.		Gospels, 2d Half.
5	Stories of great men and women of early Christian church.		History of founding of Christian church.		Kingdom of God realized in life and teachings of Christian church.		Acts, Epistles and Revelation.

The undersigned member of the committee recommends the following action:

1. The Assembly approves as desirable the graded system of Bible study submitted in this report.

2. The Assembly will endeavor by correspondence with other churches and by whatever means may be necessary to have the present International System changed into such a graded system of Bible study.

CHARLES GHISELIN.

XIX. EXTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON CHURCH AND CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

1. Your committee has endeavored to secure the unanimous adoption of the Assembly's "Constitution" and "Plan of Organization" (as set forth in Assembly's Minutes, 1899, pp. 411-413) by all the Synods and Presbyteries, with the following result:

Ten Synods have commended and adopted the whole, and appointed permanent committees on Church and Christian Education; two Synods have not taken formal action, under the Assembly's paper, though they are actively engaged in some departments of the great work; one Synod has not been heard from by your committee as to its formal action.

Sixty-eight Presbyteries have commended and adopted the "Constitution" and "Plan of Organization," and appointed permanent committees; five Presbyteries have endorsed and commended the Assembly's paper, but have failed to appoint the committees for various reasons; two Presbyteries have not reported any action; one Presbytery has declined to take any action because it sees no prospect of successful effort in its bounds; two Presbyteries have refused because they do not approve the Assembly's paper; and one has postponed action.

This digest of the action of the Synods and Presbyteries indicates a general revival of interest in this cause, and gives promise of great results under judicious leadership.

2. There has been much discussion of educational interests on the floor of Synods and Presbyteries, and also in the Church papers, and these discussions have been singularly cautious and conservative, and free from fanaticism or extravagance on one side, and from captious criticism on the other, all of which gives promise of building surely and well on foundations carefully laid.

3. Reports from the Synods indicate the founding of a college for young men at an early day by the Synods of Alabama and Florida, also important changes and combinations in the Synods of Kentucky and Missouri. Several of the Synods are agitating the matter of colleges for female education, either by founding new schools or adopting schools already in existence. It is hoped and believed that the movement for the Twentieth Century Fund will awaken a new interest in all our institutions for higher learning, both male and female, and give them a new lease of life and enlarged usefulness and success.

4. The presbyterial committees usually make their annual reports at the spring meetings. Owing to the shortness of the time between these meetings and the meeting of the Assembly, it has been impossible to get reports from all the Presbyteries. Your committee, however, has had information, direct and indirect, from about fifty of the Presbyteries, and in most of them much time was given to the subject of Christian Education, and much interest was manifested, partly in considering the condition and prospects of schools in which they were already interested, and partly in planning for new enterprises under direct presbyterial control. Fourteen

Presbyteries report steps taken looking to new enterprises, and twenty-six Presbyteries make special mention of great increase of interest.

5. The Presbyteries so far seem to be mainly occupied with collegiate and secondary education, and but little emphasis has been given to parochial schools under particular churches, and your committee has received but few reports on this subject. One of the older Presbyteries mentions eleven schools under "actual or virtual Presbyterian control." In some of the older Presbyteries there is a great revival of the old grammar schools and academies along side of the churches in the country and in the smaller towns, and some in the larger towns and cities. Some of these schools are reorganizing on the "Constitution" proposed by the Assembly, and they usually include both primary and secondary education, and embrace both sexes. Many of these schools combine with the public school interest with good results. It remains to be seen whether this plan can be made permanent.

The growth of parochial or congregational schools must needs be slow, owing to prevailing conditions, but we may be sure that the success of synodical and presbyterial effort for the higher and secondary education will in due season excite a far more general local interest, and it will become more and more practicable and necessary for churches, singly or in combination, to multiply such schools.

6. The Home Mission work of the Synods and Presbyteries has in many cases been greatly promoted by carrying the Christian teacher wherever the preacher goes, and the schools are therefore sustained as a part of the mission work. Many of the old and strong churches are sustaining mission day schools in suburban districts and in factory settlements, along side of their mission chapels.

The church might well inquire whether the large failure of our mission work among the negroes might not be remedied by making the primary day schools, taught by godly men and women, a part of the work for them. Ought not our church to learn a lesson from the experience of Foreign Mission work, or even from the example of the Northern Presbyterian Church operating within our bounds?

7. It is worthy of mention here that seven of the Presbyteries take up regular annual collections for Church and Christian Education. The object is to secure a regular revenue in the absence of adequate endowments. The amounts collected are distributed according to a scheme agreed upon, and according to the exigencies of special interests.

8. The most of the Presbyteries show some interest in the Twentieth Century Fund, and many of them seem about to enter upon active efforts to make the Assembly's plan a real success.

9. The Manual of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, issued 1899 by the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, Richmond, Va., publishes on pages 33-35 an incomplete list of schools in which our church is interested. Many of these have no direct ecclesiastical control, and are variously constituted, but it is evident that they are becoming more and more distinctly Christian and Presbyterian as interest in Christian Education increases.

10. The following officers have been elected by this committee, and the committee is now constituted as follows: Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., chairman; Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., vice-chairman; Rev. J. W. Rosebro, clerk, and Mr. J. N. Cullingworth, treasurer; G. B. Strickler, D. D., Hon. George L. Christian, F. H. Gaines, D. D., George Summey, D. D., E. C. Gordon, D. D., L. H. Blanton, D. D., T. R. Sampson, D. D., J. A. Mecklin, D. D., Pres. E. R. Long, Rev. W. E. McIlwaine, Rev. D. N. McLaughlin, A. B. Curry, D. D., G. W. Macrae.

11. (Omitted, being a mere reference to the "Constitution for Presbyterian Church Schools," and the "Plan of Organization," heretofore printed in the Assembly's Minutes.)

12. Your committee desire to emphasize through the Assembly the nature and scope of the duties of the permanent committees in the following particulars, to-wit:

(1) These committees are not in any sense executive committees to found and administer schools of any grade, nor to do any distinctly executive work in education except such as may be laid upon them by the courts appointing them.

(2) In advocating the "Constitution for Presbyterian Church Schools" they shall guard against ecclesiastical administration by emphasizing section 2, which puts the "sole government of the school in the hands of a board of trustees appointed by the church court.

They shall also insist upon the Christian and church features as set forth in section 4.

Section 9 should also receive special emphasis, because debt, especially debt incurred in administration, is the bane of all such enterprises.

(3) These committees, by wholesome agitation and discussion, can do much to make schools of every class and grade more distinctly Christian, and so make all education the handmaid of religion.

(4) Mission schools and Home Mission work—both for whites and negroes—should receive special emphasis; so also female education; and in short the primary, secondary, and higher education of both sexes.

(5) It is the duty of these committees to excite interest and use all proper means and agencies for the furtherance of Church and Christian Education, such as the press, pastoral letters, visitation, and special correspondence; and also to enlist teachers, ministers, ruling elders, and private members of the church in providing in every possible and practicable way for schools, both primary and preparatory, in which the Bible shall be a text-book.

This report was adopted at a meeting in Richmond, Va., May 7, 1901, at which a quorum of the committee was present.

Respectfully submitted, J. B. SHEARER, Chairman.

XXI. REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Treasurer has heretofore brought each year to the Assembly his books and vouchers to be audited by the Assembly itself, through its Auditing Committee. Last year the Assembly determined hereafter to pursue with its Treasurer the same method it employs with its executive committees, and to audit his accounts through a local auditing committee. I, therefore, turned over my books and vouchers to the local auditing committee, who had been appointed to this duty, and they have endorsed their finding upon my books as balanced, and sent a copy of their report to this Assembly.

Heretofore I have closed my accounts a few days before starting to the Assembly. But this I find an inconvenient time to close my report, as remittances from the Presbyteries are then being daily received. Acting on a suggestion of a member of your Auditing Committee of last year, I balanced my books on the 30th of March, and the report which I submit covers the operations of your treasury from May 12, 1900, to April 1, 1901. By closing my reports on this day annually the assessments paid in each spring for the year will fall almost wholly into one report, instead of being cut in twain, as heretofore, between two reports, and my fiscal year will coincide with that of our executive committees and of our churches generally. Your local Auditing Committee approve this course, and recommend that your Treasurer's year hereafter coincide with our ecclesiastical year. I will be glad to have the Assembly direct me in the matter.

The following is a summary of receipts and expenditures:

Dr.

To balance on hand per last report, May 12, 1900,	$1,245 16
Collections on dues of 1901,	282 25
Collections on dues of 1900,	786 45
Collections on dues for years previous to 1900,	248 50

Cr.

By printing and other expenses of the Hymn-book Committee,	$268 00
Expenses of other ad interim committees,	85 59
Telegrams,	2 59
Postage, stationery and express,	12 65
Sexton, Central Church, Atlanta,	5 00
Salary and expenses of Permanent Clerk,	125 60
Salary and expenses of Stated Clerk,	377 75
Printing and handling Minutes of 1899, with clerical aid on same, less receipts from sales,	670 39
Western Section of the Alliance,	560 00
		$2,107 57
Balance in hand, March 30, 1901,		454 79
		$2,562 36

Of amounts hitherto reported as delinquent, I have struck from my books claims against four Presbyteries, aggregating $48.90, discovered to be not properly chargeable against them. To four Presbyteries I have remitted taxes many years overdue to the extent of $293.70. In each instance it was after full conference with the officials of the Presbytery as to its ability and circumstances, and after a liberal payment of part had been made by it toward liquidating the indebtedness.

The following Presbyteries are in arrears to your treasury:

* Augusta, 30 cts.; Bethel, $75; Chickasaw, $11.65; Fayetteville, $412.10; Harmony, $22.05; Lafayette, $68.25; Louisville, $134.70; Mecklenburg, $231.25; Muhlenburg, $11.95; Nashville, $77.35; North Alabama, $46.10; Potosi, $30.30; St. John, 69.85; Suwanee, $2.10; Western District, $54.

Of these back dues, $282.25 are on taxes for 1900, $246 for those of 1899, $216.75 for those of 1898, and $501.95 for those of years prior to 1898. Total $1,246.95.

* These amounts and the total have been corrected so as to conform to my books at the close of May 30, 1901, when this report was sent to the printers. The total of indebtedness to the treasury on closing the report, March 30, was $1,434.85. This has been reduced by receipts since then, aggregating $174.70, and an old claim for $13.20 has been cancelled on presentation of evidence of former payment. Of these receipts, $118.55 were on dues for the year 1900, $56.00 for the year 1899, and 15 cents for years before 1898. In this way eight Presbyteries, in arrears at the beginning of the fiscal year, have been dropped from the roll of delinquent Presbyteries.—W. A. A.

I notified delinquent Presbyteries last fall, and again this spring, of their standing, with good results, and I am hopeful that the collections of this spring will largely reduce the aggregate of outstanding dues.

Claims of the year against your treasury yet unpaid are $300 due the Western Section of the Alliance for the year 1900-1901, and the bill for printing Minutes of 1900 not yet presented, and perhaps some expenses of ad interim committees which have not yet been reported to me.

Respectfully submitted, W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

The attention of the Treasurers of the Presbyteries is invited to the above schedule of assessments, calculated, by order of the Assembly of 1896, upon the basis of one cent for each communicant member, as shown by the statistical tables of 1901 published in these minutes. It will require full payments of the above assessment to meet the current expenses of the General Assembly.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficiency of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, 1, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of his great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions, and decisions, as to promote his own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, 2, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

FORMS OF BEQUEST.

"I give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States ——— (here insert the estate devised and bequeathed) for the use and benefit of said church."

"I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia), (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the publication work of said church, which is popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church."

"I give and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee), (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the foreign mission work of said church, which is popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church."

[Legacies of this kind in Mississippi are barred by the constitution of the State.]

The price of the Minutes of the General Assembly is 25 cents a copy, being less than cost. Orders should be sent to the Executive Committee of Publication, and not to the Stated Clerk.

STATISTICAL REPORTS

PRESBYTERIES.

NOTE.—An asterisk (*) after the name of a church indicates that it owns a manse.

Owing to an inadequate number of reports, and obvious confusion as to what was desired in the column for "Young People's Societies," that column, provided for in some of the blanks used, is here omitted from all reports.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED:

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, viz.: (1), Statistical, as per form on preceding pages; (2), on Systematic Beneficence; (3), on Sabbath Schools; (4), Narratives; (5), On Young People's and other Societies.

2. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables.

3. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that the numbers of their communicants should be inserted from their last reports.

4. To report NO FRACTIONS in the money columns.

5. To add up each column of figures with special care.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolution of pastorates, organization and dissolution of churches, and the names of ministers deceased. Place a star after name of church if a manse is furnished.

7. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly as soon as they are prepared, if possible before the meeting of the Assembly. If statistical reports are not received before the Assembly adjourns, it will occasion embarrassing delay in the publication of the Minutes. Clerks should also see that the amounts due for General Assembly's assessments are promptly sent up. See page 130.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterial Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for Statistical Reports.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture, or answer to an overture except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

Notify the Stated Clerk of General Assembly when a change is made in the clerkship of your Presbytery.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly, through its Stated Clerk, (1), of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2), by the 1st of May in each year, of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies. It is not required that Synodical Narratives or statistical reports prepared by Synod be sent to the Assembly. They are simply for Synodical record. Notify the Stated Clerk of the Assembly when change is made in the clerkship of Synod.

JACKSON, MISS., May 15, 1902.

The Forty-second General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States met in the First Church, Jackson, Miss., May 15, 1902, at 11 o'clock A. M., and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. Neander M. Woods, D. D., Moderator of the last Assembly, on 1 Samuel xiii. 19–22: "Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears; but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock. So it came to pass in the day of battle that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan."

The Assembly was then constituted with prayer by the Moderator.

The Stated Clerk announced that he had received official information of the execution of the orders of the last Assembly, by the organization of the Synod of Louisiana, the dissolution of the Synod of Memphis, the transfer of the Presbyteries of Chickasaw and North Mississippi to the Synod of Mississippi, and of the Presbyteries of Memphis and Western District to the Synod of Nashville, the Synod just named to be known henceforth as the Synod of Tennessee.

The Stated Clerk reported the enrollment of the following commissioners:

Closed with prayer by the Moderator.

SECOND DAY.

May 16, 1902, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer by the Rev. C. L. Hogue, D. D.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The following additional commissioners appeared, and were enrolled: Ruling Elders A. T. McIlwaine, from the Presbytery of South Carolina; John F. Green, from the Presbytery of Arkansas; J. P. Sharp, from the Presbytery of Macon; H. H. Dean, from the Presbytery of Athens; J. F. Mitchell, from the Presbytery of Brazos; F. Montgomery, from the Presbytery of Kanawha, and the Rev. C. R. Hemphill, D. D., from the Presbytery of Louisville.

The following salutation was received from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and was referred to the Committee of Foreign Correspondence:

DALLAS, TEXAS, May 15, 1902.

The General Assembly, Southern Presbyterian Church, Jackson, Miss.:

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, greets the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church in the name of the Lord, and invokes upon it the blessing of the Great Head of the church. Read Ephesians i. 1.

A. COKE SMITH,
Chairman Committee on Fraternal Correspondence.

The annual report of the Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization was presented by Secretary Lilly, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization to be appointed.

The annual report of the Trustees of the Assembly's Home and School was presented by the Rev. H. H. Hawes, D. D., and was referred to the Standing Committee on that institution to be appointed.

The following resolution of sympathy with the Rev. Dr. B. M. Palmer was adopted by a rising vote, and thereupon the Assembly was led in prayer for the venerable and beloved sufferer by the Rev. Dr. Strickler:

To the Rev. B. M. Palmer, D. D.:

The members of the Assembly, at one of their earliest sessions, desire to express their profound and tender sympathy with their beloved and honored brother, Dr. B. M. Palmer, in his severe affliction, and to invoke upon him the richest ministrations of divine grace, and to express the earnest hope and prayer that he may yet long be spared to the church to which he is so dear.

The Moderator announced the standing committees:

The Committee of Foreign Correspondence reported the following response to the greeting of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at Dallas, Texas. It was adopted and ordered to be sent:

JACKSON, MISS., May 16, 1902.

Rev. A. Coke Smith, D. D., General Conference, Dallas, Texas:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States reciprocates the fraternal greetings of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and rejoices that we labor side by side for the extension of the kingdom, both in the home and foreign fields. W. T. HALL, Moderator.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

The following special committee was appointed to report the answer of the Presbyteries to the overtures sent down by the last Assembly: W. M. Beckner, William Thorburn, S. G. Miller, Walter L. Lingle, and Ernest Thompson.

[1] This gavel was made by the donor, of ivory from an elephant's tusk, a present from Ndombe, King of the Baschilange, Central Africa. The handle was made from the wood of a stake, upon which the donor fell, sustaining almost fatal injuries, in 1898.—STATED CLERK.

The Committee of Foreign Correspondence reported the following salutation to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at New York. It was adopted, and ordered to be transmitted:

Jackson, Miss., May 16, 1902.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

The General Assembly, in session at Jackson, Miss., has offered special prayer that the Head of the church preside over your deliberations. Ephesians iv. 4–6.

Psalms was read, and was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Committee on the Records of the Synod of Mississippi reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on the Assembly's Home and School presented a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee to whom was referred the ninth annual report of the Assembly's Home and School respectfully submit the following:

During the past year the divine favor has been enjoyed in a large measure by this important institution, which has for its object "the education and maintenance of the children of deceased ministers and of living missionaries."

It has made a gratifying progress in the face of serious difficulties, and has accomplished a work surprisingly large, considering its meagre resources. All applications for assistance in this line have been cheerfully granted, and the privileges of the institution have been promptly extended to the children of every minister whose death has come to the knowledge of the trustees.

The economy and efficiency of its management warrant our most cordial commendation. Thirty-nine inmates have been cared for during the past year, "with due regard to their comfort and health and happiness," and at the very small expense of $4,441.19.

It is a pleasure to note an increase of interest in this cause, as indicated by an increase in the contributions of our people, and we regret that offerings were received from only 275 churches, 50 Sabbath-schools, 30 societies, and 70 individuals.

This small number of contributors should be largely increased; and it doubtless would be, if the debt contracted several years ago, and which has been such a discouraging burden, and for the removal of which the Rev. H. H. Hawes, D. D., has labored with so great zeal and fidelity, could be expeditiously liquidated.

Therefore, we recommend—

1. That this Assembly, profoundly impressed with the good work which is being done by the Assembly's Home and School at Fredericksburg, Va., does hereby authorize the Trustees of said Home and School to make an equitable apportionment among our seventy-nine Presbyteries of the remaining debt of $6,000.

2. That this Assembly commends this cause most heartily to the liberality of our people, and names the last Sabbath of December as a suitable day when collections shall be taken in all our churches and Sabbath-schools for the support of this work.

I. S. McELROY, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee, to whom were referred the appeal of the Rev. Z. B. Graves, from the Synod of Louisiana, and the appeal of the Rev. E. T. Hoge, from the Synod of Virginia, made the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee would report that in the case of the appeal of Rev. Z. B. Graves we find that it is termed an appeal against the action of the Synod of Louisiana, but it is more properly a complaint in which Rev. Z. B. Graves complains against the judgment of the Synod of Louisiana, which approved the action of the Presbytery of New Orleans, deposing the complainant from the ministry without judicial proceedings, on the ground of unsoundness of mind.

We find the complaint in order, and also find the record of the cause properly made out and certified by the Stated Clerk of the Synod of Louisiana. In view of the fact that Rev. Z. B. Graves has been adjudged of unsound mind, your committee would suggest that the Assembly appoint one of its members, as he may elect, to represent the complainant, and that the cause be heard by the Assembly in the following manner, to-wit:

1. That the record of the cause be read.
2. To hear the parties, first, the complainant, by his counsel, then the respondent, represented by Rev. W. McF. Alexander, D. D., and the complainant, through his counsel, shall close.
3. To call the roll, that the members may express their opinion in the cause.
4. To take the vote.

Your Judicial Committee would report that we find the appeal of Rev. E. T. Hoge against the action of the Synod of Virginia, in its approval of the action of the Presbytery of Abingdon, in divesting him of the office of the ministry, on the ground that he had habitually failed to be engaged in the regular discharge of his official functions, and that such neglect proceeded only from his want of acceptability to the church, in order.

Your committee recommend that the cause be issued as follows:

1. To hear the record of the cause.
2. To hear the parties, first the appellant, then the appellee, through its accredited representative, Judge F. B. Hutton, and the appellant shall close.
3. To call the roll, that the members may express their opinion in the cause, and then the vote shall be taken.

JOSEPHUS JOHNSON, Chairman.

It was ordered that the appeal of Mr. Graves be heard to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, with the Rev. E. B. Witherspoon to represent him, and Mr. Graves himself to be allowed thirty minutes to address the court in his own behalf, and the Rev. Dr. W. McF. Alexander to appear for the Synod of Louisiana; and that the appeal of Mr. Hoge be heard this afternoon at 4 o'clock, he appearing for himself, and Judge F. B. Hutton for the Synod of Virginia, forty-five minutes being allowed to each. The report was adopted.

The hearing of the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was made the order of the day for to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The Committee of Bills and Overtures made a partial report as follows:

1. On an overture from the Synod of Arkansas, asking the Assembly to legalize the last stated meeting of said Synod, the committee recommend compliance with the request. Adopted.

2. On overtures from the Synods of Alabama and Florida, the committee recommend that the Assembly authorize the transfer of Florala Church to the Synod of Florida. Adopted.

3. On an overture from the Rev. J. W. Allen, asking change in the new Hymn-book, the committee recommend a negative answer. Adopted.

4. On overtures from the Synod of Georgia and the Presbytery of Washbourne, asking the appointment of a day of humiliation, fasting and prayer, in view of the low state of religion within our bounds, the committee recommend an affirmative answer, and that the last Thursday in June be the day. Adopted.

5. On an overture from the Presbytery of East Hanover, asking that the second Lord's day in September, annually, be devoted to special prayer for the public and private schools of the United States, the recommendation of the committee, that the day above named be substituted for the third Thursday of February as the annual day of prayer for the youth in schools and colleges throughout our country, was amended so as to read, "The Assembly deems it unwise to take any action at present." Adopted.

6. On an overture from the Presbytery of Chickasaw, asking an amendment of the Book of Church Order touching the quorum of Synod, the committee recommend that the request be declined. This answer was put upon the docket.

7. On overtures from the Presbyteries of Louisville and Tuscaloosa, asking that provision be made for meeting the expenses of commissioners to the Assembly, the committee recommend that the answer be in the negative. Adopted.

8. On an overture from the Presbytery of Western District, asking that a committee be appointed "to prepare a catechism on the history of our church, for the especial benefit of our young people," the committee recommend that the request be granted, and that said committee report to the next Assembly. Adopted.

9. On a variety of overtures touching the catechism on the church, the committee recommended that the ad interim committee be continued, and that these overtures be referred to it.

Pending the consideration of this recommendation, and after devotional exercises led by Rev. S. F. Tenney, the Assembly had recess until 3 P. M.

3 P. M.

The Assembly met.

The following greeting was received from the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

NEW YORK, May 19, 1902.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session at Jackson, Miss.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session in New York City, cordially reciprocates your fraternal greetings. See Hebrews xiii. 20, 21.

HENRY VAN DYKE, Moderator.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

It was made the order of the day for to-morrow at 3 P. M. to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief.

The unfinished business—the consideration of the report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on the Catechism on the Church—was resumed. It was ordered that the overtures on this subject be referred to the existing ad interim committee, enlarged by the addition of the Rev. Drs. C. R. Hemphill, R. C. Reed, and E. C. Gordon, and that their report be made to the next Assembly, and sent down to the Presbyteries.

10. On an overture from the Presbytery of Maryland, asking the preparation of a pastoral letter in view of the decline of religion in the home, the Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended that the request be granted, and that this Assembly appoint a committee to prepare such letter. Adopted.

11. On an overture from the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, touching the dissolution of the pastoral relation in order to a convenient grouping of churches, the committee recommend that the Assembly declare such dissolution to be within the prerogative of Presbytery. Adopted.

12. On overtures from the Presbytery of New Orleans and the Synod of Louisiana, on boundary between the Synods of Louisiana and Mississippi, the committee recommend that the overtures be referred to the next Assembly. Docketed.

13. On overtures from the Presbyteries of Memphis and Arkansas, asking the transfer of territory from the Synod of Tennessee to the Synod of Arkansas, the committee recommend that the transfer be authorized, so that the boundary shall conform to State lines. Adopted.

14. On overtures from the Presbytery of North Alabama, asking a new edition of the Confession of Faith, the revision of the proof-texts, and the addition of a foot-note to Chap. III., Sec. 7, and to Chap. X., Sec. 3, the committee recommend a negative answer. Docketed.

15. On an overture from the Presbytery of East Hanover, asking that the words, "free from worldly care and avocation," be omitted from the form of call for a pastor, the recommendation of the committee, that the request be not granted, was put upon the docket.

16. On an overture from the Presbytery of Enoree, asking whether a Presbytery having the requisite number of ministers is under obligation to appoint four commissioners to the Assembly, the committee recommend an affirmative answer. Adopted.

17. On overtures from the Presbytery of Missouri and the Synod of Missouri, asking that the Book of Church Order be so amended as to authorize the installation of a pastor for a definite period, the committee recommend that an amendment to Chap. V., Par. 4, Sec. 6, be sent down to the Presbyteries, authorizing the employment of stated supplies by vacant churches until next stated meeting of the Presbytery, in cases where the formation of the pastoral relation is not practicable. Docketed.

18. On overtures from the Presbyteries of Norfolk, Central Mississippi, Cherokee, Roanoke, Florida, Lafayette, and Maryland, and from W. I. Sinnott, asking that the Book of Church Order be so amended as no longer to require a Latin thesis as a part of trial for licensure, the committee recommend that the prayer be granted. This answer was put upon the docket.

19. On overtures from Presbyteries, asking the appointment of another ad interim committee on commissions, the committee recommend that the appointment be made. Adopted.

The order of the day—the hearing of the appeal of the Rev. E. T. Hoge, from the Synod of Virginia—having arrived, the Moderator charged the court "to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they were about to engage." The record of the cause was then read. The parties were heard, first the appellant, second the appellee. The roll was called for the expression of opinion. The appeal was not sustained. Drs. Hemphill and Raymond and Judge Beckner were appointed a committee to bring in a minute setting forth the judgment of the court.

E. B. Witherspoon, counsel for Z. B. Graves, and W. McF. Alexander, for the Synod of Louisiana, united in presenting the following agreement in disposition of the appeal of Mr. Graves, which agreement was sanctioned by the Assembly:

Prof. Z. B. Graves hereby withdraws his complaint against the Synod of Louisiana, and agrees, within a reasonable time after the arrangement of his business, to enter some retreat for those of unsound mind, and to remain there till completely restored, provided that—

1. The Assembly will grant to him the sum of $150 per annum through the Invalid Committee, while he remains in the retreat, to purchase necessary delicacies for one in his physical condition.
2. The Assembly hereby enjoins the Synod of Louisiana to enjoin the Presbytery of New Orleans to restore him to the active work of the ministry whenever there is sufficient evidence of his complete restoration to mental soundness.

E. B. WITHERSPOON,
Counsel for Rev. Z. B. Graves.
W. McF. ALEXANDER,
Respondent for Synod of Louisiana.

On overtures touching infants dying in infancy, the Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report, which was placed upon the docket, and the consideration of which was made the order of the day for to-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M.

After prayer by the Rev. D. K. Walthall, the Assembly had recess until 8 P. M.

8 P. M.

The Assembly met, and, according to previous order, a popular meeting was held in the interest of Colored Evangelization, the Rev. W. Hayne Leavell, D. D., occupying the chair at the request of the Moderator. After devotional exercises, the report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization was read. The Assembly was then addressed by the Rev. D. C. Lilly, Prof. J. A. Lyon, C. D. McKinney, and J. J. Barrett. The report was docketed, and the Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Josephus Johnson.

FIFTH DAY.

ABSENT AND NOT VOTING.—J. H. Hammock, H. W. Carmichael, A. L. Whitfield, George Harden, C. E. Grafton, K. M. Mitchell, J. H. Dillard, C. H. Hamilton, P. R. Houpe, J. N. Robson, T. M. Sleeper, C. E. Hotchkin.—12.

The report, amended and adopted seriatim, was adopted then as a whole, and is as follows:

Eleven overtures have been placed in the hands of your committee relating to the subject of infant salvation. These overtures come from the Synod of North Carolina; from the Presbyteries of North Alabama, Washbourne, Fayetteville, Western District, Tuscaloosa, North Mississippi, Nashville, and Ebenezer, and from Rev. John W. Primrose, and Rev. John S. Shaw. All of them reveal more or less dissatisfaction with some parts of the action taken by our last Assembly touching the question of infant salvation, and express a desire to see our church authorize some positive statement as to the certainty of the salvation of all infants dying in infancy. The majority of said overtures ask this Assembly to rescind some parts of the action of the last Assembly. (See Minutes of 1901, page 59.) Others call for a declarative or explanatory statement which shall clear our church of the false charge that we teach or hold that at least some infants who die in infany are eternally lost; and yet others ask that this Assembly shall take the proper constitutional steps to have our Confession so amended as to make it affirm, in unmistakable terms, the salvation of all infants who die in infancy.

In response to these overtures your committee ask the Assembly to make answer as follows:

1. That the request to rescind the action of the last Assembly (Minutes of 1901, page 59) in regard to the foot-note, which was adopted by the Assembly of 1900, be respectfully declined, because the relief desired can be secured as effectively by other forms of action.

2. This Assembly is fully persuaded that the language employed in Chap. X., Sec. 3, of our Confession of Faith, touching infants dying in infancy, does not teach that there are any infants dying in infancy who are damned, but is only meant to show that those who die in infancy are saved in a different manner from adult persons, who are capable of being outwardly called by the ministry of the Word.

Furthermore, we are persuaded that the Holy Scriptures, when fairly interpreted, amply warrant us in believing that all infants who die in infancy are included in the election of grace, and are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit.

NEANDER M. WOODS, Chairman.

A paper in connection with the foregoing action was offered by the Rev. Dr. Edward Mack. It was put upon the docket.

The Assembly had recess until 3 P. M.

3 P. M.

The Assembly met, and proceeded to the orders of the day.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief made a report, which, after prayer by the Moderator for divine favor on this cause, was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee, to whom you referred the first annual report of the Executive Committee on Ministerial Relief, together with their minute book and copies of the Manual of By-Laws, and of their plan for an endowment fund, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined all these papers, and congratulate the church that this important branch of our benevolent work has at last won recognition, which it deserves, by securing the services of a separate executive committee; that all the Presbyteries, with one exception, have signified their intention to coöperate with the Assembly's committee in the future conduct of this business; and that under the present economical management the work of the said committee, as indicated in the first annual report, has made an auspicious beginning, having received in the last year nearly fifteen thousand dollars, the largest amount ever contributed to the cause, and gives promise of still better things to come.

Your Standing Committee, therefore, recommend—

1. That the Assembly, before taking action upon this report, shall be led in prayer by the Moderator, making suitable acknowledgment to the Head of the church for the measure of his blessing which he has vouchsafed to this work under its new management, and asking the guidance of his Spirit at this particular juncture of its history, that, as a court, we may decide wisely, and devise liberal things for its future conduct, and that he will incline the hearts of all our church officers and members to give this cause henceforth the sympathy and support which, in his sight, it justly demands at their hands.

2. That the minutes of the Executive Committee be approved as far as written, and the thanks of the Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered, for their faithful services to the said committee, and especially to Mr. S. H. Hawes, its secretary and treasurer, who, as a labor of love, has discharged the duties of that office with signal zeal and self-denial; to Mrs. Cannon, of Richmond, and Messrs. Moore, of Texarkana, and Gresham, of Baltimore, who have made liberal donations to the Endowment Fund; and to all the unnamed individuals and churches who have increased the said fund to its present amount of $5,000.

3. That the Assembly approve and adopt the manual containing the charter, by-laws and rules, which has been submitted for our consideration, with two slight amendments, viz.:

(1) That the phrase, "Its basis of work is not need, but service to the church," in the fifth line of rule 2, and wherever it may be repeated in the said rules, be changed to read thus, "Its basis of work is not simply need, but also services to the church."

(2) That the first part of rule 11 be changed to read as follows: "If the application for aid be for a widow of a minister, it may be made by the Presbytery with which her husband was connected at the time of his death, but preferably by the Presbytery within whose bounds the family resides at the time of the application," etc.

4. That, in response to the overture of the Presbytery of Atlanta, asking the Assembly to "require applications for aid to be made by the Presbytery in whose bounds the beneficiaries may reside," this Assembly refers the Presbytery of Atlanta to the second amendment to the rules above mentioned as a suitable and sufficient answer.

5. That the Assembly does again cordially approve the proposal for the accumulation of an endowment fund as speedily, as possible, which shall immediately become the main, if not the sole, source of income for the conduct of this relief work, and does hereby again commend the same to the prayerful sympathy and liberal support of all our ministers and members, hoping that many who have been blessed with ample means will be enriched with grace to follow the example already set by the few individuals who have started this Endowment Fund.

6. That the Assembly herewith approves and commends the plan, suggested by the Executive Committee, of monthly payments for five years, as the wise and workable method for a majority of our churches in accumulating the proposed endowment.

7. That the Assembly hereby requests all the Presbyteries and all the churches to appoint a permanent committee on ministerial relief in their respective bounds, who shall take this business under their special care, and, either on the plan suggested above (in the sixth recommendation), or in some other way that, to their judgment, may seem more effective and expeditious, secure an annual proportionate contribution to this Endowment Fund from every church, however weak, numerically or financially, so that, "by the experiment of this ministration," not only the want of these honored and faithful saints may be supplied, but "God may be glorified for their professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ."

8. That the Assembly hereby lays it upon the heart and conscience of all our ministers and elders to see that every church under their oversight is given an opportunity, during the month of July, to contribute to this cause, and that all diligence be used to raise for the next year not less than $20,000, which shall be apportioned by the Executive Committee to the two branches of the work.

9. That the Assembly, recognizing the fact that the work of the Home and School at Fredericksburg, Va., is virtually a branch of ministerial relief, hereby directs the Board of Trustees of the said Home and School and the Executive Committee on Ministerial Relief to take into consideration the wisdom and feasibility of consolidating these two branches of our benevolent work under one management, and to report on the question to the next Assembly.

10. That the Assembly proceed at this session to elect a secretary, who shall be appointed over this business, devoting his whole time to the work, and whose salary shall be fixed by the Executive Committee.

11. That the following persons, together with the secretary to be elected, be, and are hereby, appointed to constitute the Executive Committee for the ensuing year: R. Cecil, R. P. Kerr, J. Witherspoon, J. C. Stewart, George R. Cannon, J. S. Munce, C. D. Larus, S. H. Hawes, J. N. Cullingworth, W. R. Miller, and John A. Coke.

J. J. CHISOLM, Chairman.

It was ordered that an election for Secretary of Ministerial Relief be held to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries made a report, which was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Theological Seminaries beg leave to report that the following papers have been referred to it by the Assembly: The report of the Directors of Columbia Seminary, the report of the Trustees of Union Seminary, the report of the Presbyterian Seminary of Kentucky, the report of the Board of Trustees of Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary, together with a copy of the constitution and by-laws of that institution, the report of the Divinity School at Clarksville; overtures from the Presbyteries of Norfolk, Roanoke, and Central Mississippi touching the relation of the General Assembly to the Presbyterian Seminary of Kentucky, and an overture from Lafayette Presbytery on instruction in theological seminaries.

Columbia Seminary reports 25 students during the year, Union Seminary, 69; Kentucky Seminary, 51, and the Divinity School at Clarksville, 17. Total number of students in theological seminaries, 162.

The financial condition of all the seminaries is reported as being good, better than for some years past. The expenses at Columbia, Louisville and Clarksville have kept within the income, while the excess of the annual expense over the income at Union has been much diminished, and the trustees express the hope that this excess will soon disappear.

At Columbia a substantial and comfortable dining hall has been erected and paid for, which contributes much to the comfort of the students, and to the attractiveness of the seminary grounds. The Rev. Henry Alexander White, D. D., of Lexington, Va., has been elected to the chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and has accepted. It is recommended that his election be approved. The library now numbers more than 22,000 volumes.

At Union Seminary the refectory has cheapened the cost of living to the students, and gives them increased satisfaction. The want of a gymnasium is keenly felt, but the board has no funds for erecting one. The library numbers 18,000 volumes exclusive of pamphlets, periodicals and curiosities. The faculty expresses its concern at the manifest decline of instruction in Greek at colleges and academies, and the board requests Synods and the Assembly to exert their influence, as far as may be proper, to set a premium upon instruction in this language. The Assembly hereby calls the attention of our preparatory institutions to this matter, and urges that more diligence and care be given to instruction in Greek of candidates for the ministry.

The first annual report of the Presbyterian Seminary of Kentucky shows a well-equipped institution with six professors, a solid financial condition, and a thorough course of instruction. The board reports the death of the Rev. C. B. H. Martin, D. D., the efficient and faithful professor of Church History, near the close of the session; and also that steps have been taken to fill the chair made vacant by his death. The Board of Directors has adopted a form of constitution and by-laws for the government of the institution, and plans have been drawn looking to the erection of handsome new buildings.

The Austin Seminary has adopted a constitution, by which that institution is placed under the general supervision of this Assembly; it now has $100,000 of interest-bearing assets, and announces that it will be open for students on October 1, 1902, in the seminary buildings at Austin, Texas. The Assembly wishes this vigorous young institution God-speed, and heartily commends it to the patronage of that section of the church which it is designed to benefit.

The Divinity Department of Southwestern Presbyterian University is reported as being in a healthy condition.

In regard to the overture from Norfolk Presbytery, asking this Assembly to "decline to recognize any official or ecclesiastical oversight of the Kentucky Theological Seminary," and the overture of Roanoke Presbytery, asking this General Assembly to reconsider the action of the last Assembly, and withdraw its assent to the consolidation of the two seminaries in Kentucky, the committee recommends that the Assembly answer these two overtures in the negative, thus leaving the action of the last Assembly undisturbed.

In answer to the overture of the Presbytery of Central Mississippi, accompanied by a protest against the action of the last Assembly touching this matter, and asking certain questions relative to the rights of the Assembly in dealing with other denominations the committee recommends as follows: The first and second questions relative to the teaching of the standards as they now are, or as they might be modified in the future, and of the deliverances of the highest court of our church in our seminaries, are not germane to the subject of the consolidation of the two seminaries in Kentucky, as that matter lies within the power of the controlling Synods. To the third question, touching the right of the Assembly to grant authority to another denomination to pass upon the orthodoxy of our ministers, and to the fourth question, touching the right of the Assembly to receive reports from a seminary, in whole or in part under the jurisdiction of another denomination, the Assembly answers that these rights are involved in the constitutional right of the General Assembly to coöperate with other denominations in the prosecution of Christian work.

In regard to the overture from the Presbytery of Lafayette, endorsed by the Synod of Missouri, concerning the alleged insufficiency of instruction given in our seminaries to students on "the practical details of our Form of Government" in "such matters as the constitution of the courts of the church and their respective functions, especially as to the session and its duties," the Assembly hereby calls the attention of the instructors in our seminaries to this matter, and urges upon Presbyteries more diligence and care in the examination of candidates for the ministry upon the practical duties of church administration.

Respectfully submitted, RUSSELL CECIL, Chairman.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was made the fifth order of the day for this afternoon.

The Standing Committee on Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies made a report. Pending its consideration, the Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock P. M.

8 P. M.

The Assembly met, and, pursuant to previous order, held a popular meeting in the interest of Home Missions, the Rev. J. W. Walden,

D. D., in the chair at the request of the Moderator. After devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., and the Rev. C. A. Monroe, the Assembly was addressed by the Revs. S. G. Miller, J. D. Leslie, T. R. Sampson, D. D., and S. L. Morris, D. D.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions was made the first order of the day for to-morrow, and the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions the second order.

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Hemphill.

SEVENTH DAY.

May 22, 1902, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and was led in prayer by the Rev. E. L. Wilson.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

A communication from Mrs. H. T. Ellis, Secretary of the Non-Partisan Temperance Union, touching the omission of the quarterly lesson on temperance from the International Sunday-school series, was referred to the Standing Committee on Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies.

An overture from L. A. Hill, asking the Assembly to define the phrase "worldly conformity" in the narrative blanks, was referred to the Standing Committee on Publication.

Permission was given to B. F. Wilson and W. H. Sprunt to change their vote from no to aye on amending the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures touching infants dying in infancy.

The Committees on the Records of the Synod of Texas and the Synod of North Carolina reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

The Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented a report, which was put upon the docket.

The consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Church and Christian Education was made the third order for to-day.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures made a further report as follows:

In reply to a communication from a joint committee of Canadian and American churches, asking the Assembly's coöperation in preparing a uniform version of the Psalms in meter, your committee recommend the following answer:

In view of the fact that we have just adopted a new book of Psalms and Hymns, we courteously decline the invitation to coöperate in the proposed work. Adopted.

Your committee recommend that the overture from J. L. Williamson and others, asking the preparation of an edition of the Hymn-book for the use of Sunday-schools, be referred to the Standing Committee on Publication. Adopted.

To the communication from the National Reform Association, touching the observance of the second Sunday in September annually as a day of prayer for public and private schools, your committee recommend, in response, that our churches and homes observe the second Sunday of September in each year, as proposed, it being understood that this action shall not in any wise interfere with the observance of a day in February for a similar purpose. Adopted.

The answer of the Committee on Bills and Overtures to a communication from the Presbyterian Church in Australia, touching the traffic in liquor and fire-arms in the New Hebrides and the South Sea Islands, was put upon the docket.

The Auditing Committee made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Auditing Committee would respectfully report that they have examined the financial statements of the treasurers of the following Executive Committees: Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Publication, Colored Evangelization, Assembly's Home and School, and Education for the Ministry; also report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, and the report of the Treasurer of the General Assembly.

We find these reports all certified to as correct by their representative local auditing committees appointed by the Assembly of 1901.

We recommend that the following Auditing Committees be appointed for the years 1902–1903:

For Executive Committee of Foreign Missions.—George G. O'Bryan, Eugene Hollins, T. D. Webb.

For Executive Committee of Home Missions.—J. B. Daniel, W. R. Hoyt, Charles J. Martin.

For Executive Committee of Publication.—H. Swineford, B. C. Wherry, Edwin Pleasants.

For Executive Committee of Education.—George C. Mason, H. M. Neely, A. B. Hill.

For Executive Committee of Colored Evangelization.—W. E. Bingham, E. B. Nuzum, W. C. Harris.

For Executive Committee of Home and School.—S. G. Howison, Dr. J. M. Barney, George H. Morrison.

For Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief.—John Bolling, James Whittet, George L. Christian.

For Treasurer of General Assembly.—B. H. Owen, H. C. Merritt, J. M. Macrae.

Your committee recommend the election of the following Trustees of the General Assembly for three years: Rev. J. W. Stagg, D. D., A. G. Brenizer, Esq., George E. Wilson, Esq. And the following Trustees for two years: D. W. Oates, Esq., John R. Pharr, Esq., Rev. J. R. Howerton, D. D.

It was the intention of the last Assembly to elect the last three mentioned Trustees for three years, but through some oversight the General Assembly failed to elect them. They, however, acted in their capacity as Trustees until their successors were elected. (See Digest, page 333, Minutes of General Assembly of 1879, page 57.)

Your committee would recommend that, owing to the increased business of our church affairs, the salary of our Permanent Clerk be increased to $150 per annum, and that the salary of our Stated Clerk be increased to $500 per annum. This recommendation is made without any solicitation on the part of the Secretaries.

JOHN McSWEEN, Chairman.

The Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a report on the address of the Rev. Dr. G. D. Matthews, General Secretary of the Alliance of Reformed Churches Holding the Presbyterian System, which report was recommitted.

The committee to report a minute formulating the judgment of the Assembly on the appeal of the Rev. E. T. Hoge, from the Synod of Virginia, presented the following, which was adopted:

The committee appointed to formulate the judgment of the Assembly in the case of the appeal of the Rev. E. T. Hoge against the Synod of Virginia submits the following report:

It is the judgment of the General Assembly that the appeal of the Rev. E. T. Hoge be not sustained in any particular, and the decision of the Synod of Virginia affirmed.

C. R. HEMPHILL,
W. M. BECKNER,
T. W. RAYMOND.

Ruling Elder T. W. Coleman presented a protest against the Assembly's decision in the case of the Rev. E. T. Hoge against the Synod of Virginia. The protest was admitted to record without answer, and is as follows:

In the matter of the trial of Rev. E. T. Hoge on appeal from the Synod of Virginia, I, Thomas W. Coleman, from the Presbytery of Tuscaloosa, respectfully protest against what I claim to be an erroneous judgment of the General Assembly sitting as a court, for the following reasons:

The trial originated in the Abingdon Presbytery, which resulted in divesting him of his office as a minister without censure, as provided in Sec. 205 of the Book of Church Order. From this judgment an appeal was taken to the Synod of Virginia, which court affirmed the judgment of the Abingdon Presbytery. From the judgment of the Synod an appeal was prosecuted to the General Assembly, which Assembly, sitting as a court, affirmed the judgment of the Synod.

An examination of the record sent up by the Presbytery of Abingdon to the Synod, and by the Synod to the General Assembly, upon which the final hearing and trial was had, discloses the fact that there is not one particle of evidence in the record sent up by the Presbytery to the Synod, and that there is no evidence in the record sent up by the Synod to the General Assembly. It appears, therefore, that the judgments of affirmance by the Synod and by the General Assembly were founded solely upon the presumption that the Presbytery of Abingdon had committed no error, and not upon a record containing "the whole testimony."

Sec. 189, Chap. VI., of the Book of Church Order, specifically states what shall constitute the record of a cause on appeal. It says: "Minutes of the trial shall be kept by the clerk, which shall exhibit the charges, the answer, all the testimony [italics mine], and all such acts, orders and decisions of the court relating to the cause as either party may desire, and also the judgment. The clerk shall, without delay, attach together the charges, the answer, the citation, and return thereto, and the minutes herein required to be kept. These papers when so attached shall constitute the record of the cause. When a cause is removed by appeal or complaint, the lower court shall transmit the record thus prepared to the higher court. * * Nothing which is not contained in this record shall be taken into consideration in the higher court."

This section explicitly requires the clerk of the trial court to take down "all the testimony," and transmit it in the record to the higher court. Independent of this provision it is impossible for the higher court to consider the appeal intelligently, and arrive at conclusions, as provided in Sec. 262, without such a record.

We have then a case where the judgment of a trial court divesting an ordained minister of his office is affirmed upon a record, which did not contain any evidence whatever.

To meet the objection raised to the record it was contended that the proceeding was had under Sec. 205 of the Book of Church Order, and that under the following provision contained in this section, viz.: "Presbytery may, upon the same principle upon which it withdraws license from a probationer, for want of evidence of the divine call, divest him of his office," etc., and that the brother on trial either had no right to an appeal, or if he did, he was not entitled to the benefit of the record provided for in other cases of appeal. It is respectfully submitted that such a contention can find no support either in the Book of Church Order or upon reason. The above cited provision from Sec. 205, neither in terms nor in spirit, was intended to place the rights of an ordained minister and those of a mere probationer in the same category. Declaring the reasons or principles upon which a power is granted, has nothing to do with the procedure provided for the ascertainment of the facts which call for the exercise of the power thus granted. Principles of law and remedies for their enforcement are not identical. Sec. 140, the one referring to probationers, confers directly the power upon Presbytery to recall the license of a probationer at discretion, without trial, and from its decision there is no appeal.

Sec. 205, referring to ordained ministers, provides for a trial, and provides the procedure to be observed, and when the decision "is against him," gives the person an appeal as if he had been tried "after the usual form." I have stated the precise languages of the section. If he is entitled to an appeal, and trial after the usual forms, he is entitled to the record, including "all the testimony." This the brother who was tried did not have, and the judgment of the Presbytery of Abingdon has been affirmed merely upon a presumption of guilt, and not upon a record containing "the testimony," which authorized and justified the judgment and sentence.

Believing that this high court of the General Assembly fell into a grievous error, in that it did not have a proper record before it, I desire to protest, and request that this protest be spread upon the minutes.

In justice to myself I wish to add that I have not the acquaintance of the party tried, never saw him before the meeting of this Assembly. I have no sympathy with the reflection made by him upon the court and brethren who tried him. As an individual I believe there was ample evidence before the trial court, but surely the appellant was entitled to be heard in this court upon a record containing "all the testimony," and the judgment of this court ought to have such a record for its support.

Respectfully, THOMAS W. COLEMAN,
Commissioner from Tuscaloosa Presbytery.

The following paper was adopted:

Whereas, the record in the appeal of the Rev. E. T. Hoge against the Synod of Virginia does not show that he was assigned membership in any church, the attention of the Presbytery of Abingdon is called to this matter, and should it be true that the Presbytery failed to complete its action, it is hereby directed to assign Mr. Hoge membership in some particular church.

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath made a report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on the Sabbath received the report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath, Dr. James Stacy, chairman, and several reports of Presbyteries, which came direct to the General Assembly. We beg leave to submit that these reports present a more gloomy view of Sabbath observance than heretofore. The Sabbath is gradually losing its hold on the heart and conscience of the people in general. The strict views and practices of our fathers in the church are largely modified by the too lax faith and practice of our members to-day.

On the one hand, the question of the Sabbath day, and its observance is vital to national, social and religious life; on the other hand, we find that only a general interest is manifested in this subject. This is the sad condition of our church to-day, this church whose history has been made glorious because of its Sabbath-loving and observing people.

The reports indicate that nothing is being done in our church to arrest the mighty tide of evil against this day, beyond the ordinary testimony of our ministers and a few of the members, for the rightful use of the day, and against its desecration. There is no evidence that our ministers, God's "watchmen on the walls of Zion," are lifting up their voices and sparing not in warning, instruction and rebuke. The leaven of the worldly profanation of this day is surely at work in the church, and a compromise on the Sabbath obtains, when, in the nature of the case, there should be no compromise.

It is of general information that our State Sabbath laws are sufficiently explicit and direct to break up much of Sabbath desecration, but public sentiment in and out of the church is too weak to demand that these laws be enforced. Hence great corporations and humble citizens, the highest law-making body of the land, and officers of the law, persistently transgress the law of the Sabbath day. Traffic and travel, trade and amusements, reading of secular newspapers and books, are the ordinary forms of the sin of Sabbath-breaking.

But there is a bright side to this question. All the denominations are seriously considering the best ways and means of protecting this holy day. There are great interdenominational movements along this line. Sabbath leagues are being organized throughout our country; laboring classes are beginning to realize that the Sabbath as a day of rest belongs to them, and there is a growing demand for the enjoyment of this right; in cases of Sabbath traffic and travel certain railroad presidents and high officials have declared that neither is necessary, and that their abolishment by the company would be a stroke of economy; the agitation of this question is spreading far and near; these are a few of the signs pointing in the direction of a great Sabbath reform.

Your committee respectfully recommends—

1. That our ministers be urged to keep this subject constantly before the people, and that frequent prayer be made in public for the full restoration of this day, with its sacred rights and privileges.
2. That our members be exhorted to keep this day holy, according to the teaching of God's Word, abstaining from all forms of Sabbath desecration; and that they may build up, in every way possible, a healthy public sentiment on this subject.
3. That every session be urged to take up the question of Sabbath observance, and take such steps as will bring this question home to the minds and hearts of the members of the church.
4. That each Presbytery hold a popular service for the consideration of this subject.
5. That the present Permanent Committee be reëlected: Dr. James Stacy, Dr. T. H. Rice, C. P. Bridewell, J. P. Thurman, Esq.

S. G. MILLER, Chairman.

The Committees on the Records of the Synods of Alabama, South Carolina, and Missouri reported, recommending their approval. Adopted.

It was made the first order for to-morrow to consider the answer to the overture from the Synod of Missouri, asking the installation of pastors for a definite period.

The unfinished business—the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Sunday-schools and Young People's Societies, was taken up. The report was considered seriatim, amended, and adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies submit the following report:

There have been referred to the committee for its consideration the reports of the ad interim Committee on Graded Sabbath-school Lessons, the report of the General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, sixteen overtures touching a graded system of Sabbath-school lessons, one overture concerning the Shorter Catechism and Confession of Faith in the Sabbath-schools, the presbyterial reports on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and a communication from the Sunday-school Department of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

I. THE GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT.

The Assembly of 1901 ordered that the Executive Committee of Publication formulate a plan for the better organization and development of our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and that it elect and place in the field, as soon as the way is clear for his support, a suitable man, who should devote his entire time to the work. In obedience to this instruction, the expense of the new office being reasonably secured, the committee deemed the way clear, and proceeded to elect a General Superintendent. After careful inquiry to ascertain the mind of the church, and after due deliberation, the Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., was chosen. Dr. Phillips accepted the call, and entered upon the duties of the office August 15, 1901; and since that time has been engaged in the earnest and faithful performance thereof.

II. SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

1. Statistics. All seventy-nine Presbyteries sent up reports. According to these reports we have 2,324 schools, 20,808 officers and teachers, 152,264 enrolled scholars, making a total of officers, teachers and scholars, 173,072. Total of average attendance, 102,896; number admitted to the communion during the year, 5,034; contributed for current expenses, $59,016; contributed for other causes, $38,542; total contributions, $97,558. In comparison with last year these results show an increase in every item.

Nearly all the schools answer in the affirmative the questions as to sessional control, attendance of scholars upon public worship, the study of our standards, memorizing scripture, and the use of the church's publications; but only 215 report any special religious interest, and only 239 have teachers' meetings.

2. The Graded Course of Study. The General Assembly of 1900 appointed an ad interim committee to prepare and submit to the subsequent Assembly for its approval "a comprehensive, progressive, and graded system of Bible study" for the use of Sabbath-schools. This committee, failing to agree, presented three reports—a majority, signed by Joseph Hardie, J. K. Hazen and A. L. Phillips; a first minority, signed by E. C. Murray; and a second minority, signed by Charles Ghiselin. These reports were referred to this present Assembly, and have been carefully reviewed by your committee. Two main questions were considered, viz.: First, is it possible to introduce into our Sabbath-schools a graded system of instruction? Second, is the present International System of Lessons satisfactory, and shall it be continued? There was but one mind in the ad interim committee respecting the first of these points. All favored a graded course of instruction. Regarding the second point the majority report advocates the retention of the International Lessons, and sets forth various reasons therefor, but argues for a more strict and extended system of grading, while both minority reports recommend that the Assembly endeavor, by whatever means may be necessary, to have the present International Lessons so changed as to make them a comprehensive, progressive and graded system.

It is the judgment of your committee, that while there is a difference of opinion in the details of the reports, notwithstanding there is substantial agreement on the main questions.

3. Overtures. Seventeen overtures have come into our hands for consideration. Sixteen were concerning a graded system of instruction, and one concerning giving a larger space in our Sabbath lesson helps to the Shorter Catechism. Classifying the first group, we find that thirteen Presbyteries, to-wit, Central Texas, Roanoke, Orange, West Lexington, Fort Worth, Dallas, Upper Missouri, Arkansas, Asheville, Ouachita, Tombeckbee, Ebenezer and Atlanta, ask for a graded system; two, Macon and Chesapeake, express themselves as fully satisfied with the present lessons, and one, Red River, declines to recommend any action. Again, five favor the majority report of the ad interim committee, three the minority report, while eight do not express an opinion.

Your committee has carefully considered these overtures, and also the one from the Presbytery of Missouri, asking that our Catechisms and Confession of Faith be given larger space in our lesson helps, and gives answers thereto in its recommendations.

III. YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

The statistical reports of Young People's Societies are too incomplete for your committee satisfactorily to present tabulated results:

As directed by the last Assembly, the Executive Committee of Publication, together with the General Superintendent, planned for the better organization of Young People's Societies. Reports show that there is a very great diversity of organization and methods of work over the whole church. It was the judgment of the committee that an elastic and comprehensive organization should be devised, so as to embrace all forms of young people's work. To effect this the General Superintendent and the Executive Committee of Publication strongly recommend that amendments be made to the Form of Government of the Westminster League, in such way as to make it practicable to carry out the desire of the church.

We recommend—

1. The approval of the action of the Executive Committee of Publication in the election of Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., as General Superintendent.

2. The continuation of our former connection with the International Sabbath-school Convention.

3. A graded course of lessons for Bible study. (See suggested course.)

4. That the Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., principal, and Rev. J. K. Hazen, D. D., alternate, be appointed a committee to urge upon the tenth International Convention the wisdom of improving the present Lesson System, by reducing the time required to go through the whole Bible, by providing for closer historical continuity, and a more careful adaptation of the subject to the necessities of our pupils.

5. That the Committee of Publication prepare blanks on Sabbath-schools, so that they will embrace all the subjects approved and recommended by the Assembly.

6. That all books of reference and materials for use under the graded course be referred to the Executive Committee of Publication.

7. In reply to a communication from the secretary of the Sunday-school Department of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, this General Assembly reaffirms its scriptural stand upon the temperance question, but respectfully prefers to leave the matter of the Quarterly Temperance Lesson in our Sunday-school lesson papers to the discretion of the International Sunday-school Committee.

8. The adoption of the following amendment to the Form of Government of the Westminster League:

"The addition to the end of Art. II. of the following: 'Such as the study of the Bible; of prayer; of the religious uses of money; of missions; of personal religious work; the singing of sacred songs; the visitation of strangers and sick people; bringing new pupils to the Sabbath-school; the distribution of wholesome literature.'

"Let Art. III. be amended so as to include the following items:

"'Divide the members into two branches, one for males and one for females, holding their meetings separate, except as hereinafter provided.'

"Let it adopt the 'Covenanters' as the name of its male branch. Let each company be sub-divided into bands, that each band may have a special work, and each individual may be reached.

"Let the General Superintendent select a name for the female branch of which a chapter may be formed in each congregation. Let the chapter be divided into circles for special and individual work.

"Let there be joint meetings of these branches on the 4th of December (our denomination's birthday), and on the —— of June (six months after, and just before vacation), at which there may be social features in addition to reports presented, through the secretary of the joint meeting, concerning work done by each branch with a suitable brief address."

9. That the Committee of Publication prepare blanks for the Young People's Societies, separate and distinct from all other societies, embracing all subjects approved and recommended by the Assembly.

10. That the Synods and Presbyteries make suitable provision for holding conventions of young people where denominational fellowship and loyalty may be developed by our own ministers, and other proper persons.

11. That the Committee of Publication be directed to provide for sale, abundant literature for every phase of the young people's work.

S. C. BYRD, Chairman.

The order of the day having arrived, the Rev. I. S. McElroy, D. D., was unanimously elected Secretary of Ministerial Relief.

The Assembly proceeded to the next order of the day—the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions. Pending this business, the hour for devotional exercises arrived, which exercises were conducted by the Rev. H. C. DuBose, D. D.

The Assembly had recess until 3 P. M.

3 P. M.

The Assembly met.

The unfinished business—the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions—was resumed. The report of the ad interim Committee on Home Missions was referred back to said committee, with instructions to report to the next Assembly. The report of the Standing Committee, as thus amended, was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your committee has carefully examined the minutes and the report of the Executive Committee, together with the report of the Treasurer.

1. At the last General Assembly, Rev. Dr. S. L. Morris was elected Secretary of Home Missions. He has entered upon his work, and gives evidence, by the results reported to this Assembly, that his labors have been abundant and efficient, with God's manifest blessing resting upon them. When he formally began his work as Secretary, he found about $8,000 of debt to be wrestled with. The increase of $8,377.38 in receipts over the amount raised last year wiped out this debt, and enabled the work to be carried on without embarrassment. The amount raised is the greater when we note the fact that it was contributed by a smaller number of churches. For some reason, only 1,513 churches contributed to this cause, as against 1,544 during the previous year—the smallest number of churches contributing since 1896–'97.

2. The total receipts for the year for Home Missions gives us the sum of $35,293.78. Of this amount there was paid, money borrowed by General Assembly, $5,086.42, leaving as actually spent for this year's work, $24,538.44, leaving a balance in treasury March 31st (cash), $6,183.48, and one first mortgage gold bond, $1,000.

On the first of April, 1901, at the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, the treasury contained in cash for carrying on the Home Mission work $2,708.04, which was $6,525.87 less than the previous year, that showed a balance in treasury of $9,233.91. This deficiency of $6,525.87, together with the $2,000 appropriated by the instruction of the Assembly to Durant College building, made our committee have an extra amount to raise this year of $8.525.87. But the increase this year over the previous year has been $8,377.38, which almost exactly balances the account. If it had not been for this deficiency of the previous year, our Home Mission work would now be in a prosperous condition. As it is, we have only $6,183.48 with which to begin the year. The larger demands made on the committee for another year by the Presbyteries, and the necessity for advancing the work, will make it extremely difficult for the committee to meet its obligations the coming year, unless the church continues to respond liberally to the demands of work. It remains for the church to determine whether this much neglected work will continue to languish and struggle with debt, or be advanced with energy and activity commensurate with the needs of the church.

3. During the year the Invalid Fund passed into the hands of the Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief at Richmond, Va. The amount paid over to this committee, on July 15, 1902, was $914.51, the balance left of contributions after paying a draft of last year, appropriated for present year and expenses.

4. The work in the Indian Territory calls for special rejoicing. The mission schools are developing into a self-sustaining life, and the mission work has been greatly enlarged by the addition of new laborers. This rapidly growing country, with its opening doors, calls loudly for the best effort of the best men we can put in the field.

The accomplished establishment of Durant College is noted. Of the $11,000 spent upon the buildings, $2,000 was given by the Assembly of last year. A charter has been taken out, and titles of property made to the Trustees of the General Assembly. The charter and the constitution and by-laws of the college have been examined by us. The report of the Board of Trustees, referred to us by the Assembly, shows the enrollment of 375 during the session. A good faculty has been elected. While about $1,500 is needed for equipment of building, the board is able to report that the Assembly now owns a handsome college building, and two acres of campus, with two dormitories valued at about $14,000, with an institution now fairly launched, that promises great usefulness to the church, in the rapidly developing centre of population and influence.

5. Special attention is called to the work in New Mexico and Oklahoma, with its opening fields. The committee has made special arrangement for evangelistic work in Oklahoma.

6. The work in Arkansas, Florida and Texas is reported as very satisfactory.

7. The Mexican work in Texas has made splendid progress during the year. Three new churches have been organized. Rev. Walter S. Scott has received 110 on examination in his several fields. In the ten years of his work, he has organized ten churches, and has seen the membership grow from 50 to 603 in that time.

8. The ladies' societies have been useful in the contributions of money and boxes of clothes, and the individual support of men has been promised by a number of churches.

The following recommendations are made:

1. That the churches of the Assembly be called upon to give $50,000 to this great cause during the coming year, upon the same plan of apportionment as that recommended by last Assembly.

2. That a general evangelist be supplied by the Executive Committee, and, under its special direction, to labor in Oklahoma, and also, as superintendent of missions, looking to the organization of churches, and the general immediate advance of our work.

3. That the individual support of men, by churches and ladies' societies be encouraged.

4. That the sphere of Sabbath-school work be enlarged, so that the fifth Sabbath collection of the Sabbath-school may be used for evangelistic, as well as educational purposes.

5. That the overture of Louisville Presbytery, asking that the Executive Committee be made a bureau of information between vacant churches and unemployed ministers, be answered in the negative.

6. That the Rev. Dr. Thornton R. Sampson, who has already done large and fruitful work for Durant College, be authorized to raise $1,200 for the equipment of its buildings; that the Executive Committee be authorized to sell Assembly's interest in manse property of Durant Church to that church for $300, which amount to be applied to said equipment of Durant College.

7. That the following members constitute the Executive Committee for the ensuing year: Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., Secretary; W. A. Powell, Treasurer; Rev. C. P. Bridewell, Rev. T. H. Rice, D. D., Rev. A. R. Holderby, D. D., Rev. T. P. Cleveland, Rev. J. G. Patton, Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., Major John C. Whitner, W. P. Inman, M. A. Chandler, Hoke Smith, and Charles J. Martin.

J. W. WALDEN, Chairman.

It was made the first order to-morrow to hear the report of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

The second order for to-day—the consideration of the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions—was taken up. The report was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee on Foreign Missions respectfully submits the following report:

1. From all the information which has come into our possession, we have gratifying assurance that our Secretary of Foreign Missions, and the committee associated with him, have conducted this department of our church's work, during the past year, with great fidelity and efficiency.

2. Owing to the expense involved in returning to their fields an unusually large number of old missionaries, a smaller number of new missionaries were sent out during the year than usual. As our Executive Committee says, however, it is a matter for gratitude that we have old missionaries to send back, instead of being obliged to supply the places of martyred missionaries with new men.

3. The receipts for the cause show a slight increase over the past year, and are larger than ever before. They fall far short, however, of the wants of the cause, and of the ability of our people.

4. All our fields greatly need reinforcements; and all our churches are urged largely to increase their contributions. Two hundred thousand dollars are necessary properly to maintain our work at the point of development, which it has now reached; and, of course, much more is needed for that enlargement of it which our church should seek.

5. An overture from our missionaries in the Mid-China field, and from officers of the churches there, has been placed in our hands, asking the Assembly to permit them to form, on the basis of our standards, an independent presbytery, of which our missionaries shall be members, while, at the same time, they shall continue members of their respective Presbyteries in this country. To this overture we recommend the following answer: The Assembly sincerely sympathizes with our missionaries in the many and serious difficulties they have to encounter in their work, and which prompted this overture, but it does not see its way clear to consent to the formation of such a presbytery, because, in its view, such a presbytery, so constituted, would be contrary to our standards. It does, however, consent that our missionaries in that mission shall form a presbytery that shall afterwards come into connection with some one of our Synods, and remain in connection with it until a Chinese Presbyterian Synod is organized, when it shall have permission to connect itself with it.

6. Overtures from the Presbyteries of Pee Dee and Louisville, and from the members of our Cuban Mission, ask the Assembly, in view of the inadequacy of contributions, and for other reasons, to appoint a field secretary. This is asked, also, by our Executive Committee of Foreign Missions. Your committee recommends that a field secretary be elected, and nominates for the office the Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., of the Synod of Missouri.

7. Our Executive Committee makes the following request: Whereas, friends have provided funds to enable Dr. D. C. Rankin to make a visit to our Asiatic missionary stations, the Executive Committee asks the approval of the General Assembly in granting Dr. Rankin a vacation of six months, in which to make the trip, arrangements being made by the committee for his work during the time. We recommend that the approval asked for be granted.

8. The Assembly expresses its high appreciation of the services of Mr. W. H.

Raymond, a member of its Executive Committee, who, with efficiency and without compensation, managed the business of the Foreign Missions office during the absence of the Secretary in Brazil, and during his subsequent long illness; and the Assembly would be gratified if the Executive Committee, in some suitable way, and in its name, should express to him its sense of obligation.

9. The Assembly expresses its gratification that our Assembly has at last secured a perfect legal title to the mission property in Campinas, and it agrees with the Executive Committee that it should be used, according to its original design, for educational purposes. It, therefore, directs the committee to retain the building, and so much of the land as may be necessary for that purpose, and to sell the remainder, using the proceeds of such sale for the promotion of the same end.

10. The Assembly regards with satisfaction the efforts now being made to induce churches and individuals to support individual missionaries. It believes that this plan, properly managed, will result in largely increased contributions, and in greater practical interest in the great cause.

11. The Assembly desires again to express its appreciation of the excellent character of the literature sent out by our committee, and urges the churches to do all they can to secure its general circulation.

12. The Assembly is grieved to record in its minutes the death in Korea of one of its devoted young missionaries, Mrs. Eugene Bell.

13. The great event in our mission field in Mexico during the past year was the organization, in that country, of the Independent Synod by the union there of the churches connected with both branches of the Presbyterian Church in this country. According to the instructions of the last Assembly, the Rev. J. H. McNeilly, D. D., a member of the Executive Committee, took part as our representative in the interesting transaction. Thus in that field one great end of our work has been attained—the end aimed at in all counties—the organization of a native, independent, self-propagating church. Our Executive Committee is instructed to conduct its work hereafter in that country, as far as possible, through the agency of the new church thus brought into existence.

14. The minutes of the Executive Committee have been read, and show faithful attendance and efficient service on the part of the committee. It is recommended that their minutes be approved.

15. A communication from the Pozsony Reformed Presbytery, Hungary, was put into our hands, giving a history of the trials through which the Reformed Church in that country has passed, and soliciting assistance from this Assembly in the work in which it is engaged. We recommend that the Stated Clerk of the Assembly acknowledge the reception of this communication, and express, in the Assembly's name, its sympathy with that church in its struggles, and to impress the authorities of that church that we have done all that we could for their aid, which was to bring it to the notice of our Assembly, and to ask our ministers and elders to give it their consideration.

16. We recommend that the Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., be elected Secretary, and that the committee for the ensuing year be composed as follows: S. H. Chester, D. D., Secretary; J. H. McNeilly, D. D., W. M. Anderson, D. D., Angus McDonald, D. D., J. W. Bachman, D. D., C. R. Hemphill, D. D., J. H. Lacy, D. D., W. S. Jacobs, A. L. Phillips, D. D., R. J. Gordon, W. H. Raymond, G. H. Baskette, J. D. Blanton, W. S. Adams, R. E. Magill, J. F. Cannon, D. D.

G. B. STRICKLER, Chairman.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions, the Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., of the Presbytery of Upper Missouri, was elected Field Secretary of Foreign Missions.

The report of the Standing Committee on Church and Christian Education was taken up, adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Church and Christian Education begs leave to report that two papers have been placed in its hands:

1. The third annual report of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Church and Christian Education.

2. The report of the Assembly's Committee on the Twentieth Century Fund.

These reports show that ten of your Synods have undertaken to raise in behalf of Christian Education the sum of $1,720,000, and that the sum of $423,000, or nearly 25 per cent. of the amount desired, has been already secured. Moreover, one theological seminary, one college and six academies have been established, and four colleges and three academies have been projected. Several new Westminster schools have been organized, and some old schools have been reorganized. The Day School has been made a part of the Home Mission work in some of the Presbyteries, and in some places the public schools are opened with the reading of the Bible and with prayer.

In view of these facts, your committee would ask leave to make the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly express its sense of gratification because of the general campaign which is just now opening in behalf of both public and Christian education in the Southern States.

2. That the Assembly express its very deep sense of gratification because of the signal degree of success that has marked the movement in our church in behalf of the Twentieth Century Fund for Christian Education.

3. That the Assembly reaffirm its belief that our Synods and Presbyteries and congregations must bend every energy to maintain and extend the system of Christian education established by the founders of the Presbyterian Church. To this end the support and patronage of this Assembly will be given only to those academies and colleges in which biblical and spiritual instruction are combined with the usual courses of study in classical, scientific and literary subjects.

Your committee would recommend, further—

4. That the Assembly's Committee on the Twentieth Century Fund be continued.

5. That the Assembly's Committee on Church and Christian Education be constituted as follows: J. B. Shearer, D. D., chairman; J. W. Stagg, D. D., J. R. Howerton, D. D., A. J. McKelway, D. D., George E. Wilson, Esq., Egbert W. Smith, D. D., R. P. Kerr, D. D., L. H. Blanton, D. D., George Summey, D. D., F. T. McFaden, D. N. McLaughlin, F. H. Gaines, D. D.

6. That a public meeting in behalf of Christian Education be held in the First Presbyterian Church, Jackson, Miss., beginning at 8 P. M., Thursday, May 22, 1902.

Respectfully submitted, HENRY ALEXANDER WHITE, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Publication was taken up and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee of Publication and Colportage submits the following report, based mainly on the forty-first annual report of the Executive Committee of the Assembly.

We have the pleasure to note that there has been an increase in the sales in the department of the depository, over the sales of last year, of a little more than twenty per cent., and that a considerable portion of this increase is due to the sales of our new Hymn-book. Also that measures have been adopted looking to a much wider diffusion, among our people and the public generally, of information in regard to our work, and our facilities for supplying them with literature.

Many valuable new issues have been added to our publications during the year, and your committee would mention, with peculiar gratification, that, through the generous liberality of Mrs. S. E. Lapsley, the executrix of the estate of the Hon. J. W. Lapsley, deceased, the copyright of the life of the Rev. S. N. Lapsley, our pioneer missionary in Africa, together with the stereotype plates and unsold edition, has been placed in our hands, the value of the gift being about $500.

Your Standing Committee would call special attention to our new Book of Psalms and Hymns, in two editions, a music edition and one of words only. The book is highly satisfactory in all respects as the book for our people, and your committee would urge that the Assembly would insist that it be used as the accepted book of praise in all our churches and Sabbath-schools, and in all the homes and worshipping assemblies of our people, especially as this is now the only hymn-book to which this Assembly sustains any business relations. We would recommend the early publication of a cheaper edition of the words only, at the discretion of the Executive Committee, and express our great pleasure at the increased subscription of all our papers.

We recommend the following:

Whereas, The new Psalms and Hymns, compiled and edited by Rev. J. W. Walden, D. D., chairman; Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., Rev. W. L. Lowrance, Rev. A. W. Milster, D. D., Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., Rev. T. H. Rice, D. D., Major John C. Whitner, secretary, and Professors Joseph MacLean and John P. Campbell, musical editors, appointed by a former General Assembly, has now been completed and published, and, whereas, we now have, through their labors, one of the most complete and perfect hymnals in existence, be it hereby

Resolved, That this Assembly, in recognition of the efficient services and arduous labors of this faithful committee, do hereby, in the name of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, extend most heartfelt thanks to these brethren, feeling sure that the church will long continue to rejoice in their labors, through the use of these glorious psalms and hymns and spiritual songs.

Your Standing Committee highly commends the wisdom of the selection of the Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., as our General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and would strongly commend him to the confidence and hearty coöperation of all our people.

The Executive Committee well says that "if the benefits of this new departure in our work are realized, provision must be made, not only for the support of the Superintendent, but for the energetic prosecution of the Sabbath-school missionary work under his charge." The committee bears the highest testimony to the energy, zeal and earnest purpose with which the General Superintendent has taken up this work, and urges that his recommendations may receive from the Assembly the most careful consideration.

It is much to be regretted that, because of the failure of our churches to supply the necessary means, our Sabbath-school mission work has been virtually suspended during the past year, and yet no part of our work has been as fruitful of results as this. It is hoped, however, that, by means of pledges made for this special purpose, we may have as many as twelve young men in the field during the coming summer.

Owing to the demands of the different parts of our benevolent work, and especially that of our Sabbath-school missionary work, there is great need for increased contributions to these objects. We find that 1,933 of our churches have contributed nothing to the general cause, leaving only about one-third of our churches and Sabbath-schools, which have contributed anything to this cause during the past year, and only 297 of our Sabbath-schools are reported as having rendered their aid.

In view of these facts, and the urgent needs of the cause, the Assembly would most earnestly insist that the churches, Sabbath-schools, and societies make increased contributions to all these objects in the future.

These three great needs are specially commended to their attention and liberality, viz.: More patronage for our business department, more means for our benevolent work, and larger collections on Sabbath-school Day for our Sabbath-school missionary work.

In answer to various overtures, your committee recommends as follows, viz.:

1. Overture from the Presbytery of Louisville, regarding Hymn-book, is answered in the body of this report.

2. In answer to overtures from the Presbyteries of Charleston and Suwanee, in regard to the publication of Easter cards, we recommend that this Assembly disapprove the use of Easter cards and like literature in our Sunday-schools.

3. To an overture of the Presbytery of Western Texas, complaining of the inferior quality of picture cards furnished to the Sunday-schools, we recommend this answer: We find that the cards have been greatly improved since the issue of the cards complained of.

4. The Presbytery of North Alabama overtures the General Assembly to instruct the Committee of Publication to cease the publishing of the Sunday-school lessons on the fourth page of the Children's Friend, and substitute therefor good and wholesome reading matter. We recommend that this overture be granted.

5. In regard to the overture from the Presbytery of Lafayette, in reference to the manner of distributing the minutes of the General Assembly, your committee would recommend that the present methods be continued.

6. Overture from the Presbytery of St. Johns, asking the Assembly to furnish blanks. We recommend no change in the present method.

7. In reply to an overture from L. A. Hill, asking a definition of the phrase "worldly conformity," in the narrative blanks, we would answer: By "worldly conformity" is meant conforming to the sinful practices of the world. See Rom. xii. 2, and 1 John ii. 15 and 16.

Having examined the minutes of the Executive Committee, we find them carefully kept, and recommend their approval, as far as written.

We recommend also that the Executive Committee for the following year consist of the following members: Rev. James P. Smith, D. D., Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., Rev. S. K. Winn, D. D., Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D. D., Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., Hon. B. R. Wellford, Jr., M. M. Gilliam, Esq., R. A. Lancaster, Esq., John S. Munce, Esq.,

J. G. Tinsley, Esq., and the Rev. James K. Hazen, D. D., as Secretary and Treasurer.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

E. H. RUTHERFORD, Chairman.

The special committee to canvass the returns from the Presbyteries on the overtures sent down by the last Assembly, made the following report, which was adopted:

JACKSON, MISS., May 22, 1902.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

Your special committee, appointed to consider the responses of the Presbyteries to the amendments sent down by the General Assembly of 1901, for their advice and consent, would respectfully report that we have examined the returns, and find that the amendment to Secs. 179 and 215 of the Rules of Discipline, relating to commissions, received the votes of twenty-six Presbyteries in its favor, and was disapproved by forty-nine Presbyteries, and is, therefore, lost.

The amendment to Par. 82 of the Book of Church Order, relating to synodical quorums, was approved by fifty-seven Presbyteries, and disapproved by eight Presbyteries, and is, therefore, carried.

In view of the foregoing action of the Presbyteries, we would recommend the adoption of the following resolution, to-wit:

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, sitting in Jackson, Miss., May 22, 1902, hereby declares that the amendment to the eighty-second paragraph of the Book of Church Order, relating to synodical quorums, and found on page 45 of the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1901, and which is in words and figures as follows, viz., "Provided, further, that in the case of a Synod composed of only three Presbyteries, any seven ministers representing any two Presbyteries, together with three ruling elders, shall be a quorum," has been adopted by a large majority of the Presbyteries, as shown by their official reports to this body, and said amendment is, therefore, hereby declared to be a law of the church. Several Presbyteries, as reported, advise further consideration of the subject of commissions, but we regard these suggestions as in the nature of overtures, and not within the scope of our powers. They properly go to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

We beg leave to suggest that, in future, clerks of Presbyteries should, in reporting actions taken with reference to amendments sent down for the advice and consent of Presbyteries, give the number of votes cast for and against same.

Respectfully submitted, W. M. BECKNER, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overtures of the Synod of Louisiana and the Presbytery of New Orleans, touching the boundary between the Synods of Louisiana and Mississippi, was taken from the docket, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

Whereas, The General Assembly, in session at Little Rock, Ark., exceeded the specific request of the Synod of Mississippi in the matter of the division of the Synod of Mississippi into two Synods; therefore, the General Assembly, in session at Jackson, Miss., does hereby modify the action of the last Assembly, in so far as it affects the boundaries of the Presbytery of Louisiana, so as to leave the counties of Amite and Wilkinson in the Synod of Louisiana.

The report of the Standing Committee on Education was taken from the docket, adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education for the Ministry respectfully reports:

The papers put into our hands were, the report of the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry, the records of the same committee, the report of the Treasurer, and an overture from the Presbytery of Chickasaw.

From the report of the Executive Committee, we learn that 162 beneficiaries have received aid this year, of these 89 are theological students, pursuing their studies in five seminaries, and 73 are in twelve colleges. The total amount received, as shown by the Treasurer's report, is $13,579.19, as compared with $11,579.29 at the same time last year.

It is gratifying to note that the Executive Committee was able this year to pay the beneficiaries thirteen and a third per cent. more than the maximum of $75 promised at the beginning of the year. This is the first time in years that your committee has been able to do this.

We note another gratifying fact, the Executive Committee was able this year to close its books on March 31st, thus bringing this committee into harmony with our ecclesiastical year. Heretofore it has not been able to do this.

Your committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry be commended for its wise, diligent and faithful performance of the duties assigned to it, and that its records be approved.

2. That the Assembly approves the action of the Executive Committee in increasing the maximum appropriation of $75 to $85, without referring it to the Presbyteries, when late in the year they learned that the receipts would justify the increase.

3. That the Assembly approves of the action of the Executive Committee in closing its books on March 31st for this year, and directs that in the future this committee shall close its books on March 31st, thus conforming to the ecclesiastical year of the Assembly.

4. The Assembly again urges upon the Presbyteries the duty of being careful in the reception of candidates for the ministry, and enjoins them, in doing so, to follow the directions adopted by the Assembly of 1895, in Dallas Texas (page 424).

5. That the Assembly directs its Executive Committee to endeavor to raise at least the sum of $30,000 for this cause during the coming year, and hereby authorizes the committee to apportion an equitable amount of the same to each of the Presbyteries.

6. That the overture from the Presbytery of Chickasaw, asking that the Assembly return to the plan, abandoned a few years ago, of aiding students in preparatory schools, be answered in the negative.

7. That the Assembly expresses its appreciation of the courtesies extended to the Executive Committee by Mr. S. P. Read and Mr. G. W. Macrae.

8. That the Assembly again calls the attention of the church at large to the insufficient number of candidates for the ministry, and enjoins upon the church the duty of praying the Lord of the harvest to send forth more laborers into his harvest.

9. That the Assembly hereby appoints as the Executive Committee of Education for the Ministry for the year 1902–'03: Rev. Joseph H. Lumpkin, D. D., Secretary; G. W. Macrae, Treasurer; Rev. W. H. Neel, D. D., Rev. Neander M. Woods, D. D.,

Rev. Sterling J. Foster, Thomas Wellford, S. P. Read, J. S. Davant, C. H. Albright, William E. Holt, Rev. W. W. Akers, Rev. W. L. Caldwell, Rev. W. Moore Scott.

Respectfully submitted, W. McF. ALEXANDER, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on the Narrative was read and adopted, and is as follows. (See Appendix.)

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, answering in the negative the overture from the Presbytery of East Hanover, which asked that the words, "Free from worldly cares and avocation," be omitted from the form of call for pastor, was taken from the docket and adopted.

Assembly had recess until 8 o'clock P. M.

8 P. M.

The Assembly met, and held, as by previous appointment, a popular meeting in the interest of Church and Christian Education, the Rev. Dr. Henry Alexander White in the chair by request of the Moderator. After devotional exercises, conducted by Dr. White and the Rev. T. Jacobs, the Assembly was addressed by the Rev. T. R. Sampson, D. D., and Dr. White.

The paper offered by Dr. Mack was taken from the docket, amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Resolved, That the order given to our Executive Committee of Publication by the last Assembly (as printed in the Minutes of 1901, page 59) for publishing the report adopted by that Assembly, touching the subject of infant salvation, be hereby countermanded, inasmuch as a vital part of said report has been rescinded by this Assembly; and that the Committee of Publication is hereby instructed to print, in leaflet form the second recommendation of the Standing Committee of Bills and Overtures, which was adopted by this Assembly (see report), and to send the same to the ministers of our church.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on overtures touching the Latin thesis as a part of trial for licensure was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

Your committee have had placed in their hands overtures touching the Latin thesis required by our Form of Government of candidates for licensure, as found in general Par. 132, all of which express a desire to see the Latin thesis removed from the list of part of trial. These overtures come from the Presbyteries of Norfolk, Central Mississippi, Cherokee, Roanoke, Florida, Lafayette, and Maryland, and from the Rev. W. I. Sinnott.

To these overtures your committee recommend the following reply:

This Assembly does hereby recommend and send down to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent the following amendment to the Form of Government, Chap. VI., Sec. 6, Sub-sec. 4, otherwise designated as general Par. 132, to-wit: from the sentence marked 1, and reading, "A discussion in Latin of a thesis on some common head of divinity," strike out the two words "in Latin," so that the sentence will read, "A discussion of a thesis on some common head of divinity."

The Assembly adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Closed with prayer by Dr. Walden.

EIGHTH DAY.

May 23, 1902, 9 o'clock A. M.

The Assembly met, and was led in prayer by Ruling Elder L. A. Hill.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

Ten o'clock this morning was fixed as the time for selecting the place at which the next Assembly shall meet.

The committee to prepare a pastoral letter on the decline of family religion made a report, which was adopted, and ordered to be read in the churches, and the Executive Committee of Publication was directed to publish fifty thousand copies and distribute them among the pastors and churches.

The Rev. I. S. McElroy, D. D., expressed his thanks for the manner in which he was elected Secretary of Ministerial Relief, and stated that his decision would be given to the committee at an early day.

It was ordered that the next Assembly meet at Lexington, Va.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on the overtures from the Synod of Missouri and the Presbytery of Missouri was taken from the docket. Its consideration was arrested by its reference to the next Assembly.

The Moderator announced the ad interim Committee on Ecclesiastical Commissions as follows: R. P. Farris, D. D., A. C. Hopkins, D. D., S. M. Smith, D. D., A. B. Curry, D. D., and the Rev. J. D. Leslie.

The report of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

The Assembly has listened with pleasure to the address of Rev. George D. Matthews, D. D., the General Secretary of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches, and expresses its continued interest in the united work of the Presbyterian Church.

We note with pleasure the appointment of Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., of Richmond, Va., as chairman of the Western Section.

We recommend that the sum of $495 apportioned to our church for the expenses of the Alliance be paid.

Also that the attention of the Synods be called to the resolution adopted by the Western Section, as to "the necessity for the adaptation of the Home Mission work to the changing conditions of our population."

We rejoice in the movements towards union in the mission churches of the Presbyterian faith and order in Asia, and recommend that these bodies be represented at the meetings of the Council.

A communication from the new Synod of Mexico has been referred to your committee. We rejoice in the good work of our sister church, and pray that the Lord will add unto her number daily of such as should be saved.

The following are nominated to represent the Presbyterian Church of the United States at the Liverpool Council:

COMMITTEE TO FILL VACANCIES IN DELEGATES TO THE ALLIANCE.—Neander M. Woods, D. D.; G. W. Macrae.

H. C. DUBOSE, Chairman.

The committee's response to the letter of the delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America was adopted, and ordered to be transmitted.

The majority and minority reports of the same committee, on the overture from Augus McDonald and others, touching organic union with the Reformed Church in America, were taken from the docket. The majority report was adopted, and is as follows:

In answer to the overture of pastors and ministers residing in Nashville, Tenn., concerning the appointment of a committee to consider the advisability of organic union with the Reformed Church of America, your committee is of the opinion that a question of such grave importance should come before the Assembly in a more official manner; therefore, we deem it inadvisable to take action until the desire of the two churches is more definitely known.

H. C. DUBOSE,
W. R. TAYLOR,
A. D. CHAMBLIN.

A telegram was received from the session of the First Church, St. Joseph, Mo., asking the Assembly to reconsider the action by which their pastor, the Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., was elected Field Secretary of Foreign Missions. The Assembly respectfully declined to reconsider.

The report of the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause was taken from the docket, considered seriatim, adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Bible Cause would respectfully report that due consideration has been given to the pleasing and instructive address of the Rev. W. I. Haven, D. D., representing the American Bible Society, and to the several communications referred to us.

We rejoice in the measure of prosperity enjoyed by the society, and deplore the fact that so few of our churches have contributed to that prosperity.

Sharing as we do the benefits of the society in translating and circulating the sacred scriptures, we should help to sustain the said society as one of our agencies. It is one of the most important causes of the church, not only because it mainly supplies the heathen world with the scriptures, but because there is in our country a large foreign element not familiar with English, and the Bible in their tongue is the only means by which we can reach them. It is to be deplored, therefore, that the cause is so generally neglected.

We recommend, therefore—

1. That the society be cordially endorsed and commended to the church.

2. That the pastors, at some convenient time during the year, be advised to preach a sermon on the Bible, and in connection with the sermon to give to their respective charges a statement concerning the objects and work of the society.

3. That pastors and churches be again reminded of the collection for this cause, and be urged to see that the same be taken, and that the third Sunday in October be set apart for that purpose. H. S. YERGER, Chairman.

The report of the Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization was taken from the docket. In connection with its consideration, the Assembly was addressed by the Revs. R. H. Alston and J. M. Coleman, colored commissioners. The report was adopted seriatim and as a whole, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Colored Evangelization, to which has been referred the report of the Executive Committee, would respectfully report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in session at Jackson, Miss., May, 1902, that the reports and records of the Executive Committee have been examined, the records are found to be carefully kept, and the reports show gratifying progress.

From our churches, Sunday-schools, etc., the committee received during the past year only $6,493.89, and from other sources, $1,232.17, making a total of receipts of $7,726.06. The expenditures were $9,017.77. But for the balance in the treasury March 31, 1901, the Executive Committee would have been unable to meet the demands of the work. The church is manifestly far too indifferent to the claims of this very important work. An examination of the statement of receipts discovers the fact that only two churches in the whole Assembly gave as much as $100 for this work, and that only four Presbyteries gave over $200, while forty-eight Presbyteries gave less than $100.

The report shows that we have 53 ministers, 3 licentiates, 10 candidates, 2,204 communicants, an increase of 333; Sunday-school scholars, $3,147, an increase of 412, and that the eighty-six churches (six more than in 1901) contributed for self-support $3,010, nearly double the amount given four years ago, which goes to show that the colored churches are steadily improving and definitely making progress toward complete self-support. It is believed that if the Executive Committee should be put in possession of larger funds, a very positive advance along all lines would be made under the wise and efficient administration of the committee.

The Executive Committee has arranged for the purchase of the Ferguson-Williams College at Abbeville, S. C., in conjunction with the Synod of South Carolina, has assisted in building houses of worship at Texarkana, Ark., Tuscaloosa, Ala., Memphis, Tenn., and Dry Pond, Ga., and in the purchase of one in Nashville, Tenn., and has made appropriations for repairs on some other church buildings.

At several points new work has been begun under favorable conditions; the colored mission Sunday-schools, officered and taught by white workers, are showing themselves to be an efficient and admirable way to influence the colored people; and the industrial feature has been firmly fixed upon all the educational institutions.

In Stillman Institute it is proposed, beginning with the session to open next December, to put the students entirely upon their own resources as to their support while attending school—a proposal which seems feasible, and is altogether admirable.

It is not practicable, within the limits of a brief report, to make mention of all that has been and is being done. We have pointed out enough to show how very important is the work committed to this Executive Committee, and with what efficiency it is carrying that work forward.

Your committee here records its belief that no undesirable results in a social or industrial way have come, or are likely to come, from the spiritual contact of our people with the colored people in the Sabbath-school taught by white teachers, but that, on the contrary, a kindlier and better feeling between the two races is brought about, and we do most cordially and earnestly commend it to our people as a great and effectual means of evangelizing the negro race.

The Rev. S. P. Verner has been elected assistant teacher in Stillman Institute.

The Hon. J. W. Lapsley, an honored and useful member of the Executive Committee, has passed to his reward.

We recommend—

1. That the Assembly approve of the policy of the Executive Committee in fastening the industrial feature so firmly upon all of its educational work, and ask from all our people their sympathetic interest in, and support of, this kind of negro education.
2. That the churches be urged to give more generously and generally to this work.
3. That the zeal, fidelity, sound judgment and efficiency of those in charge of this interest be commended.
4. That the Executive Committee be composed of Rev. D. C. Lilly, Dr. E. H. Sholl, Rev. L. S. Handley, D. D., Rev. J. A. Bryan, Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., Hon. John H. Miller, Rev. John Van Lear, Rev. Neal L. Anderson, Rev. J. G. Snedecor, Gen. R. D. Johnston, and Judge T. W. Coleman; and that the Rev. D. Clay Lilly be reëlected Secretary.

Respectfully submitted, WILLIAM HAYNE LEAVELL, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, in response to a communication from the Presbyterian Church of Australia touching the prevention of the traffic in liquor and fire-arms in the New Hebrides and the South Sea Islands, was taken from the docket, and amended by the Assembly's decision that no action is called for, inasmuch as our civil authorities had already moved to prevent the traffic.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on an overture from the Presbytery of Chickasaw, asking certain changes in the law touching the quorum of Synod, was taken from the docket and adopted, and is as follows:

In view of the adoption of the amendment touching the quorum of a Synod by the Presbyteries, sent down by the last Assembly, this Assembly declines to grant this request. NEANDER M. WOODS, Chairman.

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures, declining to grant overtures from the Presbytery of North Alabama, touching a new edition of the Confession of Faith, the revision of proof-texts, and the addition of foot-notes, was taken from the docket and adopted.

The report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence was taken from the docket, considered seriatim, and adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence would respectfully report that we have carefully tabulated all the information which has come to our hands. We report that the following Presbyteries failed in making their reports as follows: Two made no report at all—Central Alabama and Indian; three others did not report the number of churches giving to the various causes: Ethel, Columbia, Florida. Seven did not report how many churches gave to all, to eight, to seven, etc., of the causes: Holston, Bethel, Ethel, Paducah, Wilmington, Augusta, and Charleston. Three, in making their report, made errors, growing out of evident misunderstanding of the plan; two in not giving number of churches contributing to all eight, seven, etc., of the causes, viz., Fayetteville, and East Alabama, and one in naming the causes—Wilmington. The totals are as follows:

	No. Churches.	Amount.
Foreign Missions,	1,806	$129,343
Assembly's Home Missions,	1,560	27,576
Local Home Missions,	1,867	126,015
Colored Evangelization,	1,239	12,358
Relief Fund,	1,443	17,544
Education,	1,570	126,388
Publication,	1,278	8,820
Bible Cause,	676	4,734

As compared with last year, this is a gain or loss as follows:

	No. Churches.	Amount.
Foreign Missions,	Gain, 153	Loss, $3,130
Assembly's Home Missions,	Gain, 46	Gain, 6,490
Local Home Missions,	Gain, 23	Gain, 6,130
Colored Evangelization,	Loss, 44	Gain, 1,333
Relief Fund,	Gain, 44	Gain, 1,252
Education,	Gain, 72	Gain, 46,062
Publication,	Gain, 151	Gain, 564
Bible Cause,	Gain, 5	Gain, 1,377

We rejoice to note a gain in the number of churches giving to all the causes, except Colored Evangelization, and a gain to all the causes, except Foreign Missions. But we show but small gain over the reports of five years ago. This should call for serious consideration. We note that the churches have contributed to the various causes as follows:

520 to 8 causes, as against .... 483 last year.
270 " 6 " " .... 307 "
170 " 5 " " .... 270 "
168 " 4 " " .... 224 "
152 " 3 " " .... 269 "
161 " 2 " " .... 256 "
222 " 1 " " .... 287 "
612 " 0 (No report last year.)

This is better than last year, showing an increase in the average number of causes contributed to by the several churches.

As to enforcement by Presbytery of presentation of causes, 30 call upon churches for reasons for failure to contribute, 16 do not, and 30 made no statement.

We note with regret that nearly one-third of our churches gave to no cause whatever, and that but few Presbyteries endeavor to remedy this.

We recommend that the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be directed—

First, to call the attention of all Presbyteries, which do not endeavor to secure reasons for failure to contribute, to the fact that the Assembly has noted their failure to do their duty, and urges on them fulfillment of the orders of the Assembly.

Second, to call attention of the Stated Clerks of all the Presbyteries, which made no report, or imperfect ones, to the fact that the General Assembly has noted this neglect of duty, and urges attention thereto next year.

In reference to the overture from the Presbytery of North Alabama, touching the time for collections for Bible Cause and Sabbath-school work, we report as follows:

We call attention to the fact that three collections are set for October: Foreign Missions, Sabbath-schools, and Bible Cause. Inasmuch as the Sabbath-school Committee will report concerning the time for the Sunday-school collection, we make no recommendation, but suggest that the Sunday-school collection be changed to November.

DANIEL S. GAGE, Chairman.

The following resolution of thanks was adopted by a rising vote:

The Assembly would hereby express thanks—

1. To the various railroads and other transportation companies for reduced rates and numerous courtesies extended to its members.

2. To the reporters of the several newspapers, in which fairly accurate accounts of the proceedings have been published.

3. To the citizens of Jackson, who, with generous hospitality, have made us welcome to their homes.

4. To the several churches of other denominations, whose Christian fellowship we have enjoyed.

5. To the pastor, officers, Committee of Entertainment, members of the churches of Jackson, in general, and to the young ladies, in particular, in charge of the postal department—to one and all, who have left nothing undone to make our sojourn a pleasant and profitable one.

Upon them all, as well as upon the entire people of the city, we invoke the blessing of God. May the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ be their God and Father, both for this world and for that to come.

6. That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the press for publication, and that they be read from the pulpit of this church on Sunday.

The Committee on Leave of Absence made the following report, which was adopted:

The Committee on Leave of Absence would report that it has granted leaves of absence as follows:

After morning session of 19th, to J. J. Wilson; after night session of 19th, to T. D. Theobold, John McCoy, John E. Park, J. N. Craig; after morning session of 20th, to George Harden; after night session of 20th, to J. N. Robson; after noon session of 21st, to D. B. Fant, J. A. Cromartie, E. S. White, and T. M. Sleeper; after night session of 21st, to R. K. Muirhead, H. M. Smith, H. W. Carmichael, J. E. Adger, A. D. Chamblin, J. M. Apple, R. M. Carter; after noon of 22d, to T. W. Coleman, J. D. Wyker, L. J. Wilson, A. W. Murray, .J D. Hutton, L. A. McLean; after night of 22d, to W. H. Busey, E. A. Crawford, D. A. Coleman, J. E. Thackston, G. W. Curtis, H. C. Kegley, W. S. Baker, Peyton Irving, H. H. Dean, D. L. Adams, T. W. Raymond, J. D. Faucett, J. F. McNair, John McSween, R. M. Alexander, A. W. Crawford, H. A. White, W. W. Sadler, J. McC. Forbis, J. G. McFerrin, J. P. Sharpe, A. L. Du Pre, W. H. Sprunt, C. H. Hamilton, P. R. Houpe, J. A. Branner, R. N. Hewitt, L. A. Sharpe.

J. J. GRIER, Chairman.

By a rising vote, the Assembly expressed appreciation of the services of the Moderator, and the Stated Clerk, Permanent and Temporary Clerks.

The minutes of to-day's session were read and approved.

It was ordered that this Assembly be now dissolved, and that another Assembly, chosen in like manner, shall meet in the Presbyterian Church, in the city of Lexington, Va., on the third Thursday of May, 1903, at 11 o'clock A. M.

Closed with singing, and with prayer, and the benediction by the Moderator.

ROBERT P. FARRIS, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM A. ALEXANDER, Stated Clerk.

APPENDIX.

I. NARRATIVE ON THE STATE OF RELIGION.

The material from which the narrative is framed is very full and satisfactory. Of the seventy-nine Presbyteries belonging to our Assembly, seventy-seven have sent up reports. The testimony upon the points embodied is conspicuous and notable for its unanimity, indicating a condition, or spirit, which pervades the whole church, not materially affected by local environment. This condition is in some particulars wholesome and hopeful. But in those facts and forces upon which the life and growth of the church and of its members are dependent, there is patent ground for pause, consideration and concern.

1. The reports indicate an almost universally good attendance upon the services of the sanctuary, especially upon the morning of the Lord's day. A frequent lament of the neglect of the second service, and of the mid-week prayer-meeting, shows that the Lord's people do not love or long for the courts of the Lord.

2. The family altar and family worship, the safeguard and bulwark of religion and of our church, are generally neglected, and the covenant-keeping God is publicly recognized and worshipped in comparatively few of the homes of our people.

3. There is an outward observance of the Lord's day, for the most part, by the members of our church; yet there is broad ground to fear that the Sabbath is not "called a delight, holy unto the Lord and honorable." Many continue to "find their pleasure on God's holy day doing their own ways and speaking their own words."

4. There is a sad and alarming neglect of parental instruction in the word of God, which is largely, almost wholly, turned over to the Sabbath-school, where there is some compensation in the faithful work of godly teachers. This substitute and expedient of modern times, however good, cannot, and ought not to, take the place of the God-ordained means of rearing a godly seed.

5. As compared with sister churches and with previous periods of our own church, our people generally are more faithful in their stewardship of the Lord's gifts, and are giving more liberally and systematically to the support and extension of the kingdom of God. As compared to the great increase of wealth in the hands of our people, and to the growing and pressing opportunities for the proclamation of the gospel, there is an urgent demand for greater faithfulness and consecration of wealth.

6. On the subject of payment of pastors' salaries, there is a most gratifying testimony, showing that, with very few exceptions, our churches have been honest, and have met their covenant obligations to their pastors.

7. Very few churches report any seasons of gracious revival and large ingathering of precious souls. Some report wholesome growth in grace in the hearts of their people.

8. Worldliness, alas! like a blight, has pervaded and sapped the life of our churches, which have been moulded by, rather than helpfully moulded, the spirit of the age. God's church, in most communities, has ceased to be to him a peculiar and separate people.

9. In only a few instances have our pastors and churches, beginning from the Jerusalems of their own pastorates, gone down to the Samarias adjacent, preaching Christ unto the people. In some cities a few churches maintain mission and ministries to God's poor.

10. As a rule, our regular churches are supplied with the stated ministry of the word.

A careful review of our church by the means of these reports would seem to indicate that, like the church of Ephesus, there are in us many things which the Master would commend; but that he must have "somewhat against us, because we have left our first love"; and that through our ministers, he calls upon us "to repent and do the first works." There is an imperative demand for men who, in the spirit of Elijah, shall "turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to the fathers, lest the Lord come and smite the earth as with a curse."

There is a call for Nehemiahs, who shall practically and positively protest against Sabbath desecration, and publicly and pointedly rebuke Sabbath-breakers. It behooves our Assembly, while commending our people for obedience to some of God's commands, to solemnly and earnestly remind them of their sins, and to utter a loud and urgent call to repentance, that "times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord."

II. ABSTRACT OF THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

This year, as in all previous years, we are called upon, first of all, to make thankful acknowledgment of God's manifest blessing on all our church has tried to do through this department of its work for the spread of the gospel among men.

In Africa although our force of workers there is smaller than for several years past, the number of professed conversions has been greater than in any previous year, and greater than at any other field in the present year. Both at Luebo and Ibanj there has been an almost continuous state of revival in the work throughout the year. In China, at all the stations, our returning missionaries received a warm welcome from the people, and have found more readiness to hear the gospel than ever before. The favorable change in the attitude of the upper class is very marked. They found all their property untouched, and all their members waiting for them, no one of them having been frightened by danger or threat of persecution into the denial of the faith. The Korean Mission has been greatly weakened by the necessary home-coming of several of its members; but those who remained found everywhere an open door, and the native Christians are showing the same spirit of self-help that has characterized them from the beginning.

In Japan, the spirit of revival has prevailed in all of the churches, and a widespread interest in the gospel has in many places been shown among the people. The best result of this movement is said to be, not the large ingathering of new members, but the communication of a new spirit of activity to the whole Japanese church, and the elevation of its spiritual tone.

The great event of the year in Mexico was the organization of an independent Synod by the union of the churches connected with both branches of the Presbyterian Church. According to the instruction of the General Assembly, Rev. J. H. McNeilly,

D. D., a member of our committee, went, in the month of July, to the City of Mexico, and took part, as our church's representative, in the organization of the Synod. His report to the Assembly is herewith submitted. Both in this field and in Brazil, the Presbyterian Missions have gone far toward the accomplishment of the end we have in view in all foreign mission fields, the establishment of independent, self-governing and self-propagating native churches. For many years to come we shall need to assist both of these churches fully as much as we are assisting them now, in their evangelistic work, which is too great for their present strength and resources, and especially in the development in them of institutions for Christian education and training of their native ministry. But in both of them the work we have already done has been so blessed that, if we were now compelled to withdraw from them altogether, the churches we have planted would live and grow.

According to the instruction of the last Assembly, the Secretary was sent by the Executive Committee to visit our missions in Brazil. The time occupied in this visit was from the first of June to the middle of October. During this time the work of the office was most faithfully and efficiently conducted by Mr. W. H. Raymond, a member of the committee.

One purpose of the visit was to assist in the final settlement of the questions connected with our property at Campinas. The committee is happy to report that we now possess a fee simple title to the whole of this property, consisting of about ten acres of ground, beautifully situated in the resident part of the city, and of a large brick building, which, with a small outlay for repairs, can be put in good condition, and will be capable of accommodating a school of seventy-five boarding pupils and an indefinite number of day pupils. It is the judgment of the committee that this building, and about three acres of ground immediately around it, should be utilized for school work, and that as soon as a suitable man, and the means for his support, can be found, there should be established at Campinas a Christian school, the privileges of the boarding department being limited to the children of the Protestants, the day school being open to the children of the citizens of the place without distinction. Our judgment is that the remainder of the ground should be sold as opportunity offers, and the proceeds applied to the maintenance of such other educational work as we may find it necessary to carry on in connection with our work in Brazil. The part of the property which it is proposed to sell has been laid off in city lots. According to the rates at which some of the lots have been already sold, the estimated value of this part of the property is about $35,000.

We are able to report the close of another year without debt. The receipts from all sources were $164,883.00. This is $1,826.71 more than the receipts of last year. The amount advanced to the missions on the appropriations for the present year was $4,495.02.

Dividing the amount disbursed by the number of missionaries gives the total cost of the work per missionary. This cost includes home administration, outfit, travel and salaries of missionaries, house building, and property purchased and rented, school and medical work, publication and colportage work, pay of native assistants, and all incidental expenses. The average cost for the past five years has been between $950 and $1,000 per missionary.

The number of paying subscribers on the mailing list of the Missionary at the close of the year was 9,829. This is one less than the number at the close of last year. Copies were sent free to all our ministers and missionaries. The list of paying subscribers to the Children's Missionary is 4,875, as against 5,351 at the close of last year. Four thousand copies of the Prayer Calendar were issued.

Copies were sent free to all our ministers and missionaries, and about 2,000 copies were sold. The cost of printing and distributing the three publications was $6,761.81, and the receipts from subscriptions were $6,042.09, the income from this source being less than the cost by $719.72.

Owing to the expense involved in returning an unusually large number of old missionaries to their fields, a smaller number of new missionaries were sent out than usual. Rev. H. Maxcy Smith and Miss M. B. McCollum were sent to China, and Miss Janet Carmichael, formerly of the China Inland Mission, was received and appointed by the Executive Committee for the work in the hospital at Soochow.

Mrs. D. W. Snyder was compelled, by failure of health, to return home from Africa, and this involved necessarily the retirement of Rev. D. W. Snyder from the work of that mission. The Korean Mission was bereaved by the lamented death of Mrs. Eugene Bell.

The Congo boat has been in operation through the year, except for a few weeks, during which it was detained at a point between Leopoldville and Luebo by an accident to the rudder. The committee has been unable as yet to get a complete statement of the cost of operating the boat for the year. The amount given as a probable estimate, and appropriated for that purpose for the present year, is $2,000. This does not include the salary of the missionary in charge, nor the cost of possibly necessary repairs.

With a view of bringing the home churches in closer relations with the mission field, the effort has been made to enlist as many of them as possible in the support of individual missionaries. It is believed that by proper effort the number of missionaries supported by individuals may be largely increased. There are enough strong churches within our bounds, well able to assume the support of all the workers on our roll who are not thus specially provided for, thus leaving a large fund from the contributions of the smaller churches, with which to undertake new work and send more laborers to the field. In almost every instance where churches have undertaken this special object work, their contributions have been largely increased—sometimes as much as two or threefold.

Every one of our fields urgently needs reinforcement. There is also need of increased expenditure in all our fields in the work of training ministers and leaders for the native churches. The best results from our medical work in China and Korea are not attained because our missionary doctors are not supplied with proper facilities. But unless the church will increase its annual contribution to this cause very considerably, none of these needs can be met. The average cost of the whole work per missionary being about $1,000, the number of missionaries being 166, and our income for the past year being $164,833, it is a mathematical certainty that without a larger income we cannot increase the number of missionaries, nor the expenditure for other departments of the work, without involving our treasury in debt.

In order that we may make real advance, instead of merely marking time from year to year in this great work, the Executive Committee earnestly asks at this time of the General Assembly the appointment of an additional secretary for Foreign Missions, whose whole time shall be given to work among the churches. That the labors of a man properly qualified for such work would be welcomed by the churches is manifest from the fact that the present Secretary has for the past four years been able to answer only a small proportion of the calls coming from pastors, churches and missionary societies for his services. The duties of this officer, properly defined, would not in any way interfere with the prerogative of the church authorities to whom the raising of funds is wisely committed by our constitution. His work should be to visit the churches as invited, give information of the work and its needs, give special attention to vacant and non-contributing churches, but only engaged directly in the work of raising funds when authorized or requested to do so by the authorities of the local churches.

Apart from the general good that would be accomplished in stimulating interest and zeal and prayer, the committee believes that the financial results of such work would go far towards relieving us of the embarrassment under which we are now constantly laboring, and would render unnecessary the numerous special appeals that have recently been inevitable by reason of such embarrassment.

III. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

Elected by the last General Assembly Secretary of Home Missions, to succeed the lamented Dr. Craig, I accepted it as the call of God, but entered upon the work in much fear and trembling, in view of the responsibility of the office, the discouragement of the work, and the debt resting on the committee. The whole case, with all of its peculiar environments, was laid before God, and undertaken and carried on in humble reliance on his grace and strength; and with profound gratitude we record the fact that he has wonderfully blessed the work, as is manifest in this report. The debt has been wiped out; the increase in contributions over last year has been $8,377.38; the work has been enlarged, and we enter the new year with larger plans and with better hope.

For Home Missions the receipts have been: From contributions, $30,911.69; from Loan Fund, $290.26; legacies, $4,041.83; interest on railroad bond, $50. Total receipts, $35,293.78.

The expenditures were as follows:

For support of 6 missionaries among the Mexicans; 75 ministers and 206 churches in Texas; 20 ministers and 47 churches in Arkansas; 11 ministers and 21 churches in Indian Territory; 18 ministers and 44 churches in Florida; 1 minister and 4 churches in Mississippi; 1 minister and 3 churches in Georgia, and the support of 8 schools in Indian Territory. The entire number of ministers and teachers supported, in whole or in part, was 132, and the whole number of churches aided, 325.

Owing to the debt of last year, and the increased demands of the work, requiring the occupying of new fields, the Executive Committee could not appropriate but small amounts in the way of donations to assist in building new churches, helping only the most urgent. Those assisted were Cliff Top, W. Va., Aspermont and Port Arthur, Texas, St. Petersburg, Fla., Monroe, Miss., amounting to $545.75, and with the $1,000 paid Durant College, making a total of $1,545.75.

The fund of $5,000, left and intended by Mr. Moore to aid feeble churches to erect houses of worship, the money being loaned at 3 per cent. interest, has been very helpful to at least a score or more of churches. During the year four churches have availed themselves of this opportunity of getting assistance. There is now out $2,105.35 secured by mortgages, and on hand, $2,717.10 in cash.

Receipts for the Invalid Fund from contributions, $1,866.97 from April to July, which, after deducting expenses, overdraft on previous year, and appropriations on present year, was, by order of the last Assembly, turned over to the Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief at Richmond, Va. The amount paid over to it was $914.51, on July 15, 1901. Since that date several thousand dollars have been received by this office for that cause, which have been promptly forwarded to the committee at Richmond without charge.

The past year has been, perhaps, the best in the history of our work in the department of mission schools in Indian Territory. We have maintained 8 schools, aggregating 17 teachers and nearly 900 pupils. Of these, about half have developed into self-sustaining schools, and the Secretary, in his visit to the Territory last September, made new contracts materially reducing the expenses, so that it practically costs only about $1.00 per scholar for the entire nine months; and this is provided by the children of the Sabbath-schools in the fifth Sabbath collections. The only hindrance has been the interruption of two or three schools by small-pox.

Durant has erected, by the encouragement of the last Assembly, a handsome brick college, costing about $11,000. Of this amount, $2,000 were donated by the Executive Committee of Home Missions upon the instruction of the Assembly.

The charter has been drafted, and a meeting of the Board of Trustees called for May 7th, to adopt the charter, and transfer the titles to the Trustees of the General Assembly. The college has had six professors and nearly 300 students; and when the new building is completed, it will doubtless enter upon a career of great usefulness, under the wise management of President E. Hotchkin.

Cameron has a stone building, which cost $2,000, and has done fine work under Professor Lacy and his assistants. It has not only improved the moral tone of the town, but made it almost impossible to rent a house in the place.

The mission work in Indian Territory has been carried on by the same men as heretofore, and has been greatly enlarged by the addition of Rev. W. P. Dickey at Durant, Rev. W. H. McCullough at Caddo, and Rev. Erskine Brantly at Poteau, vacated by Rev. J. A. Paisley. In addition to these pastors, we secured the services of Rev. C. E. Paxson as evangelist, who has done good, faithful work. For all the new churches organized by him we have provided supplies; and buildings will be erected with all possible promptness. The outlook for growth in the Territory is bright.

By reason of the scarcity of funds, the committee has not attempted the enlargement of the work in New Mexico; but the development of Oklahoma has been so phenomenal as to demand special attention. The last Assembly instructed the committee to investigate the practicability of undertaking evangelistic work in that inviting field. The Secretary made a tour of the country, visiting Shawnee, Oklahoma City, El Reno, Anadarko, Lawton, etc., and found that in many of these splendid cities our opportunity is lost, and our people have gone into other folds; but in other places the fields are white to the harvest. The committee has secured the services of Rev. H. S. Davidson for evangelistic work in Oklahoma as an experiment. He will investigate the needs and prospects of that new section. His salary and expenses have been secured from private sources. This is as far as the committee feels justified in venturing at present.

The large bulk of the Home Mission funds are spent in the Synods of Arkansas, Florida, and Texas, and the work has been very satisfactory. The Mexican work in the Presbytery of Western Texas made splendid progress during the year. It is in charge of two evangelists, Revs. Walter S. Scott, and R. D. Campbell.

Mr. Scott reports the organization of three new churches in his field. He has now nine churches in his field; 505 communicants, 18 elders, 15 deacons. One hundred and ten members were received on examination, 60 of whom were baptized; 45 were received on certificate. Thirty-four children were baptized.

In Mr. Campbell's field there are two churches and two Sabbath-schools, which have kept up well during the year, despite the removal of quite a number of members, owing to the drouth in that section, and the consequent scarcity of labor.

The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies have done a noble part in the work of ministering to the needy in the Lord's work. Besides their gifts in money, amounting to $1,506.32, eleven societies have furnished boxes of clothing, etc., for the families of our home missionaries, etc. Others have engaged to support, in whole or in part, a home mission in the West, which will greatly assist the work.

Five churches and societies have promised to support men in the field.

Several new churches have been organized in sections unoccupied hitherto, and arrangements made for their supply. Rev. John A. Williams has been employed as evangelist for the Chickasaw Nation of Indian Territory. Rev. H. S. Davidson has been engaged for an advance into Oklahoma. The Presbyteries are asking for nearly $10,000 more than we can grant. The committee ought to have the $50,000 asked by the last Assembly, as the very lowest amount adequate to the demands of the work.

S. L. MORRIS, Secretary.

IV. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY, FROM MAY 6, 1901, TO MARCH 31, 1902.

Your committee would respectfully report that at the beginning of the year they apportioned to the Presbyteries $30,000 to be raised for this cause, and requested each to endeavor to secure and send to our treasury its pro rata of the same.

Seventy-six of our seventy-seven white Presbyteries are now co-operating fully or partially with your committee. The total receipts, as shown by the Treasurer's report, are $13,509.19, as compared with $11,579.29, at the same date last year.

We have enrolled and aided this year 162 beneficiaries, as against 166 last year. These are under the care of sixty Presbyteries. Of these, eighty-nine are theological students, pursuing their studies in five seminaries, to whom we appropriated $7,445.00, and paid $7,442.50. Seventy-three are in twelve colleges, to whom we appropriated $5,967.30, and paid $6,027.30. Total appropriations, $13,412.30. Total payments, $13,499.80. Although we have paid in full all appropriations, the discrepancy between appropriations and payments, as shown above, is accounted for by two facts: First, some beneficiaries either abandoned their studies, or found they would not need the whole of the appropriations made in their behalf, and, therefore, received only their proportionate part. Second, in addition to the regular appropriations, we received $545.00 as special contributions for particular students, which we disbursed as we were instructed by the donors, and which sum is included in the above payments, but not in the appropriations.

At the beginning of the year, knowing that much effort was being made to secure an increase in the number of candidates for the ministry, and trusting that an increase might be realized during the ensuing year, we began with the usual appropriation of $75.00 to each beneficiary as the maximum. We paid in full, or the pro rata due, appropriations made on this basis, and on March 31st had a balance in the treasury, which enabled us to increase the original appropriations by 13 1-3 per cent. This we did, and we gave all beneficiaries then pursuing their studies, and expecting to continue to the end of the scholastic year, the benefit of this advance. Thus we actually gave this year $85.00 as the maximum, instead of $75.00, which was the maximum for several years past.

In another respect, also, your committee feel that a decided advance in this work has been made this year. That is, in the fact that we were enabled to close our books March 31st. For several years we needed every cent of the April collection that we could possibly secure in order to meet the demands of the closing year. Consequently our books were kept open until the latest practicable date prior to the meeting of the Assembly. But the use of the April collection in connection with that of the preceding November, as constituting the receipts for the year, put the work of this committee out of the limits of our ecclesiastical year, and out of harmony with the general work of the church. This year, however, we have met our financial obligations without drawing upon the April receipts, and if you so authorize, the year of this committee will be henceforth from April 1st to March 31st.

It is with sorrow that we report again decline in the number of beneficiaries. Though we have only three less than were enrolled last year, it is cause for profound regret and concern that we have not many more than we have had for many years. Although much has been said in recent years about this decline, it is manifest that it does not yet sufficiently impress itself upon the church.

So far as we have information of the candidates now in preparation, they are worthy men, and give reasonable promise of becoming faithful and efficient laborers.

While no serious results of large proportions have been realized by admitting unworthy men into the ministry, or to preparation for it, through our beneficiary aid, it is gratifying to note that the Presbyteries are making more careful efforts than formerly to secure as candidates only manly men, whose call to preach is at least supported by their good character, approved piety, and intelligence. But it remains for us to seek not only more men, but also more ample provision for such as may need and deserve financial help.

As for years past, the Union and Planters Bank, of which Mr. S. P. Read, a member of your committee, is president, has permitted us to use, without charge, its rooms for our monthly meetings, and the Memphis National Bank, of which your Treasurer is president, has given us, without cost to the committee, all necessary exchange.

V. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

We are glad to state that the work of the year has been one of average prosperity. In the department of sales, we find that there has been an increase over the sales of last year of a little over twenty per cent. A considerable portion of this increase is due to sales of the New Psalms and Hymns. During this year measures have been adopted looking to a much wider diffusion of information among our people in regard to our work, and our facilities for supplying them with literature. By a system of direct and personal advertising, we hope to reach all our reading people, and to secure their patronage and their hearty support in every way of this enterprise of the church.

The list of issues from the press is largely made up of small tracts, leaflets, etc., etc., but it also includes some volumes of importance, among which may be mentioned The Threefold Fellowship and The Threefold Assurance, by Dr. B. M.

Palmer; a new edition of Discourses of Redemption, by Dr. Stuart Robinson, and the New Psalms and Hymns.

There has also been added to our list of valuable publications during the last year The Life of Rev. S. N. Lapsley, our pioneer missionary in Africa. This comes into our possession through the generous liberality of Mrs. S. E. Lapsley, executrix of the estate of Hon. J. W. Lapsley, deceased, the value of the gift being about $500.

Under the order of the General Assembly of 1900, as found in the Minutes of that year, page 630, the Executive Committee has published the New Psalms and Hymns in two editions, viz., a music edition and an edition of the words only. It was expected that the book would be placed in the hands of the Executive Committee quite early in the year 1901, but, for reasons explained in our last report, the manuscript did not come into our hands, so that a contract could be made with printers, and work begun on it, until the first week of June. Under our contract with them they should have begun the delivery of the book the first week in December, and this they would have done but for the fact that a most important part of the index did not reach them until very near that time, and this caused several weeks' delay. Our first edition of the music was 5,000, and of the words only, 10,000. Before the first edition began to be delivered, it became evident, from the number of advance orders, that a second edition of the music would be required. Another 5,000 was, therefore, ordered, and would have been delivered early in March, but the editorial committee, desiring to make the book as perfect as possible, corrected the text of the first edition, which caused another delay of nearly a month, which was a trial of our patience, as well as that of many of our patrons.

From what has thus far been said, it is manifest that the new book has received a warm reception from our people. The criticism that has come to us has been most favorable, and the sales and advance orders to the date of this writing, 8,000 of the music and 12,000 of the word edition, have surpassed our expectation.

We believe that the church has a book at last of rare excellence, which may be used not only in the Sabbath worship of the sanctuary, but also in the home, the prayer-meeting, and the Sabbath-school. It should be made the book of praise of the church in all its departments of service.

There has been a steady increase of subscriptions of all our papers:

Earnest Worker,	246,000
Children's Friend,	1,175,000
Pearls for the Little Ones,	975,000
Lesson Quarterly,	150,000
Primary Quarterly,	70,000
Lesson Papers,	900,000
Pictorial Lessons,	100,000

Plans for the better organization of our Sabbath-school work have engaged the attention of the church and the General Assembly for several years past. The Assembly of 1900 sent down to the Presbyteries for action the question of the employment of a man who should devote his entire time to the development of our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies. The Assembly of 1901 found, from the returns sent up, that the Presbyteries approved the measure by a large majority, and, while that Assembly did not see its way clear to elect such a man, in adopting the report of its Standing Committee on Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, it directed the Executive Committee of Publication to select a

General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and "put him in the field as soon as the way is clear for his support."

The Executive Committee of Publication interpreted these instructions as meaning that the will of the Presbyteries was to be carried into effect provided the expense of the new office for the first year was reasonably secure. In the judgment of the Executive Committee, this was the case, as there was already in hand the proceeds of the collection taken in October, 1900, for this purpose, and pledges from Sabbath-schools and individuals for more than as much more—in all, sufficient to meet a large proportion of this expense. It was further believed that the collection asked of our Sabbath-schools in October, 1901, would be more generously responded to than the previous one, as was actually the case. The Executive Committee, therefore, deemed the way clear to proceed at once in the election of a General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and after careful inquiry to ascertain the mind of the church and due deliberation, Rev. A. L. Phillips, D. D., was elected to that office, and entered upon its duties August 15, 1901. His salary was fixed at $2,000 per annum. His report for the period intervening, to April 1, 1902, is herewith submitted as a part of this report. A careful examination of this report, and a fair consideration of the work done and the plans proposed, will, we think, convince the Assembly that the Executive Committee has made no mistake in making this appointment, and we may add that the welcome that has been extended, and the commendation that has been given to his work in all parts of the church, give great encouragement to hope for an adequate pecuniary support of his work in the future.

The Executive Committee desires to bear testimony to the energy and zeal and earnest purpose with which the General Superintendent has taken up this work, and to urge that his recommendations may have at the hands of the Assembly the most careful consideration.

As was indicated in our last annual report, we were unable, because of lack of contributions from the churches for this purpose, to continue the prosecution of Sabbath-school mission work during the last summer, and no attempt has been made to prosecute the work during the past year, except that the committee has paid the salary of Rev. H. E. Brown for three months in Montgomery Presbytery as a Sabbath-school missionary.

No part of our work has been as fruitful in results as the Sabbath-school mission work. The experience of two years has revealed its possibilities; and the only reason for its discontinuance was the fact that there was absolutely no response from our churches and Sabbath-schools to meet the limited expense of the work. It is hoped, however, that, by means of pledges made for this special purpose, we may put in the field a few young men during the coming summer.

The colportage work has been continued during the last year with seven colporteurs employed, to-wit: Rev. James Arthur, in Virginia; John G. Barkley, in Kentucky; J. K. Coit, in North Carolina; Rev. W. N. Dickie, in Texas; I. P. Powell, in Missouri; Rev. L. H. Query, in South Carolina; Rev. J. C. Smith, in Alabama. Number of days employed, 1.483; miles travelled, 22,122; Sabbath-schools organized, 6; Sabbath-schools visited, 154; prayer-meetings held, 78; addresses delivered, 171; sermons preached, 232; families visited, 5,392; value of literature distributed, $4,160.30; total expense, $3,614.

The amount appropriated to donations during the last year is about $500 less than was given last year, being $4,659.64. A large number of new Sabbath-schools and mission fields, and some very needy churches, have received timely help. Included in these donations is the value ($626.25) of 642 Bibles and 1,221 Testaments awarded for the perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism and the Introduction to the Shorter Catechism by children of our Sabbath-schools during the last year.

The demand that has been made upon our funds by all the different features of our benevolent work, including the expense of our General Superintendent of Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, is $10,102.26, an amount exceeding by $138.55 the amount contributed to the cause during the ecclesiastical year.

We are glad to report the whole amount of collections for the year as $9,963.21, or $2,268.85 more than last year. This excess is due in part to the collection ordered and taken in a good number of our Sabbath-schools the first Sabbath in October last, and in part to a legacy of a little over $1,200. Only 1,058 churches and 297 of our Sabbath-schools have contributed anything to this cause during the past year.

The Treasurer's report, herewith presented, shows an increase in the net assets of the committee of $4,384.43, making the total amount $121,412.37.

ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF A. L. PHILLIPS, GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT OF SABBATH-SCHOOLS AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES, TO THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PUBLICATION.

Having accepted the office of General Superintendent, to which I was elected by the Executive Committee of Publication, I began work August 15, 1901. Since that time, by the good hand of God, I have not lost a single day from sickness or other cause.

The field work has consisted of the visitation of church courts and churches. Eleven Synods, 4 Presbyteries, 34 churches were reached, and I delivered 86 addresses and 26 sermons in the hearing of about 12,295 people.

I have been present at and taken a part in six institutes. Fourteen conferences were held with officers and teachers. At these various meetings almost every phase of Sabbath-school and Young People's work was discussed. At some of the meetings the attendance was large; at some small. But everywhere the people seemed eager to know and willing to do.

Necessarily much time was spent in the office, where a large and exceedingly important correspondence sprang up at first, and steadily grew larger and more exacting. Almost from the first I have had two pages of editorial matter in the Earnest Worker each month for the discussion of our work and plans. Nine different leaflets have been written and largely distributed. Since this department of work was new, it was necessary that it should be carefully organized and adjusted to the general work of the committee. This was accomplished most satisfactorily, resulting in a plan that is comprehensive, progressive, practical, and thoroughly in keeping with the law and traditions of our church. Its working has been entirely satisfactory.

The expenses of my work, aside from salary, including expenses incident to some long and many short journeys, have amounted to $504.78.

The last General Assembly directed that this report should give the statistics concerning our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, and instructed the Presbyteries to put the necessary data in my hands. Up to the 1st of May no reports had been sent in. I have found it impracticable to give the full statistics now, and ask permission to collect data, and write the report in time for its publication in the Appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly.

In this connection, I request that the Assembly will authorize the Committee of Publication to revise the blanks for Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies, to that they may embrace at least all the subjects approved and recommended by the Assembly.

VI. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The General Assembly of 1901 divided the work heretofore entrusted to the care of the Executive Committee of Home Missions, and established a new Executive Committee, to be known as the Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief, and to be located at Richmond, Va., to which was assigned the oversight and control of the funds provided for the relief of disabled ministers, and of the widows and orphans of deceased ministers. Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., was designated by the Assembly as chairman, and the committee was instructed to elect a secretary, who should also become a member of the committee. The committee elected Mr. S. H. Hawes as Secretary and Treasurer, and added Capt. John A. Coke to the committee to make the number of members complete. Mr. S. H. Hawes accepted the office of Secretary and Treasurer temporarily, and without financial compensation. and has discharged the duties of the office with signal ability, faithfulness, and devotion to the interests of the cause. The Secretary and Treasurer secured, at a small salary of $15 per month, the efficient services of Mr. W. B. Smith as bookkeeper and clerk. The committee has studied to make the administration of the fund as economical as possible.

The Executive Committee has been incorporated by an act of the Legislature of Virginia, and the corporate title is, "The Executive Committee on Ministerial Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the United States." A copy of the charter will be found in the printed Manual herewith submitted. The Manual of By-Laws has been carefully prepared, and is a complete setting forth of the organization, the objects, the methods, and the forms which the committee proposes to use in the prosecution of its work. The Manual provides that an annuity may be paid to a minister over seventy years of age, who has served the church for a period of thirty years, and who has been honorably retired by his Presbytery. It also provides assistance for disabled ministers, lay missionaries, men and women, and the orphan children of deceased ministers.

The committee has given much thought to the subject of ministers' rates, or what may be called the insurance feature of the work. A sub-committee has had this matter under earnest consideration for several months, and has talked much with insurance experts, but has not been able to fix upon any definite plan which the Executive Committee is willing to recommend to the General Assembly for adoption. We have reached the conclusion that it would be impossible for this committee to offer as good and as safe terms to our ministers as many large insurance companies can offer them, and, therefore, we recommend that the proposition to add an insurance feature to the work of the committee be abandoned, and that the committee be directed to confine its labors to the distribution of the funds entrusted to it for the relief of the needs of the beneficiaries of the church.

In compliance with the instructions of the General Assembly, the committee has devoted much time to the question of securing an endowment fund. We have received one legacy of $1,000, and three donations of $1,000 each. These sums, together with some smaller amounts from individuals and churches, make the fund now bearing interest $4,475.20. This is an encouraging beginning, which, we trust, will grow rapidly from year to year.

A plan for accumulating an endowment, suggested by Mr. S. H. Hawes and adopted by the Executive Committee, was described in a circular, and sent out to the churches at the beginning of this year, with the request that all coöperate in the effort that was being made in this direction. A considerable number of churches responded heartily, endorsing the plan and promising to adopt it. Some of them have already sent in money to the Treasurer for the benefit of this fund. We regret to say, however, that the majority of the churches made no reply to the circular whatever, whether from indifference or opposition to the plan, we are not prepared to say. The plan, in brief, is simply this: To ask of each church an average contribution of ten cents a member per month for a period of five years, which, if coöperated in by most of the churches, would secure an endowment fund of over a million of dollars, the income from which would enable the committee to take good care of all our beneficiaries. It is not proposed to confine our efforts to this method; we trust that many large sums will also be contributed to the fund. But the committee believe that with a secretary who could give his whole time to the work and travel among the churches, assisting them to put the plan into practical operation, a great amount of money might soon be added to this permanent fund.

The Annual Support Fund, derived from the collection in July, has received our careful attention. The Assembly asked for $20,000 last year, and we have faithfully and repeatedly commended the cause to the generosity of the church, but the receipts still fall far short of the amount desired. The aggregate contributions to this fund have amounted to $14,869.86. We have 145 beneficiaries upon the roll, to whom appropriations were made to the amount of $14,220.91, an average of about $100 to each. This is a pitiful sum, and yet we have been able to pay only 90 per cent. of the amount appropriated to each beneficiary. This, however, is better than has been done for several years, and for that we are thankful. But if the whole amount of the appropriation in each case was paid, it would be insufficient, in many instances, to meet the actual needs of those who apply, and when it falls short there follows, of necessity, distress.

Mr. S. H. Hawes has filled the office of Secretary and Treasurer during the past year with great satisfaction to the committee, and with much labor and self-denial on his own part; but he is not able to give the work his entire time. The importance of the cause demands all the time of such an able and efficient Secretary to make it fully successful. Mr. Hawes, however, wishes it to be understood that he is willing to continue to serve the church in this capacity cheerfully, and to the best of his ability, if the Assembly so desires it, but the interests of his own business are such that his labors for the cause must be confined mainly to office work.

We are glad to announce that all of the Presbyteries, with one exception, that of Asheville, have signified their purpose hereafter to coöperate with the Assembly's committee in the work of Ministerial Relief.

We call the attention of the Assembly again to the fact that the corporate name is, "The Executive Committee on Ministerial Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the United States." Persons desiring to make gifts and bequests should note the exact title.

VII. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF COLORED EVANGELIZATION.

Our work has proceeded evenly during the year, and has been characterized by an encouraging development in every part of it, rather than by the conspicuous growth of any one department. There is a feeling of confidence and hope among our workers, which makes your committee thank God and take courage.

We have suffered the loss of one of our most valued members—the Hon. James W. Lapsley, who departed this life in November, 1901. He has been for long years a friend of the colored people, and a member of this committee from the time of its appointment by the General Assembly.

We have continued the evangelistic work of Rev. A. M. Plant, at Texarkana, Ark., and that of Rev. L. L. Wells, in the Presbytery of Louisiana, and that also of Revs. Blake, Cæsar, McKellar, and R. Wells, in the Presbytery of Texas.

We have begun work in Baton Rouge, La., with Rev. J. W. Hilton in charge; and in Memphis, Tenn., with Rev. Lucius Pool; and at Frierson, La., with Rev. H. W. Williams.

The First Church of Shreveport, La., has begun a mission work, with Rev. J. A. Pope in charge, and has erected a house of worship and a manse.

The evangelistic work done by Rev. A. E. Reed at Yorkville, S. C.; that by Rev. G. W. Covington at Tunstall, Ala.; that by Rev. Lucius Pool in Memphis, Tenn.; that by Rev. W. H. Harris, at Rodman, S. C., and that by Rev. H. W. Williams at Frierson, La., has in each case resulted in the gathering and organization of a church, thus adding five new churches to our roll.

We have assisted in building houses of worship at Texarkana, Ark., Tuscaloosa, Ala., Memphis, Tenn., and Dry Pond, Ga., and in the purchase of one in Nashville, Tenn. Buildings have been erected at Shreveport, La., and Frierson, La., and a church purchased in Louisville, Ky., with funds raised by local committees. These houses are in nearly every case good ones, and add very materially to our equipment for doing our work. We have also made appropriations for repairs on other churches. We desire all of our churches put in good condition, and kept so, and will assist any congregation in making needed repairs.

A distinct and important part of our evangelistic work is that done in colored mission Sunday-schools which are officered and taught by white workers. Hardly any better way to influence the colored population could be devised than this one which the Assembly has adopted and does so heartily commend, viz., of having white Christians give the highest type of religious instruction to colored children on the Sabbath day.

The difficulty is not to gather the children, but to find Christians willing to teach them. Some schools have been discontinued for lack of teachers. We do not know of any that have failed for lack of pupils.

The last Assembly suggested that we employ an evangelist, whose duty it should be to visit the colored churches and hold meetings, with a view to their edification, and also for the establishing of new organizations. After consideration of this, it was the judgment of this committee that we are acting in harmony with this suggestion as far as our means will allow, and that we will be glad to do more in this way as we are furnished with the means for it by our churches.

In the department of supplying churches with regular preaching, we have been able to meet all the demands made upon us by the organized churches, except in one or two fields, and here the difficulty has been to secure the proper man for the place. Every one of the ministers employed by this committee has been paid in full the amount promised him. We try to guard this point jealously, so that each worker may feel that the small appropriation made him will not be cut down at the end of the year, but will be paid regularly and in full. We have paid to colored ministers and churches $4,230.79. While this is somewhat more than we have been able to do before this year, yet it is not large when we consider the extent of our work. We now have more than 2,000 communicants in eighty-four churches. All of our appropriations are small, and our ministers exercise great self-denial and endure hardships in order to preach the gospel to their people.

In the work of education, we have taken two important steps forward—one, the resolving to put the students at Stillman Institute upon an entirely self-supporting basis; the other, the voting to purchase the Ferguson-Williams College, at Abbeville, S. C.

Last year we decided to make a charge of $30.00 in money and $30.00 in labor for each academic student, and $20.00 in money and $30.00 in labor for each theological student at the Institute, and to have the school session run from December to August, instead of from September to May, as heretofore.

Because of the charges laid upon the students, we did not have the customary summer school, in order to give them opportunity to earn the necessary money. And this will be our plan henceforth, viz., to abolish the summer school, and allow a vacation of four months, in which the student can earn something for himself.

But the forward step to which we referred above, is that we have decided, for the coming years of the Institute, beginning with session of 1902–'03, which opens next December, to put the students entirely upon their own resources as to their support while here, on the following general plan: The committee to provide the land, the buildings, the necessary implements, the necessary stock and poultry, and all necessary teachers and superintendents. The students to furnish the labor, the fertilizers, the seed, the rations, the fuel, the lights, their own bedding, books and clothes, and to have the proceeds from the place. But the committee is to have entire control of all their operations, to direct the fertilizing and planting, and to see that the place is kept in proper repair by their efforts, and that it is kept constantly clean. We do this primarily and chiefly because we believe that to put one on his own resources best develops his character. And the colored people have need of leaders that are MEN in all the highest meaning of the word.

The experiment last year of charging one-half in money was successful and most encouraging. The action of the committee putting them entirely upon their own resources has been received by them in a way highly gratifying to the committee. This is an important move toward the ideal condition, when this school will not be a drain upon the slender resources of this committee. After this year we will be at very little expense for it, except for the salaries of the teachers, and we confidently look forward to the day when our church will provide endowment funds yielding sufficient income for these, thus putting it on the same basis with our other theological schools.

We would call the attention of all our pastors and churches to the fact that now we have buildings sufficient to accommodate one hundred boarding students, and that no additional cost would be entailed upon our church if we had that number, and ask them to endeavor to induce boys and young men to attend this school. It is our purpose to make of it a great training school for ministers and teachers. It is giving a most excellent training now—by white graduate teachers—and all its work is done in harmony with the views of the southern people respecting negro education.

The second step of progress in the work of education has been our deciding to purchase the Ferguson-Williams College at Abbeville, S. C. This college has had the favorable attention of the Assembly for some years, and we have had authority to purchase it if we should be able to. But not until this year have we felt able to do so, and it has been with some difficulty that we have saved the money necessary for our part of the purchase. The property was last year offered to us for $3,000, of which amount we voted to give $2,000, and invite the Synod of South Carolina to coöperate with us, and furnish $1,000 of the purchase money. This the Synod of South Carolina, at its last meeting, agreed to do, and, as we have in hand our part of the purchase money, there seems to be no reason why this school should not become the property of the Assembly, and a part of our equipment for doing our work. This school has had a prosperous year under the management of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Williams, having enrolled 187 pupils. We have assisted in operating it, having made appropriations for the rent and for current expenses in part for each.

The Industrial Institute, at North Wilkesboro, N. C., has been under the management of Rev. E. M. Gilliard and wife. Agricultural and domestic industries have been taught in connection with the academic branches. Thirty pupils have been in attendance.

The J. H. Alexander Academy, Vicksburg, Miss., has been for several years managed by Rev. E. W. Benjamin. It has been uniformly successful, and has added another year of good work to its record, having taught 145 pupils.

In all our educational work careful religious instruction is given and industrial training made a part of the regular work of the school.

We have received during the year $7,726.06, and have expended $9,017.78 as shown by the statements of Treasurer and Secretary, which are printed and submitted with this report.

We have a balance, March 31st, of $4,143.83. Of this amount $2,000 has been already appropriated to the purchase of the Ferguson-Williams College, and the remaining $2,143.83 will be needed to carry on our work until we receive the gifts of the churches next December.

We invite correspondence, through the secretary of this committee, with any one with reference to the special needs of any destitute locality. We desire to enlarge our work each year. We want to reach the most destitute first. Again, if any pastor or church session is thinking of beginning a mission Sunday-school among the colored people, we invite him to write to the secretary of this work, who will furnish desired information, suggestions or advice, and if necessary will visit the church desiring it, and render any assistance within his power.

VIII. THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY'S PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON CHURCH AND CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

The Assembly's Permanent Committee on Church and Christian Education beg leave to report:

The general interest in this cause has decidedly increased since the last meeting of the Assembly. In fact, this increase of interest is not limited to our church, but nearly all the other denominations are showing a larger activity than ever before in their history. Public education, also, throughout our bounds was never so aggressive and hopeful of the largest results as at the present time, in all its departments, male and female, from the primary school to the State college and university. A great educational campaign is just opening up both for public and private education, aided, on the one hand, by organized twentieth century effort, and, on the other hand, by proposed generous aid from other sections of the country. One feature of this proposed aid is to enlist private effort and contributions in order to increase the efficiency of public education. The initial success of such effort indicates the growing interest in education, and also shows how the church might be rallied to the support of what she regards as a better way.

Your committee, through its chairman, has been in correspondence with the permanent committees, and with the stated clerks of all the Presbyteries and Synods, and has gathered much information of an encouraging nature concerning the present condition and future prospect of this cause in our church. This report will not endeavor to give statistics of the schools and colleges under the direct or virtual control of our church, and contending for Christian education as we understand it. The best accessible account of such schools is found in the Manual of the Presbyterian Church, published by the Committee of Publication, Richmond, Va. While the list there presented is by no means complete, the aggregate is both surprising and encouraging, and ought to set at rest any doubts as to the possibilities of our great movement for Church and Christian Education.

Correspondence with the Presbyteries and Synods develops the following facts:

1. Ten Synods have permanent committees under the Assembly's "Plan of Organization." The other two are pushing their educational enterprises, and one of them with great success, though not formally under the Assembly's plan. Sixty-eight Presbyteries have permanent committees, and all but two of the remaining eleven have expressed great interest in the cause, and some of them are much interested in the success of their own proper enterprises.

2. The colleges and universities for the higher education of males are in a wholesome and prosperous condition, and the general outlook is more hopeful than ever before. Three of the Synods that have no synodical college within their bounds are moving jointly or separately to found such institutions, with good hopes of success.

3. Colleges and institutes for the higher education of women under the care of Synods and Presbyteries were never so prosperous as now. Several of the Synods and Presbyteries are moving to found new and larger institutions of this class.

4. Several Presbyteries report their high schools and academies for secondary education in a prosperous condition. Several Presbyteries have established new schools of this class during the past year, and several other Presbyteries have appointed committees and boards of trustees charged with founding still others.

5. The interest of the Presbyteries so far has been largely limited to the secondary and higher education of males and females under presbyterial oversight and control, and they have, as yet, manifested but little interest in parochial schools proper, under the control of particular congregations, singly or combined. Many seem to think that the existence of public schools is a bar to movements in this direction, and others fear that church effort would of necessity develop hurtful antagonisms. But wisdom is profitable to direct. Much more has been accomplished in this direction than appears on the surface. A number of Westminster Schools are in successful operation; several new ones have been started during the past year; some old schools have been reorganized under the Assembly's "Constitution for Church Schools;" and a still larger number of private schools claiming church allegiance would be organized in better and more permanent form if they were in closer touch with the "Plan of Organization" under which we are working.

6. The day school, as part of the Home Mission work, is growing in favor in some Presbyteries and Synods, and it becomes part of the Home Mission work to send the Christian teacher along with the preacher into every mission field. The results of such work amply vindicate this policy. Mission work among the colored people seems to wait upon the Christian school just as in the foreign field.

7. Some Presbyteries report that the public schools in their bounds are opened with reading the scriptures and prayer. If all the churches were awake to this matter, this might be made almost universal in our bounds, for we are a homogeneous Christian people, and it is no small part of our work to make the public schools as distinctly Christian as possible. Christian teachers, the Bible, and prayer in our public schools would save them from the evils which belong to a purely secular education.

8. The Assembly's Permanent Committee of Church and Christian Education is constituted as follows: Rev. J. B. Shearer, D. D., chairman; Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., vice-chairman; Rev. J. W. Rosebro, clerk, and Mr. J. N. Cullingworth, treasurer; G. B. Strickler, D. D., Hon. George L. Christian, F. H. Gaines, D. D., George Summey, D. D., E. C. Gordon, D. D., L. H. Blanton, D. D., T. R. Sampson, D. D., J. A. Mecklin, D. D., President E. R. Long, Rev. W. E. McIlwain, Rev. D. N. McLaughlin, A. B. Curry, D. D., G. W. Macrae. No attempt has been made to call the entire committee together, partly because of the great expense, and partly because no executive matters have been committed to us. It is but proper to say that so far the chairman has been charged with the work of the committee, so far as he has been able to do it, to be passed upon by a quorum of the committee living in or near Richmond, Va. But this year, sickness of himself and family has prevented his calling the quorum together to pass upon this report, the finishing of which has been providentially delayed.

In printing this report, we will add an appendix containing—

1. The "Constitution for Presbyterian Church Schools," and also the "Plan of Organization" by permanent committees, as adopted by the Assembly of 1899, and endorsed, adopted, and commended by nearly all the Synods and Presbyteries.
2. The names of the chairmen of the Permanent Committees of Church and Christian Education in the several Synods and Presbyteries.
3. A brief summary of the nature and scope of the duties of these committees as emphasized by the last Assembly.

Respectfully submitted, J. B. SHEARER, Chairman.

IX. ABSTRACT FROM THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY'S HOME AND SCHOOL AT FREDERICKSBURG, VA.

In order that we may ever keep clearly before your minds the object and aim of this institution, we repeat that it is distinctly for the education and maintenance of the children of deceased ministers and of living missionaries. We earnestly commend, as a most worthy and needy cause, this institution to those who, in making their wills, desire to consecrate their money to the service of the Master, and herein insert its corporate name, "The Assembly's Home and School at Fredericksburg, Va."

As we review the work of the past year, we have many reasons to thank God and to press on. We have met all the cases asking for assistance in this line, and in every instance when it has come to our knowledge that a minister has fallen, and that children have been left, we have extended them the privileges of the Home and School, and invariably there has come an answer like this, "The great burden, how to educate and care for my children, was weighing heavily on my mind and heart, when your letter came and solved the problem." A greater interest has been aroused, as is indicated by an increase of contributions, and in many warm expressions of sympathy and love from the Presbyterians (ministers and members) from various parts of our Southern land.

The young people have been faithful, earnest and true, appreciating their privileges and using the opportunity. Quite a number go out at the close of this session prepared to meet the responsibilities of life, and, we believe, by the care and training in this Christian Home, to exert an influence, mighty for good, in the church. Their characters have been greatly benefited and strengthened by the influence of so many Christian mothers, who, though receiving no help directly from the institution, in many instances have come here to be with their children. We record, with great sorrow, the death of two of these, who were closely associated with the Home and School: Mrs. A. E. Randolph and Mrs. Agnes Boyle. Their influence was great and good.

Fredericksburg College, with Rev. J. W. Rosebro, D. D., President, furnishes splendid educational advantages (from a primary to an excellent college course inclusive) to the children of the Home, and the church is fortunate indeed in being able to offer such excellent opportunity to her young people.

The officers are: S. W. Somerville, secretary, treasurer and superintendent; Mrs. John Boyle, housekeeper; Mrs. J. H. Smith, matron. There have been during the year thirty-nine students. They are from eight different States, China and Brazil.

We would call your special attention to the financial statement, which we consider encouraging. Not a dollar of debt has been incurred within the past five years. The current expenses have all been promptly met, and whilst we have practiced the strictest economy in the Home, we have had due regard to the comfort, health and happiness of the inmates. Our December collection, which, you note, is $3,613.33, though an increase over last year, is smaller than it should be. Only a small percentage of our churches took the collection—about 275 out of nearly 3,000 churches—and there were also contributions from about 50 Sabbath-schools, 30 societies, and 70 individuals. Surely this collection should be more generally taken and larger. You will note that our treasurer's report shows $2,229.33 in bank; $282.12 of this amount belongs to the debt account, and, so soon as it is increased a little, will be applied to the same; the balance, $1,947.21, is what is left after the close of our December collection, and must serve us for current expenses till January 1, 1903, as we have no other certain source upon which to depend, and this amount will be insufficient to carry us to that date. You will note that we are rapidly liquidating the debt incurred in its early history. The progress this year has been very slow indeed, though Rev. H. H. Hawes, D. D., has been travelling in its interest, and has been making earnest and faithful efforts.

We call your attention to the fact that we are entirely dependent upon the gifts of God's people for the support of this great work, and we most earnestly beg that you will order a collection to be taken in all our churches and Sabbath-schools on the last Sabbath in December for the current expenses of this work. We also ask that you will instruct pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents to set this work before congregations and Sabbath-schools, and urge its importance.

X. REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON THE SABBATH.

In our last report to the General Assembly, we presented a rapid review of the progress of Sabbath observance, since the appointment of your committee in 1878. In that report it was stated that, from the facts presented from year to year, the conclusion was irresistible that the holy Sabbath was slowly, but surely, losing its hold upon the public conscience. It is with extreme sorrow that we are compelled again to come to you without being able to bring anything by way of modifying, in the least, this conclusion. The reports received from the Presbyteries, if anything, are even more gloomy and discouraging in their tone, than usual. In them we find nothing upon which to base any hope of improvement in the near future. From the reports, it would seem that the subject of Sabbath observance has elicited very little more than a general interest in the minds of our people, there being very little done in the Presbyteries beyond the regular ministrations of the word; that, while there may be here and there a few incidents, like springs in the desert, the universal testimony is that, while the majority of professedly Christian people generally observe the day, the outside world seem to have but a low estimate of either its meaning or obligation. Sunday travel and traffic, excursions, social visiting, frequenting the post-office, receiving and answering letters, and even office work in some business houses, continue as heretofore. Sunday newspapers are gradually extending the area of their patronage. While there are not so many local trains, those carrying through freights run as usual, there being but few States in which the running of such trains is forbidden. The truth seems to be that, in many places and with many people, the Sabbath has already become very much as any other day, and would be entirely so in the absence of State and municipal law. If the present degeneracy continues, this day of the Lord will soon be to the outside world as any other, while to the Christian it would become the peculiar badge or sign to distinguish the believing from the unbelieving portions of the world, and likewise rank the prophetic era of which the Master speaks when, if it were possible, the very "elect" themselves would be deceived and drawn away from their steadfastness.

In one of the presbyterial reports mention is made of the raising of the question, "Why is it that the fourth commandment is so much more emphasized than the others by our church?" Whether coming from friend or foe, whether made in the spirit of quibbling or from an anxious desire after truth, this inquiry demands consideration; and, if your committee be allowed to answer, we would simply say, Because God himself has put extra emphasis upon it.

The commandments of the Decalogue are unquestionably all supported alike by the same authority, and are of the same binding character, yet there are obviously some upon which greater stress is laid than others. The fifth commandment is signalized by the promise of long life: "Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee." Still greater emphasis is put upon the sixth commandment in this, that authority is given to enforce it with the death penalty: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed." So God, it would seem, has placed even greater emphasis still upon the fourth commandment, by reason of the terrible judgments visited upon his chosen people of old in the overthrow of their government, and the carrying the whole nation into captivity, because of their disregard of his Sabbaths.

There were good reasons for thus putting such emphasis upon these three statutes—upon the fifth commandment, because the good of society, and the perpetuity of all government depend upon the maintenance and due exercise of parental authority, the setting aside of which would but bring about the upheaval of the very foundations of society; upon the sixth, because man was made in the image of God, and in his likeness, and to take the life of man is to strike a blow directly at his own image and likeness. Special, and even greater emphasis, is laid upon the fourth commandment, because he hath made the Sabbath the memorial of his own resting—the type and pledge of the heavenly rest, and also the symbol of his sovereignty over the nations of the earth. To set it aside, therefore, is to impugn his wisdom, set at naught his example, lightly esteem the type of the heavenly rest, and trample under foot the only symbol of his authority over the nations. As the sixth commandment is so closely connected with the welfare of society, and as the State has, in obedience to the divine command, taken upon itself to enforce it with the infliction of the death penalty, it would seem eminently proper that the church should, in her organic capacity, likewise emphasize the fourth and fifth, as nothing is more closely connected with her best and highest interests than the training of her children, and keeping of her Sabbath. And may this not be the reason, in part at least, for the declension in religion, and the withdrawal of the spirit, of which we hear so much on every side, in that the churches of the land are withholding their emphasis from what God has emphasized, in the neglect of family training, and the substitution of human expedients in lieu thereof, and because of the nation's willful and persistent trampling under foot God's holy Sabbath.

Are we, then, asked, Why are we laying such stress upon the fourth commandment? We again reply, Because God himself is doing the same thing: and in our doing this we are only following his example, and, at the same time, acting in accordance with the admitted teaching of our standard: "That some sins in themselves, and by reason of several aggravations, are more heinous in the sight of God than other"—the very emphasis put in the scriptures upon the fourth commandment, showing that Sabbath desecration belongs to the class of "more heinous" sins.

It remains for us only to ask the Assembly to impress it upon the minds and hearts of our people, that Sabbath desecration is not the trifling offence as some are disposed to regard it, but, in the sight of God, one of the greater sins, and which, like the wedge of gold and Babylonish garments of old, will most assuredly bring defeat to the hosts of Israel, and the judgment of God upon the nation that thus rebels against his authority.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES STACY,
T. H. RICE,
C. P. BRIDEWELL, Committee.

J. P. Thurman, the remaining member of the committee, was absent at the meeting of the committee.

XI. THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES.

To the Venerable, the General Assembly:

Your Trustees respectfully submit their annual report, showing the receipts and disbursements as directed by the different wills for the various causes of the church.

During the past year we have received from all sources $20,259.20, and in addition thereto the balance in cash, as shown in last report, of $3,105.05, making a total of $23,364.25. The disbursements have been made, as directed by the different wills, for the various objects of the church, amounting to $23,285.46, leaving a balance in the hands of the Treasurer of $78.79.

For a detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements you are respectfully referred to the itemized accounts of John R. Pharr, Treasurer, which is hereto appended, and made part of this report, and this statement has been duly audited and approved by a committee of the Trustees, whose names are hereto appended, and the Treasurer has been authorized to forward this report to the General Assembly at its annual meeting in Jackson, Miss.

The term of office of the following members of the board expires with this meeting, viz., Dr. J. W. Stagg, Messrs. George E. Wilson and A. G. Brenizer, and your board would unanimously recommend the reëlection of these gentlemen.

The members now constituting the board are Dr. E. Nye Hutchison, President; Mr. George E. Wilson, Vice-President and Attorney, and Mr. John R. Pharr, Secretary and Treasurer; Drs. James R. Howerton and John W. Stagg, Messrs. P. M. Brown, A. G. Brenizer, D. W. Oates and George F. Bason.

Respectfully submitted,

E. NYE HUTCHISON, President,
JOHN R. PHARR, Sec. and Treas.

XII. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COLUMBIA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, MAY, 1902.

The Board of Directors of the Columbia Theological Seminary respectfully reports to the General Assembly that—

The exercises of the Seminary have been conducted without interruption during the year, with 25 students in attendance, distributed as follows: Five in the senior class, 6 in the middle, 11 in the junior class, 1 post-graduate, and 2 taking special course.

The financial condition of the Seminary is encouraging. The expenses have been kept within the income, and the income has been increased through more advantageous investments.

Two hundred and fifty dollars' worth of new and valuable books have been added to the library, bringing the total number of volumes up to considerably more than 22,000.

A substantial and comfortable dining hall has been completed and fully paid for, which adds materially to the appearance of the Seminary grounds and the comfort of the students.

Three of the students have completed their course of study, and been graduated with the degree of B. D., and one with certificate.

Rev. H. A. White, D. D., of Lexington, Va., has been unanimously elected to the professorship of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, and he has accepted.

The adjunct professorship of English Bible has been discontinued, and the faculty has been directed to make provision for full and thorough instruction in the English Bible.

The board feels that a brighter day has dawned for our beloved Seminary, and looks to the future with hopefulness.

W. W. MILLS, Secretary of Board.

XIII. EXTRACT FROM REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY, IN VIRGINIA, ON THE SESSION 1901–'02.

The board held its meetings on May 6 and 7, 1902, and diligently considered all the interests of the Seminary. The board was relieved of much anxiety, and greatly cheered by the improved condition of this school of the prophets.

The decrease in the number of candidates for the ministry in the church at large is well known and much lamented, yet sixty-nine students were enrolled in our Seminary, only three less than last year.

The conduct of the students is highly commended by the faculty in respect of study and of spirituality, and their examinations showed very satisfactory attainments. Credit is due to both them and the faculty, which is here accorded to them.

The health of both professors and students generally is a matter of congratulation and thanksgiving.

The buildings of the Seminary are in good condition; very beautiful, substantial and convenient.

The refectory has cheapened the cost of living to the students, and given them increased satisfaction at a cost of $9.85 per month.

The want of a gymnasium is felt, but at present the board has no funds for erecting one.

LIBRARY.

There are about 18,000 volumes in our library, besides many valuable pamphlets, periodicals and curiosities; 368 volumes have been added in the last year, of which 279 were purchased, and 89 by binding.

DEGREES.

The degree of B. D. has been conferred upon the twelve following named gentlemen: F. C. Barth, R. L. Kinnaird, G. M. Matthis, J. A. McClure, A. M. McLauchlin, L. I. Moffett, J. M. Sedgwick, S. C. Smith, V. H. Starbuck, J. C. Story, J. L. Stuart, J. A. Williams.

Diplomas were given to the three following: W. J. Garrison, C. F. Myers, F. W. Osborne.

Lectures were provided last session on Elocution, Foreign and Home Missions. But the faculty feels deeply the effects of the decline in instruction of Greek in our colleges and academies. The board asks the Synods and Assembly to exert their influence as far as may be proper to set a premium upon instruction in Greek.

For many years the financial condition of the Seminary has been a source of painful anxiety to this board. It has received the most earnest thought and the most skillful attention of the best business men in the board, and such as could be commanded without. We are glad now to say that we believe the day of relief seems to be approaching. Some of our assets are unproductive; some in real estate, which yields little or no income. The most of our investments, however, that are profitable yield from five to six per cent. For a number of years our expenses have exceeded our income, but this excess is much lessened, and the board hopes that in a year or two the excess may be destroyed or transferred to the credit column.

In compliance with the request of the Synod of Virginia, we herein present a statement of the Seminary's assets, viz.:

Int. in Miss A. M. Thomas' property, Pamplin, Va.,
Total,	$232,392 26

Total estimated value of assets, ...$502,179 07

On April 1, 1898, the gross assets of the Seminary, including Endowment and Scholarship Funds, Seminary grounds and buildings, and real estate, were estimated at $295,896.62; so that there has been an increase of the gross assets since that time of $216,282.45.

The aggregate expenses of the last year were $21,934.20.

The Stonewall Jackson Institute, many years ago, borrowed about $13,000 from the board; no interest has been paid upon this amount for more than ten years. At last it is hoped that a compromise has been reached between the board and that institute by which all interest due shall be remitted, and the principal shall be paid in five annual payments, and with four per cent. interest. Of course, this settlement entails a loss of several thousand dollars to the Seminary.

We report that the terms of service of the class of 1902, consisting of Rev. S. Taylor Martin, Rev. L. B. Johnston, and Ruling Elder H. Bradley Davidson, expire with the next meeting of the Synod of Virginia.

In response to the action of the last Synod of North Carolina, we report that the attention of the faculty is called to that action, and to a standing rule of this board, requiring the attendance of a member of the faculty at the stated meetings of the Synod of North Carolina. This rule has not been observed for several years, in consequence of the financial condition of the Seminary.

By order of the board. JOHN S. MUNCE, Secretary.

XIV. REPORT OF THE DIVINITY SCHOOL OF THE SOUTHWESTERN PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

There has been no change in the corps of instructors or in the general course of study of the Divinity School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University since the last annual report. The institution rejoices in the fact that its professor of Systematic Theology, Rev. Dr. R. A. Webb, declined the urgent and hearty call of the new Theological Seminary of Texas. The professors and students have enjoyed good health, and have continued, practically without interruption, the usual round of duties. There has been increased interest in the practical homiletic work of the students, and members of the faculty have fostered this with special interest and care.

The number of divinity students has been seventeen, two short of last year. The decreased number of candidates for the ministry is being felt here as elsewhere. The church needs to cry to the Lord for more men for her whitening fields, and especially for more of that spiritual quickening which invariably produces more men, more means, and more activity for Christ and his cause.

The following named young men, six in number, will enter upon the work of the church at the close of the present session, viz.: P. H. Hensley, Jr., A. M., a candidate of Red River Presbytery; J. G. Johnson, a candidate of Central Mississippi Presbytery; W. I. McInnis, a candidate of Mississippi Presbytery; J. O. Shelby, A. M., a candidate of Memphis Presbytery; D. M. Stockard, an ordained minister, and James A. Thompson, a candidate, of Nashville Presbytery. Of these, Messrs. P. H. Hensley, Jr., and J. O. Shelby have given themselves to Foreign Missions, have been accepted by the church, and will start to their respective fields, Cuba and Mexico, at the close of this summer.

By order of the Board of Directors.

GEORGE SUMMEY, Chancellor.

D. N. KENNEDY, Secretary.

Class retiring in 1905: E. M. Green, D. D., Shackelford Miller, Esq., W. C. Roberts, D. D., LL. D., Harry C. Warren, Esq., Gavin E. Wiseman, Esq., W. R. Dobyns, D. D.

2. FACULTY.

The Rev. William Hoge Marquess, D. D., LL. D., the Rev. Francis R. Beattie, Ph. D., D. D., LL. D., the Rev. Clarence K. Crawford, A. M., D. D., the Rev. Thompson M. Hawes, D. D., the Rev. John M. Worrall, D. D., the Rev. C. R. Hemphill, D. D., LL. D.

All the above members of the faculty were approved professors in the Danville and Louisville Seminaries before the consolidation, and, by proviso in the charter approved by the last General Assembly, became approved professors of the Presbyterian Seminary of Kentucky.

Fifty-one students have been enrolled during the year, of whom five were post-graduates. These represent fifteen States, Canada, Ireland, and Persia, and thirty-two institutions of learning.

Eighteen students were graduated, the following receiving the degree of B. D. (a committee of the board was appointed to report to a future meeting conditions upon which the degree of Bachelor of Divinity shall in future be conferred): J. E. Abbott, W. E. Atchison, F. B. Bonner, C. E. Buschman, R. T. Matthews, C. J. Morton, A. F. Cunningham, E. D. Allen, G. F. Bell, C. C. Brown, E. G. Kromer, C. H. Morton, W. W. Stoddard, W. B. Gray.

The following received certificates for partial courses: W. S. Megginson, E. L. Moore, D. L. Moffett, J. J. Morhodge.

FINANCE.

Real estate, buildings, etc.,	$44,941 00
General endowment,	177,066 17
Scholarship Fund,	12,733 33
Special funds,	352,398 51
Total,	$587,138 68
Total income (estimated),	$23,706 50
Total expenditures (estimated),	23,706 50

NOTE: The word "estimated" is used in this connection because a large part of these funds, over $300,000, has so recently come into the hands of the Treasurer as not to have been transferred to permanent forms of investment. This estimate is conservative.

We have to report the death of Rev. Claude B. H. Martin, D. D., professor of Church History, on April 22, 1902, which greatly saddened the closing days of the session. Dr. Martin labored faithfully and heroically to the last, attending his classes with some degree of regularity till a week or ten days before his decease. His death is a very great loss to the Seminary and to the church.

Steps have been taken looking to the filling of the chair of Church History, vacated by Dr. Martin's death.

During the year a course of lectures on "Great Preachers of the Nineteenth Century" was delivered by Professor Emeritus Rev. John M. Worrall, D. D., also a course of lectures on "Pastoral Work," by the Rev. Meade C. Williams, D. D.

The Board of Directors has adopted a form of constitution and by-laws for the government of the Seminary.

Plans have been drawn, and steps taken, looking to the early erection of handsome, new, permanent Seminary buildings.

Altogether, the first year of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky has been characterized by a spirit of perfect harmony under the divine blessing, in the board, in the faculty, and in the student body, and is auspicious of a growing career of large usefulness to Christ and his church.

Respectfully submitted, J. McCLUSKY BLAYNEY, President.

XVI. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE AUSTIN PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

At its meeting in Austin, Texas, on April 9, 1902, the Board of Trustees of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary adopted the following report to the General Assembly:

The Board of Trustees of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary would make the following report:

1. We call your attention to the fact that the Seminary, by its constitution, a copy of which is herewith transmitted, is under the general supervision of the General Assembly.

2. We are glad to report that the Seminary now has over $100,000 in interest-bearing assets.

3. That the board has elected two professors—Rev. R. A. Webb, D. D., to the chair of Systematic Theology, and Rev. R. E. Vinson to the chair of Old Testament Languages and Exegesis.

4. That the Seminary will be opened for students on October 1, 1902, in the Seminary buildings at Austin.

5. That the board desires to express its high appreciation of Dr. T. R. Sampson's diligent, wise and successful efforts in securing the necessary funds.

The board ordered the above report sent to the General Assembly, and I would transmit it through you, the Stated Clerk.

ARTHUR G. JONES, Secretary.

XVII. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON THE TWENTIETH CENTURY FUND.

The chairman of your Committee on the Twentieth Century Fund begs leave to submit the following report for the information of the Assembly:

It was neither practicable nor especially desirable for the Assembly's committee to hold a meeting during the year. The expense of such a meeting would have been great, and the prospect of resulting good was not such as to justify it. It was proposed by the General Assembly in its original scheme that each Synod should do its own work, in its own way, and for its own specific ends, independently of every other Synod. Before your present chairman was appointed, many of the Synods had planned their work, and some of them had actually entered upon its prosecution. The meeting of your committee could have done little, or nothing, in the way of suggesting methods, or stimulating zeal. The only thing left for them was to act as a medium of intercommunication between the Synods; and the only service open to your chairman was to act as a medium of communication between the Synods and the General Assembly. This service your chairman has tried to render, and will now take pleasure in giving you the results of his endeavor.

Reports covering the year to April 1, 1902, have been received from all the Synods, except that of Kentucky. Your chairman made repeated efforts to secure a report from that Synod, but without success. As that body is now coöperating in the work of education with the Synod of Kentucky, of the Northern Assembly, it may be difficult, if not impossible, for the members of your committee in that Synod to obtain exact figures as to the contributions made by our branch of the church.

From these reports, the following facts are gleaned:

1. The amounts which the various Synods have undertaken to raise:

Synod of Alabama,	$150,000
Synod of Arkansas,	50,000
Synod of Georgia,	165,000
Synod of Missouri,	175,000
Synod of Mississippi,	100,000
Synod of North Carolina,	300,000
Synod of South Carolina,	100,000
Synod of Tennessee,	150,000
Synod of Texas,	200,000
Synod of Virginia,	330,000
Total,	$1,720,000

While the Synod of Florida has committed itself to no definite sum, it has expressed a purpose to coöperate with the Synod of Alabama, and it may, therefore, be counted on to make some contribution to the Twentieth Century Fund.

Only one Synod has voiced no purpose at all to make contribution. That Synod is the one of whose existence you will learn officially for the first time during your present sessions—the Synod of Louisiana. It has lived long enough to hold only one meeting, and its energies during that meeting were largely consumed in the noble endeavor to be born in an orderly and constitutional manner. In view of its extreme youth, being, indeed, still in its feeble and tender infancy, the fact that it has uttered no voice on the subject of the Twentieth Century Fund reflects no discredit on its fair name.

2. The institutions in behalf of which the amounts raised are to be expended:

In Alabama, a male college to be established.

In Arkansas, Arkansas College.

In Georgia, Agnes Scott Institute, the Presbyterian High School at Blackshear, and a male college to be established.

In Missouri, Westminster College, and the Synodical Female College.

In Mississippi, Chamberlain Hunt Academy, a synodical female college, and presbyterial schools yet to be established.

In North Carolina, Davidson College, five presbyterial female colleges, other presbyterial schools, and Union Theological Seminary.

In South Carolina, Columbia Theological Seminary, Davidson College, the Presbyterian College of South Carolina, the Thornwell Orphanage, Presbyterian academies to be established.

In Tennessee, Southwestern Presbyterian University, King College, Synodical Female College, and presbyterial secondary schools.

In Texas, the Theological Seminary, Austin College, Daniel Baker College, the Presbyterian College of Durant, and the Presbyterian College for Girls, the last in process of establishment.

In Virginia, Union Theological Seminary, Stonewall Jackson Institute, Lewisburg Female Institute, Hoge Academy, Elkins College, and presbyterial academies.

3. Institutions established or projected since this movement was inaugurated.

In Alabama, a male college projected.

In Georgia, one high school established, another high school, and a male college projected.

In Mississippi, the Chamberlain Hunt Academy has come into the possession of the Synod, and the Synod will probably acquire possession of a female college.

In North Carolina, Donaldson-Davidson Academy, Westminster High School, and McKelway Institute have all been established.

In South Carolina, two Presbyterian academies have been projected.

In Texas, two colleges have been projected, and a theological seminary established.

In Virginia, two presbyterial academies have been already established, and one college.

From the foregoing, it is seen that four colleges and three high schools have been projected, and that six high schools, one college, and one theological seminary have been actually established. In addition, it may be said that some of the reports from the different Synods say that other schools, kind and number not specified, have been projected.

4. Moneys contributed and subscribed up to date:

In the Synod of Arkansas, ...	$16,000	In the Synod of Tennessee, ...	4,000
In the Synod of Georgia, ...	71,000	In the Synod of Texas, ...	150,000
In the Synod of Missouri, ...	40,000	In the Synod of Virginia, ...	45,000
In the Synod of N'th Carolina,	80,000
In the Synod of S'th Carolina,	17,000	Total, ...	$423,000

5. Agencies employed in the different Synods:

These are various, and the results achieved are likewise various. One thing has been noticeable, and that is, that little or nothing has been done, except in those Synods which have employed salaried agents to devote their whole time to the work. All that committees of Synods and Presbyteries can do is to exercise a general oversight; and all that pastors will do, and even this applies, indeed, not to all, is to permit an agent to use their pulpits, and then furnish them a list of their members. A few eminently good pastors will back the agent up, and give him the full benefit of all their influence. These few are offset by other few, who can never find a convenient time for the agent to come to present the cause.

A review of the facts adduced show:

1. That the Assembly's scheme was not visionary. The Synods, with remarkable unanimity, took it up in their meetings, discussed it carefully, and then, with due deliberation, committed themselves to the task of raising, not one million, but one million seven hundred and twenty thousand dollars.

2. That it requires only patient perseverance to bring the scheme to a grand culmination. The work already accomplished furnishes a strong guarantee of complete success. Of the twelve Synods reporting, four have done absolutely nothing: several others have made merely a beginning, and not one has anything like completed a thorough canvass of its field. Looking over our territory as a whole, we may say that the work is hardly fairly under way. Alabama is just buckling on her harness. Florida stands waiting to answer her call. Mississippi is hunting around for a starting-place, and Louisiana pauses a little till her infant breath grows somewhat stronger. Obviously, the great enterprise is still in its incipiency; and yet already $423,163 show to its credit.

3. That the interest, while not universal, is widespread and deepening wherever any means are used to awaken and foster it. In not one single instance has earnest effort met with serious discouragement. The judgment, the hearts and the pockets of God's people respond to the call. They see in this movement the splendid possibility of making Christian education minister in limitless measure to the glory of Christ, and the progress of our beloved church. The traditions of the past arise to enforce the duties of the present, and the hopes of the present reach eagerly forward to the fruitions of the future.

4. That the public at large believe in us as the most competent educators. In certain sections of our territory, where we have scarcely even a name to live, Christians of other denominations, and people of no denomination, have sent up petitions, in large numbers, to our church courts, accompanied with liberal offers of money, asking that Presbyterian schools be planted among them. They say, "We want the best, and we come to you because we believe that you will give us the best." This is a significant fact. We occupy a high vantage ground, when those who have no sympathy with our distinctive doctrines are, nevertheless, willing, nay, eager, to commit to us the education of their children. They are ready to help us, with influence and money, to plant schools where they are most needed.

In conclusion, permit your chairman respectfully to suggest that your venerable body sound afresh the call to every Synod, Presbytery, congregation, and member of your communion to come up to the requirements of this great occasion. Our name has inherited honor from the history of the past. If we would not see its lustre fade, we must seize this as a golden opportunity, and make the most of it. We must lift our trailing banner, and plant it again where the fathers planted it—in the very front of the sacramental host.

Respectfully submitted, R. C. REED, Chairman.

XVIII. REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 9, 1902.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

DEAR BRETHREN: The Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, Western or American Section, presents to your venerable body its annual report, greeting you as brethren beloved in the Lord, and fellow-laborers unto the kingdom of God.

The commission has held two meetings during the year, one on October 24, 1901, at Montreal, Canada, and the other at Pittsburg, Pa., on April 16 and 17, 1902. The members of the Western Section received most cordial welcome in both cities, and popular meetings were held in Pittsburg in the interest of the Alliance. There was also a reception on the evening of October 24, 1901, at the Presbyterian College, Montreal; and at Pittsburg, Pa., on the evening of April 17th, a banquet was given in honor of the commission by the United Presbyterian Social Union of that city. These meetings and social functions are of great value in the nurture and maintenance of that fraternal sympathy, which, more than any other influence, cultivates the spiritual unity of our churches.

The commission has appointed Rev. J. F. Cannon, D. D., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body brotherly greetings.

It is respectfully requested that provision be made for the apportionment of the expenses of the Alliance due from your venerable body for the present year, which amounts to the sum of $495. Remittance may be made to the American Treasurer of the Alliance, F. K. Hipple, Esq., LL. D., President of the Real Estate Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pa.

We regret to report the death of the chairman of the Western Section, George Junkin, LL. D., a distinguished ruling elder connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Dr. Junkin was present at the first Council of the Alliance at Edinburgh, Scotland in 1877, and was a member of the commission from its establishment. He was chairman of the Business Committee of the second Council, held at Philadelphia, Pa., in 1880, and contributed materially to the success of that great gathering. For a long period he served as treasurer, and in September, 1899, in recognition of his high character and distinguished services, he was unanimously chosen chairman. His death took place on April 10, 1902, and the section has entered upon its records an appropriate minute, setting forth its appreciation of his life and work. The Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Richmond, Va., one of the vice-chairmen of the section, was chosen as his successor.

Attention is specially drawn to the fact that the eighth General Council of the Alliance will meet at Liverpool, England, either in June or July, 1904. The basis of representation in the Council is as follows: For each one hundred congregations or less, two delegates up to one thousand congregations; above one thousand congregations, one delegate for each additional one hundred up to two thousand: above two thousand, one delegate for each additional two hundred and fifty congregations. It is respectfully requested that an early report be made both to the General Secretary, the Rev. Dr. George D. Mathews, and to the American Secretary, in the matter of the persons named as your delegates.

The commission begs leave to draw attention to the work accomplished by it during the year, as set forth, in part, by the minutes for the meeting of April, 1902, copies of which have been forwarded to you for distribution. In particular, it is asked that you give consideration to the reports on "Moral Conditions in the New Territories," on "Religious Liberty" in said Territories, and on the need for "Mission Work among the European and American Residents in Foreign Seaports."

In relation to work on the European Continent, in aid of the Reformed churches located there, the commission respectfully requests that a committee be appointed by your body to be known as a Committee of Correspondence on Work on the European Continent, and that said committee be directed to coöperate with the similar committee of this commission, of which the Rev. James I. Good, D. D., of Reading, Pa., is chairman. There is present need of assistance to these European churches. At this very time, there is a decided movement away from the Roman Catholic Church in several European countries, and the hold of the papacy appears to be loosened upon large populations. The expression of sympathy and the tendering of aid at this critical juncture would prove of great value to the cause of true religion.

The commission also requests that special attention be given to the following resolutions upon Home Missions:

"Whereas, the relation which the United States and Canada sustain to both Europe and Asia gives to them a position of great power, and the advancement of the kingdom of God requires that their influence should be in the highest degree Christian; and, whereas, God has brought to our door a great multitude who sadly need the quickening and saving influence of evangelical truth; and, whereas, he has greatly blessed the churches in their Home Mission work; therefore,

"Resolved, 1. That it be recommended to the supreme judicatories of the several churches in the Western Section of the commission to hold a special service of thanksgiving and praise for his grace, and of prayer for his continued blessing on the Home Mission work, and to take steps to keep this work before the members of all the congregations in all its importance and pressing urgency.

"Resolved, 2. That special attention be called to the necessity for the adaptation of the Home Mission work to the changing conditions of our population, and for more systematic efforts to reach all classes and all communities with the gospel of divine love."

It is further respectfully requested that the second Sabbath of September be set apart as a day of prayer for private and public schools, and for preaching on Education. It is at this period of the year that the schools begin their work, and the interests involved are the largest and most important of those connected with educational interests. The secularism which is abroad is one of the great dangers of the country, and has seriously affected popular education, both in its spirit, and in the personnel of the teaching force. We believe that the general observance of a day of prayer, as requested, would be highly conducive to the moral and religious interests of the millions of our children and youth.

In closing, we emphasize the influence of the Alliance in relation to Christian unity, as illustrated by the movements towards union in the mission churches of the Presbyterian faith and order found in China and India. In India, where a Presbyterian Alliance exists, the proposals for a united church have been duly submitted to the ecclesiastical authorities interested, and a name has been agreed upon, viz., "The Church of Christ in India, Presbyterian." The new church, if the movement for union succeeds, will begin its work with not less than fifty thousand church members. Details of the progress of union in China, and of the condition of the Church of Christ in Japan, will be found in the minutes (above referred to) of the last meeting of the Western Section of the Alliance.

We draw, with especial pleasure, your attention to the fact that the General Secretary of the Alliance, Rev. George D. Mathews, D. D., is on a visit to the churches on the American Continent in behalf of the general interests of the Alliance. It is the expectation that he will be able to visit you at your present meeting. We invoke for him a cordial reception by you, and the blessing of God upon his visit.

May the God of all grace bless you in your labors abundantly, and bestow upon you success in all your undertakings for the welfare of man, and the extension of the kingdom of Christ in the earth.

For the Alliance. ROBERT P. KERR, Chairman,
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, American Secretary.

XIX REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMISSIONER TO THE SYNOD OF MEXICO.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in Session at Jackson, Miss., May 15, 1902*:*

As the delegate appointed by the last General Assembly to represent the church at the organization of a separate Presbyterian Synod of Mexico, I beg to submit to your venerable body the following report of my discharge of my commission:

The time appointed for the convening of the Synod of Mexico was the 6th day of July, 1901, in the Church of the Divine Saviour, in the City of Mexico.

On that day, in company with the Rev. A. W. Halsey, D. D., representing the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, I was present at the opening of the Synod.

There were four Presbyteries united in forming the Synod, viz., the Presbyteries of Zacatecas, City of Mexico, and Gulf of Mexico, connected with the General Assembly of our sister church, and the Presbytery of Tamaulipas, which was independent, and through which our own church conducted its missionary work in Mexico. These Presbyteries were well represented by native ministers and elders. There were also nine ordained missionaries from the churches in the United States.

A temporary organization was effected by the election of the Rev. T. F. Wallace, a missionary of the Presbytery of Zacatecas, as Moderator. When the delegates from the United States presented their credentials they were very cordially received.

On Monday, the 8th day of July, the Synod met for permanent organization. The question of the relation of the missionaries to the new church was fully discussed, and, in accordance with the wishes of the native ministers and churches, it was determined that the missionaries should be members of the Synod exactly on the same footing as native ministers.

The action of the various Presbyteries was then presented, agreeing to join in the organization. Then the action of the two General Assemblies in the United States, and their letters of fraternity and sympathy, authorizing and approving the organization, were read. The Rev. Arcadio Morales, pastor of the Church of the Divine Saviour, of the Presbytery of the City of Mexico, was chosen Moderator, and the Rev. Hubert W. Brown, a missionary of the same Presbytery, was chosen Vice-Moderator. The Rev. Leandro Garza Mora, of the Presbytery of Tamaulipas, was chosen Stated Clerk, and the Rev. Alphonso Herrera, of the Presbytery of Zacatecas, was chosen Permanent Clerk. The Synod formally adopted the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, and the Presbyterian Form of Church Government as its standards of doctrine and order.

The Moderator then delivered a solemn charge to the Synod, and after prayers, led by two native ministers, two missionaries, and the fraternal delegates from the United States, "The General Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Mexico" was declared duly constituted as an independent, autonomous Presbyterian Church, a member of the sisterhood of churches holding the Reformed Faith and the Presbyterian Government.

The missionaries of several Protestant churches working in Mexico were then received, and spoke for their churches words of congratulation and good will.

The Rev. Leandro Garza Mora was appointed as fraternal delegate to represent the Synod before this Assembly.

I submit herewith a statistical report of the Synod, compiled for me by the Stated Clerk, which shows a most gratifying result of the work of little more than a quarter of a century.

I may be permitted some suggestions as to our future work in connection with the Synod:

1. As soon as possible, all of our missionary work in Mexico should be through the agencies appointed by the Synod. There may be questions of finance, and of the management of schools, and such like, that, for the present, may make supervision by the agencies of the two churches in the United States necessary. But the ultimate aim should be to leave to the Synod of Mexico the management and direction of all our work in that country.

2. The matter of theological education is of great importance. While the female schools have done much for our work, and are worthy of highest commendation, there is great need of a thoroughly equipped school to train young men for the ministry.

At Coyocan, a suburb of the City of Mexico, there is an excellent school for young men, under the care of the Rev. C. B. Miller and Rev. Hubert W. Brown. But its equipment is very limited. It has sent out some of the most effective workers in Mexico. But it needs buildings and endowment. It has been hitherto supported by our sister church. Now at least we should recommend that our candidates for the ministry be trained there, and that our church support her candidates while in training there.

In these days, when so much money is being given for education, we should commend this institution to the consideration and liberality of our people. No greater work for Mexico could be done than to build up a strong, well-equipped college for boys and young men.

3. In the city of Mexico, with its population of nearly half a million, there is a large and growing permanent population of English-speaking people, very many of whom are members or adherents of Presbyterian churches. Numbers of these are young men. Finding no Presbyterian church, and there being no Presbyterian pastor to look after them, a few join other organizations of English-speaking churches, but the majority attend no church, and drift away into worldliness and godlessness.

It appeared to me that one of the greatest helps to our work would be to organize and assist in the support of a Presbyterian church for this class. in the capital city, and afterwards in other cities, where the numbers would justify it. In this judgment the missionaries in the City of Mexico concurred. Such a church would probably soon be self-sustaining. Whether it should be independent or connected with the Synod of Mexico would be a matter for decision there on the ground. But two notable effects would be wrought in aid of missions: it would be an object lesson to the natives in Protestant and Presbyterian church life, and it would arouse and secure the interest and coöperation in our missions of a class who will probably exercise a considerable influence in the development of Mexico.

The main burden of support for such a church would come from our sister church, as it is in her sphere of influence; but some appropriation by us to such an enterprise would seem to me proper, in view of our joint interest in this great work in Mexico.

And now let me congratulate the Assembly on this glorious result of our efforts to advance the kingdom of Christ in our neighboring republic; and let me assure you that, as your representative, my reception was all I could have wished. The Synod expressed the deepest thankfulness for your interest. Let us pray that the blessing of our God may attend the Synod of Mexico in all its future course, until the whole country shall be won for Christ.

Respectfully submitted, JAMES H. McNEILLY.

XX. REPORT OF THE TREASURER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Treasurer's book, showing itemized receipts and expenditures for the year ending March 31, 1902, was submitted to the committee appointed to audit the same, and its finding has been entered upon the book. The Assembly of 1884 having directed that a summarized statement of the receipts and expenditures be published annually in the Minutes, I hereby furnish the same, as follows:

Dr.

To balance on hand per last report, April 1, 1901,	$454 79
To collection on dues for years prior to 1898,	13 90
To collection on dues of 1898,	24 00
To collection on dues of 1899,	110 50
To collection on dues of 1900,	118 85
To collection on dues of 1901,	1,512 02
To collection on dues of 1902,	180 89
To collection on dues of 1903,	10 00
		$2,424 95

Cr.

By expenses of ad interim committees,	$495 11
By expenses of Permanent Committee on Church and Christian Education,	177 35
By printing and handling Minutes, with clerical aid on same, less receipts from sales,	772 95
By salary and travelling expenses of clerks,	495 00
By telegrams, express and incidentals for last General Assembly,	16 55
By sexton, First Church Little Rock, complimentary,	5 00
By stationary and clerks' supplies,	10 25
By letter postage,	10 10
Total,	$1,983 31
		$2,424 95

The following Presbyteries are in arrears for taxes: * Bethel, $130.35; Dallas, 65 cents; Fayetteville, $428.90; Harmony, $22.05; Lafayette, $68.25; Louisville, $57.95; Maryland, $18.65; Mecklenburg, $231.25; Missouri, $2.93; Nashville, $133.35; Norfolk, $27.75; Orange, $58.50; Potosi, $28.95; St. John, $69.45; Western District, $74.05; Wilmington, $34.10. Total, $1,353.85. This reckoning covers a period of nine years. An old assessment, many years overdue, for $13.20, has been cancelled on presentation of evidence of former payment.

Before both their fall and spring meetings I sent out notices to such Presbyteries as were behind on their taxes, and I believe that in this way I materially increased the receipts of your treasury.

This year, as for several years past, the amounts I have been called on to pay out on the expenses of ad interim committees have been large. Apprehensive that this might occasion a draft on your treasury beyond its ability to meet, the last Assembly directed that the expenses of the ad interim Committee on Home Missions be paid out of funds of the Executive Committee at Atlanta. There was some confusion, if not misunderstanding, at the time, as to the intention of the Assembly. It developed, when the committee came to meet in February, that the Atlanta committee, owing to burdens of its own, could not meet this expense, without working a hardship on those worthy and noble brethren in the field, to whom it had pledged appropriations. As the sole reason for the Assembly's directing another mode of payment from that usual with its ad interim committees was a fear that its contingent fund might be already overdrawn, and as it seemed to your Treasurer, when the time came for the committee to meet, that the contingent fund would be able to bear this additional charge, I concluded, after a full correspondence with Dr. Morris, the chairman of the ad interim committee, and consultation with your committee in Clarksville, appointed to audit my accounts, that it would not transcend my duty if I paid the expenses of such members of the committee as could not conveniently wait for a specific order of the Assembly directing me to do so. I, therefore, paid out on this item $167.16. The entire expense of the committee was $286.36, with possibly a small additional sum for printing. I beg, therefore, that you approve my action in the premises, that you relieve the Atlanta committee of the obligation to meet this expense, and that you assume the remaining sum yet unpaid as a valid obligation on your contingent fund.

* These amounts and the total have been corrected so as to conform to my books at the close of May 27, 1902 when this report was sent to the printer. The total of back dues uncollected March 31, 1902, was $1,611.40. But this has been reduced by collections since that date, aggregating $257.65, by which receipts I have been enabled to strike nine Presbyteries from the list of those delinquent at the beginning of the fiscal year.—W. A. A.

All claims against the treasury for the year have been paid, save the Assembly's voluntary annual contribution to Western Section of the Alliance of Reformed Churches. This would have been paid before the fiscal year expired, but for the complication, above referred to, as to the expense of the ad interim Committee on Home Missions. As it is, there is to-day a sufficient sum in the treasury to meet one year's assessment, lacking a few dollars.

Respectfully, W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

April 1, 1902.

XXI. PASTORAL LETTER OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

This letter is sent to the churches and people under the care of the General Assembly in response to an overture asking that such a letter be prepared "in view of the decline in family religion." This request assumes and declares that there is a decline in family religion, a decline so great, so general and so marked, perhaps even so alarming, as to call for and call forth a word of kind but solemn and earnest exhortation and warning from the Assembly itself. And the facts, alas, justify and confirm this assumption and declaration. For years the reports to the Assembly from all parts of the church have almost with one accord testified to this decline, certainly to the general lack of family religion in the homes of our people. The narrative of last year, e. g., says: "The observance of family worship is reported by a large majority (of the Presbyteries) as sadly neglected." And this year the declaration is, "Family worship and the family altar, the safeguard and bulwark of religion and of our church, are generally neglected, and the covenant-keeping God is publicly recognized or worshipped in comparatively few of the homes of our people."

But what is "Family Religion," to which the overture refers, and of which this letter treats? The answer is not hard to find, and is very simple: It is the religion of the family; the religion which belongs to and affects the family and all its members. Just as there are family meals, and family joys and sorrows; i. e., the whole family share in these things, are interested in and affected by them. So there may be, and there ought to be, yea, there must be, in all truly Christian homes family religion; the family acknowledging God to be God and their God, reverencing his name, daily worshipping him, reading and studying his word, keeping his Sabbaths, and doing his will: parents doing this cheerfully and lovingly for themselves, and faithfully teaching their children the same both by precept and example, and so "bringing them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." An eminent servant of God, Dr. John A. Broadus, commenting on 2 Sam. vi. 12, says of the ark in the house: "Such regular use of the Bible in the family and in family worship, such constant and diligent study of the scriptures and instruction in them, such easy and frequent introduction of religion into the ordinary conversation, and such manifest regulation of the lives by religious principles, as will cause the household, and all who visit it, to think of God as real and present and to live as ever in his sight. This for us will be to have the Ark of God in the house, religion in the home. And if thus we live, we too shall be blessed, men will see it, and tell it to the praise of God's grace that blessed is the family where the Lord makes his abode."

Such family religion as this was once common in Presbyterian households, was a characteristic of Presbyterian people, and one of the glories of the Presbyterian church. A mighty bulwark it was, both of strength and beauty. For the men and women born in such homes, reared in such families, and trained under such auspices, have been among the noblest and the best the world has ever seen; their equals have been rarely found elsewhere; their superiors, never. They have been the choicest of earth and the elect of heaven. No other way has been discovered for securing such results, no other method devised for producing such characters. For this is God's way and God's method, and those thus born and nurtured are indeed the sons and daughters of the Lord Almighty, honored of men and blessed of God.

In this way, and in no other, can you, the Christian men and women of our church, secure for yourselves and for your children that which is best of all, "the blessing of the Lord," for "it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it." And with this "blessing of the Lord" you and yours will be blessed indeed, both in this world and that which is to come; happy homes and useful lives will be yours and your children's while you live, and when this life is ended you and they shall together "dwell in the house of the Lord forever." But without this, you will certainly miss and lose the best of earth, your gray hairs may be brought in sorrow to the grave, and your children may be lost.

The General Assembly would, therefore, most affectionately, but earnestly and personally, ask of all Christian fathers and mothers, husbands and wives, these questions: Is yours a truly Christian home? Have you family religion there, and is it declining? Do you daily read and meditate upon the truths of God's word and "teach them diligently to your children"? Have you the family altar? Is the Sabbath remembered and kept holy in your home and by its inmates? Do you present your children to the Lord in baptism, and are you faithful to those covenant vows? Did you really give the little ones to God, and are you training them for Christ and his service? In a word, Do you all and always in your home "seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness"? May the God of all grace give you grace to answer these questions truly to your own conscience and to your God! And may he help you to correct what is evil, and to know and do what is right and well pleasing in his sight!

Our hearts' desire and prayer to God for you all is, that yours may be Christian homes, where God dwells and his blessing abides, where all learn together to love and follow Christ, and whence go out Christian men and women who shall faithfully "serve their generation by the will of God." And at last

" ay you rejoice, no wanderer lost,
A family in heaven."

The attention of the Treasurers of the Presbyteries is invited to the above schedule of assessments, calculated, by order of the Assembly of 1896, upon the basis of one cent for each communicant member, as shown by the statistical tables of 1902 published in these minutes. It will require full payments of the above assessment to meet the current expenses of the General Assembly.

W. A. ALEXANDER, Treasurer.

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficiency of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, 1, That the General Assembly recommend to all the churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of his great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions and decisions, as to promote his own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, 2, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.

FORMS OF BEQUEST.

"I give, devise and bequeath to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States ——— (here insert the estate devised and bequeathed) for the use and benefit of said church."

"I give and bequeath to the Trustees of the Presbyterian Committee of Publication of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia), (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the publication work of said church, which is popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church."

"I give and bequeath to the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (incorporated under the laws of the State of Tennessee), (here name the amount of the bequest), to be used for the foreign mission work of said church, which is popularly known as the Southern Presbyterian Church."

[Legacies of this kind in Mississippi are barred by the constitution of the State.]

The price of the Minutes of the General Assembly is 25 cents a copy, being less than cost. Orders should be sent to the Executive Committee of Publication, and not to the Stated Clerk.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES

ARE EARNESTLY REQUESTED:

1. To make their Annual Reports to the Assembly, viz.: (1), Statistical, as per form on preceding pages; (2), on Systematic Beneficence; (3), on Sabbath Schools; (4), Narratives; (5), On Young People's and other Societies.

2. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables.

3. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When churches do not report to Presbyteries, it is desirable that the numbers of their communicants should be inserted from their last reports.

4. To report NO FRACTIONS in the money columns.

5. To add up each column of figures with special care.

6. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolution of pastorates, organization and dissolution of churches, and the names of ministers deceased. Place a star after name of church if a manse is furnished.

7. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly as soon as they are prepared, if possible before the meeting of the Assembly. If statistical reports are not received before the Assembly adjourns, it will occasion embarrassing delay in the publication of the Minutes. Clerks should also see that the amounts due for General Assembly's assessments are promptly sent up. See page 341.

☞ Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterial Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for Statistical Reports. Get new blanks, each year, and thereby avoid confusion.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture, except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

Notify the Stated Clerk of General Assembly when a change is made in the clerkship of your Presbytery.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly, through its Stated Clerk, (1), of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2), by the 1st of May in each year, of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies. It is not required that Synodical Narratives or statistical reports prepared by Synod be sent to the Assembly. They are simply for Synodical record. Notify the Stated Clerk of the Assembly when change is made in the clerkship of Synod.
